

FURNISHES Congressional,
Departmental,
Political,
Railway and Commercial

NEWS for the press of all parts of U. S.

Hutchins
J. M. Hines,

Special Press Correspondent,

~~Corcoran~~ Building.

Washington, D. C.

address
Hutchins Building
Room 41.

The Times

MORNING, EVENING, SUNDAY AND WEEKLY.
OFFICE OF WEEKLY EDITION.

STILSON HUTCHINS, PROPRIETOR.
JOHN H. OBERLY, EDITOR WEEKLY.

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

[Cold Sparta, N.C., Jan. 23, 1899]

55 10

1 21

1899

Hon Elias Carr

Raleigh N.C. Dear General.

Some years ago you kindly furnished me some data about the family and military record of my great grand father James Johnson.
Before I had used the matter it was consumed with other papers by fire. Will you oblige me by giving a full history of ^{this} family ~~of~~
and military service and rank during the

The Times

MORNING, EVENING, SUNDAY AND WEEKLY.

OFFICE OF WEEKLY EDITION.

STILSON HUTCHINS, PROPRIETOR.

JOHN H. OBERLY, EDITOR WEEKLY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 189 .

American revolution. If there is any documents furnished by the state, relating to North Carolina troops, during that period. Will you please inform me, how to secure the same. I am engaged to write a number of articles for a leading
"European Journal" on some of the heroes of U.S.
N.C. & S.C. during the revolution. I feel greatly obliged if you will assist me in securing the information as above indicated. Yours truly
J M Hines