

DEMOCRATIC ALL OVER IS THE SENATE

Not Only In Name But In Practical Results

SAYS SEN. KERN, LEADER

All Things In Harmony With President Wilson, They Are Active Supporters Of The Chief's Policies

WASHINGTON, March 16.—With the declaration from the floor, Senator Kern, that they proposed to make the senate "Democratic not only in name, but in practical result," the Democrats today reorganized the committees of the senate and took actual control of legislative affairs in that body.

Factional differences disappeared in the final processes of organization. Senator Tillman, who carried up to the party caucus earlier in the day his fight for the chairmanship of the appropriations committee, voted the final word of his support for the fight when he was given the chairmanship of the naval affairs committee.

"I bow and cheerfully submit to that decision," he said. In its reorganized form the senate is apparently in the control of the "new" majority. The new majority is the fight which President Wilson has fought since early in the last session for the "new" program.

Going from home in early manhood to begin to make for himself, his first position was as salesman for John D. Riggs in Williamson where he remained for two years. In the foundation of that success which crowned his life. At this time he married Miss Margaret Elizabeth Purvis and made a home in Hamilton, engaging in business with his brother, the late W. H. Everett. He continued in this business until 1894, when he joined the firm of W. F. Allen and Co., of Norfolk. In the year of 1892 he purchased the farm originally belonging to Thomas Jones near Patuxent where he lived until his death.

All through those years when farming had not begun to bring him the splendid results he now, he brought out of the soil by industry and safe management, stored wealth and lived in his home with ease and comfort. So at his death his estate consisting of farm property, securities and bank stock was worth about $200,000 and $75,000. Perhaps no farm in this section was conducted more in accordance with present day operations than his.

He had raised a large family, and had given his children collegiate training—no man being a more ardent advocate of educational and moral progress. He was always frank and sincere, devoted to his family, his church and his friends. In his transactions he gave every man a square deal. The motto of his life was that he was as good as any man socially, but no better than any other honest man. His religion was that of a true Primitive Baptist church, joining at Spring Green, where he reposed the bodies of his first wife and several children. The solemn words of committal were said by his pastor, Elder Thomas Lawrence, whose close personal friend he had been for thirty years.

Wilson And Bryan Urged To Take Active Part In Religious Uplift

WASHINGTON, March 15.—President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan today were urged to take an active part in a movement for the religious uplift of men in the District of Columbia. Twenty prominent ministers called upon the president and secretary, asking them to take a well-organized movement.

The president was invited to make an address before a mass meeting of the local Christian Endeavor Society on the last Sunday in April. He said he would consider the matter and give his answer later. Secretary Bryan was asked by the clergymen to deliver a course of six addresses to men to be held Sunday afternoons beginning in April under inter-denominational auspices. He indicated he would probably do so, but that he would defer a definite answer until he returns from his trip home to Lincoln, Neb.

Justus Everett—A Sketch On August 2nd 1849 in Martin county near Robertsonville, there was born Simon Everett. His father was Justus, the subject of this sketch. In the home of his parents he received wholesome lessons which made for the man years of honesty and uprightness of character. To the precepts of his parents, were added the splendid training under Stephen Oatbridge, whose influence has touched more lives in Martin county than any man who has lived in the last fifty years.

Parents Will Hire Hazers; Convicted of Manslaughter

Trial Of University Ex-Students Brought To Close

SENTENCED FOR 4 MONTHS

First Case of Its Kind Ever in the Courts of North Carolina—Judge Peebles Passes Minimum Penalty.

HILLSBORO, March 15.—The twelve Orange county farmers sitting in judgment upon the case of the state against Ralph W. Oldham of Raleigh; William L. Merriman of Williamston and Aubrey C. Hatch of Mount Olive, set a precedent in the criminal proceedings of North Carolina today and gave the practice of hazing a stunning blow when at 3:10 o'clock this afternoon they returned a verdict of "manslaughter" against the three sophomores at the bar of justice of Hillsboro county to answer for the slaying of William Ham in a hazing episode captured on the morning of Friday, September 13, 1912.

The announcement of the verdict by the foreman of the jury came at the end of three hours' deliberation, and the decision arrived at by the twelve men who sat patiently on the case since Thursday did not cause much surprise.

The fathers of the boys had displayed nervous anxiety over the welfare of their sons after Judge Peebles' charge to the jury at 1:37 in the morning, and the loving father of one of the sons who had watched every step in the progress of the trial, evinced extreme nervousness during the morning session and broke down in tears at the noon recess of court.

No less anxious was some of the court room spectators in the announcement of the verdict, who feared the worst for the three boys at the bar, and when the jury filed into the courtroom, signifying their readiness to pronounce their decisions, intense silence hung over the little courtroom with its ancient bearings.

At the conclusion of the verdict, attorneys for the defense and the parents of the boys retired in an adjoining room for consultation.

