

Index contains an interesting article giving the history of Mormonism through its various legal difficulties. In 1831 William Lloyd Garrison loomed into prominence as an abolitionist. Jackson had to deal with Indian troubles in the Black Hawk war and in the second Seminole war. In 1836 Texas rebelled against Mexico and established an independent republic. In the compiler's sketch of Andrew Jackson due stress is laid upon the fact, too often overlooked, that Andrew Jackson was a military leader in civil as well as military life before he was nominated for the presidency. A metropolitan paper in reviewing this work said: "We take leave of this invaluable collection of the messages and papers of Andrew Jackson—the first ever given to the world—with an extract from his farewell address, which, as few readers, we imagine, will dispute, deserves to be treasured by the side of Washington's farewell address." Van Buren inherited the panic of 1837, which had resulted from wild speculation during Jackson's administration and precipitated by Jackson's Specie Circular. Right here, in passing, we may call to the attention of readers the splendid article on panics in the encyclopedic index volume, and a catalogue of all the panics, with their causes, is given from the first panic of 1818. In 1837 the independence of Texas was recognized by the United States. It was during the administration of Martin Van Buren that the Smithsonian Institution was founded at Washington, and the article under that title in the encyclopedic index is commended to our readers. The campaign of 1841, in which William Henry Harrison was elected to succeed Van Buren, was marked by the novelty of stump speaking and processions. The attempts to belittle Harrison on account of his humble origin were taken up as catchwords, and the "hard cider and log cabin" campaign became the "political hurricane of 1841." Harrison's short term gave him little opportunity to distinguish himself. His death was supposed to be due to the annoyance of office seekers who believed in the Jackson spoils system. Tyler as vice president under Harrison succeeded to the presidency on Harrison's death. An important boundary dispute was settled by a treaty known as the Ashburton treaty, negotiated by Lord Ashburton of Great Britain and Daniel Webster. Tyler's administration saw the close of the Seminole war. Dorr's rebellion, which occurred in Rhode Island, forms an interesting chapter in the history of the growth of franchise. The vote had been given to landowners possessed of a certain amount of property and their eldest sons. Dorr, who led the rebellion in favor of popular suffrage, was declared a traitor to Rhode Island, arrested and imprisoned, but afterward released when his party succeeded. The story is told in the encyclopedic index volume and the presidential discussion cited in chronological place. In 1842 John C. Fremont, the "Pathfinder," was sent by the government to find the path across the Rocky mountains. It is interesting to note his original notes his troubles, being once court-martialed, and his glories, being honored by the government after achieving success. In the presidential campaign of 1844, in which James K. Polk was elected to succeed Tyler, the issues were the annexation of Texas and the Oregon boundary dispute, in which Polk's adherents used the famous campaign slogan, "Fifty-four or fight!" Polk was known as the first "dark horse" candidate ever nominated by a prominent party. The tariff question was dealt with, resulting in a lowering of duties. Folk's various discussions of this old and new question are very interesting and instructive. The most notable event of Polk's administration is the war with Mexico, not strictly start with him. The entire number of removals by all the presidents prior to Jackson were only seventy-four. Jackson removed 2,000 in one year. The "spoils system" got its name from an anecdote of the United States senate in 1831. "To the victors belong the spoils." Jackson was a strict constructionist and opposed to national banks. It was during Jackson's administration that occurred the famous Webster-Hayne debate, in which Hayne contended that the federal government was a compact of states, while Webster maintained that the constitution was an instrument of the government created by the sovereign people of the United States, which established the national idea. This national idea was supported by Jackson, for when South Carolina attempted to nullify the tariff by refusing to collect duties at the port of Charleston, Jackson threatened the state with force. The Mormon church was established by Joseph Smith. The encyclopedic declared May 12, 1848. This was fully treated in the encyclopedic index volume, and the history of it is told in Polk's various addresses and messages. The treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo brought the war to a close in 1848, by the terms of which treaty Mexico sold for $18,000,000 that territory which now comprises California, Nevada, most of Arizona, New Mexico and Utah and a part of Colorado and fixed the boundary of Texas at the Rio Grande. The Wilmore proviso was an attempt to exclude slavery from any territories to be acquired from Mexico. While this proviso failed of passage, it gave a focus to the bitter war that was soon to settle the slavery question in the United States. The election in 1848 resulted in victory for the Mexican war hero, General Zachary Taylor. Taylor was a Whig, but his popular success was due largely to his military record. Taylor recommended a protective tariff for the protection of home industries and for the insurance of good wages for labor. Taylor's term was cut short by death. Fillmore's recital of the history of his time is of extraordinary importance because the country was on the eve of its greatest crisis. Fillmore rather leaned toward the slavery doctrine and signed the fugitive slave act and other compromise measures, which lost him the favor of the Whig party in the north. The Fillmore fugitive slave proclamation is partially reproduced in facsimile. This proclamation backed upon across the bloody chasm of the war which reversed its fate. President Fillmore adduced philosophical arguments in favor of a tariff for revenue which might properly amount to a protective tariff. Fillmore advocated internal improvements and recommended that some means be found of opening a line of communication between the valley of the Mississippi and the Pacific on account of the "unprecedented growth of our territories on the Pacific in wealth and population and the consequent increase of their social and commercial relations with the Atlantic states." The Clayton-Bulwer treaty with England was agreed to, in dispute recently because it dealt with the then proposed Nicaragua canal, but, broadly interpreted, would be effective as to the Panama canal, which was discussed in the newspapers recently as to whether it should be controlled by the United States and the Panama canal without an infringement of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. Among the illustrations in the Fillmore period of history which lighten up the work and give it a tinge of romance is the cartoon entitled "Ridicule to Jenny Lind's Popularity in 1850." Louis Kossuth, the great Hungarian leader in the European struggle for liberty, was in 1851 aided to escape from Turkey by the United States government and visited America, being heralded as a great emancipator. Reference to this historical event, throwing a side light on foreign history, is given in the encyclopedic index volume. The Gadsden purchase was arranged by treaty with Mexico during Pierce's administration and added considerable territory to the United States. Pierce declared unreservedly his conviction that slavery was constitutional and upheld the fugitive slave act. He denounced bitterly the slavery agitation. An echo of the slavery agitation is noted in the Ostend manifesto, which was a recommendation to the president of the representatives of our ministers to Spain, France and Great Britain, the latter being James Buchanan, sent to the effect that the United States should offer Spain $20,000,000 for Cuba and, in event of Spain's refusal to sell, the United States would be justified in taking forcible possession of Cuba rather than see it "Africanized." But President Pierce did not think it prudent to act upon this recommendation, and Pierre Soule, our minister to Spain, resigned in disgust. An interesting bit of history both as to slavery and our subsequent relations with Cuba. In the campaign of 1856 the Republican party was born and John C. Fremont nominated, but defeated by James Buchanan, a northern Democrat. It would be interesting to trace this review through the remaining administrations of Buchanan, Lincoln and on down to Taft, in which each president devotes his own best intellect and calls to his service the best assistance of his scholarly friends and cabinet members, but space forbids. Enough has been said to give a fair idea of how comprehensive a history this is of each administration. Its authenticity is not to be questioned. The use of this work for school children, either for reference or for collateral reading or for straightaway reading, as well as for use for progress in ambitious Americans, young and old, out of college, as an aid to individual success, seems obvious.

