

The Reflector is prepared to do all work of this line

NEATLY, QUICKLY, IN BEST STYLE.

Plenty of new material and the best quality of Stationery.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR.

D. J. WHICHARD, Editor and Owner

TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION.

TERMS: $1.00 per Year, in Advance.

VOL. XIV.

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1895.

NO. 33

You Need The Reflector this year It will give the news every week for $1 a year.

STATE NEWS.

Record of Matters of General Interest

The convocation of Wilmington will meet in Kingston September 5, 6 and 8

The little dog fed has struck Raleigh and four pups bring $10 easily.

Raleigh physicians are sending their typhoid fever patients to the city hospital.

The Populist clerk of Cumberland county last week appointed a negro justice of the peace.

Ex-Judge D. L. Rassel drew a revolver on F. B. Rice at Wilmington and tried to shoot him.

The statement is made that since the 10th of June 7267 excursionists have gone to Asheville.

The Gazette says 14,100 stamps in the Washington postoffice were ruined by the humidity of the atmosphere.

Miss Annie Faison, of Garysburg, while playing with a supposed unloaded pistol, shot herself through the arm.

At Bay Creek church, Pamlico county, about a week ago, Mr. Geo. Wheelington knelt to pray and died while in an attitude of prayer.

A Concord dog got into a pan of yeast and ate heartily of it. Within a few hours he had swelled to almost double his natural size; then he gave up his ghost.

The town of Clinton votes a school tax of 50 cents on the $100 valuation of property, and $1.50 on each poll. This is the heaviest school tax ever voted in North Carolina.

Mr. H. A. Kirman, of Ilekery Point, has lost nearly 300 chickens in two weeks with cholera. He has also lost 60 hogs.—Washington Gazette.

The apple crop in the mountains in the Western part of the State is this year immense. They have retailed at Mt. Airy as low as 10 cents a bushel.

It is stated that "Miss Mae Christen was married in bloomers at Chicago, Tuesday." A woman who spells her first name that way may be expected to do something extraordinary almost any minute.—Charlotte Observer.

About 225 brandy distillers have been registered in the county so far. It would appear that the supply of liver regulator will be abundant for winter use, splinter bites, and such other calamities, to which the human flesh is heir.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

A 16-year-old girl in Montgomery county, Tennessee, eloped with a young man whom her parents had forbidden to visit her and they were married. The father of the girl pursued them and killed her husband.

John R. Gentry, the famous North Carolina race horse, greatly disappointed his admirers and backers by his defeat at the Chicago races on Thursday. Joe Patchen easily won three straight heats from Gentry, making the race a one-sided affair.

Wilson Caiders, just over the line in Alexander, comes out with a rattlesnake that's hard to beat, says the Wakeboro Chronicle. He killed it last week near his house, and it required three shots to do it. The rattler was 37 rattles and was 8 feet long. The snake's hide was stuffed, and to do this it required one bushel, one peck and one gallon of bran.

There seems to be a species of pestiferous bug in Berryhill township. No vegetable is too delicate or too coarse for it to destroy, but cabbage seems to be its favorite. Numbers of fine cabbage are being destroyed by the vermin. Some kind of an epidemic has struck the peaches, as they are fast rotting away.—Charlotte Observer.

$100 Reward, $100. The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one druggist in this State who is able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh, Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. This proprietary has its office at 109 N. Third St., Philadelphia, Pa. Sole agents for all the States, F. J. CENESEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Address, F. J. CENESEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists.

The Negro.

The North Carolina University Magazine the life and character of "Wilson Caldwell," by Prof. K. P. Battle, LL. D., of which the significance lay in the fact that the subject of the sketch is still living, and that he is the long faithful colored janitor of the University. The article has been reprinted separately. Few white janitors, we may be sure, have this honor.

The above extract is from the New York Nation. Northern people are beginning to see that the Southern white man has a kindly feeling toward the negro. We doubt if anywhere on earth as much affection has existed between two races so widely separated by nature. But unluckily the negro has been led astray by bad men of both races. The future of the negro depends upon the restoration of the old time cordial affection between him and the white man. The negro a laborer in the State has taxed himself for negro education, have given the negro equal privileges on cars and steam boats, have erected asylums for the afflicted of his race, have protected him as a voter and a juror, and have been just to him as a laborer. What has the negro done in return?

The mass of them have voted steadily against every interest of the State, have made rascally, possibly in legislation, have shown little appreciation of right and favors already granted, have followed bad men, ignorant men, sorry men instead of true and patriotic men.

The path for the negro is plain. Let him follow good men, for they alone will do him justice.

Such binders, closely related to crimes, as the surrounding of the jail in Winston on Sunday night to destroy the good feeling and cordial relations that exist between the whites and the best element of the negroes in the State.—Raleigh News and Observer.

By the way, we may lay many things at the door of the Negro, but we should not overlook the service he has done as a bulwark against immigration. Negro labor has kept out alien labor, has kept out discontent and strikes and anarchy.

If we will educate the Negro properly, teaching him his station, pointing him to wholesome ideals and arousing worthy ambitions, he will continue to be the safeguard in lower laboring circles in the South. And we ought to stand by him in the competition that Italians, Irish, Poles, etc., will bring upon him, because he is better suited to our climate, able to do more work of more tractable, and possessed of more of the spirit of our institutions than they. Take the Negro out of the hands of designing politicians and he is more desirable than any alien of the lower grade. Education will do this; education and proper but firm and uncompromising treatment. Biblical Recorder.

Up in Michigan a Sunday school superintendent, at the close of an address on the creation which he was sure he had kept within the comprehension of the least scholars, smilingly invited questions. A tiny boy, with a white, oyster face and large brown, at once held up his hand. "Please sir, why was Adam never a baby?" The superintendent coughed in some doubt as to what answer to give, but a little girl of nine, the eldest of several brothers and sisters, came promptly to his aid. "There was nobody to nurse him!"

"The New Orleans Picayune thinks a theological seminary would have turned that over for a week, with no better result.

"I don't believe," writes Bill Arp, "that the ladies lace as much as they used to. I haven't seen but one girl in a long time who excited my fears, and I am still concerned for fear she will break in two, right at the coupling, or become uncoupled some of these days. A good healthy-sized waist is absolutely necessary to a healthy wife, and nobody but an idiot would marry a woman with a dirt dauber body. Nevertheless I like to see women fixed up nice with corsets on. In fact, with anything on save Mother Hubbard's."

A man built a handsome residence but failed to provide an entrance. Very foolish of him; but not more so than for a man to fit up an expensive store and then neglect to provide for the entrance of business by advertising.—Printers Ink.

On the board fences in the vicinity of nearly every country town may be read in half obliterated letters of paint the names of the business firms of that community, now passed away, who thought they knew a better way to advertise than in the newspapers.—Printers Ink.

There is nothing manly, my dear boys, in making light of women. For your mother's sake, honor the sex. Never use a lady's name in an improper place, or at an improper time, or in an improper company. Never make assertions about her that you think are untrue, allusions that you feel she herself would blush to hear. When you meet with men who do not scruple to make use of a woman's name in a reckless and unprincipled manner, shun them, for they are the very worst members of the community—men lost to every sense of honor, every feeling of humanity. Many a good and worthy woman's character has been forever ruined and heart broken by a lie, concocted by an unprincipled villain, but believed by people of good principles, who are too ready to believe slander or condemn imprudence as crime. The smallest thing derogatory to a woman's character will fly on the wings of the wind, and magnify as it circulates, until its monstrous weight crushes the poor unconscious victim. Remember this if you are tempted to repeat or listen to a scandalous story.

In a recent lengthy editorial of the Washington Post expressed a wish to see the whipping-post re-established upon a vigorous and permanent basis. The idea is sickening, no doubt, to latter-day humanitarians but it is sound, thorough and thorough. The whipping post is one of the greatest conservators of the peace and good order of society that the human mind has ever devised, and we would be delighted to see it re-established in North Carolina upon the basis that the Post suggests: vigorous and permanent. It is not agreeable, perhaps, to be fastened up and given thirty-nine lashes on the bare back but this treatment need not be visited upon any except those who need it, and such as receive it, they do say, never forget it. It was a highly useful institution when we had it, the old whipping post was.—Charlotte Observer.

There seems to be too much of a spirit among farmers to take up with strangers going through the county, who offer them inducements in the way of trade. They seem to be suspicious of men who are doing business in town; men who are responsible. The business men of the town are not robbers who want your money for nothing. The people of the country must not think that a man can do business for nothing and long profits. Competition in trade is such in these days that big profits are impossible. Stick to the business men of your own vicinity and they will stick to you.—Durham Sun.

We Played a Small Game. Little game Quite hot, Alice same Jack Pot. Went around 3 trips—Jolly sound $ chips! I played, I bet a V; (Had three) Hands showed; Cards talked; He rode; I walked!

In a letter to the author of a book dealing with the relations between science and religion, thanking him for a copy of his work, Mr. Gladstone expresses gratitude to science for all it has done and is doing, but says that Christianity does not need it, and is as able as ever to hold its ground.

A man built a handsome residence but failed to provide an entrance. Very foolish of him; but not more so than for a man to fit up an expensive store and then neglect to provide for the entrance of business by advertising.—Printers Ink.

On the board fences in the vicinity of nearly every country town may be read in half obliterated letters of paint the names of the business firms of that community, now passed away, who thought they knew a better way to advertise than in the newspapers.—Printers Ink.

There is nothing manly, my dear boys, in making light of women. For your mother's sake, honor the sex. Never use a lady's name in an improper place, or at an improper time, or in an improper company. Never make assertions about her that you think are untrue, allusions that you feel she herself would blush to hear. When you meet with men who do not scruple to make use of a woman's name in a reckless and unprincipled manner, shun them, for they are the very worst members of the community—men lost to every sense of honor, every feeling of humanity. Many a good and worthy woman's character has been forever ruined and heart broken by a lie, concocted by an unprincipled villain, but believed by people of good principles, who are too ready to believe slander or condemn imprudence as crime. The smallest thing derogatory to a woman's character will fly on the wings of the wind, and magnify as it circulates, until its monstrous weight crushes the poor unconscious victim. Remember this if you are tempted to repeat or listen to a scandalous story.

In a recent lengthy editorial of the Washington Post expressed a wish to see the whipping-post re-established upon a vigorous and permanent basis. The idea is sickening, no doubt, to latter-day humanitarians but it is sound, thorough and thorough. The whipping post is one of the greatest conservators of the peace and good order of society that the human mind has ever devised, and we would be delighted to see it re-established in North Carolina upon the basis that the Post suggests: vigorous and permanent. It is not agreeable, perhaps, to be fastened up and given thirty-nine lashes on the bare back but this treatment need not be visited upon any except those who need it, and such as receive it, they do say, never forget it. It was a highly useful institution when we had it, the old whipping post was.—Charlotte Observer.

