

She was getting well,
but this morning she
was much worse and
has been sick all
day. There is I fear
no hope for her now.
I was with her all
night and all day.
But tonight her cough
increased and her
holiday has been
cannot sleep. In the evening she was slept. On the 1st trying to sleep, and
nothing better, she is

My dear Mr Carr,
Your letter was
received by me only
a day or two ago - it
has not been forwarded
to Portsmouth, then
returned to Jamaica
hence the long delay.
It is very kind of
you to offer me
prices so much for nothing, and I appreciate very much your thought. I was, when I had been before, as he will too with being about ten

A lovely little baby, her name is Helen Elsie.
I wish you could have
seen her, she was so
pretty, but has wasted
away to a little shadow
since she has been sick. What is it you
have been hearing
about me? I expect a
portion may be true.
I have thought several
times of keeping my journal, I don't

for getting it, and intend ed telling you of my unpleasant trip. I
leaves at the first
opportunity, and came
down Sunday, and
left this morning. I suppose the tales I hear
of you are not as true,
if they are, from my
heart. I wish you as much happiness, and
expect to have in the
my years to come,
I hope some time
when you find it

convenient, you will
come down, and of
us will be glad to see you - I am a fine
net her trip to collect,
and we went to Cal-
cuth about the 1st of Sept.
for about six weeks - With kindest wishes, and
thanking you for your interest in Boston,
I am

Sincerely,
Charlotte Bryan Jones,