LEGAL NOTICES.
LAND SALE.
By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage executed by Augustus Blount and wife, Cherry Blount, to A. G. Cox, on the 1st day of May, 1908, which mortgage was duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Pitt county, in Book 8-5, page 561, the undersigned will sell for cash, at public auction, before the court house door in Greenville, on Tuesday, February 27, the following described lands, to-wit: Two tracts of land in Contee town, being the two tracts described in a deed from A. G. Cox and wife, to Augustus Blount, said deed dated May 1, 1908, one tract containing 22 acres, more or less, and known as the Samuel Stock share of the W. H. Stock tract of land; the other piece containing one acre and is known as a part of the Warren Braxton land, and fully described in a deed from G. S. G. Nine and wife, to A. G. Cox, reference to which deed is hereby made with all accurate description.
This Jan. 27, 1912.
A. G. COX, Mortgagee.
HENRY HARRINGTON, Owner of debt.
P. G. James and Son, attorneys.
1 29-11d-31w.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE.
By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed executed by J. A. Gardner to H. A. Hart, dated the 26th day of April, 1911, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt county in Book 99, page 445, the undersigned will sell for cash, at public auction, before the court house door in Greenville, to the highest bidder for cash, the following described tract or parcel of land:
Lying and being in Swift Creek township, North Carolina, and beginning at Gardner's bridge and running eastward with the run of Swift Creek to J. E. Gault's line, bounded on the south by Ed Jones' line and on the west by the main road leading from Gardner's bridge to Maple Cypress, thence northerly with said road to the beginning, containing forty (40) acres, more or less.
This sale is made to satisfy the terms of said mortgage deed.
This the 6th day of February, 1912.
H. A. HART, Mortgagee.
F. C. HARDING, Attorney.
2 7 12 1d 31w

NOTICE OF LAND SALE.
North Carolina—Pitt County, in the Superior Court.
J. T. Allen, N. W. Tyson,)
& G. E. Harris,) vs.)
W. Allen, Jr., and wife,)
H. Allen and wife,)
Mary P. Allen, wife,)
E. Allen and Allie E. Allen,)
Joseph J. Allen,)
Allen and W. Allen,)
last five being minors.
By virtue of a decree of the Superior court of Pitt county, made in the above entitled case, at January term, 1912, by O. H. Allen, presiding, the following land is being sold on Monday, the 26th day of February, 1912, expose to public sale before the court house door in Greenville, to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described tract or parcel of land, to-wit:
Lying and being in Greenville township, Pitt county, North Carolina, and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the back of the lane in the Williams line and running a S. W. course to an iron stake at a wire fence on the back of the lot, thence a straight line to an iron stake in Brown's line; thence with Brown's line to the run of the branch; thence with said branch to Hardee's line; thence with said Hardee's line to the Williams line; thence with the Williams line to the beginning, containing about 133 acres, more or less.
This the 27th day of January, 1912.
F. C. HARDING, Commissioner.
1 30-11d-31w

NOTICE OF LAND SALE.
North Carolina—Pitt County, in the Superior Court, before D. C. Moore, Clerk.
Jesse Haddock, administrator) of Samuel Mills, Martha) Mills, I. F. Mills, Fred)
Mills, Nesby Mills, Macon)
& Weatherington and wife,)
Lena Weatherington,) Mills and Maggie Haddock)
Ex parte.
By virtue of a decree of the Superior court of Pitt county, made by D. C. Moore, clerk in the above entitled special proceeding, on the 29th day of January, 1912, the undersigned administrator of the estate of Samuel Mills, will on Wednesday, the 29th day of February, 1912, at 12 o'clock, noon, expose to public sale before the court house door in Greenville, to the highest bidder, for cash, the 1-9 undivided interest of the late Samuel Mills in that certain tract or parcel of land in Chirod township, Pitt county, North Carolina, which the lands of Jesse Haddock, Calvin Mills and others, containing about 30 acres, more or less, also the 1-9 undivided interest of the said Samuel Mills in the tract of land adjoining the lands of Jarvis Mills, Calvin Mills and others, containing about 25 acres, more or less.
This the 29th day of January, 1912.
JESSE HADDOCK, JR., Administrator of the estate of Samuel Mills, deceased.
P. C. HARDING, Attorney.
1 30-11d-17w

FOR SALE.
Batt's four-ear Prolific corn for sale. Grown in 4 1-2 foot rows, 300 germinating corn, $3 per bushel; $1.75 per 1-2 bushel; $1 per peck.
Grown and selected by
W. K. WOOLARD,
Pacelus, N. C. R. F. D. No. 1.
2-5-11d-10w-11r

LAND SALE.
North Carolina—Pitt County, in the Superior Court.
By virtue of a decree of the Superior court of Pitt county, rendered in a special proceeding by S. Fulford, therein presiding, entitled Mary E. Whitfield, administratrix of Geo. B. Whitfield, deceased, vs. S. Fulford, Hathaway and wife, Magnolia Hathaway, Jesse W. Whitfield and wife, and Whitfield, Edward Balock, and others, heirs at law, the undersigned commissioner will, on Thursday, February 22, 1912, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, in the town of Greenville, before the court house door, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, the following described tract or parcel of land, lying and being situated in Pitt county, District township, N. C. and more fully described as follows:
Adjoining the lands of R. D. Whitfield, the Edgewood tract, and the lands of Gary Manning and Mrs. Mary E. Whitfield, containing 96 acres, more or less, being the lands of the late Geo. B. Whitfield and the same being more fully described in deed book 10 on page 562 of Pitt county register.
The said land will be sold subject to the dower rights of the widow, Mrs. Mary E. Whitfield, and to the rights of the heirs at law.
This January 23, 1912.
C. C. PIERCE, Comr.
125-11d-11w.

North Carolina—Pitt County, in the Superior Court.
Susie S. Harris vs. Henry Spencer Harris.
The defendant above named will take notice that an action entitled as the above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Pitt county, in the office of the clerk of said court, to have the dower of the plaintiff in lands of her late husband, H. S. Harris, allotted to her as prescribed by law and the said defendant will further take notice that he is required to appear before the clerk of the superior court of Pitt county at his residence in Greenville, N. C., on Saturday, Feb. 19, 1912 and answer or demur to the complaint or petition filed in said action or the plaintiff will apply to the court for a writ of habeas corpus in the said complaint.
This Jan. 11, 1912.
D. C. MOORE, Clerk Superior Court.
P. G. JAMES & SON, Attys. for Plaintiff.
1 13 12-11d-51w

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
The undersigned having this day duly qualified as administratrix of the estate of E. F. Williams, deceased before D. C. Moore, clerk supreme court of Pitt county, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate settlement with the undersigned or all persons holding claims against said estate are hereby notified to file their claim with the undersigned within 12 months from the date hereof or their claims will be placed in bar of recovery.
This the 11 day of January, 1912.
LULA F. WILLIAMS, Administratrix of the estate of E. F. Williams.
F. C. Harding, Attorney. 11d-51w

NOTICE.
State of North Carolina.
Pitt County.
To G. F. Morrison, Meta Morrison of and her heirs, and to all persons claiming by, through or under them.
Take notice, that on the 1st day of May, 1911, at the court house door in the town of Greenville, L. W. Tucker, sheriff in and for the county of Pitt, did cause to be published the following described land: One lot in the town of Ayden, Contee town, North Carolina, containing 1.5-11d-51w

MORTGAGEE'S SALE.
North Carolina—Pitt County.
By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage executed on the 13th day of January, 1902, by E. P. Stokes to Fred Mills, which mortgage is recorded in book H-7 at page 480, Pitt county Register, the undersigned will offer for sale on Saturday, March 9th, 1912, at 12 o'clock, at the court house door of Pitt county, the following described tract or parcel of land lying in Pitt county:
Bounded on the south by W. B. Bland, on the north by C. H. Stokes and others, containing sixteen (16) acres, more or less.
This sale is made to satisfy the terms of the mortgage above referred to.
This 5th day of Feb. 1912.
FRED MILLS, Mortgagee.
HARRY SKINNER, Attorney.
2 6 12-11d-31w

Stray Taken Up.
I have taken up a black and white spotted female pig weight about 60 or 70 pounds, marked with a round hole in each ear. Owner can get same by proving property and paying the charges.
L. S. HARDEE.
R. F. D. No. 3, Greenville, N. C.
2 13-11d-11w

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
Having duly qualified before the superior court clerk of Pitt county, as executor of the estate of Alex Grimes deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate to make immediate payment to the undersigned; and all persons having claims against said estate are notified that they must present the same to the undersigned for payment on or before the 29th day of January, 1912, or their claims will be placed in bar of recovery.
This 29th day of January, 1912.
ALEX GRIMES, Executor.
1 30-11d-51w

WANTED—TENANT FOR TEN
acres good land to be cultivated in tobacco. Good 3-room house furnished. None but good man need apply. Address Box 58, R. F. D. 1, Greenville N. C.
2 5-21d-51w

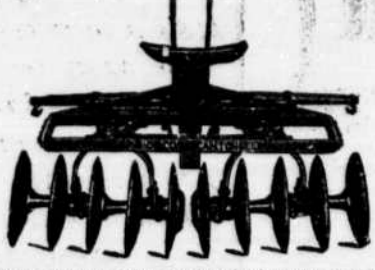

GREENVILLE IS THE HEARTH OF EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA. IT HAS A POPULATION OF FOUR THOUSAND, ONE HUNDRED AND ONE, AND IS SURROUNDED BY THE BEST FARMING COUNTRY. INDUSTRIES OF ALL KINDS ARE INVITED TO LOCATE HERE FOR WE HAVE EVERYTHING TO OFFER IN THE WAY OF LABOR, CAPITAL AND TRIBUTARY FACILITIES. WE HAVE AN UP-TO-DATE JOB AND NEWSPAPER PLANT.
Agriculture is the Most Useful, the Most Healthful, the Most Noble Employment of Man.—George Washington.

