

A.—Flowing well from strata of the Black Creek formation at Lumberton, Robeson County, N. C. This was the first flowing well obtained in this community.

B.—Flowing well from strata of the Black Creek formation at National Cotton Mills, $1\frac{1}{4}$ miles west of Lumberton, N. C. This is one of 15 wells supplying water for domestic purposes to the cotton mill employees.