

Chapter 100

Tashtville, Tash Co.,
North Carolina,
Nov. 23, 1889.

Mr. Elias Carr,
Pres. of N. C. State Alliance
Barboro, N. C.

Dear Sir & Bro,

The Atlantic Alliance No 662, has so many members in it that it has become unruly, and a part of the members have decided that they would form new lodge. It was a vote in the Alliance and it ^{was} unanimous carried. We write that you will

a new charter. There was ten of the members in the Atlantic Alliance who are willing to move to a new Alliance.

Hoping that I may
hear from you soon,
and that you may favor us by granting us a new charter.

I remain yours Fraternally
G. H. Langley