Judge R. B. Peebles, then without any undue ceremony, passed sentence upon the three young men, who were the Huerta soldiers pursued in the case of manslaughter. He pronounced sentence in these terms: "That each of the defendants shall be imprisoned in the county jail of Orange for four months, beginning the eighth day of April, 1913, and the remaining each defendant shall give bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance before the sheriff of Orange county, at Hillsboro, N. C., to obey the order of the county commissioners, who shall, in their discretion, hire them out to whomsoever they please in this state. The defendants are to be taxed with the cost of this action."

The authority to hire out the defendants will save them from jail confinement, as their parents can and will hire them out to the sheriff of Orange county, at Hillsboro, N. C., to obey the order of the county commissioners, who shall, in their discretion, hire them out to whomsoever they please in this state. The defendants are to be taxed with the cost of this action."

Justice Peebles replied to the expression of thanks from the attorney of the defendants in these words: "I hope this will be the last case of hazing in any college or university in North Carolina. It is incomprehensible to me that boys brought up as these boys should go to a poor freshman's room and take him out of his room, pour blacking on him, and have fun at his expense. I am glad of an opportunity to show these young men that I have no inclination to be severe. I only want to make an example of this case. I understand that another boy has been blacked at the university since this case began. If I had the boys that did that here I certainly would put them on the roads."

Although the conviction of manslaughter carries with it a stigma and deprives a man of citizenship, the actual punishment meted out to the boys, Hatch and Merriman by the court is light. The payment of the costs in the case and the hiring of the boys to their parents, sums up the punishment administered in the last analysis. It was positively indicated this afternoon that this will be the method of procedure approved by the county commissioners when the appointed day comes for hiring them out.

The fathers of the boys convicted will please make immediate payment. This March 12th, 1913. L. W. JACKER, Administrator. F. G. JAMES and SON, Attys. 3 14 1td 3w

Band of Insurgents Are Attacked And Defeated

Mexican Federal Soldiers Make Things Warm for Rebels

1,000 ROUTED BY GEN. OJEDA

After Peppering Enemy's Line With Little And Machine Gun Bullets And Spraying Lead From Sharpshooters

NACAO, Ariz., March 15.—Instead of waiting to be attacked by nearly 1,000 insurgent state troops, General Ojeda, with less than 500 federal soldiers, went onto from Nacaco today and defeated the enemy in less than three hours of aggressive fighting, peppering the enemy's line with rifle and machine gun bullets and spraying lead from sharpshooters over hills opposite his fortifications. The Huerta federals gave the state forces five miles to the southeast. Late today the government forces returned victorious to the Mexican border town opposite this point.

Event the victors did not believe the fighting was ended, however, nor that Nacaco is secure from assault. The state forces are assembling tonight in still greater numbers to wrest the only remaining port on the Sonora border from the hands of the Huerta national government.

With the advantage of unexpected aggression and possessing five artillery pieces, the federal forces, including soldiers defending the military honor of the new Huerta regime, fought as wild men against seemingly overwhelming odds. Protected by the artillery fire, the federal soldiers rushed to the rescue from the east and with a roar of artillery and the continued rattle of rifles the battle was on. For an hour desperate fighting continued. Little by little the state troops fell back from the terrific fire of the aggressors. For a time the Huerta soldiers pursued closely the retreating enemy, advancing the artillery from the rear of the skirmish lines. Bodies of killed and wounded state troops lie deserted to

During the past half century, thousands of ladies have written to tell of the quick curative results they obtained, from the use of this well-known medicine.

TAK CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Callahan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had back-ache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardui.

FRIDAY, MARCH 14, 1914

Isn't it one of the strangest things imaginable that men with any pretensions to decency will persist in running blind tigers and engage in selling liquor? Aside from their own knowledge of it being a violation of the law, which alone should be sufficient to deter any man who appreciates good citizenship, they ought to know that if they keep it up they will be caught sooner or later and have to take the consequences. The better people who want to see the law enforced and good order prevail are determined that blind tigers shall be broken up.

Good Friday, Easter and Easter Monday make three steps close together.

The outcome of the trial of the University hazing at Hillsboro will meet with general approval throughout the state. While all felt that the students who engaged in the hazing should be punished, yet it was not desired that extreme punishment be meted out to them. In giving them the minimum penalty and making the terms of the sentence as easy as possible, the end of just has been met and the public satisfied. The aim of this trial was to break up the crime of hazing in the schools of the state.

When work gets under way on the government building and on two other large buildings that are already in prospect, to say nothing of the others that may be started in the mean time, building operations will look mighty good in Greenville. That is the town for folks who want a good location to be setting their eyes on and moving to. But we do not want you if you will only be a hanger on or a drone in the bee hive.

Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels is going to stop some of the fellows who have been fattening off the government in relation to old war vessels. The turret board wanted $200,000 spent in remodeling some of them, and when it was referred to the secretary he put himself on record against it. Joe Daniels is one of the boys who does not believe in wasting everything in sight.