VOLUME XXXIII.
GREENVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1912.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 15.— Birthday congratulations were in order today for the latest of the Republican presidential aspirants—Albert Baird Cummins, United States senator from Iowa. Senator Cummins was born sixty-two years ago in the town of Carmichaels, Pa. In early youth he followed his father's trade of carpenter, and with the money thus earned he was able to take a two years' course at Waynesburg College, where he was employed for several years as a railroad surveyor. He must have been a pretty good man at the business, for he was offered a position as chief engineer of one of the western railroads. But the future senator had already determined upon the temporary profession and at the age of twenty-three he laid aside his trowel and became a student in a Chicago law office. Mr. Cummins did not become a resident of the state that later was to make him governor and United States senator until 1878, when he removed from Chicago to Des Moines and formed a law partnership with his brother. Before many years had passed he had established his reputation as one of the ablest lawyers in the Hawkeye state. Ten years after his arrival in Iowa he was elected to the Republican legislature. He was elected as an independent candidate, which was not a very common thing in those days. He voted with the Republicans on all matters, excepting prohibition. He was a believer in high license, as a means of raising revenue, rather than prohibition, and subsequent legislation seems to have approved his judgment, for high license with local option now appears to be the settled policy in Iowa. When John H. Gear, known as the "Hawkeye" of the Republicans, was elected to the governorship, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr. Cummins became a candidate for the toga. He was successful of election and established his place among the foremost leaders of his party in Iowa. He was re-elected in 1890 and 1892, and in 1900, the end of his long career in the United States senate, Mr

Reversible Disc Harrow

The Best All Round and Most Serviceable Harrow for Orchard and Vineyard Work Ever Made.

It has a low frame, which will clear overhanging branches and vines. The gangs can be set close together or graduated at intervals of two inches until they spread to their extreme width on the ends of the frame. Two levers—one for each gang—and the gangs can be operated at any angle. The gangs can also be reversed to an inverse. Everything about it is simple and strong, and it is backed by an unequalled guarantee.

This season we are especially strong on Farming Implements and Machinery. We cordially invite your inspection.

Come to see us for COTTON KING CULTIVATORS CONFEDERATE CULTIVATORS SMOOTHING HARROWS RIDING ATTACHMENTS FOR TWO HORSE PLOWS SPANGLER FERTILIZER DISTRIBUTORS, etc.

We are headquarters for the OLIVER PLOW

Our entire line is backed by an unqualified guarantee. We have the goods that are best by test. Therefore we do not hesitate in backing them. One trial of any of the above implements will convert you. Give us a trial!

J. R. & J. G. MOYE

Many friends here were shocked to learn by wire, Thursday, that Mr. J. H. Tucker, of Asheville, died suddenly that morning of heart disease. Mr. Tucker was 55 years of age, a native of Pitt county and one of the best men the county has produced. After finishing school at the old Greenville Academy he went to Wake Forest College, where he graduated with distinction. He then studied law and after obtaining license located in Greenville for the practice of his profession in which he rose rapidly to high rank. He was a leading member of Memorial Baptist church while a resident here and was for several years superintendent of the Sunday school.

In 1888 Mr. Tucker married Miss Mary Powell, of Warren county. In 1891 he moved to Asheville and since made his home there. In the mountain city he ranked among the ablest lawyers, and was always foremost in church and charitable work. His reputation was more than state-wide. He is survived by a wife and two children, one son and one daughter.

Almost Lost His Life. S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., will never forget his terrible exposure to a merciless storm. "It gave me a dreadful cold," he writes, "that caused severe pains in my chest, so it was hard for me to breathe. A neighbor gave me several doses of Dr. King's New Discovery which brought great relief. The doctor said I was on the verge of pneumonia, but to continue with the discovery. I did so and two bottles completely cured me." Use only this quick, safe, reliable medicine for coughs, colds, or any throat or lung trouble. Price 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Arguments in $2,000,000 Suit. BOSTON, Feb. 19.—Before Judge Colt in the federal court today arguments were heard on the motion to dismiss and plea in abatement filed by the United Shoe Machinery Company to the $2,000,000 suit filed against it by Charles A. Striat, trustee for the Goddu Sons Metal Fastening Company for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. The Goddu company, it is alleged, was driven out of business by the shoe machinery company, whose offices also are under federal indictment for alleged violation of the anti-trust law.

Blamed a Good Worker. "I blamed my heart for severe distress in my left side for two years," writes W. Evans, Danville, Va., "but I know now it was indigestion, as Dr. King's New Life Pills completely cured me." Best for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, constipation, headache or debility. 25 cents at all druggists.

The Proud Princess. "No," said the haughty Boola-Boola, daughter of the king of the Canibal Islands, as she arrayed herself in her necklace of missionary's teeth, and a nice, fresh smile, "these dress-makers of London, Paris and New York have nothing on me!" And with her eyes beaming with happiness she swept into the ball-room.—Harpers' Weekly.

"Which would you rather have?" "Yes!"

DON'T SUFFER WITH Neuralgia

When a 25 cent bottle of Noah's Liniment is guaranteed to drive this terror away—or money refunded. At the first twinge, apply as directed. Noah's Liniment will give immediate and effectual relief. It quiets the nerves and scatters the congestion, penetrates and requires very little rubbing.

Noah's Liniment is the best remedy for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lame Back, Stiff Joints, Sprains, Burns, Bruises, Strains, Sprains, Cuts, Neuralgia, Toothache, and all Nerve, Bone and Muscle Aches and Pains. The genuine has Noah's hair on every package and looks like this cut, but has RED band on for authentic. Beware of imitations. Large bottle, 25 cents, and small bottle, 10 cents. Guaranteed or money refunded by Noah Remedy Co., Inc., Richmond, Va.

Read The Daily Reflector for All the News

Five years ago between 1901 and 1909 North Carolina has built more than 1,000 miles of good roads while Virginia has built only 382 miles. In point of natural advantage there is little to choose between the two states and if anything Virginia has the better of the comparison by reason of her larger cities. So it is not unfair to say, at least, the chief cause of North Carolina's superior growth is good roads.

It is perfectly true that good roads attract population. They mean easier travel, broader markets, more valuable land, greater social advantages. They mean life in a wilderness and in a modern up-to-date community. One thousand miles of good roads in five years may be better than Virginia, but it is by no means the record. There are lots of other roads that we might build if we get busy, and money to be saved by building them. Bad roads ruin teams, wagons, and positions. They mean high marketing expenses, fewer neighbors, less education, and more agitation, mental and physical. They cost much to repair as the good roads, and they don't do other work. If you want to get good prices for your crop, good service from your teams, good education for your children and good neighbors for yourself, vote to build good roads.—Exchange.

The Happenings Around Standard. STANFORD, N. C., Feb. 16.—Mr. J. W. Worthington made a business trip to Greenville Tuesday. Miss Annie Tyson, the daughter of Mr. G. T. Tyson, who is teaching at Lang's school house, came home Friday evening and returned to her school Monday morning bright and early through the snow. The teachers here may have schools elsewhere, but they are not as much grit, energy and get-up in them as the teachers of Standard.

Mr. Arthur Tucker went to Greenville Tuesday to see his girl, but could not return until Wednesday evening. Miss Ester Joyner, of Fort Barnville, is spending this week with her trip to Greenville Thursday morning. Mr. Leon Jones was in Farmville Tuesday evening. Plover casting, plow lines and farming supplies at the Peoples Supply Company.

