

The Atlantic

B. L. Perry, Proprietor.

Accommodations for 1000 Guests.

Morehead City, N. C., May 11 1894

Mr Elias Carr.

My dear Sir,

Several parties went out yesterday and caught a great many mackerel and Croaker. I didn't write you, because of prospect of change of weather, which took place today.

You can safely rely on going fishing next week, though I will write you the day before. You will please answer, when I write. So I can notify Mr Chadwick -

Yrs Truly
B. L. Perry