There seems to be too much of a spirit among farmers to take up with strangers going through the county, who offer them inducements in the way of trade. They seem to be suspicious of men who are doing business in town; men who are responsible. The business men of the town are not robbers who want your money for nothing. The people of the country must not think that a man can do business for nothing and long profits. Competition in trade is such in these days that big profits are impossible. Stick to the business men of your own vicinity and they will stick to you.—Durham Sun.

We Played a Small Game. Little game Quite hot, Alice same Jack Pot. Went around 3 trips—Jolly sound $ chips! I played, I bet a V; (Had three) Hands showed; Cards talked; He rode; I walked!

In a letter to the author of a book dealing with the relations between science and religion, thanking him for a copy of his work, Mr. Gladstone expresses gratitude to science for all it has done and is doing, but says that Christianity does not need it, and is as able as ever to hold its ground.

A man built a handsome residence but failed to provide an entrance. Very foolish of him; but not more so than for a man to fit up an expensive store and then neglect to provide for the entrance of business by advertising.—Printers Ink.

On the board fences in the vicinity of nearly every country town may be read in half obliterated letters of paint the names of the business firms of that community, now passed away, who thought they knew a better way to advertise than in the newspapers.—Printers Ink.

There is nothing manly, my dear boys, in making light of women. For your mother's sake, honor the sex. Never use a lady's name in an improper place, or at an improper time, or in an improper company. Never make assertions about her that you think are untrue, allusions that you feel she herself would blush to hear. When you meet with men who do not scruple to make use of a woman's name in a reckless and unprincipled manner, shun them, for they are the very worst members of the community—men lost to every sense of honor, every feeling of humanity. Many a good and worthy woman's character has been forever ruined and heart broken by a lie, concocted by an unprincipled villain, but believed by people of good principles, who are too ready to believe slander or condemn imprudence as crime. The smallest thing derogatory to a woman's character will fly on the wings of the wind, and magnify as it circulates, until its monstrous weight crushes the poor unconscious victim. Remember this if you are tempted to repeat or listen to a scandalous story.

In a recent lengthy editorial of the Washington Post expressed a wish to see the whipping-post re-established upon a vigorous and permanent basis. The idea is sickening, no doubt, to latter-day humanitarians but it is sound, thorough and thorough. The whipping post is one of the greatest conservators of the peace and good order of society that the human mind has ever devised, and we would be delighted to see it re-established in North Carolina upon the basis that the Post suggests: vigorous and permanent. It is not agreeable, perhaps, to be fastened up and given thirty-nine lashes on the bare back but this treatment need not be visited upon any except those who need it, and such as receive it, they do say, never forget it. It was a highly useful institution when we had it, the old whipping post was.—Charlotte Observer.

There seems to be too much of a spirit among farmers to take up with strangers going through the county, who offer them inducements in the way of trade. They seem to be suspicious of men who are doing business in town; men who are responsible. The business men of the town are not robbers who want your money for nothing. The people of the country must not think that a man can do business for nothing and long profits. Competition in trade is such in these days that big profits are impossible. Stick to the business men of your own vicinity and they will stick to you.—Durham Sun.

We Played a Small Game. Little game Quite hot, Alice same Jack Pot. Went around 3 trips—Jolly sound $ chips! I played, I bet a V; (Had three) Hands showed; Cards talked; He rode; I walked!

In a letter to the author of a book dealing with the relations between science and religion, thanking him for a copy of his work, Mr. Gladstone expresses gratitude to science for all it has done and is doing, but says that Christianity does not need it, and is as able as ever to hold its ground.

A man built a handsome residence but failed to provide an entrance. Very foolish of him; but not more so than for a man to fit up an expensive store and then neglect to provide for the entrance of business by advertising.—Printers Ink.

On the board fences in the vicinity of nearly every country town may be read in half obliterated letters of paint the names of the business firms of that community, now passed away, who thought they knew a better way to advertise than in the newspapers.—Printers Ink.

There is nothing manly, my dear boys, in making light of women. For your mother's sake, honor the sex. Never use a lady's name in an improper place, or at an improper time, or in an improper company. Never make assertions about her that you think are untrue, allusions that you feel she herself would blush to hear. When you meet with men who do not scruple to make use of a woman's name in a reckless and unprincipled manner, shun them, for they are the very worst members of the community—men lost to every sense of honor, every feeling of humanity. Many a good and worthy woman's character has been forever ruined and heart broken by a lie, concocted by an unprincipled villain, but believed by people of good principles, who are too ready to believe slander or condemn imprudence as crime. The smallest thing derogatory to a woman's character will fly on the wings of the wind, and magnify as it circulates, until its monstrous weight crushes the poor unconscious victim. Remember this if you are tempted to repeat or listen to a scandalous story.

In a recent lengthy editorial of the Washington Post expressed a wish to see the whipping-post re-established upon a vigorous and permanent basis. The idea is sickening, no doubt, to latter-day humanitarians but it is sound, thorough and thorough. The whipping post is one of the greatest conservators of the peace and good order of society that the human mind has ever devised, and we would be delighted to see it re-established in North Carolina upon the basis that the Post suggests: vigorous and permanent. It is not agreeable, perhaps, to be fastened up and given thirty-nine lashes on the bare back but this treatment need not be visited upon any except those who need it, and such as receive it, they do say, never forget it. It was a highly useful institution when we had it, the old whipping post was.—Charlotte Observer.

There seems to be too much of a spirit among farmers to take up with strangers going through the county, who offer them inducements in the way of trade. They seem to be suspicious of men who are doing business in town; men who are responsible. The business men of the town are not robbers who want your money for nothing. The people of the country must not think that a man can do business for nothing and long profits. Competition in trade is such in these days that big profits are impossible. Stick to the business men of your own vicinity and they will stick to you.—Durham Sun.

We Played a Small Game. Little game Quite hot, Alice same Jack Pot. Went around 3 trips—Jolly sound $ chips! I played, I bet a V; (Had three) Hands showed; Cards talked; He rode; I walked!

In a letter to the author of a book dealing with the relations between science and religion, thanking him for a copy of his work, Mr. Gladstone expresses gratitude to science for all it has done and is doing, but says that Christianity does not need it, and is as able as ever to hold its ground.

A man built a handsome residence but failed to provide an entrance. Very foolish of him; but not more so than for a man to fit up an expensive store and then neglect to provide for the entrance of business by advertising.—Printers Ink.

On the board fences in the vicinity of nearly every country town may be read in half obliterated letters of paint the names of the business firms of that community, now passed away, who thought they knew a better way to advertise than in the newspapers.—Printers Ink.

There is nothing manly, my dear boys, in making light of women. For your mother's sake, honor the sex. Never use a lady's name in an improper place, or at an improper time, or in an improper company. Never make assertions about her that you think are untrue, allusions that you feel she herself would blush to hear. When you meet with men who do not scruple to make use of a woman's name in a reckless and unprincipled manner, shun them, for they are the very worst members of the community—men lost to every sense of honor, every feeling of humanity. Many a good and worthy woman's character has been forever ruined and heart broken by a lie, concocted by an unprincipled villain, but believed by people of good principles, who are too ready to believe slander or condemn imprudence as crime. The smallest thing derogatory to a woman's character will fly on the wings of the wind, and magnify as it circulates, until its monstrous weight crushes the poor unconscious victim. Remember this if you are tempted to repeat or listen to a scandalous story.

In a recent lengthy editorial of the Washington Post expressed a wish to see the whipping-post re-established upon a vigorous and permanent basis. The idea is sickening, no doubt, to latter-day humanitarians but it is sound, thorough and thorough. The whipping post is one of the greatest conservators of the peace and good order of society that the human mind has ever devised, and we would be delighted to see it re-established in North Carolina upon the basis that the Post suggests: vigorous and permanent. It is not agreeable, perhaps, to be fastened up and given thirty-nine lashes on the bare back but this treatment need not be visited upon any except those who need it, and such as receive it, they do say, never forget it. It was a highly useful institution when we had it, the old whipping post was.—Charlotte Observer.

There seems to be too much of a spirit among farmers to take up with strangers going through the county, who offer them inducements in the way of trade. They seem to be suspicious of men who are doing business in town; men who are responsible. The business men of the town are not robbers who want your money for nothing. The people of the country must not think that a man can do business for nothing and long profits. Competition in trade is such in these days that big profits are impossible. Stick to the business men of your own vicinity and they will stick to you.—Durham Sun.

We Played a Small Game. Little game Quite hot, Alice same Jack Pot. Went around 3 trips—Jolly sound $ chips! I played, I bet a V; (Had three) Hands showed; Cards talked; He rode; I walked!

In a letter to the author of a book dealing with the relations between science and religion, thanking him for a copy of his work, Mr. Gladstone expresses gratitude to science for all it has done and is doing, but says that Christianity does not need it, and is as able as ever to hold its ground.

A man built a handsome residence but failed to provide an entrance. Very foolish of him; but not more so than for a man to fit up an expensive store and then neglect to provide for the entrance of business by advertising.—Printers Ink.

On the board fences in the vicinity of nearly every country town may be read in half obliterated letters of paint the names of the business firms of that community, now passed away, who thought they knew a better way to advertise than in the newspapers.—Printers Ink.

There is nothing manly, my dear boys, in making light of women. For your mother's sake, honor the sex. Never use a lady's name in an improper place, or at an improper time, or in an improper company. Never make assertions about her that you think are untrue, allusions that you feel she herself would blush to hear. When you meet with men who do not scruple to make use of a woman's name in a reckless and unprincipled manner, shun them, for they are the very worst members of the community—men lost to every sense of honor, every feeling of humanity. Many a good and worthy woman's character has been forever ruined and heart broken by a lie, concocted by an unprincipled villain, but believed by people of good principles, who are too ready to believe slander or condemn imprudence as crime. The smallest thing derogatory to a woman's character will fly on the wings of the wind, and magnify as it circulates, until its monstrous weight crushes the poor unconscious victim. Remember this if you are tempted to repeat or listen to a scandalous story.

In a recent lengthy editorial of the Washington Post expressed a wish to see the whipping-post re-established upon a vigorous and permanent basis. The idea is sickening, no doubt, to latter-day humanitarians but it is sound, thorough and thorough. The whipping post is one of the greatest conservators of the peace and good order of society that the human mind has ever devised, and we would be delighted to see it re-established in North Carolina upon the basis that the Post suggests: vigorous and permanent. It is not agreeable, perhaps, to be fastened up and given thirty-nine lashes on the bare back but this treatment need not be visited upon any except those who need it, and such as receive it, they do say, never forget it. It was a highly useful institution when we had it, the old whipping post was.—Charlotte Observer.

