

Office of Secy. Clay A.,
Hayesville N.C.,

Oct 28 1891

Col. L. L. Polk. Secy. N.C. & S.A.

Dear Bro. Secy.

I desire - for the benefit of the Clay Co. F.A. - information on the following cases - To wit:

A young man - a merchant in the town of Hayesville, desires to join the Farmers Alliance together with his wife the circumstances are these He was born on the farm but some time ago began merchandising Agents of the Co. A. connected with him to
for the present
remains at side-

to & whether they act as auxiliaries or and prices, and at a late meeting they have adopted him for another year his business with the Alliance is under the supervision of the Board of Trade Agents. He is honest, truthful, industrious & is in hearty cooperation & sympathy with the Farmers Alliance. The Alliance is ready to receive him if he can join and await instructions from you.

Q. Can a farmer engage in selling Sewing Machines through the winter without becoming ineligible?

A. Is the acknowledged agent of a great corporation such as the Reaper works membership.

I dispense of a Farmers Alliance that over is received to late to incorporate with my quarterly report to your office?

Please answer and
oblige yours fraternally & truly,

E. L. Curtis,

Secy. Clay Co.

Mo. A.

Bro. Pres:- Please answer
the above, except the 4th question.

S. L. D.