

Raleigh. Decr 27th 1889

Elies Carr Esq

My dear Sir.

I have received the grammar for which I give you sincere thanks. It is a highly ingenious and elegant work, worthy of the incomparable
subject.

The letters I think of them = by clever but no one could believe them genuine. Not professed = by from Lord Bacon
is full of Baconian

politics which I doubt not you have noted.

in no one familiar with Bacon's Essay could fail to do.

With high respect, believe me

Truly yours

Joseph M. Atkinson

Cory of Jamestown Conn - recommends W.H. Smith
as Lecturer -