There seems to be too much of a spirit among farmers to take up with strangers going through the county, who offer them inducements in the way of trade. They seem to be suspicious of men who are doing business in town; men who are responsible. The business men of the town are not robbers who want your money for nothing. The people of the country must not think that a man can do business for nothing and long profits. Competition in trade is such in these days that big profits are impossible. Stick to the business men of your own vicinity and they will stick to you.—Durham Sun.

We Played a Small Game. Little game Quite hot, Alice same Jack Pot. Went around 3 trips—Jolly sound $ chips! I played, I bet a V; (Had three) Hands showed; Cards talked; He rode; I walked!

In a letter to the author of a book dealing with the relations between science and religion, thanking him for a copy of his work, Mr. Gladstone expresses gratitude to science for all it has done and is doing, but says that Christianity does not need it, and is as able as ever to hold its ground.

A man built a handsome residence but failed to provide an entrance. Very foolish of him; but not more so than for a man to fit up an expensive store and then neglect to provide for the entrance of business by advertising.—Printers Ink.

On the board fences in the vicinity of nearly every country town may be read in half obliterated letters of paint the names of the business firms of that community, now passed away, who thought they knew a better way to advertise than in the newspapers.—Printers Ink.

There is nothing manly, my dear boys, in making light of women. For your mother's sake, honor the sex. Never use a lady's name in an improper place, or at an improper time, or in an improper company. Never make assertions about her that you think are untrue, allusions that you feel she herself would blush to hear. When you meet with men who do not scruple to make use of a woman's name in a reckless and unprincipled manner, shun them, for they are the very worst members of the community—men lost to every sense of honor, every feeling of humanity. Many a good and worthy woman's character has been forever ruined and heart broken by a lie, concocted by an unprincipled villain, but believed by people of good principles, who are too ready to believe slander or condemn imprudence as crime. The smallest thing derogatory to a woman's character will fly on the wings of the wind, and magnify as it circulates, until its monstrous weight crushes the poor unconscious victim. Remember this if you are tempted to repeat or listen to a scandalous story.

In a recent lengthy editorial of the Washington Post expressed a wish to see the whipping-post re-established upon a vigorous and permanent basis. The idea is sickening, no doubt, to latter-day humanitarians but it is sound, thorough and thorough. The whipping post is one of the greatest conservators of the peace and good order of society that the human mind has ever devised, and we would be delighted to see it re-established in North Carolina upon the basis that the Post suggests: vigorous and permanent. It is not agreeable, perhaps, to be fastened up and given thirty-nine lashes on the bare back but this treatment need not be visited upon any except those who need it, and such as receive it, they do say, never forget it. It was a highly useful institution when we had it, the old whipping post was.—Charlotte Observer.

There seems to be too much of a spirit among farmers to take up with strangers going through the county, who offer them inducements in the way of trade. They seem to be suspicious of men who are doing business in town; men who are responsible. The business men of the town are not robbers who want your money for nothing. The people of the country must not think that a man can do business for nothing and long profits. Competition in trade is such in these days that big profits are impossible. Stick to the business men of your own vicinity and they will stick to you.—Durham Sun.

We Played a Small Game. Little game Quite hot, Alice same Jack Pot. Went around 3 trips—Jolly sound $ chips! I played, I bet a V; (Had three) Hands showed; Cards talked; He rode; I walked!

In a letter to the author of a book dealing with the relations between science and religion, thanking him for a copy of his work, Mr. Gladstone expresses gratitude to science for all it has done and is doing, but says that Christianity does not need it, and is as able as ever to hold its ground.

A man built a handsome residence but failed to provide an entrance. Very foolish of him; but not more so than for a man to fit up an expensive store and then neglect to provide for the entrance of business by advertising.—Printers Ink.

On the board fences in the vicinity of nearly every country town may be read in half obliterated letters of paint the names of the business firms of that community, now passed away, who thought they knew a better way to advertise than in the newspapers.—Printers Ink.

There is nothing manly, my dear boys, in making light of women. For your mother's sake, honor the sex. Never use a lady's name in an improper place, or at an improper time, or in an improper company. Never make assertions about her that you think are untrue, allusions that you feel she herself would blush to hear. When you meet with men who do not scruple to make use of a woman's name in a reckless and unprincipled manner, shun them, for they are the very worst members of the community—men lost to every sense of honor, every feeling of humanity. Many a good and worthy woman's character has been forever ruined and heart broken by a lie, concocted by an unprincipled villain, but believed by people of good principles, who are too ready to believe slander or condemn imprudence as crime. The smallest thing derogatory to a woman's character will fly on the wings of the wind, and magnify as it circulates, until its monstrous weight crushes the poor unconscious victim. Remember this if you are tempted to repeat or listen to a scandalous story.

In a recent lengthy editorial of the Washington Post expressed a wish to see the whipping-post re-established upon a vigorous and permanent basis. The idea is sickening, no doubt, to latter-day humanitarians but it is sound, thorough and thorough. The whipping post is one of the greatest conservators of the peace and good order of society that the human mind has ever devised, and we would be delighted to see it re-established in North Carolina upon the basis that the Post suggests: vigorous and permanent. It is not agreeable, perhaps, to be fastened up and given thirty-nine lashes on the bare back but this treatment need not be visited upon any except those who need it, and such as receive it, they do say, never forget it. It was a highly useful institution when we had it, the old whipping post was.—Charlotte Observer.

There seems to be too much of a spirit among farmers to take up with strangers going through the county, who offer them inducements in the way of trade. They seem to be suspicious of men who are doing business in town; men who are responsible. The business men of the town are not robbers who want your money for nothing. The people of the country must not think that a man can do business for nothing and long profits. Competition in trade is such in these days that big profits are impossible. Stick to the business men of your own vicinity and they will stick to you.—Durham Sun.

We Played a Small Game. Little game Quite hot, Alice same Jack Pot. Went around 3 trips—Jolly sound $ chips! I played, I bet a V; (Had three) Hands showed; Cards talked; He rode; I walked!

In a letter to the author of a book dealing with the relations between science and religion, thanking him for a copy of his work, Mr. Gladstone expresses gratitude to science for all it has done and is doing, but says that Christianity does not need it, and is as able as ever to hold its ground.

A man built a handsome residence but failed to provide an entrance. Very foolish of him; but not more so than for a man to fit up an expensive store and then neglect to provide for the entrance of business by advertising.—Printers Ink.

On the board fences in the vicinity of nearly every country town may be read in half obliterated letters of paint the names of the business firms of that community, now passed away, who thought they knew a better way to advertise than in the newspapers.—Printers Ink.

There is nothing manly, my dear boys, in making light of women. For your mother's sake, honor the sex. Never use a lady's name in an improper place, or at an improper time, or in an improper company. Never make assertions about her that you think are untrue, allusions that you feel she herself would blush to hear. When you meet with men who do not scruple to make use of a woman's name in a reckless and unprincipled manner, shun them, for they are the very worst members of the community—men lost to every sense of honor, every feeling of humanity. Many a good and worthy woman's character has been forever ruined and heart broken by a lie, concocted by an unprincipled villain, but believed by people of good principles, who are too ready to believe slander or condemn imprudence as crime. The smallest thing derogatory to a woman's character will fly on the wings of the wind, and magnify as it circulates, until its monstrous weight crushes the poor unconscious victim. Remember this if you are tempted to repeat or listen to a scandalous story.

In a recent lengthy editorial of the Washington Post expressed a wish to see the whipping-post re-established upon a vigorous and permanent basis. The idea is sickening, no doubt, to latter-day humanitarians but it is sound, thorough and thorough. The whipping post is one of the greatest conservators of the peace and good order of society that the human mind has ever devised, and we would be delighted to see it re-established in North Carolina upon the basis that the Post suggests: vigorous and permanent. It is not agreeable, perhaps, to be fastened up and given thirty-nine lashes on the bare back but this treatment need not be visited upon any except those who need it, and such as receive it, they do say, never forget it. It was a highly useful institution when we had it, the old whipping post was.—Charlotte Observer.

There seems to be too much of a spirit among farmers to take up with strangers going through the county, who offer them inducements in the way of trade. They seem to be suspicious of men who are doing business in town; men who are responsible. The business men of the town are not robbers who want your money for nothing. The people of the country must not think that a man can do business for nothing and long profits. Competition in trade is such in these days that big profits are impossible. Stick to the business men of your own vicinity and they will stick to you.—Durham Sun.

We Played a Small Game. Little game Quite hot, Alice same Jack Pot. Went around 3 trips—Jolly sound $ chips! I played, I bet a V; (Had three) Hands showed; Cards talked; He rode; I walked!

In a letter to the author of a book dealing with the relations between science and religion, thanking him for a copy of his work, Mr. Gladstone expresses gratitude to science for all it has done and is doing, but says that Christianity does not need it, and is as able as ever to hold its ground.

A man built a handsome residence but failed to provide an entrance. Very foolish of him; but not more so than for a man to fit up an expensive store and then neglect to provide for the entrance of business by advertising.—Printers Ink.

On the board fences in the vicinity of nearly every country town may

THE REFLECTOR
Greenville, N. C.

R. J. WELCHARD, Editor and Proprietor

Entered at the postoffice at Greenville, N. C., as second-class matter.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 28th, 1895.

Holding up trains is still thefad away out West. The latest was in Nebraska, where an express train was blown open and looted.

The Treasury gold reserve is dwindling down close to the safety line again, and there is not much surplus above the $100,000,000 limit.

There is somewhat of a stir in Washington City over the discovery that there are irregularities in the office of the Librarian of Congress. A $35,000 shortage is reported.

Ohio Democrats at their convention in Springfield, nominated ex-Gov. J. E. Campbell by acclamation for Governor. The platform adopted by the convention embraced as its money plank the financial clause of the last National Democratic Convention.

In some sections there are men of enterprise who would make a fortune out of it if they had a chance at the fruit going to waste in North Carolina this season. What a short sighted people we are! not to be having canning factories and utilizing the abundance that Providence has placed at our doors.

Some of the sufferers by the recent big fire at Durham are having trouble in getting the insurance companies to settle their losses. There should be a law compelling prompt payment by insurance companies. When a person takes a policy with a company he should receive the protection for which he pays.

MORE ON THE BANK QUESTION.

Editor Reflector:

In your issue of Tuesday, you say editorially that the article of "X" on Saturday was construed by some one to reflect upon the present bank in Greenville. I assure those who thus construed the article that nothing was more foreign to the mind and purpose of the writer.

The present bank has done a great deal towards aiding the business prosperity in the county, but business proportions are fast growing. The tobacco market did a great deal to prosper the town and community with one warehouse. The REFLECTOR and the people generally urged the building of more warehouses, and what is the result? It is too obvious to be discussed.

Every business is more prosperous where there is competition. No one will dispute the proposition that without convenient facilities for obtaining money upon easy terms, when necessary, business enterprises of any kind are slow to spring up or to prosper quickly.

