

THE SALISBURY LIQUOR COMPANY,

(Successors to the J. B. Lanier Co.)

DISTILLERS, JOBBERS and RECTIFIERS

OF PURE N. C. WHISKY AND BRANDY.

Salisbury, N. C., Dec 3. 1895

Hon Elias Carr
Raleigh N.C.

Dear Sir,

Your favor of yesterday
reedy enclosing Chk for $11.88 in payment in full of bill of Nov 27th. For which please accept thanks.

We also note your remarks concerning the Whiskey we sent you, viz: "It is unlike the two former pkgs bought of you. It is lighter in color and sweeter in taste &c."

Now, my dear Sir, it is the same Whiskey — out of the same lot of Whiskey and if one pkg was any better than another we have not been able to discover it.

As to the color, you may put up 10 bbls. Whiskey, white & new, in promiscuous second hand pkgs

THE SALISBURY LIQUOR COMPANY,

(Successors to the J. B. Lanier Co.)

DISTILLERS, JOBBERS and RECTIFIERS

OF PURE N. C. WHISKY AND BRANDY.

Salisbury, N. C., 189

as this lot of Whisky was, and at the end of several years sample them (and you will find some deeply colored, some medium & some slightly so.) Scarcely any two the same shade.

Of the three pkgs sent you if one was any better than another, we do not know which one it was. We can consider them all just alike.

Yrs truly

The Salisbury Liquor Co.

By W. L. Rankin, Manager

P. S.

We can furnish you a mighty good corn whisky - it is capital - 2 years old at $1.75. The extra old good (with which you are familiar) is running pretty low now, not much of it left.