Miss Reuberta Flanagan and Mr. Elmer Tyson went to Smith's school house Wednesday night for a party given by the teachers for the benefit of the school. Mr. Leon Jones went over to Smith school house to be with his girl and also enjoy the party. Mr. Arthur Tucker made a nother trip to Greenville Thursday morning. If it keeps on this way long, some one will be short of a lady salesman.

Suffrage Fight Near Climax. LONDON, Feb. 19.—The present week promises to bring the women's suffrage campaign to a critical point and it is even within the range of possibility that the question will reach its climax by being squarely before parliament. In anticipation of the impending submission to the house of commons of a woman's suffrage bill the advocates of woman's suffrage and the opponents of woman's enfranchisement have made their plans for a last, tremendous effort. On Friday a big meeting will be held at Albert Hall under the auspices of the National Union of Woman Suffrage Societies and Mr. Lloyd-George, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, will be the principal speaker. The last gun of the anti-suffrage campaign will be fired on Wednesday next week, when a meeting under the auspices of the National League for Opposing Women Suffrage will be held at Albert Hall. Lord Cromer, the president of the organization will preside at that meeting.

The woman's suffrage question was not a matter of national political importance in its early stages, but it gained enormously in importance when Chancellor Lloyd-George openly espoused the cause of "votes for women." Never before had a high government official in England championed the cause, until Mr. Lloyd-George entered the lists, ready to fight for the franchise principle and to carry the contest directly before the house of commons. The fact that he and the prime minister, Mr. Asquith, are on opposing sides on this important issue, makes the situation even more acute and there are many who believe that the woman's franchise will cause a split not only in the cabinet but in the Liberal party and may, eventually, precipitate a national crisis in the political situation.

"Call Me Up Some Rainy Afternoon." You might help the newspaper man in this kind of weather by phoning to the office any item of news you may know of. Tell us anything that is worth printing.

more important to Greenville people than the statement published below. In the first place, it is from a citizen of Greenville, and can be thoroughly relied upon. In the second place, it indisputably proves that Doan's Kidney Pills do their work thoroughly and not temporarily. Read this carefully: Mrs. E. G. Worthington, Washington street, Greenville, N. C., says, "I have been so greatly benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills that I am glad to recommend them. My back ached nearly all the time and I could not rest well. The kidney secretions caused me annoyance and it was plain to be seen that I was suffering from kidney trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got from the J. Pohn L. Wooten Drug Company, relieved my aches and pains and improved my condition greatly. I cannot praise this remedy too strongly." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. Reduce Cotton Acreage. Quite a number of cotton farmers held a meeting in the court house Saturday afternoon and discussed the question of acreage for the next crop. A resolution was adopted that they will plant a considerably less acreage this year than last.

Marriage Licenses. Marriage licenses were issued last week to the following couples: White. Jno. Calvin Butler and Lottie Lavan Blow. W. C. Lanster and Carrie Brown. J. F. Jolly and Duck Hardy. J. C. Pope and Sadie Moore. Hyman Smith and Lizzie L. Moore. B. F. Parrott and Lula Lilly. Grover McLawhon and Kennie Ellis. Joseph Dixon and uenale Ella Worthington. Colored. Marcelos Vines and Mamie Artis. Will Forman and Lavinia Willis. R. J. Hopkins and Hattie Langley. Henry Williams and Stella King. Alex Smith and Pattie Spell.

There's a Difference. They come, they go, I don't know How moving in and moving out Helps, except to keep them on the go. And keep the people all in doubt.

It never move, I never rove, I have no fear, I have no strife, Nor never change, but always shove Along the same Old Mutual Life. H. BENTLEY HARRISS, With the Mutual Life of New York 10-114-74

God made woman beautiful and unreasonable so that she would love man. He Won't Limp Now. No more limping for Tom Moore, of Cochran, Ga. "I had a bad sore on my instep that nothing seemed to help till I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says he, "but this wonderful healer soon cured me." Heals old running sores, ulcers, boils, burns, cuts, bruises, eczema or piles. Try it. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

It is the struggle to keep up appearance that keeps a great many people down.

Selecting a Piano

is of the utmost importance and requires both skill and judgment in order to be sure that good tone and action are united with Wearing Quality.

We offer you the benefit of our experience and assure you that you may depend on our judgment. Courteous treatment alike to purchasers or inquirers.

SAM WHITE PIANO CO.

Roofing and Sheet Metal Work

For Slate or Tin, Tin Shop Repair Work, and Flues in Season, See

J. J. JENKINS 'Phone 76, Greenville, N. C.

FURS AND HIDES

HIGHEST MARKET PRICE PAID FOR RAW FURS AND HIDES

Wool on Commission. Write for price list mentioning this ad.

Established 1897

JOHN WHITE & CO., LOUISVILLE, KY.

SCHEDULE

Trains Leave Raleigh, effective January 8, 1911.

YEAR ROUND LIMITED—No. 51. 4:35 a. m.—For Atlanta, Birmingham, Memphis and points West, Jacksonville and Florida points, connections at Hamlet for Charlotte and Wilmington.

THE SEABOARD MAIL—No. 33. 11:35 a. m.—For Portsmouth-Norfolk, with coaches and parlor car. Connections with steamer for Washington, Baltimore, New York, Boston and Providence.

THE FLORIDA FAST MAIL—No. 66. 12:05 a. m.—For Richmond, Washington and New York pullman sleepers, day coaches and dining car. Connections at Richmond with C. O. at Wash. with Pennsylvania railroad and B. & O. for Pittsburgh and points west.

THE SEABOARD MAIL—No. 41. 4:10 p. m.—For Atlanta, Charlotte, Wilmington, Birmingham, Memphis, and points west. Parlor cars to Hamlet.

6:00 p. m., No. 34—"Shoo Fly" for Louisa, Henderson Oxford and Norfolk.

5:00 p. m., No. 30—"Shoo Fly" for O. for Cincinnati and points west, Memphis, and points west, Jacksonville and all Florida, points. Pullman sleepers. Arrive Atlanta 7 a. m.

4:45 Arrive Richmond 5:22 a. m. Washington 5:45 a. m., New York 2:31 p. m., Penn. station. Pullman arrive to Washington and New York.

C. B. RYAN, G. P. A., Portsmouth, Va.

REVIEW OF HAPPENINGS AT NATIONAL CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—(Special.)—Judge Gary, head of the steel trust, attended a banquet in New York. The food was excellent; the lights were bright; the silver shimmered; the wine sparkled; the cigars added a final completeness to the happiness of all present. When it came Judge Gary's turn to speak, his mind was saturated with eloquence, and his thoughts turned to the welfare of the republic, and the sufferings of working men. Listen to him: "Things are being said at the present time that are closely akin to the things that were said just prior to the French revolution—a country of less capitalists, corporations, and men of great wealth and power take a leading part in the amelioration of conditions, there will be changes made later by the mob."

The same newspapers which told the story of the banquet, and Judge Gary's speech, also chronicled the testimony of witnesses before the Stanley committee. These witnesses told how the steel trust forced men to work 12 hours a day, seven days a week, for wages which compelled them to live like swine, and how they which Judge Gary could ameliorate with a few strokes of his pen.

The banquet hall is dark. The diners are gone. The tables are stripped of their damask and viands. And somewhere in that deserted room, shrunken so small that even the servants failed to notice them, they are on the crumbs, is Judge Gary's beautiful altruism.

Roosevelt and the Tariff. Once in his life Theodore Roosevelt almost expressed an opinion on the tariff question. In a preliminary draft of one of his messages, as it came from the printer, was this sentence: "In a later message I shall discuss the tariff."

This document fell into the hands of Senators Aldrich and Lodge and Speaker Cannon, and immediately they rushed to the White House. President when the message finally was submitted to congress, it contained no reference whatever to the tariff. Aside from that single sentence, no living man can quote the former president on the tariff question.

A Standard-Fetter's Wall. The senate was discussing the bill for the establishment of a Children's Bureau in the Department of Commerce and Labor. Senator Borah, author of the bill, had gone to great lengths to explain how the huge corporations were exploiting little children, crushing them, with hard labor, while they were yet of tender years. He explained that the bill contemplated no difference with the proper relations of parents toward their own children, and that its purpose was merely to provide for the collection of figures and information on which the various states and municipalities could have a proper solution of the child welfare problem.

"In the big cities," said Senator Borah, "little children fester and squalor and steal and starve and die by the thousands. This bill is designed to aid them."