I am sure the owners of the present bank do not claim to supply the needs of the business interests of the community. The people know better. At any rate, with two or more banking institutions in the town there would be a spirited activity that would inspire sleeping industries, that would give new life to the town and development beyond the expectation of the most sanguine. Our natural resources are phenomenal, and only require active money power, with careful business judgment, and the present bank would be one of the recipients of the many developing enterprises that would follow. It is coming, and coming surely, and if our own people do not avail themselves of the opportunity, strangers will.

Money has its power in every department of life, and the stranger who comes in the field and uses his money in business matters in a business manner, will find success awaiting him.

No competition, and but little thrift or enterprise is the result. The only purpose that "X" has in arguing this matter is the general good that will follow to the community, and would not detract from the merits of any citizen or enterprise.

On Saturday, August 31st, the Baltimore Clothing Store, M. Fredlander, Proprietor, will open in the newly painted store under the Opera House, next door to the Barber Shop. See advertisement in another column.

The colored fair is in progress at Newbern this week.

IT CAME FRIDAY.

The Hundred Thousand Mark Passed.

Fridays have developed into record breakers for the Greenville tobacco market. Every day during this week the sales were good, averaging about 20,000 pounds per day the first four days, but the quantity that came in today was a surprise to everybody. Just think of it! there were 125,000 pounds of tobacco brought to Greenville. Our people never saw the like before, and it looked almost like a circus day around the warehouses.

Tobacco began coming in by day break, and when the sales started at 10 o'clock there were rows of wagons around every warehouse waiting to get in. There was more tobacco by fully 20,000 pounds than could get on the warehouse floors and it had to be stored away in the prize houses.

The Star opened the breaks with 25,000 pounds and fairly made the price hum. It sold away up yonder, and the sellers were never better pleased.

Ola Forbes rang his new bell for the second sale at the Planters, and made the nice lay out of 28,000 pounds for the buyers to bid on. It was fine, too, and he spurred them on to the very top notch.

When they struck the Eastern there was such a sea of tobacco that the boys said they had to stay themselves up with some dinner before tackling it. This excellent house just broke the record of the Greenville market. There were 700 piles on the floor which aggregated 40,000 pounds, and twenty loads more had to be stored. When a 60 feet addition was recently made to the length of this house somebody wanted to know if they ever expected to fill up so much room. But today showed. The floor was full, the drive way was full, and even the more room was needed. So much tobacco going there is sufficient proof that prices at the Eastern are all right.

The Greenville had the closing sale with 16,000 pounds. Leon Evans says that while he has not got the largest house and cannot get quite so many pounds on his floor as the others, he would like to see anybody sell for higher prices than he does. And right then the "parson" spoke a parable.

Another great thing about this big break is the prices at which tobacco sold. The REFLECTOR took particular pains to go among the farmers on every floor and ask him about prices. Not a dissatisfied man was found on the wholebreak. On the contrary we received such answers as these: "Never saw prices higher." "It is selling better than I ever knew." "Better prices were never had in Greenville than today." "I am delighted with my prices—could not ask for better." There were many other similar expressions. Please the sellers and everybody else is pleased.

Like we have said before, just watch Greenville—she is going above 5,000,000 pounds this season.

OAKLEY ITEMS.
OAKLEY, N. C., Aug. 26, 95.
Mr. R. F. Gainer went to Pae-tolus Saturday.

Mrs. J. L. Robertson spent Sunday here.

Capt. Dunn, of Wilmington, was here Friday on business.

Mr. W. A. Andrews returned to Hobgood Saturday, after spending several days here as Section Master.

MESSRS. W. E. Fleming, J. J. Rawls and others attended church at Parme, Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Moore, of near Greenville, is spending this week here with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Robertson.

Mr. J. E. Hines and wife returned home, Saturday, after spending several days in Goldsboro.

BETHEL ITEMS.
BETHEL, N. C., Aug. 26, 1895.
Mr. James Cherry, who has been visiting his father the past week, returned to Richmond Sunday.

Mr. M. O. Blount left for New York Saturday morning to purchase the fall and winter stock for the firm of Blount & Bro.

Mr. John D. Blount, of Wilmington, is spending a few days in Bethel.

Es-Superior Court Clerk, W. T. Crawford, of Wilmington, spent last Tuesday in town.

The Tobacco Department

Conducted by O. L. Joyner, Proprietor Eastern Tobacco Warehouse.

Mr. W. H. Jenkins, warehouseman of Henderson, was on our breaks today. Friday's break was just simply tremendous and outdid any sale that has ever been made in the State of new tobacco during August, the reports sent out from Wilson to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. E. W. Smith, of Rocky Mount, one of the most clever, genial and courteous gentlemen in the trade, left this morning after a brief visit here.

About 75 per cent of the crop has been out, and cures up to now have been fairly good, but a good lot of that still on the hill has taken the second growth and not much good tobacco can be cared after this week.

The Danville Journal, conservative as it usually is, predicts that this will neither be a very fine nor a very common crop, but a medium one, with right much color. From the best information that we can gather this is about the condition of the crop in Eastern Carolina.

Mr. C. W. Harvey, of Danville, Va., has come to Greenville to live and operate on this market. Greenville, and the tobacco part of it especially, always extends a hearty welcome to new comers. Mr. Watson, of Pemberton & Penn, Danville, Va., has been spending a few days on this market. He says this is the first year his company has placed any orders outside of Danville. Of course he left some business here.

Information reaches us indirectly from Capt. Pace that our article a few days ago regarding the organization of a board of trade has been read by some tobacco men, who anticipated coming to Greenville, and understood by him to refer to the organization of a tobacco board of trade here. If the reader had registered the article more closely he would have known that the article referred to a commercial board of trade, and not to a tobacco board of trade. We have here a regular organized tobacco board chartered under the State laws, and the tobacco market is governed by its laws. We have as good a tobacco board of trade as there is in the State, but we want a commercial board consisting of the representatives of business men of all professions.

A dispatch from Rocky Mount to the Raleigh News and Observer dated August 24, says, "The warehousemen here seem the most modest and least boastful of their brotherhood, for while they sell more tobacco and at the highest figures of any of the Eastern Carolina markets, they never blow their own horns." Whoop! Their horns must have been blown off, if there ever was a town blown more than the above named town, then we don't want to know it. If making the flat statement that the market sells more tobacco and at higher figures than any other eastern market is not going, in the light of all common sense and reason, we appeal to those who have a knowledge of both markets, what is it?

Quite a spirited gathering of farmers met at Mr. A. G. Cox's store, at Winterville, on last Saturday evening. Some time ago Mr. R. L. Dixon offered a watch and chain to the farmer who would bring the best one bundle sample of tobacco to Winterville and file it with him by Saturday evening, the 21st of August. The samples were there to the amount of 100. As they were brought in they were numbered and the farmer's name put on a separate piece of paper, so that the judges would not know where the tobacco they were examining. Messrs. N. H. Whitfield and O. L. Joyner were chosen to go from Greenville, and Mr. A. B. Clark was selected as the third man. The samples were all taken in a private room and there examined. Mr. W. H. Stocks had the best sample, maldonay wrappers, and was awarded the watch and chain. Then before it was known who had the next best grades Mr. A. G. Cox offered a dollar for the second best and fifty cents for the third. J. C. Beard, a colored man, curing for Mr. A. G. Cox, had the second best grade and drew the dollar, and W. B. Stocks had the third grade and got the fifty cents. There were several lots of very fine tobacco and one lot especially belonging to Mr. Stocks was the first sample of light and medium grades we have seen in a long time, but he had several cutter leaves mixed with it which so detracted from the sample that it could not be counted for a premium, as there was only one bundle.

A few days ago while in conversation with a leading tobacco-nist of this State, he asked us why it was that our people did not put in a bid for stemmages here? Said he, "you have the finest opening here for a stemmery of any eastern tobacco market, and if your people will show up the advantages that nature has given you over all the other tobacco markets in the east, you will have no trouble in getting capitalists come here and establish factories." He asked if we had a board of trade, and if our business men seemed to take any interest in trying to induce others to our town. We answered as best we could, that our people did all they could in their individual capacity but that unfortunately we had no regularly organized board. "Well," said he, "your town is too healthy and thriving, you have too much of a reputation abroad. People are making too many inquiries about your town to allow this state of affairs to continue. You should organize a board of trade at once and prepare yourselves to meet the demands that will be made upon you. It should be composed of your representative citizens and business men, so as to add strength and tone, and in a short while you will have one of the busiest little cities in the east." To all of which we assented, and told him that we thought in a short while we would have a board of trade organized. Since then we have talked with a few of our business men and they all say they will give it their support and do all they can to encourage and maintain it. Now, this writer is too young in experience of this kind to give advice, but it occurs to us that when a call is made, our citizens one and all, that feel any interest in the town's advancement should respond and not burden the few who may take the initiative step by remaining away until the rove has either failed or succeeded and then say, "I told you so." Whatever is for the public good and advancement benefits the individual, and it is not right, to say the least of it, to remain silent while a few pull a thing along to success by hard work and drudgery, and then jump in and reap as much of the reward as those who have labored from the start. We must have a board of trade in Greenville. We have scores of men who are capable of making anything a success so when the call is made, let every man respond and we will do credit to ourselves and the town.

For the last three months we have been casting around picking up all the information we could gather on the prospects for prices of tobacco this year. From nearly every quarter comes the report that old stocks have been moving and dealers who have had accumulated stocks on hand for four or five years, and even longer, have been enabled to unload a large part during the past summer. One prominent leaf dealer who buys more tobacco on this market we expect than all the other North Carolina markets together (being engaged exclusively in bright tobacco) in a private letter to the writer some time ago said: "We shall be on this fall in better shape to handle the new crop than ever before. We have closed out to a very large extent our old stocks and shall be in better position to take hold of the new crop." The coast seems clear and there is an all around better feeling among tobacco of all kinds, and everywhere, than since the writer has been engaged in the tobacco business. We wish to say in this connection, however, that by this we do not mean there will be any inflation of prices, because those who have had their money tied up for these many years will not be likely to rush recklessly into the new crop and thus damage themselves and paralyze stock. But we do believe there will be more general satisfaction in the marketing and disposition of this crop than any in five years. Farmers who have good tobacco will get good prices and be satisfied, while on the contrary, those who have common tobacco will get lower prices and be dissatisfied. There is one thing that if our farmers all would learn there would be less complaint and more content in the marketing of the tobacco crop. Study to become judges of tobacco and do your warehousemen the justice to give him credit for being an honest man until he proves himself to be otherwise, and don't look on him as being your enemy, but our friend. This hope and a current of mutual interest will soon be circulated from one to the other and each then can be thoroughly understood. Oh, if we could only understand each other, and the motives which prompt our actions, and feel the impulses which direct our thoughts, what a kind, happy world this would be.

