THOS. J. JARVIS.

ALEX. L. BLOW.

—OFFICE OF—JARVIS & BLOW,
ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW.

Greenville, N. C., May 15th 1896.

His Excellency

Mr. Elias Carr

Governor of N.C.

Dear Sir.

Last night's mail brought me the enclosed letter from my old friend Buck Blackwell. I do not know what else to do with it but to forward it to you. Of course I know nothing of the case and I will not presume to make a request of or a suggestion to you further than say that if you have not already done so to see if Mr Blackwell himself has not been imposed upon and made to believe statements which are not true. If the facts are as he states them then the man is not guilty and he ought not to be held in prison. In this I am sure you will agree with me.

I am

my truly yours

Thos. J. Jarvis
