Dear Father,

Yours duly recd, I note your injunction "to bundle up & come out as soon as you can,"
If it is a matter of importance, why, of course, but we have just concluded arrangements for a run to Nova Scotia the latter part of this month, & thence to Raleigh, but if you wish, we will defer it, It is exceedingly hot, & Mattie has already begun to feel it, suffering, (as I tell her) with the old fashion nigger complaint, "wid a sort er misery, an uneasy feelin in de haide", Regret to hear that you have had such experience ^{with your} chefs, but there is one consolation, you don't have to pay them $15,000 per annum, they have been quite fortunate recently in this respect, our gastronomic director, though a little more fuliginous than most city daughters of Ham, is clean, conscientious & a first rate manipulator of frying pan & skillet, as a cook under a roof is worth any number scattered through the alleys of a big town, we think we shall keep her all through the summer,

Mattie, Eleanor's T.T and Muehl Whit's Mrs Switchy join me in much love to you all,

hastily & affly

Am glad to learn that you are getting on so nicely,

William K. Carr.