SOMEWHAT REMARKABLE.
Thing: Set on Fire by the Rays of the Sun.
People passing on main street about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, witnessed an unusual occurrence. About two weeks ago Mr. D. B. Overton left a silk umbrella lying across a pile of tin pans in the front window of S. E. Pender & Co's hardware store. Sunday the warm rays of the sun shining full through this window and reflected on the tin pans set the umbrella on fire and burned every edge of cloth off of it. The burning umbrella filled the store floor full of smoke. Hundreds of people stopped to look at it. In this case there was nothing else to come in contact with the burning umbrella and become ignited, but we wonder if buildings have not sometime been set on fire in this way and the cause never known. Speaking of this occurrence later Maj. H. Harding said it recalled a little incident he met with a few days ago. While sitting in front of his place of business talking with a gentleman he took off his spectacles and was holding them in his hand. A few minutes later he felt a stinging sensation on his leg just above the knee, and looking down saw that a round hole about the size of a dime was burned through his pants. He had been holding his spectacles so that the sun shining through one of the glasses had focussed on his pants and burned the hole in them.

If the average house keepers does not have plenty of "goodies" to put on the table next winter, it will be because something happens to the large quantities of fruits now being preserved and canned.

Nervous
Pure Blood
Hood's Sarsaparilla

People should realize that the only true and permanent cure for their condition is to be found in having Pure Blood. Because the health of every organ and tissue of the body depends upon the purity of the blood. The whole world knows the standard blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Pure Blood
Hood's Sarsaparilla

Be Sure
to Get Hood's
Cures
I can eat better, sleep better and am better in every way since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. C. C. DAVIS, Box 625, Salina, Kan.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, constipation, biliousness, sick headache, etc.

GROVES
MAKES CHILL TONIC
TASTELESS
CHILL TONIC
IS JUST AS GOOD FOR ADULTS.
WARRANTED. PRICE 50 CTS.

GREENVILLE TOBACCO MARKET REPORT.
BY O. L. JOYNER.
QUOTATIONS:
Lugs—Common 3 to 4
" Good 4 to 7
" Fine 7 to 10
Cutters—Common 8 to 11
" Medium 11 to 15
" Good 15 to 27 1/2

Wilson Military Academy

In consequence of the removal of the Lafayette Military Academy from Fayetteville to Wilson, the name of this popular institution of learning will hereafter be known as Wilson Military Academy. The FALL TERM BEGINS WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1895. With greater facilities, better accommodations and equipments, and, if possible, brighter prospects, the school enters upon its third year with every indication of a much larger patronage and more general usefulness. The most thorough instruction is given in literary and commercial branches; and moral culture and physical training receive due attention. The Third Annual Announcement, containing full particulars, will be mailed to any address upon application. Address:
Maj. J. W. YEREX, Supt.,
Wilson, N. C.

The Agricultural and Mechanical college for the Colored Race, at Greensboro, N. C.

The Fall Term will begin Wednesday, October 2nd, 1895. Examination for admission will be made Wednesday and Thursday, October 2nd and 3rd. Examination of county students will be made in each county by the county examiner on the first Saturday in September next. Instruction is given in Agriculture, Horticulture, Dairy Management, the Mechanic Arts, the English Language, and various branches of Mathematical, Physical, Natural and Economic Science, with special reference to their applications in the industries of life. A limited number of girls will be admitted for whom, in addition to the regular course of study, instruction will be given in Music, Sewing, Cooking and Laundry work. This School is endorsed by the United States, and the State of North Carolina. It is not sectarian, and is not controlled or influenced by any particular denomination.

TERMS.
OTHER STUDENTS.
Tuition, per session $10.00
Board, per week $1.25
Lodging, use of room, bedding, &c. per session 1.00
Instruction in piano, two lessons a week, per month 2.00
For use of piano per session 1.00
For additional terms see catalogue, which can be had by addressing, "The President of the Agricultural and Mechanical College for the Colored Race," Greensboro, N. C.

A New Enterprise.
Following which we take from the Salisbury Herald will be interesting to the people of this section, as it shows what a fine enterprizer of Greenville is doing in the town. We would be glad if some of our people would follow Mr. Littmann's example and start manufacturing enterprises here. Industries of this kind, we believe, pay best. The Herald says:
Everything at the new factory of Mr. J. Littmann, on Church street, is now about completed and the machinery will be in full operation in a few days. The Herald's scribe went around this morning and found the place as snug and complete as could be wished. There are fifteen machines for making sash cords and twenty-six for making clothes lines, every one brand new and in first-class working order. Some of them had been tried and a considerable quantity of cord made, but the engine was resting today and all hands were busy putting other machinery in place. This new factory is a model. Everything is of the most improved pattern, is made from the best of materials and is of the very best make. Besides the machines above mentioned are a brading machine, spooler and finishing machine all in the basement of the building. The two other stories will be used for storing the raw material and the finished product at present, but will probably be filled later with other machinery. Mr. Littmann has not yet sold any of his cord. He already has orders for every yard he can make. The first shipment will probably be made Saturday.

It is generally agreed by horse men in this city that an unusual per cent of horses have what is known as the "big head," a species of disease which often afflicts the human race. The question now uppermost among horsemen is "who did they catch it from?"—Raleigh Press.

Prevention better than cure. Tutt's Liver Pills will not only cure, but if taken in time will prevent Sick Headache, dyspepsia, biliousness, malaria, constipation, jaundice, torpid liver and kindred diseases. TUTT'S LIVER PILLS ABSOLUTELY CURE.

North Carolina COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND MECHANIC ARTS

The next session of this college will begin September 5th. Examinations at county seats first Saturday in August. Young men desiring a technical education at an unusually low cost will do well to apply for a catalogue to A. Q. HO LADAY, Pres., Raleigh, N. C.

Wilkinson Female Institute, AT TARBORO, N. C.

Monday, Sept. 2nd, '95. With a full corps of experienced teachers in all the Departments, Literary, Art, Music (instrumental and vocal), and also a thorough course in Stenography and Typewriting. F. S. WILKINSON, Director.

TARBORO MALE ACADEMY.
The 37th year under the same Principal will begin August 29th, 1895.

With a full corps of teachers. Courses of study, English, Mathematics, Electricity, Physics and Chemistry, and a business course including Stenography and Typewriting. Charges to suit the times. Send for catalogue. F. S. WILKINSON, Principal.

NOTICE.
For the best Pound of Tobacco left at my Photograph Gallery before January 1st, 1896, I will give a handsome $200 Crown Portrait free. For second best pound I will give a dozen King Cabinet Photographs free. For third best pound one year's subscription to EASTERN REFLECTOR. This offer is made to the Farmers only. Trade will not act as judges.

R. H. MAN, Photographer, Greenville, N. C., August 19th, 1895.

YOU WANT THE BEST.
We Keep That Kind.

Bear this fact in mind when you start out for your FALL AND WINTER GOODS. Our stock this season is complete in every department and we can supply all your wants in Gen'l Merchandise.

You simply have to come to us for anything wanted. Our goods and prices will please you. In addition to selling the best goods at the lowest prices, we pay top of the market for cotton and all country produce.

Thanking you for a liberal patronage in the past we hope to have many calls from you this season.
J. O. PROCTER & BRO., GRIMESLAND, N. C.

Acts Like Magic.
If you have Catarrh, Rheumatism, or any other pain Gloria Off, which you can get at Dr. Wooten's will cure you.

Lumber Wanted
Cut Accurately and Rapidly on the FARQUHAR Variable Friction Feed Saw Mill with Quick Reversing Head. Cuts 20,000 feet, with engine, from 12 to 24 inches. For full descriptive catalogue address:
A. B. FARQUHAR CO., Ltd., YORK, PA.

MAKING ROOM.

Enterprise--Integrity.

GOVERNS every movement, every idea, every transaction at "The King Clothiers." It is the pulse of the great business. Its vibrations are felt in every department, every aisle, and on every shelf. For every cent expended Frank Wilson returns full value. No discrimination is made between the small purchaser or the great, the rich or the poor, the experienced or the inexperienced. All have the same advantages, and no one is given special concession, commission or discount. I must make room for my fall stock and will put prices down to a low notch so as to clean them out. My stock of Fine must be cut down as I intend to have a beautiful line this fall and do not want to carry a suit over. In DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, SHOES, BOOTS, HATS, Gents Furnishing Goods.

CLOTHING,

I have knocked the bottom clean out and will sell you if you will come and look.

FRANK WILSON, THE KING CLOTHIER.

Stoves. Stoves.

We are laying in a full line of COOK STOVES also Sheet Stoves. Best quality, low prices. Call and examine. We also are agents for the celebrated and have on hand a few second-hand Bicycles for sale very cheap. You may need a Mowing Machine, we have them in stock.

Rambler and Columbia Bicycles

S. E. PENDER & CO
Opposite Wooten's Drugstore.

ESTABLISHED 8.
J. A. Andrews, Wholesale and Retail GROCER, GREENVILLE, N. C.

Just Received 2 Cars Rock Lime.
50 KEGS STEEL NAILS, ALL SIZES.
3 Cars Flour, 1 T. Meal, 2 H. Hay, 50 Tubs Lard, 100 Bbls Granulated Sugar, 50 " Lard Oil, 50 " Gall & Ax South, 50 " B. R. Mills Sausage, 25 " Three Thistle Syrup, 200 Boxes Tobacco, 100,000 Dukes V. M. P. Cigarettes, 50,000 Old Va. Cheroots, 100 Cans Oysters.

J. L. SUGG,

Life and Fire Insurance Agent!

GREENVILLE, N. C.

OFFICE AT THE COURT HOUSE. All kinds of Risks placed in strictly

FIRST-CLASS COMPANIES At lower current rates. AM AGENT FOR FIRST-CLASS FIRE PROOF SAFES

Scotland Neck Male School.

The only High Grade Boarding School in Eastern Carolina for Boys and Young Men. Excellent Literary Societies--Complete Business Code. Good barracks, healthy location, course of instruction thorough. Only the better class of patronage solicited. Session begins AUGUST 28. Our catalog will show what education means for a boy here. Send for one. PRINCE & WILSON, Principals, Scotland Neck, N. C.

H. C. HOOKER.

NORTH for about 10 days and am giving big reduction in Clothing Dry Goods, & Laces to make room for Fall Stock. Come and see for yourselves.

H. C. HOOKER.

THE REFLECTOR

Local Reflections.

