

J. A. Brockett Southern PINES

N. C. * AT Y. M. C. a. build 'g

Bridge-PORT CO ru

May 14 / 94

To his Excellency The Governor of The State of North Carolina.

Very Honourable Sir :

I take very great pleasure in informing you that it was my privilege and pleasure to address a large and cultured audience of the best white in the Town of Fairfield Conn last evening.

Place First Christ Church Congregational.
The South its relation to the North and and to the Negro.

I trust that the reports which I forward to your excellency will meet your approval. To night I have the honor of addressing the Gentlemen of the Board of Trade of this City.

My address will not cover over 20. minutes. Simply opening the way.
I am to return here about the

(2)
19th of June to deliver a special address before the same body of Gentlemen.

I shall speak upon the South its wonderful progress, Minerals Ores Coals Stone Lumber Fisheries and Agriculture.

Is there not some place which your excellency or your associates may devise whereby I may make my talk more effective than mere representation? to offer some propositions to the Board of Trade in an official manner inviting them to send a number of their representatives to our State then to be received by the Raleigh Board of Trade and by some one of the State officials or some member of your staff or both.
I shall not magnify our advantages but shall state facts which any intelligent North Carolinian can readily verify

(3)

God bless and prosper your administration.

If nothing more is done a crowning act is your appointment of The Honourable Thos Jarvis successor to The lamented Senator Vance I shall return on the 24th Inst

Your Humble and most Obedient Servant Joshua C. Brockett

To his Excellency Elias Carr

Governor of The

State of North Carolina

J. A. Brockett
Southey Pine