When Mr. Borah had finished up the senate listened to his wails about the "unconstitutionality" of the bill. His final argument was that Abraham Lincoln was a poor boy.

Some Bald Facts. The Republican campaign fund in 1908 amounted to $1,655,512.77. The Democratic fund was $1,620,642.27. The Republicans had more than a million in excess of the Democrats. The number who contributed to the Republican fund was 12,230, and to the Democratic, 74,900. In other words, the number of contributors to the Democratic fund was six times greater, and their contributions amounted to a million dollars less. The contributors to the Republican fund, as a rule, were interested in legislation, the money coming from such men as J. Pierpont Morgan, Charles P. Taft, Andrew Carnegie, Charles M. Schaub, John Jacob Astor and the heads of the various woolen mills who desired the passage of the Pany-Aldrich law, together with donations from the Wall street banks, railroad magnates and individuals, representing the tariff trusts. The contributors to the Democratic fund were not personally interested in legislation. The contributions to the Republican fund ranged from $11,000 downward, while contributions to the Democratic fund ranged from $5,000 downward.

"Elevating" the Workman. President McKinley, in one of his speeches, said: "It must be conceded that the protective system has dignified and elevated labor. We observe its triumphs on every hand." The industries most benefited by the high protective policy are steel, wool and cotton manufacturing, and we observe the methods by which these trusts have "dignified and elevated" labor. We observe one result of the "protective" process in the Lawrence, Mass., strike, where whole regiments, with drawn bayonets, are required to keep order among men, women and children who are trying to retain their present wages of $6, $7 and $8 a week, in which a cut has been threatened.

The "elevating" process is to be seen in the flower of its beauty and triumph, in the steel trusts' mills, where men are forced to labor 72 hours a week for the same wages paid laborers for 56 hours work in free trade England. Still another evidence of the "elevating" effect of protection on labor is seen in the employment, by the trusts, of thousands of children.

A Big Difference. "Millions for defense; not one cent for tribute." The American Woolen Mills Company, the woolen trust, spent hundreds of thousands of dollars in magazine advertising, the purpose of which was to "educate" the people into seeing the justice of schedule "K" and the way it was making sheep raisers rich by paying a big price for fleeces and information on which to peddle cloth to the American people for less than they really ought to pay.

And then, when the workers in its mills objected to a cut in the $6 a week wages they were getting, the woolen company employed an army of guards to protect its mills. When the state shortened the hours of labor, of course wages had to come down. Of course that patriotic company wouldn't pay 22 cents per week to its operatives in order that they might have shorter hours and still get $6 a week.

Fads and Fancies

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Although furs have been used a great deal during the present winter, the furriers are complaining of an exceedingly unsatisfactory season and the retail merchant with courage and money to seize his opportunity has been able to take over at wholesale large consignments of furs at so low a price that he is able to offer to his customers veritable bargains. Medium weight cover-all coats are appearing plentifully among the heavier winter models and while too light for use in northern February and March weather they are desirable for a southern sojourn and for later spring and summer uses in the north. The light-toned, rather rough woollens of light weight are popular for such purposes and one sees, too, some charming new models in dark blue serge which, while not so serviceable for motoring as a moderate size and color of this sort are in evidence among the new frocks and separate blouses, and they call quite as emphatically as do the high waist and straight shillouettes for a slender, hipless figure. The pelum may extend all around the waist in the front, or it may be in the front or back or in both places, or may confine itself to the sides. It may fall from a long waist or from one slightly raised, but in the latest and smartest aspect it is associated with the long waist and the belt.

FIRE DESTROYS FINE DWELLING IN GREENVILLE

Mr. A. L. Potter's House Consumed By Fire This Morning

PROPERTY IS VALUED AT $3400

Towards four o'clock this morning the town woke up to the cries of fire, and the ringing of the town bell. Sleepy persons took a hasty survey of the horizon from partly open windows and fully woke up when the red glare of sky-consuming flames drew a picture of destruction against the indistinct light of dawn, towards Tokocottown.

Hurriedly people jumped into their clothes and more hurriedly repaired to the scene of the fire, which in the few minutes of its existence had assumed important proportions. Not until probably 20 minutes from the time Mr. Potter gave the alarm was the fire department in a position to assume the fight against the flames and an unfortunate blunder committed at the time of their arrival, robbed them of precious time and still more precious efficiency in the fight. Although the fire started a few minutes before four, the hose was not working against the flames till about 25 minutes to five and by that time the fire had been so rapid in gaining access to practically every room in the house, that when the stream was turned on the walls were a mass of flames.

The isolation of the house made the danger of surrounding property almost nil. Also the absence of wind or a breeze of any kind insured the neighboring structures from the sparks that ascended and fell back to earth almost perpendicularly.

Mr. Potter, who is a rural mail carrier on route No. 1, and a very industrious man, also operates a wood saw at odd hours when not engaged in his main duties. He began sawing a lot of wood Friday evening and got up early this morning intending to go back to finish the job before time to go to the post office for his mail. He built a fire in his bed room, and Mrs. Potter arose and went to start a fire in the kitchen and prepare breakfast while Mr. Potter went out to feed his horse and attend to some other work about the lot. After starting the kitchen fire Mr. Potter went back into the house to arrange her room while the cook stove was getting going. He was in the kitchen carrying in some wood when he entered the kitchen saw and the ceiling burning around the stove fire. Although he tried his best to put it out it soon assumed such proportions that he was forced to give the alarm. A fact that goes some way to tell what a man will do under such circumstances, is that Mr. Potter removed from the burning kitchen the range from which the fire started. And this range weighs five hundred pounds.

Some furniture was saved from the lower rooms, but that occupying the two double and the two single rooms up stairs was destroyed. Although the house was not totally consumed by the fire, great damage was done to it before the firemen succeeded in drenching the fire into submission, and it is practically impossible to tell what a man will do under such circumstances, is that Mr. Potter removed from the burning kitchen the range from which the fire started. And this range weighs five hundred pounds.

Engineers to Meet in Charlotte. Charlotte.—For the purpose of witnessing the actual operation of one of the largest power generating transmitting and applying systems in the country, a party of 25 students of the State School of Applied Science at the Cleveland, Ohio, will visit Charlotte toward the latter part of March, and will inspect the plant of the Southern Power Company, its lines and several of the 165 cotton mills driven by the electric power furnished by this company.

Mrs. Durham Dead. Durham.—Mrs. J. A. Durham died last night at 10:40 at her home at 1104 Pettigrew street. A complication of diseases caused the death of Mrs. Durham, who was quite an old woman. Very charming things of this sort are in evidence among the new frocks and separate blouses, and they call quite as emphatically as do the high waist and straight shillouettes for a slender, hipless figure. The pelum may extend all around the waist in the front, or it may be in the front or back or in both places, or may confine itself to the sides. It may fall from a long waist or from one slightly raised, but in the latest and smartest aspect it is associated with the long waist and the belt.

Report of Seizures. Asheville.—Revenue Agent R. B. Spencer, in the result of a report at the Trading Ford school building, near Spencer, Thursday, February 22nd, the exercise will be under the auspices of Spencer Council No. 74, Jr. O. U. A. M., and a number of short addresses will be made.

Big Flag Raising. Spencer.—Arrangements have been made for a big flag raising at the Trading Ford school building, near Spencer, Thursday, February 22nd, the exercise will be under the auspices of Spencer Council No. 74, Jr. O. U. A. M., and a number of short addresses will be made.

ROYSTERS HIGH GRADE SPECIAL TOBACCO GUANO SPECIAL 4-8-4 QUALITY AND WEIGHT

A FACT ABOUT THE "BLUES"

What is known as the "Blues" is seldom occasioned by actual existing external conditions, but in the great majority of cases by a disordered LIVER.

THIS IS A FACT which may be demonstrated by taking a course of

Tutt's Pills

They control and regulate the LIVER. They bring hope and buoyancy to the mind. They bring health and elasticity to the body.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

Stiff Neck Relieved

For any stiffness or lameness Sloan's Liniment gives relief at once. It acts like massage—quicken the blood and limbers up lame muscles and joints. When applied immediately after violent exercise it prevents stiffness.

Here's Proof "I am using your liniment for stiffness. I have bought two bottles of it and it is the best I ever saw."

Mrs. MARY CURRY, Milltown, Ga.