The season of yearly meetings is here. The first scuppernon grapes have appeared. The merchants say the sale of fruit jars this season is almost unprecedented. It is believed that Greenville now has 3,000 or more inhabitants. There is talk of a census being taken soon. The best place to put an advertisement is in the paper that enjoys the confidence of the community.—Cherry & Co. Pick out the strongest points of your goods, put it in a simple phrase and persistently use it. Such advertising pays compound interest. Show your appreciation of the prosperity and blessings of the past week by attending worship to-morrow and keeping the Sabbath day holy. Between tobacco curing and fodder pulling the farmers have about all they can look after. They will soon be through with both these crops. W. I. Pender and D. D. Overton had a five mile bicycle race Thursday. Pender made the distance in 14 1/2 minutes and Overton in 14 1/4 minutes. So many new advertisements for this issue came in yesterday that we could not call attention to each one separately. It is to your interest to read them all. By request of the citizens of Burke county ex Gov. T. J. Jarvis will make a speech at Morganton on Tuesday. He and Mrs. Jarvis are still at Connelly Springs. Mr. J. F. King has purchased the Tucker stables on Fifth street from Smith & Hooker and takes charge at once. He will conduct a livery, sale and feed stables. More people are becoming interested in Greenville than the home folks are perhaps aware of, and at no far distant day the old town will be fairly spreading herself. The Planters Warehouse is putting style on the outside, as well as making things hum on the inside. A bell and flag pole have been raised over the front of the building. A protracted meeting will start in the Baptist church at Ayden on the first Sunday in September, conducted by Rev. B. D. Carroll, assisted by Rev. Thos. Carrick, of Lexington. The Salisbury Herald has made a big stride forward and is now giving its readers the afternoon press dispatches. We hope it will meet with success in this enterprise. Friend Joe Evans places the editor under obligations now and then. Coming from his farm he usually brings a lot of vegetables and melons, and drives by the house to divide.

FOLKS ONLY.
In These Items. Other News Elsewhere.
Mrs. A. J. Griffin left Monday morning for Asheville.
Mr. J. L. Wooten returned from Ocracoke Monday.
Mrs. Dr. F. W. Brown went to Kinston Thursday evening.
Miss Marie Hines has returned from a visit to Goldsboro.
Mrs. L. C. King, of Norfolk is on a visit to her old home here.
Miss Annie Sheppard is visiting relatives near LaGrange.
Mr. J. M. Moore returned Friday evening from Wrightsville.
Prof. W. H. Lagadele is cut again looking as well as ever.
Mr. J. S. Smith and daughter, Miss Apple, have gone to Littleton.
Miss Mittie Parker, of Falkland, is visiting Mrs. W. R. Parker.
Master Bennie Higgs has returned home from a visit to Farmville.
Miss Hortense Forbes is visiting her sister, Mrs. Quinry, at Kinston.
Miss Miss Margie Langley left Saturday to visit friends at Lewiston.
Mr. L. H. Pender and children returned Friday evening from Tarboro.
Miss Ann Tyson, of Farmville, is visiting Miss Aylmer Sugg, near town.
Miss Bettie Darden, of Greene county, is visiting Mrs. J. L. Sugg.
Miss Lena Mathews returned Tuesday evening from a visit to Rocky Mount.
Miss Willie Hargrove, of Washington, is visiting Mrs. A. J. Johnson near town.
Mr. Joe Howell, one of the assistants at the depot, is spending a vacation in Richmond.
Col Harry Skinner and Solicitor C. M. Bernard returned Monday evening from Wilmington.
Mr. Jobson, of Portsmouth, is here to put in a hand saw for the Greenville Lumber Co.
Mr. C. T. Mumford left Monday morning on a ten days' bargain hunt in the northern markets.
Mrs. B. F. Sugg and son Mr. Jarvis Sugg, left Monday evening to visit relatives at Goldsboro.
Miss Alice Garon, of Bethel, who has been visiting Mrs. Florence Starkey returned home Friday.
Miss Ada Hearne has returned to Littleton to resume her duties as teacher in the female school there.
Revs. Leffers and Vines will begin a protracted meeting at Becca Church next Sunday, Sept. 1st.
Everybody is glad to welcome clever George Harrison back from New York. He arrived Friday evening.
Misses Hennie Sheppard and Gertrude Williams returned Sunday from a visit to relatives near Farmville.
Mayor D. C. Moore, of Bethel, accompanied by two of his little boys, spent the day here Monday.
Mrs. Wm. Harris returned Friday evening from Littleton and went out on a nice tour home to Falkland.
Dr. E. A. Moye has gone to Wrightsville to stand an examination before the State Board of Medical Examiners.
Mr. Henry Sheppard returned Friday evening from the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor at Morehead.
Messrs. D. W. Hardee and Marshal Starkey spent Sunday in Goldsboro. Our informant says they were on a courtship trip.
Messrs. R. J. Cobb, J. W. Higgs and A. H. Taft, who were North purchasing new goods, arrived home Friday evening.
Mr. J. B. Cherry left Saturday to spend two weeks in the northern markets purchasing goods for J. B. Cherry & Co.
Mr. C. R. Sugg of the Government printing office at Washington, arrived Thursday evening to visit his father, Col. L. A. Sugg.
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cherry and Master Willie Cherry came home Monday from Ocracoke where they have been spending the summer.
Mr. D. D. Haskett has gone to Morganton, having received a telegram that Mrs. Haskett, who is visiting her sister there, is quite sick.
Capt. George Hawkins was back on his run in charge of the passenger train Monday, having returned from Old Point. He looks much improved.
Messrs. J. B. Cherry and G. F. Smith, and little Misses Nina, Annie and Velma Rawls reached home Wednesday evening from Beaufort.
Messrs. E. W. Smith, of Rocky Mount, Watson and Harvey, of Danville, were on the breaks here Friday. They speak highly of the Greenville market.
Clever Capt. "Bill" Parvin, of the steamer Ayres, is enjoying a brief vacation. Mate George Doughty is in command while the captain is off.
Mr. W. B. Brown returned Saturday evening from New York. Mrs. Brown and the children, who were visiting her parents near Norfolk, returned with him.
Messrs. H. P. Sprague, of Henderson, and L. L. Sprague, of Richmond, both prominent tobacconists, came in Monday evening to spend a day or two on this market.
Presiding Elder G. A. Oglesby will fill Rev. G. F. Smith's pulpit in the Methodist church next Sunday morning and night. Mr. Smith is assisting in a meeting in Hyde county.
We were glad to meet Capt. N. L. Shaw, of Warrington, at the depot Saturday. He was on his way home from the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor at Morehead. Capt. Shaw was elected Grand Dictator for the ensuing term.
United States Senator-elect Marion Butler, Congressman-elect Harry Skinner, and C. M. Bernard, a prominent republican from Eastern North Carolina, arrived here yesterday and were the guests of G. Z. French, republican representative for the district.
Hyde county in the last legislature, at dinner at the Orton yesterday. They went to Ocean View last night in company with Judge Russell and some others.—Will. Diaprico.
The Planters had tobacco today from tight close to Wilson and some from Craven That looks like where the best market is.
Baltimore again stands at the head of the league for this season.

THESE SQUIBS.
Just Give You a Gist of the News
The weather prophets are promising no storms within the next few days.
Mr. E. M. McGowan is having his stalls at the market house ceiled and floored.
Advertising is insurance of business—but you must take care and not let the policy lapse.
Jen Cramer has returned to Greenville and opened a store in the Opera House corner.
Next Sunday the "r" months will be ushered in. Then the trouble for the oyster will begin.
Three colored convicts tried to escape from the State farm near Weldon, on Saturday. Two of them were killed by the guards.
Services were held only in the Episcopal church Sunday morning, and most of the churches had services at night.
The REFLECTOR has received an invitation to a general and banquet to be given by the Wm. Reed Club, at Tarboro, on the evening of September 30th.
The Register of Deeds issued only two marriage licenses last week. One was for a white couple, the other for a colored, and both were issued Friday.
"You never saw my hands as dirty as yours," said a mother to her little girl. "No, but grand mother did," was the reply.
An exchange says, if a wrinkle were made on a man's nose every time he pokes his nose into other people's business, there are some men we know whose noses would look like nutmeg graters.
Mr. William Worthington brought some tobacco samples here to-day, and among them was a twin leaf, two leaves had grown together, on one stem about half their length when they separated and formed two perfect leaves.
Mr. W. N. Nichols had some of the largest native onions in town Saturday that we have seen. One of them weighed a pound and two ounces. He said they were seeded in March.
The News and Observer says 10,000 pounds of tobacco were sold at the opening of the Raleigh market on Thursday. Put that along side of Greenville's hundred thousand on Friday.
Mr. E. B. Dudley brought the REFLECTOR three small eggs laid by one of his hens. One of these is the smallest chicken egg we ever saw, being not much larger around than an ordinary lead pencil.
The entire REFLECTOR force, from the devil down, returns thanks to Mr. J. J. Nobles for a basket of peaches which he brought in Saturday. They were the finest and best soft peaches we have seen this season.
Mr. B. F. Sugg tells us the committee has every assurance that there will be a large crowd here at the reunion and picnic of Bryan Grimes (Camp of Confederate Veterans) on September 30th, and the old soldiers will have a big day.
The tobacco boys shouted and gave him a hearty greeting when Mr. J. S. Jenkins put in his appearance on the breaks Friday. In a few days he will be on regularly bucking the boys in their bidding.
The REFLECTOR is indebted to some one for a nice melon. A colored boy walked in with it Friday evening and said "Mr. King sent this to you," but as that is all he told we don't know which Mr. King to thank.
Mr. B. R. King tells us he has just made a six weeks trip through the cotton belt of this State and South Carolina, and everywhere can be seen signs of retreating prosperity. He says that all along his route crops were fine.
Bo Cherry has an inventive mind and has thrown out a suggestion by which the warehousemen can have more room for sales. He came in the REFLECTOR office just before the breaks started this morning and said, "Every warehouse out yonder is chock full, and some of them are placing tobacco on the roof!"

