How Dear Care.

Rd. Sparta. N.C.

DEAR SIR:

The proprietors of the Grand Pacific Hotel of this city, Messrs. Drake, Parker & Co., having tendered a suitable room at their hotel for use as an office and for meeting purposes of the WORLD'S EXPOSITION NATIONAL COMMISSION, as also for use as headquarters of the Commission, until such time as the organization of the Commission may be perfected and arrangements made for permanent headquarters for the use of the Commission and its officers, I respectfully notify you that you will receive due notice of the first meeting of the NATIONAL COMMISSION at these headquarters.

Kindly advise me a reasonable time in advance of your arrival at Chicago, in order that suitable apartments may be reserved and ready for you upon arrival.

Please acknowledge receipt.

Yours very truly,

Edmund M. Smith

Acting Sergeant-at-Arms.