"I had a severe pain between my shoulders, and nothing your advertisement in the street cars I got a bottle which quickly relieved me." R. D. BURGOYNE, Mayville, Ky.

KINSTON IN WESTERN SHOW

MAN WILL SHOOT OUT LIGHTS

POLICE OF KINSTON HAVE A PECULIAR CASE TO DEAL WITH INDIVIDUAL FOR SHOOTING ARC LIGHTS.

KINSTON, Feb. 17.—The police here have a mystery of a unique kind to deal with. Afflicted with a mania for shooting out arc lights, an unknown person has caused the city lighting force much trouble in the past six weeks, having destroyed nearly twenty corner lights at different times during that period. The operations of this marksman, as the night are confined to no one locality, but have extended throughout the eastern residential section. Not a clue has been had to lead to the apprehension of the mischief-maker, and no one has seen him, though officers have made every effort to track him down. Four in one one night was the last entry made on the unknown's record, and the electric light repairmen are beginning to lose sleep.

Durham Will Have a Country Club. Durham.—At a meeting of the main promoters of the Durham Country Club, a report from various committees appointed previously was heard, and a committee appointed to make application for a charter for the club. This latter committee is instructed to go to work at once, and in a few days application will be made to the secretary of state for the incorporation papers. This will be the final step in getting the club in shape to go about furtherance of the plans that are now in hand, and the club is as assured thing.

White Man Waylaid. Charlotte.—Harry Marshall, a white man, was found on North Tryon street last night seriously wounded, and taken to the Mercy General hospital. Marshall's neck was slashed in several places, one being almost through the jugular vein. Marshall said he had been set upon by three men as he was proceeding homeward, and that before he could realize what their intentions were they had cut his face and neck severely.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is an excellent antiseptic remedy for sore throat, cuts and bruises. Very penetrating—needs no rubbing. Sold by all dealers.

Price 25c., 50c. and $1.00.

Sloan's Book of Home, Care, Hoop and Posture sent free. Address DR. EARL B. SLOAN, BOSTON, MASS.

Young Women

Read what Cardui did for Miss Myria Engler, of Faribault, Minn.—She says: "Let me tell you how much good Cardui has done me. As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kind of pain. Sometimes, I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardui, at the drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better. Today, I feel as well as anyone can."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Are you a woman? Then you are subject to a large number of troubles and irregularities, peculiar to women, which, in time, often lead to more serious trouble. A tonic is needed to help you over the hard places, to relieve weakness, headache, and other unnecessary pains, the signs of weak nerves and over-work. For a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. You will never regret it, for it will certainly help you. Ask your druggist about it. He knows. He sells it.

Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn. for Special Instructions and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent free.

State Board Meeting. The members of the board of the North Carolina Christian Convention, were in session with Mr. E. A. Moye in the Christian church here Friday afternoon. The following members were present: Revs. B. P. Smith, of Kinston; R. V. Hope, of Washington; Messrs. L. J. Chapman, of Oriflow; W. M. Lane, of Farmville; W. C. Manning, of Williamston.

Give Full Information. Some people are very careless in writing letters. It is not unusual for The Reflector to get letters from subscribers giving instruction about changing or stopping their paper, in which they fail to give any post-office address, or say whether they take the daily or weekly. If they would always give full information when writing, we could come nearer knowing what to do.

When It Goes Around--And This One Certainly Did Go Some.

Once upon a time a young lady and her fiancée went fishing. At any rate, the fishing was an excuse to get away from the world, which is even another trick of self-wrought lovers.

And if Jonah were not enough, Greenville has a little story that might appeal to the most skeptic.

Some time ago, a half year ago, a little boy was victimized to the extent of a $200 ring. Right here began a chase such as has few parallels.

And if Jonah were not enough, Greenville has a little story that might appeal to the most skeptic.

Some time ago, a half year ago, a little boy was victimized to the extent of a $200 ring.

Right here began a chase such as has few parallels.

Policeman Cox, Clark got off to a rather warm scent and kept at it.

Whenever the sleuth thought he was about to grab the tiffany, something got in between and the chase was resumed.

This little hide and seek game kept up till this week when the elusive ring was returned to its rightful owner.

Same rightful owner was so delighted to get it back that she did not even stop to inquire as to extraordinary means had Mr. Clark had made use of to secure it.

Much credit is due to the representative of the police for his perseverance and good effort in recovering the jewel.

Special Invitation to Every Woman to Join.

Last week our town was fortunate in having some most attractive visitors in honor of the occasion.

Much to our regret, the visitors have left us, yet there are still in Greenville some most attractive and appreciative people, people who love attractive homes, people who would enjoy a clean and beautiful town.

Unfortunately to save our sewer pipes we have had to sacrifice some of our prettiest shade trees; we can replace these trees whose roots are not harmful, and there are many ugly spots we can make beautiful.

Here's to hoping that at the next meeting of the Civic League, all the present members will be there as well as many enthusiastic new ones.

Let's get ready for the next visitors now, and stay ready.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Bland-Moore Marriage to Take Place in April.

From three to five o'clock Friday afternoon, at the home of their parents on Dickinson avenue, Misses Susie and Ward Moore entertained at a Valentine party in honor of their guests, Miss Catherine Staples, of Harrisonburg, Va., and in the midst of the festivities the engagement of their sister, Miss Lizzinia Moore, to Mr. D. H. Bland, of Goldsboro, was announced.

The decorations of the home were strikingly beautiful, hearts and cupid being much in evidence.

The hall was in red, the parlor in pink and the dining room red.

The guests were received at the front door by Misses Ward Moore and Hennie Wheeler, and at the cloak room by Miss Susie Moore. They were then directed to the punch bowl in the hall where punch was served by Misses Hennie Ragsdale and Susie Warren.

In the parlor they were received by Misses Lizzinia Moore and Catherine Staples and Mrs. W. M. Martin, of Hickory.

The game of the afternoon was "sweethearts" with six tables of players. The score cards were red hearts, and stickers of gilt hearts designated the number of progressions made by the players.

After the game refreshments, heart-shaped and iced with pink cupid, were served by Misses Rubelele Forbes and Lillie Lanter.

The guests then all gathered in the parlor where suspended from the chandelier was a handsomely decorated basket from which hung ribbons with small hearts attached to the outer end.

The other end of the ribbons concealed in the basket were attached cards containing the secret all were eager to learn.

The first ribbon, to the hidden end of which hung a diamond engagement ring, was drawn out by Miss Susie Moore, who with an appropriate toast handed the ring to the bride-to-be.

Then each guest drew a ribbon and disclosed cards ornamented with Cupid and a bridal couple on one side, and on the other "Bland-Moore, April, 1912." Several toasts were given the bride-to-be, and all offered their congratulations.

Sidewalk Suggestions.

That a town or city should be kept clean and sanitary is a matter of great concern to all the people.

The back lots, streets front and back yards of private homes, but no place is of more vital importance than the sidewalks, for here all pass over and come in direct contact with every unsightly and unwholesome condition that may exist on the main walks.

There is a portion of sidewalk in Greenville that has not been swept for four weeks--on Main street--in front of occupied stores. Shame to our beautiful Greenville. Besides, not one foot of sidewalk on Main street is ever cleaned off on Saturday night, hence fifth of every kind remains for Sunday.

Why not require all business places to clean off in front of their respective places before leaving on Saturday nights? Why sweep the streets and not the sidewalks? "Better get busy."

Stokes Items.

STOKES, N. C., Feb. 15.--Mr. M. G. Stokes left Monday for Baltimore to buy his spring goods. He will return Friday.

Mr. William F. Stokes, who is attending school in Robesonville, spent Saturday and Sunday at home with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilbur Fleming are visiting Mr. M. M. Stokes and family, who have recently moved here.

Miss Eva Thomas, who is teaching school in Beaufort county, spent Sunday at home.

Miss Sidney Daynport, of Patactus, is spending this week with Mrs. M. G. Stokes.

Mrs. L. Mooring returned home Tuesday after visiting near Greenville a few days.

Some men look so far ahead that they lose sight of the opportunities under their very nose.

Death of Mrs. Susan Kinton. Mrs. Susan Kinton died about 10 o'clock Wednesday night at her home in South Greenville, after an illness of several months. In her death Greenville loses a truly good woman, and one whom many friends will miss.