A DELIGHTFUL EVENING.
Greenville's Belles and Beaux Assembled at Hotel Macon.
That was a brilliant gathering, indeed, that graced the reception at Hotel Macon, on Tuesday evening, given by Miss Myra Skinner complimentary to her guest, Miss Leonard Pitts, of Alabama. The renowned old Macon never looked gayer than on this occasion with its beautiful decorations and gathering of happy hearts and bright faces.
Two couples received in each parlor: Miss Myra Skinner and P. H. Gorman with Miss Winnie Skinner and J. B. Cherry; Miss Leonard Pitts and H. W. Whedbee with Miss Louise Latham and J. B. White; Miss Bessie Jarvis and S. T. White, Miss Maud Blow and J. B. Jarvis.
Miss Skinner, the hostess, was attired in white silk organdy with white satin and violet trimmings; Miss Pitts in blue and white silk crepe trimmed in black velvet, diamonds; Miss W. Skinner in white crepe trimmed in ribbon and chiffon, diamonds; Miss Jarvis in blue crepe trimmed with ribbon and forget me nots; Miss Blow, red crepe, satin trimmings; Miss Latham, blue silk, lace trimmings.
The other couples in attendance and toilets of the ladies were as follows: Jesse Speight and Miss Helen Perkins, yellow silk and black lace trimmings; H. A. White and Miss Bettie Tyson, white silk, pearl beads and lace trimmings; W. B. Ricks and Miss Betty and Miss Lucy Cox, blue crepe trimmed in ribbon; R. Hyman and Miss Sallie Lipscomb, silk organdy, red satin trimmings; E. A. Moye and Miss Hortense Forbes, blue silk, lace; J. A. Ricks and Miss Annie Sheppard green crepe, lace and ribbon; J. L. Little and Miss Novella Higgs, cream cashmere, satin; W. H. Long and Miss Lula White, white cashmere, pink velvet; R. H. Hayes and Miss Annie Perkins, blue silk, garnet velvet and chiffon; Frank Wooten and Miss Rosalind Rountree, white silk, satin and lace; B. E. Farham and Miss Pattie Skinner, red crepe, satin.
Chaperones—Mrs. C. Skinner, black and heitrope silk, purple trimmings; Mrs. A. L. Blow, black satin, margereta trimmings; Mrs. F. G. James, black silk with mouslin de soire waist, pink chrysanthemums; Mrs. P. C. Monterio, black silk, jet trimmings; Mrs. Georgia Pearce, black mouslin de soire, chiffon and violets.
Those of the guests delighting in the dance assembled in the spacious dining room and participated in a Gorman. At twelve o'clock refreshments were served. Not until a late hour did the happy party bid good night to the charming hostess and disperse to their homes. It was voted by all one of the most enjoyable social events that has taken place in our midst.
The Greene County Home.
We have learned fuller particulars of the homicide in Greene county that was mentioned in Tuesday's REFLECTOR. James Hunt, of Vance county, was there curing tobacco for John Turnage. Turnage and his brother Henry were about the barn and in a spirit of fun began throwing peaches at each other. Henry receiving a right sharp blow on the cheek became angered and threw an axe at John. This so enraged John that he rushed in his house and got a gun and fired at Henry, but the latter dodged and the load of buck shot struck Hunt in the side. Hunt died of the wounds and his remains have been taken to Vance county. John Turnage has not been seen since he did the shooting.

Hail Storm in Martin.
Mr. F. S. Parvis, of Hamilton, was here Friday and told us that a heavy wind and hail storm visited his section before day this morning. He left home at such an early hour that he could not learn the extent of the damage done. Mr. Parvis also told us that much tobacco had been made this season in his neighborhood and the farmers over there have an eye on the Greenville market. He put his name on the REFLECTOR roll so as to keep posted on what our market is doing.
Car of Machinery Wrecked.
Mr. S. C. Hamilton tells us he has received information from the shippers that a car load of machinery enroute for the Greenville Lumber Co. had been wrecked on the Pennsylvania railroad. The railroad company took the machinery back to the factory to be replaced, and in consequence of this the G. L. Co. will be delayed a few weeks in getting their new mill fitted up. They will continue work with the old outfit until the new machinery arrives and is placed in position.
Large crowd in town Friday the colored folks forming a majority of them.

A Pleasant Day.
The picnic out at the Henry Brown farm, near Mt. Pleasant, on Friday, was an occasion long to be remembered by the attendants. The crowd was large and they had an all around good time. The dinner which was served about 1 o'clock, was a splendid one and sufficient for even a larger number of people than were present. A large platform was provided for the dancers and it was made good use of all day. A string band from Robersonville furnished music. The managers deserve much credit for the excellent manner in which they conducted the picnic. Everything passed off pleasantly and in the best of order.
Meets in Greenville.
The Albemarle Presbytery meets with the Presbyterian church in Greenville on September 3rd. Our committee will soon wait upon our citizens to secure homes for the delegates. They will be glad if all who can entertain any of the delegates will be prepared to let them know when they call.
The REFLECTOR office has just turned out the Riverside Nursery catalogue for 1895 '96. A better job of printing was never done in Greenville.

REDUCTION!

Not in tobacco but in our entire line of

FINE CLOTHING,

Dry Goods, Hats, Caps, &c

for the next 27 days to make room for our fall stock, as they are coming in every day.

We have $4250.00 worth of SHOES!
We bought them at old prices, since buying the manufacturers have advanced the price 25 per cent., we propose to give the people the benefit of our bargain.

So that you can go home realizing that you bought your goods cheap for cash of

C. T. MUNFORD.

Ricks, Taft & Co.

JUST GOT BACK

and are opening up

New Fall & Winter Goods.

Wait and see prices next week.

RICKS, TAFT & CO.

$20,000. $20,000.

Have just returned from New York where we purchased

Twenty Thousand Dollars worth of goods. They are arriving daily. Look for cut rates next week

HIGGS BROS.,

Leaders of low Prices.
Opposite J. C. Cobb & Son.

$20,000. $20,000.

CHEAP AND GOOD GOODS.

J. R. DAVENPORT,

PACTOLUS, N. C.

I attended the auction sales in New York and Baltimore in July where jobbers were purchasing to sell to the southern trade and I am now prepared to offer many inducements to my customers and the trade generally. I also bought a big lot of good and reliable BOOTS and SHOES on June 1st before the advancing price. Also a big line of Ladies' Dress Goods, Dry Goods and notions, Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Wood and Willowware, Groceries and Furniture, which I will sell cheap. In what I say I will quote you prices of a few articles: Mens and Boys Cashmere Pants 75c., Men and Boys Cashmere Suits $3.50, Boys Vest 25c., Mens Vest 50c., Boys Kersey Coats $1, Mens Kersey Coats $1.75, Mens Suits made out of Dickie Kersey Coats $4.50, Mens Clay Worsted, Diagonal and Corkscrew Suits $1.75 to $15, Mens Coats, same material, $2.50, Boys Wool Suits, size 12 to 18, at $3.30, Mens Overcoats $1.50 to $15, Boys Shirts 20c., Mens Shirts, good value, 25c., Mens and Boys Caps 15c. to $1.50, Men and Boys Cotton, Wool and Fur Hats 20c. to $3.50, 100 pair of Paupoise Skin Shoes, Congress and Lace, worth $3.00, will sell for $2.00, Ladies and Misses good Shoes 50c. to $2.00, Ladies and Misses old stock, 50c. to $1.00, Children Shoes, old stock, 25c. to 50c., Nice Rice 5c., Good Porto Rica Molasses 19c., Good West India Molasses 30c. All kinds of Farmers Produce taken in exchange for goods. Highest cash prices paid for Cotton in Seed or Lint.

WE INVITE!

Your attention to our large and well selected stock of

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

in which can be found during all seasons many useful articles suitable for personal use, household purposes, &c. We are making an effort to put on the market this Fall and Winter the

BEST SELECTED STOCK

ever brought to this town. We are sure that you will be well pleased with the goods and prices that we will offer you, and ask you to keep a lookout for the many attractions which we offer for your inspection. There is a right and a wrong way to do almost everything. The wrong way for you to trade is to buy without coming to see us to get our prices and qualities firmly fixed in your mind. The right way is to come and see us and look over the best assorted line of General Merchandise to be found in Pitt county. Consult us as to prices and quality, and if we don't sell you the bill you want to buy then you will go out feeling that you are none the loser by spending a few minutes looking over our stock. It is now a good assortment, in a few weeks after our buyer gets through it will be full and a sight to look at. In a few days we expect the arrival of a cargo of and when you need goods in this line never buy until you come to see us, we expect to have any thing you may wish.

FURNITURE

Yours for Business,

J. B. CHERRY & CO.

BRING IT ON!

The Planters Tobacco Warehouse

WANTS

1,500,000 Pounds of TOBACCO, and we are going to have it if hard work and satisfactory prices will get it.

Give us a trial and be convinced that can and will give satisfaction in every respect.

FORBES & MOYE

The High Prices we are getting every day for the farmers who sell with us will convince you that we are yours for highest averages.

FORBES & MOYE,

GREENVILLE, N. C.

Fertilizers for Fall Crops

should contain a high percentage of Potash to insure the largest yield and a permanent enrichment of the soil.

Write for our "Farmers Guide," a 142-page illustrated book. It is brim full of useful information for farmers. It will be sent free, and will make and save you money. Address: GERMAN KALI WORKS, 59 Nassau Street, New York.

E-ESTABLISHED 1875.

S.M. Schultz

PORK SIDES & SHOULDERS

FARMERS AND MERCHANTS BUYING their year's supplies will find their interest to get our prices before purchasing elsewhere. Our stock is complete in all its branches.

FLOUR, COFFEE, SUGAR

RICE, TEA, &c.

always at LOWEST MARKET PRICES.

TOBACCO SNUFF & CIGARS

we buy direct from Manufacturers, enabling you to buy at a profit. A complete stock of always on hand and sold at prices about the times. Our goods are all bought and sold for CASH therefore, having no risk to run, we sell at a close margin. Respectfully, S. M. SCHULTZ, Greenville, N. C.

FURNITURE

J.C. LANIER & CO.

GREENVILLE, N. C.

DEALER IN

AMERICAN AND ITALIAN MARBLE.

Wire and Iron Fencing sold. First-class work and prices reasonable.

WILMINGTON & WELTON R. R. AND BRANCHES, AND FLORENCE RAIL ROAD. Condensed Schedule.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.
Dated July 5th 1895.	No. 23 Daily.	No. 24 Daily.	No. 25 Daily.
Leave Weldon	A. M. 12:30	P. M. 12:30	A. M. 12:30
At Rocky Mt	12:37	1:02	1:17
At Tarboro	12:40	1:05	1:20
At Rocky Mt	1:05	1:30	1:55
At Weldon	1:20	1:45	2:10
At Selma	1:30	2:00	2:30
At Fayetteville	1:35	2:05	2:35
At Florence	1:40	2:10	2:40

TRAINS GOING NORTH.
Dated July 5th 1895.	No. 26 Daily.	No. 27 Daily.	No. 28 Daily.
Leave Weldon	A. M. 12:30	P. M. 12:30	A. M. 12:30
At Rocky Mt	12:37	1:02	1:17
At Tarboro	12:40	1:05	1:20
At Rocky Mt	1:05	1:30	1:55
At Weldon	1:20	1:45	2:10
At Selma	1:30	2:00	2:30
At Fayetteville	1:35	2:05	2:35
At Florence	1:40	2:10	2:40

This Reminds You every day in the month of August that if you have your Printing done at the REFLECTOR JOB OFFICE. It will be done right, it will be done in style and it always suits. These points are well worth weighing in any sort of work, but above all things in Your Job Printing.

Ship your produce to J. C. Meekins, Jr., & Co. Cotton Factors Commission Merchants KORSAK, VA. Personal Attention given to Weights and Counts.

TOLD OF THE SENATORS.

Some Good Stories on August Legislators at Washington.

