

Jarvis & Blow,

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW.

Greenville, N. C. Dec. 30th 1897.

Elias Carr Esq.

My Dear Sir.

I have seen Col Lugg and on Saturday he promised to send you a draft on a man named Kearni who lives in your vicinity and who Lugg says owes him.
I do not know that he will do it but he was positive in his promise to do so.

I do hope our Representatives in Congress will at least make an effort to bring to the attention of the Country the scarcity of money. It is apparent, it seems to me, that something must be done and it is to be regretted that we have not a shining man in Congress from Eastern North Carolina who is in sympathy with the people and who has the courage and industry to make a fight for the people. But I did not intend to have anything to say about public affairs when I began and I beg pardon for over this brief allusion to the subject

With best wishes for the coming year I am

Very truly yours.

Wm. J. Davis
