W. S. BARNES, Secretary,
RALEIGH, N. C.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE,

North Carolina Farmers' State Alliance

Raleigh, N. C., May 12, 1891

Bro Carr.

Enclosed find check for $5.42 ^{which} I ought to have sent last week but Brother Allen came in ~~and~~ was in a great hurry and it was overlooked. I sent you a statement of Brother Woods' account as per bill in office here which I hope was satisfactory - Please sign the ~~within~~ receipt and return to me which I will hold as ^{such} payment of our National dues to Bro Turner.

Brother Polk is here also Ramsey. Bro P. leaves for Washington City today. He has been worried about the stand the Progressive Farmer has been taking for the past month and says it has to change and a beginning was made last week. Nothing of special importance at present. Think now that Col P. sees what is to be done here, all will be well as he intends to give the Prog. Far. more of his personal attention - General Cox's memorial address yesterday is complimented very highly.

Yours fraternally
W. S. Barnes