They tell a great many stories of that honest old ex-senator, Coke, of Texas, says the Washington Star. He was a great admirer of Vest. One day some bill was pending which, bluntly stated, offered to appropriate public money for what seemed to Senator Coke private or special purpose. Coke was very much against it, as was Senator Vest. The Missouri senator made a speech and showed that the proposed law was unconstitutional. Coke listened to his oratory with rapt attention, and very much applauded and approved of it. Before the bill was put to a vote, however, the hoof and mouth disease broke out in Missouri among the cattle, and Gov. Crittenden wired Senators Vest and Coke to gain the aid of the national government in hunting the malady to its lair and exterminating it. A measure was introduced making an appropriation to investigate the causes and report remedies for the hoof and mouth disease. The measure made exactly the same question which Senator Coke was so much opposed to, and which Vest had so eloquently denounced but the week before. Under the stress of danger threatening Missouri live stock interests, Senator Vest felt compelled to change his position in the matter and did it most gracefully. It all afforded the good-natured senator from Texas much amusement.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

How Mrs. Stowe Got Her Original Characters.

It reads almost like some chapter of forgotten history—the story of Harriet Beecher Stowe, who did more to free the slaves than any other one or half dozen causes. It may not be generally known that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was written when Mrs. Stowe was a resident of Walnut Hills, a suburb of Cincinnati, and her husband, Prof. Calvin Stowe, was connected with Lane Theological seminary. That was before the war, when Cincinnati, in slavery days, was an important station on the "underground railroad." The Ohio river was easily crossed at this point, and numerous runaways made their way over from Kentucky and were met in Cincinnati by friends who assisted them in various ways to make good their escape.

COLLEGE HOTEL

MRS. DELLA GAY, Proprietress

Convenient to depot and to the tobacco warehouses.

Best and highest located around Greenville. Splendid mineral water. Rooms large and comfortable. Table supplied with the best the market affords.

Terms reasonable.

College Hotel

MRS. DELLA GAY, Proprietress

Convenient to depot and to the tobacco warehouses.

Best and highest located around Greenville. Splendid mineral water. Rooms large and comfortable. Table supplied with the best the market affords.

Terms reasonable.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

How Mrs. Stowe Got Her Original Characters.

It reads almost like some chapter of forgotten history—the story of Harriet Beecher Stowe, who did more to free the slaves than any other one or half dozen causes. It may not be generally known that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was written when Mrs. Stowe was a resident of Walnut Hills, a suburb of Cincinnati, and her husband, Prof. Calvin Stowe, was connected with Lane Theological seminary. That was before the war, when Cincinnati, in slavery days, was an important station on the "underground railroad." The Ohio river was easily crossed at this point, and numerous runaways made their way over from Kentucky and were met in Cincinnati by friends who assisted them in various ways to make good their escape.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

How Mrs. Stowe Got Her Original Characters.

It reads almost like some chapter of forgotten history—the story of Harriet Beecher Stowe, who did more to free the slaves than any other one or half dozen causes. It may not be generally known that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was written when Mrs. Stowe was a resident of Walnut Hills, a suburb of Cincinnati, and her husband, Prof. Calvin Stowe, was connected with Lane Theological seminary. That was before the war, when Cincinnati, in slavery days, was an important station on the "underground railroad." The Ohio river was easily crossed at this point, and numerous runaways made their way over from Kentucky and were met in Cincinnati by friends who assisted them in various ways to make good their escape.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

How Mrs. Stowe Got Her Original Characters.

It reads almost like some chapter of forgotten history—the story of Harriet Beecher Stowe, who did more to free the slaves than any other one or half dozen causes. It may not be generally known that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was written when Mrs. Stowe was a resident of Walnut Hills, a suburb of Cincinnati, and her husband, Prof. Calvin Stowe, was connected with Lane Theological seminary. That was before the war, when Cincinnati, in slavery days, was an important station on the "underground railroad." The Ohio river was easily crossed at this point, and numerous runaways made their way over from Kentucky and were met in Cincinnati by friends who assisted them in various ways to make good their escape.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

How Mrs. Stowe Got Her Original Characters.

It reads almost like some chapter of forgotten history—the story of Harriet Beecher Stowe, who did more to free the slaves than any other one or half dozen causes. It may not be generally known that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was written when Mrs. Stowe was a resident of Walnut Hills, a suburb of Cincinnati, and her husband, Prof. Calvin Stowe, was connected with Lane Theological seminary. That was before the war, when Cincinnati, in slavery days, was an important station on the "underground railroad." The Ohio river was easily crossed at this point, and numerous runaways made their way over from Kentucky and were met in Cincinnati by friends who assisted them in various ways to make good their escape.

VICTOR ATHLETIC GOODS

are the product of skilled workmen, and rank with Victor Bicycles in quality. We make the best baseballs, baseball bats, baseball gloves, tennis rackets, tennis balls, tennis nets, racket presses, racket cases, boxing gloves, footballs, football suits, football and gymnasium shoes, gymnasium supplies, sweaters, etc. We guarantee better goods for less money than asked by other manufacturers. If your local dealer does not keep Victor Athletic Goods, write for our illustrated catalogue.

OVERMAN WHEEL CO. Makers of Victor Bicycles and Athletic Goods.

FACTORY: NEW YORK, CHICAGO, DENVER, DETROIT, PHILADELPHIA, PACIFIC COAST, LOS ANGELES, PORTLAND.

R. J. Cobb, Pitt Co., N. C. C. C. Cobb, Pitt Co., N. C. Joshua Skinner, Portsmouth, N. C.

COBB BROS & CO.

FAYETTE STREET NORFOLK, VA.

COTTON AND PEANUT FACTORS,

—AND—

Commission Merchants

Consignments and Correspondence Solicited. Bagging, Ties and Peanut Sacks at Lowest Prices.

THE OLD RELIABLE.

—IS STILL AT THE FRONT WITH A COMPLETE LINE—

OF GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

Forty years experience has taught me that the best is the cheap at Hemp Rope, Building Line, Cucumber Pumps, Farming Implements, and everything necessary for Millers, Merchants and general house purposes, as well as Clothing, Hats, Shoes. Ladies Dress Goods I have always on hand. An head quarters for Heavy Groceries, and Jobbing agent for Clark's O. N. T. Spool Cotton, and keep counters and attentive clerks.

ALFRED FORBES, GREENVILLE, N. C.

OLD DOMINION LINE, HENRY SHEPPARD,

Real Estate and Rental Agent.

Houses and lots for Rent or for sale terms easy. Rents, Taxes, Insurance and open accounts and any other evidences of debt placed in my hands for collection shall have prompt attention. Satisfaction guaranteed. I solicit your patronage.

HERBER EDMONDS' TONSORIAL PARLORS

Under Opera House, GREENVILLE, N. C.

Call in when you want good work.

WE WANT YOUR ORDERS FOR LUMBER!

We will fill them QUICK! We will fill them CHEAP! We will fill them WARE!

GREENVILLE Male Academy.

The next session of this School will begin on MONDAY, SEPT. 2, 1895.

and continue for ten months. The course embraces all the branches usually taught in an Academy. Terms, both for tuition and board reasonable. Boys well fitted and equipped for business, by taking the academic course alone. Where they wish to pursue a higher course, this school guarantees thorough preparation to enter with credit any College in North Carolina, or the State University. It refers to those who have recently left its walls for the truthfulness of this statement. Any young man with character and moderate ability taking a course with us will be aided in making arrangements to continue in the higher schools. The discipline will be kept at its present standard. Neither time nor attention nor work will be spared to make this school all that parents could wish. Send in your boys on the first day. For further particulars see or address

W. H. RAGSDALE, Principal.

BUILD UP HOME

By patronizing Home Enterprise.

Malloy Durham CHEROOT CO.,

of DURHAM, N. C.

Are manufacturing the fine Cigars, Cheroots and Cigarettes can be found on the market. Their leading brands are "BELLE OF DURHAM," a dime cigar for a nickel, hand made, Havana filled, "BLACKWELL'S DURHAM," a very fine Nick's Cigar, Sumatra Wrapper, Havana filled, hand made, named in honor of Col. Buck Blackwell. "JULIE CARR," a five cent Cigar, Sumatra Wrapper, hand made, Havana filled, a superior. Named in honor of Col. J. S. Carr, Priest of Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Co. "LITTLE SADDIE CHEROOTS," Ten for 10 cents. "OLD CHUNK CIGARETTES," Five for 10 cents. The finest smoke for the money. "OLD NORTH STATE CHEROOTS," Three for 1 cent, a hummer that always pleases. Stick to home and send us your orders. Special brands put up when desired. Address MALLOY DURHAM CHEROOT CO., DURHAM, N. C.

The Charlotte OBSERVER.

North Carolina's FOREMOST NEWSPAPER DAILY AND WEEKLY.

Independent and fearless; bigger and more attractive than ever, it will be an invaluable visitor to the home, the office, the club or the work room.

THE DAILY OBSERVER. All the news of the world. Complete Daily reports from the State and National Capitals, 88 a year. THE WEEKLY OBSERVER. A perfect family journal. All the news of the week. The reports from the Legislature a special feature. Remember the Weekly Observer. ONLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR. Send for sample copies. Address THE OBSERVER, Charlotte, N. C.

In Poor Health

means so much more than you imagine—serious and fatal diseases result from trifling ailments neglected. Don't play with Nature's greatest gift—health.

Brown's Iron Bitters

If you are feeling out of sorts, weak and generally exhausted, nervous, have no appetite and can't work, begin on taking the most reliable strengthening medicine which is Brown's Iron Bitters. A few bottles of this cure-benefit comes from the very first dose—never stain your teeth, and it is a pleasure to take.

It Cures

Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Neuralgia, Troubles, Constipation, Bad Blood, Malaria, Nervous ailments, Women's complaints.

Get only the genuine—it has crossed red lines on the wrapper. All others are substitutes. On receipt of two stamps, you will send of Ten Beautiful World's Fair Views and book-free. BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

CHRISTMAN'S OINTMENT

TRADE MARK

For the Cure of all Skin Diseases

This Preparation has been in use over fifty years, and wherever known has been in steady demand. It has been endorsed by the leading physicians all over the country, and has benefited cases where all other remedies, with the attention of the most experienced physicians, have for years failed. This Ointment is of long standing and the high reputation which it has obtained is owing entirely to its own efficacy, as but little effort has ever been made to outdo it before the public. One bottle of this Ointment will be sent to any address on receipt of One Dollar. All Cash Orders promptly attended to. Address all orders and communications to T. P. CHRISTMAN, Greenville, N. C.

PATENTS

Copyrights and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES. OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE, 509 F STREET, WASHINGTON. Send model, drawing or photo, with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee does not till patent is secured. A guarantee is given to our clients. We have secured U. S. and foreign patents for many years in the U. S. and foreign countries. C. A. SNOW & CO., OFF. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.