

Charlotte N.C.

June 10, 1892.

Mr. Elias Carr,

Dear Sir:—

In reply to your letter asking me to suggest a chairman of our Executive Committee, permit me to say, after reflecting on the matter I believe that Gov. James is the most suitable man for that position. I hope this suggestion meets your approval. I am very anxious to see you

and consult about our campaign, and am
ready to meet you at
any time and place
that may accord with your wishes. I am satisfied that we can win and that by consultation we may be able to agree upon
such a plan that will reconcile all

fastidious of our party
There are but few
dissatisfied old deas-
crats in this community and your presence on the steamer will contribute much to
change their opinions
about our ticket. You will recollect when I said to you on the 2th May about Dr. Sanderlin will to wish he will for you and Mr. Scarborough to write to him about this matter? He is in our County at this time

and will be tendered
a nomination as an independent candidate
for Auditor which he will refuse, so I am informed. I regard him
as a power on the stump,
and we ought to use him and reward him. I write to you on this subject
because I regard it as a matter of great importance. As to the nomination of Cleveland

I agree with you that it will be most unfortunate. I have talked against it in every way that I could. I hope
North Carolina will
not believe that they will. I must repeat
to you what I said
when I met you in Charlotte, I regard your nomination as the wisest

that could have been made by our Commu-
tion, and I am certain

Can you not come to see me in Charleston
at your earliest Convenience and let us have a free and full talk about the situation?

I mean this invitation
and hope you will accept it. Please appoint a time when you can

Come.

Yours sincerely and
respectfully
J. J. Osborn.

I mean by my invitation that you will be my guest at my home.
