E. C. BEDDINGFIELD, Sec'y,
RALEIGH, N. C.

North Carolina Farmers' State Alliance,

Raleigh, N. C., April 26, 1890.

Dear Bro. Carr:

I have not rec'd any fee or information in regard to the charter of Mayo's Alliance, divided from No. 1565. Will send them blank organizer's report & information about fee.

I only send you half the quantity of paper & envelopes you order as it is inferior & I will have a better quality when this is gone.

15 new Charters issued this week. The Demands are being satisfied in a hurry. Every mail brings notifications from every section of the state. Some slight objection to 7th National Demand.

Polk's speech will be in the Progressive Farmer next week.

Truly & fraternally

E. C. Beddingfield,