Though into her own life had come sorrow and trials, she bore these uncomplainingly, and nothing gave her more pleasure than to be doing something for others.

She is survived by seven children, five sons and two daughters. She was a member of the Methodist church.

The funeral took place at 3:30 afternoon, services being conducted by Rev. E. M. Hoyle, the interment following in Cherry Hill cemetery.

The pall bearers were Messrs. T. R. Moore, D. S. Smith, A. R. Eillington, V. E. Staton, A. C. Halloman, J. J. Turnage, J. E. Little and N. W. Jackson.

S. M. Schultz. Established 1875.

Wholesale and Retail Grocer and Furniture dealer. Cash paid for all kinds of produce.

Some two and a half years ago, a little boy was victimized to the extent of a $200 ring.

Right here began a chase such as has few parallels.

Policeman Cox, Clark got off to a rather warm scent and kept at it.

Whenever the sleuth thought he was about to grab the tiffany, something got in between and the chase was resumed.

This little hide and seek game kept up till this week when the elusive ring was returned to its rightful owner.

Same rightful owner was so delighted to get it back that she did not even stop to inquire as to extraordinary means had Mr. Clark had made use of to secure it.

Much credit is due to the representative of the police for his perseverance and good effort in recovering the jewel.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Bland-Moore Marriage to Take Place in April.

From three to five o'clock Friday afternoon, at the home of their parents on Dickinson avenue, Misses Susie and Ward Moore entertained at a Valentine party in honor of their guests, Miss Catherine Staples, of Harrisonburg, Va., and in the midst of the festivities the engagement of their sister, Miss Lizzinia Moore, to Mr. D. H. Bland, of Goldsboro, was announced.

The decorations of the home were strikingly beautiful, hearts and cupid being much in evidence.

The hall was in red, the parlor in pink and the dining room red.

The guests were received at the front door by Misses Ward Moore and Hennie Wheeler, and at the cloak room by Miss Susie Moore. They were then directed to the punch bowl in the hall where punch was served by Misses Hennie Ragsdale and Susie Warren.

In the parlor they were received by Misses Lizzinia Moore and Catherine Staples and Mrs. W. M. Martin, of Hickory.

The game of the afternoon was "sweethearts" with six tables of players. The score cards were red hearts, and stickers of gilt hearts designated the number of progressions made by the players.

After the game refreshments, heart-shaped and iced with pink cupid, were served by Misses Rubelele Forbes and Lillie Lanter.

The guests then all gathered in the parlor where suspended from the chandelier was a handsomely decorated basket from which hung ribbons with small hearts attached to the outer end.

The other end of the ribbons concealed in the basket were attached cards containing the secret all were eager to learn.

The first ribbon, to the hidden end of which hung a diamond engagement ring, was drawn out by Miss Susie Moore, who with an appropriate toast handed the ring to the bride-to-be.

Then each guest drew a ribbon and disclosed cards ornamented with Cupid and a bridal couple on one side, and on the other "Bland-Moore, April, 1912." Several toasts were given the bride-to-be, and all offered their congratulations.

Sidewalk Suggestions.

That a town or city should be kept clean and sanitary is a matter of great concern to all the people.

The back lots, streets front and back yards of private homes, but no place is of more vital importance than the sidewalks, for here all pass over and come in direct contact with every unsightly and unwholesome condition that may exist on the main walks.

There is a portion of sidewalk in Greenville that has not been swept for four weeks--on Main street--in front of occupied stores. Shame to our beautiful Greenville. Besides, not one foot of sidewalk on Main street is ever cleaned off on Saturday night, hence fifth of every kind remains for Sunday.

Why not require all business places to clean off in front of their respective places before leaving on Saturday nights? Why sweep the streets and not the sidewalks? "Better get busy."

Stokes Items.

STOKES, N. C., Feb. 15.--Mr. M. G. Stokes left Monday for Baltimore to buy his spring goods. He will return Friday.

Mr. William F. Stokes, who is attending school in Robesonville, spent Saturday and Sunday at home with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilbur Fleming are visiting Mr. M. M. Stokes and family, who have recently moved here.

Miss Eva Thomas, who is teaching school in Beaufort county, spent Sunday at home.

Miss Sidney Daynport, of Patactus, is spending this week with Mrs. M. G. Stokes.

Mrs. L. Mooring returned home Tuesday after visiting near Greenville a few days.

Some men look so far ahead that they lose sight of the opportunities under their very nose.

BOY DIRECT FROM MANUFACTURER. and save the MIDDLE MAN'S PROFIT!

HARVARD BLACK ROOF PAINT (Guaranteed 5 years)

Best paint on the market for use on Shingles, Pelt, Canvas, Paper, Metal, Tin and Rubber Roofs, Cotters and Copings, Structural Iron Works, Bridges, Subways, Tunnels, Basements, Fences, Elevators, Towers, Pumps, Poles, Vaults, Tanks, Steam Pipes, Stand Pipes, Sewer Pipes, Farm Implements, etc.

Stops Leaks and Prevents Decay and Rust in Water-Pipes, Weather Proof and Acid-Proof.

We MANUFACTURE a full line of Ready Mixed House Paints, Barn Paints, Varnishes, Dryers, etc.

Our Motto--Quality and a square deal.

We Solicit Your Business for Paint for any Purpose.

Write us for Prices, Color Cards and Terms. It will cost you nothing to investigate.

THE HARVARD MANUFACTURING CO., CLEVELAND, OHIO.

(In answering ads, mention paper).

2 23-47w

Central Barber Shop

HERBERT BOND, Proprietor

Located in main business of town. Four chairs in operation and each one presided over by a skilled barber. Ladies waited at their home.

Gardner's Repair Shop

If you want the best Cart Wheels manufactured in Pitt County go to Gardner's Shop and ask for a pair of DIXIE WHEELS

Blick Birch Hubs, split White Oak Spokes, Fitch-pine Rims, Steel Tires and Axle, made up strictly first-class workmen. Every pair guaranteed. Just around the corner from the market.

GARDNER'S REPAIR SHOP, Greenville, N. C.

CLEANING DYEING PRESSING

You have been passing our establishment daily, and no doubt noticed the BEAUTIFULLY PRESSED GARMENTS in our windows. You concluded to bring in "at suit which really needs cleaning, but have neglected to do so.

Let us save you the trouble; phone us right now. We call for and deliver. No extra charge.

Frank Hopkins

Phone 61 - - - Greenville, N. C.

FLOWERS

When you want the best, remember we are at your services.

Choice Roses, Carnations, Violets and Wedding Outfits in the Latest Styles.

Floral offerings artistically arranged at short notice.

When in need of pot plants, rose bushes, evergreens, shrubbery, hedge plants and shade trees, mail, telephone or telephone your orders to

J. L. O'Quinn & Co.

Phone 149. RALEIGH, N. C.

Cabbage Plants

Millions of thoroughbred Frost Proof Cabbage plants for sale. The following varieties:

Jersey Wakefield, Charleston Wakefield, Succession, Large Late Drum Head.

This selection should give you continuous heading through the entire season.

PRICES IN FIELD, $1.00 PER THOUSAND.

Prepare for shipments in lots of from 1,000 to 10,000, $1.25 per thousand; over 10,000 $1.00 per thousand. F. O. B. Greenville, N. C.

Can supply order of any size. Count and satisfaction guaranteed.

L. C. ARTHUR, GREENVILLE, N. C.

Bank of Greenville Greenville, N. C.

Capital Stock $50,000 To Loan on Good Commercial Paper $75,000

Accounts solicited and we especially invite you to call

R. L. Davis, Pres. J. L. Little, Cashier S. T. Hooker, V-Pres. H. D. Bateman, Ass't

G. M. MOORING & SON General Merchandise

Buyers of cotton and country produce. We now occupy the former Central Mercantile Co. store and will glad to have our friends call on us.

Home, Sweet Home Keep your home sweet and sanitary by using new furniture.

We have the kind you need--in fact our carload of goods is just opened up--and we want to tell you the truth about some of the prettiest rugs and art squares it has ever been our pleasure to show you.

JUST drop in and look over our goods. Don't wait, come today. No trouble to show goods. It's a pleasure.

