Older Spartan N.C.

Dear Sir

Please allow me to ask of you a few questions concerning the duty of Farmers Alliance is the alliance responsible for the contracts of its business agent when he sends the stamp & seal of his alliance for goods or other articles of trade if so please give me as I am a member of alliance such instructions as you are permitted to give as the Business agent of Barnwell alliance of Craven Co. N.C. has ordered goods of mine & then shipped them back & I am charged with the freight both over ways incurring a Bill of cost of sum $11.75 etc after acknowledging that the goods was all right & I have been told by other parties who are members of alliance that his alliance is bound to see that such contracts are duly settled & if he had not of sent the stamp and seal of his alliance I would not of sent him the goods as it was on the faith and credit of said stamp & seal that induce me to fill the order &

Please give me your decision on this transaction before I further proceed let me hear at once from you Yours Truly -

Wm. C. Turner
