Hon Elias Carr

Pres. N.C. F.S.A

Dear Sir & Bro

Are

members of Sub. Alliances not "clear on the books" entitled to representation in the County Alliance?

For instance, if a Sub. Alliance has sixty members - forty males & twenty females: ten males paid no dues last quarter, is the Alliance entitled to six delegates or only five in the County Alliance?

Is a Sub. Alliance judge of its own members?

For instance, if a member of the Order is reported to the County

Not entitled

Sub. only

Alliance as ineligible, is the Sub or the County Alliance to be the judge. - If the Sub Alliance does not try the member, or judges him eligible what shall the County Alliance do?

When the Grange was organized the Deputies were not particular who became members, consequently material was admitted that proved detrimental, so it was with our organizers in planting the Alliance is ~~prospering~~ and although the Alliance is prospering with us we try to guard well the doors.

Soliciting an early reply I am fraternally yours

N.B. Whitfield