Taft & Vandyke

IF YOU ARE GOING NORTH --TRAVEL VIA-- The CHESAPEAKE LINE DAILY SERVICE: INCLUDING SUNDAY

The new Steamers just placed in service the "CITY OF NORFOLK" and "CITY OF BALTIMORE" are the most elegant and up-to-date steamers between Norfolk and Baltimore.

Equipped with wireless-telephone in each room. Delicious meals served on board. Everything for comfort and convenience.

Steamers leave Norfolk 6:15 p. m. daily, arriving at Baltimore 7:00 a. m. following morning.

Connecting at Baltimore for all points NORTH, NORTH EAST, AND WEST.

Very low round trip rates to Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Atlantic City, etc. Reservations made and any information cheerfully furnished.

W. H. PARSELL, T. F. A., Norfolk, Virginia.

Mr. Business Man: THE DAILY REFLECTOR goes into 1,400 homes six days a week--has, approximately, 7000 readers. The Eastern Reflector, our weekly edition, goes into 1,200 homes--has 5000 readers.

Can you figure out why an ad in either of these papers won't pay?

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 17.--Several decisions of unusual importance may be handed down by the Supreme court of the United States when it reconvenes Monday after a three weeks' recess.

The general managers of all of the prominent eastern railroads are to confer in New York Friday regarding the demand made by the locomotive engineers for higher wages.

The general managers of all of the prominent eastern railroads are to confer in New York Friday regarding the demand made by the locomotive engineers for higher wages.

Governors of twelve eastern states have accepted invitations for representation at a conference to be held in Harrisburg, Pa., Tuesday and Wednesday to devise means to check the spread of the chestnut tree blight, which is killing millions of dollars worth of trees in New England, New York, Pennsylvania and the South.

The annual celebration of Washington's birthday Tuesday will be the occasion as designated to read Washington's farewell address before the senate on that day.

Buyers of cotton and country produce. We now occupy the former Central Mercantile Co. store and will glad to have our friends call on us.

N. C. GIRL WEDS CHINAMAN

BEAUFORT GIRL, MRS. WONG PING MISS MYRTLE ARTHUR, A BEAUFORT COUNTY GIRL WEDS WONG PING, WEALTHY CHINAMAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 19.--Wong Ping, a wealthy Chinese merchant, with business establishments in New York, San Francisco, and Norfolk, having been refused a license to marry in Norfolk, Newport News, and Richmond, came to this city yesterday morning with Miss Myrtle Arthur, 21 years old, chaperoned by Mrs. Ryne, a mission worker of Norfolk, and the ceremony was performed at the residence of the Rev. C. H. Butler, 299 Second street, southeast.

While Mrs. Ping has been living in Norfolk for more than a year, the greater part of her work has been spent in one of the rural districts of North Carolina, and as the groom remarked: "North Carolina small country; my girl not see natives of world. We stay here and see everything."

ANNIVERSARY WAKE FOREST CELEBRATION OF ITS 77TH YEAR

WAKE FOREST CELEBRATES 77th ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDATION OF LITERARY SOCIETIES.

WAKE FOREST, Feb. 17.--With a warm sunlight driving away the dampness and the mud, the day of the celebration of the 77th anniversary of the organization of the Wake Forest literary societies of Wake Forest College was most fittingly ushered in by rain and generally bad weather which has continued through the past week brought discouragement to the prospects of many. The genuine spring weather which prevails today is a suitable recompense for any temporary discouragement.

In spite of the weather there were many guests who arrived in time for the basketball game last night. The trains today have been crowded with fair visitors, and at the present time the usual anniversary number is here.

The first scheduled event of anniversary occurred this afternoon when the representatives of the Executive and Philanthropic Literary Societies discussed the question, "Resolved, That the Right of Suffrage Should Not Be Restricted on Account of Sex."

NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS. Taxed for the year 1911 are long past due, and the time has almost arrived when I will have to collect. Those who are yet delinquent should come forward and pay, so as to avoid costs being added.

This February 17, 1912. S. I. DUDLEY, Sheriff. 2 19-1md-w

BRYAN CASE. ERNOR KITCHIN.

NEW BERN Man Walks Out of Court a Free Man. HIS RE-ARRESTED IN LIQUOR CASE.

NEW BERN, Feb. 17.--At 3:55 o'clock yesterday afternoon the jury in the Baker Bryan murder case after being out for more than seventy hours brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Immediately Solicitor Abernethy arose and stated that he wished to file affidavits charging Messrs. Wm. Byron and J. F. Rhodes, two of the jurors, with conspiracy to obstruct justice.

Mr. Zussaroff, the French ambassador, will deliver the Washington's birthday address at the Union League Club celebration in Chicago Thursday.

BEAUFORT GIRL, MRS. WONG PING. WELL KNOWN COLORED MEN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 19.--Wong Ping, a wealthy Chinese merchant, with business establishments in New York, San Francisco, and Norfolk, having been refused a license to marry in Norfolk, Newport News, and Richmond, came to this city yesterday morning with Miss Myrtle Arthur, 21 years old, chaperoned by Mrs. Ryne, a mission worker of Norfolk, and the ceremony was performed at the residence of the Rev. C. H. Butler, 299 Second street, southeast.

ABUSING A GOOD LAW. The foreman of a North Carolina construction camp, who on his arrival in this city carried his revolver to a police officer to surrender it so as not to violate the law and was thereupon sent to a cell and kept all night as a lawbreaker, had his day in court.

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD. Stonecutters earn 25 cents a day in Shanghai, China.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF RAILWAY CAR MEN recently organized ten new lodges.

Over 11,000 women are engaged in lace making at home in the city of Nottingham.

THE AMALGAMATED LACE CURTAIN OPERATORS OF AMERICA will hold their annual convention at New York, May 2.

During December, 1911, the Switchmen's Union of North America paid out $18,500 in death and disability benefits.

THE NATIONAL PRINT CUTTERS' association of America will hold its annual convention at Philadelphia, beginning on April 27.

THE TRADE UNIONISTS of Fresno, Cal., have started a campaign to get money for the erection of a $50,000 temple in that city.

Dear Pitt County: No matter where your home is located, whether in the northern, southern, eastern or western part of the county, THE DAILY REFLECTOR wants to know what you or yours are doing and how it is being done.

Anything out of the ordinary is interesting at all times and to everybody. For this reason, THE DAILY REFLECTOR wants to get a line from you whenever that something out of the ordinary takes place in your neighborhood.

For the purpose of publishing these general county news items, THE DAILY REFLECTOR will dedicate each Saturday of each week, half a page or a full page, if necessary, to such matter.

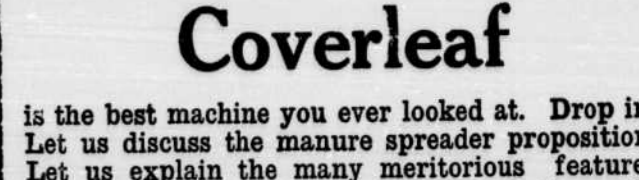

People coming and going about your neighborhood, affairs about your farm, gatherings, whether social, religious, or for the discussion of problems that face you every day. All of that is interesting and in many cases instructive.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR wants to be posted and will pay regular news rates for everything published. Wherever you are, whatever your denomination, whatever your means, you can furnish us with just that news matter that we want for our General County News Section.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR wants to hear from you all, and the best care will be taken of everything you send in.

Yours truly, THE DAILY REFLECTOR.

Don't judge a Manure Spreader by Looks

Every Manure Spreader is not a Cloverleaf that looks like one. You can't judge a Manure Spreader by its looks because there are many features which are found in the construction of one machine that are not found in others.

Cloverleaf Manure Spreaders are the most easily operated, the strongest and best machines on the market. If you will examine one critically you will agree with us that the Cloverleaf is the best machine you ever looked at. Drop in. Let us discuss the manure spreader proposition. Let us explain the many meritorious features found in Cloverleaf construction.

Better still, buy one, then you will be in a better position to know why you can't judge a manure spreader by its looks. If you are not ready to buy, call and get a catalogue. Its filled with valuable information on soil maintenance and fertility. We are reserving one for you. Won't you call and get it today?

Hart & Hadley GREENVILLE, N. C.

UNCLE SAM Deposits in the

The Greenville Banking and Trust Company POSTAL FUNDS for this section of the State $$$$$

Our Capital Stock is $75,000 [The Largest in Pitt County]

