

A. T. BRUCE CO.,
COTTON FACTORS AND GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
NO. 166 PEARL STREET,

New York, May 14th 1867

Chas Carr Esq

Warta Dear Sir, Agreeable with your instructions we have this day sold for you

(E C) 65 Bales Cotton at 26¢

" 76 " " 25½¢

You will recollect one lot looked slightly better than the other when we showed you the samples in the Broker's office

Liverpool Market is ¼¢ better to day but as we are nearly two Cents above them in price the Exporters do not take hold and the sales are principally to speculators which is not healthy, as it is still retained on the market, the prices we obtained were very full for the day and better than we have been able to get at any time since you ordered. Sold the grade in good ordinary, we expect to get four Bay Ship² per Sch Oregon,

Yours Truly