Mr. A. D. Ward, of North Carolina, has been made secretary of the senate finance committee of which Senator Simmons recently became chairman. This appointment is not only a recognition of faithful service, but it also puts a capable man in a responsible position.

"The Reflector is certainly making people talk about Greenville," was the violet a business man handed us yesterday in passing. That has been our business for thirty years and if the folks here keep on doing things, we'll see that others find it out to talk about.

No farmer should be satisfied to make merely a living out of his farm, when by systematic desiccation and intelligent cultivation he can produce enough to provide a snug bank account in excess of a comfortable living.

Of course in every legislature there are silly bills, but it took the Ohio assembly to develop a member who was fool enough to introduce a bill to regulate women's dresses.

All the talk of opposition to Senator Simmons being made chairman of the senate finance committee, went up in smoke. There is not a member who commands more influence than the senior senator of North Carolina.

Now if everybody would cut out politics and things that amount to nothing and get to work for upbuilding the community, there would be more accomplished.

A robbery of $300,000 worth of diamonds at one haul in New York city, shows that the lifters are more on their jobs than are the policemen.

If a man comes along with a scheme better marked it down, that he is looking out for his own interest instead of yours, and pass him along.

The way farmers are buying improved machinery is the best indication of the advanced strides in farming.

The best time to kill the fly is before he is hatched. Go after the breeding places and fewer of them will be in evidence.

Of course every woman at the millinery opens thinks she got the best looking hat.

Hayes, in Charge of Orphan's Home Is Short $5,000 In Accounts

WINSTON-SALEM, March 18.—After an all day session the board of trustees of the Methodist Orphan's Home here issued a detailed report late this afternoon regarding the shortage of former Superintendent H. A. Hayes, who retired about a month ago. An expert accountant employed to audit the accounts of the home reports a shortage of proven items in Mr. Hayes' account of $3,192.74, making a total of $5,531.58, the shortage being in the maintenance involving the building fund. The transfer committee of the home to the new superintendent under the direction of the attorney has been directed to continue the process to reimburse the home so far as possible for the whole defalcation from any assets which may hereafter be found.

On advice of counsel criminal proceedings were delayed until an expert accountant had made a final report. In the meanwhile the family of Mr. Hayes has had him placed in Westbrook sanitarium, Richmond, Va. for examination as to sanity.

The trustees of the home announce that the life of the institution has in no way been affected by Hayes' defalcation, there being sufficient funds on hand for the erection of two permanent buildings.

Winston and Salem Consolidated. By majorities of 161 in Salem and 540 in Winston the citizens of the two towns voted today for the consolidation of Winston and Salem into a municipality in accordance with an act passed at the recent session of the N. C. Legislature. The consolidation act goes into effect May 1. During that month election of a mayor and aldermen for the combined Twin City will be held.

The victory obtained by the splendid organization advocating consolidation was the greater than was anticipated by the most interesting and earnest advocates of the proposition. The combining of the two towns means a greater Winston-Salem and a population within the city limits of 25,000 with the nearby population of not less than 6,000. The total vote cast in Winston was 500 for consolidation and 240 against and in Salem 335 for and 224 against.

Col. Webb Goes to Washington. Col. G. E. Webb, whom Winston has honored for collector of this revenue district expects to go to Washington this week to hold a conference with Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Adoo. While it has been rumored for some time that A. D. Watts, of Statesville, private secretary to Senator Simmons, was booked for this position, there has been no appointment made yet and the large number of friends who have endorsed Winston-Salem's candidate stand firm in the belief that Sen. Overman, in whose territory the office lies, will name Mr. Webb. There has also been talk that Col. A. H. Boyden of Salisbury may enter the race for the collectorship.

Mr. J. T. Pitt Dead. Mr. J. T. Pitt, who was overseer of the C. T. Munford farm, a mile east of town, died about 11 o'clock this morning. He was taken with cholera last Sunday and pneumonia followed. Mr. Pitt was about 44 years of age and leaves a wife and several children. He was an industrious farmer and held in high esteem.

As Mr. Meye Views It

Farmville, N. C. March 16, 1913. Editor Reflector:

I am sure we are engaged in conflict in this country that should call for much forbearance upon the part of the progressive element of the people. The issues should be discussed aside from personalities and each one should respect the feelings of the others.

That piece of jingle which appeared some days ago was calculated to cause one to smile, but upon mature reflection every progressive citizen must deplore its publication. Many have been hurt, some are cursing me and more are wounding on account of the appearance of that piece.

Senator Evans is our senator and the only one that we have, and should receive the deference due one who occupies that responsible position. Some of us did not want him to be our senator, but as great many thought he represented the real spirit and the prevailing thought of the county. Such articles will strengthen him and weaken the cause of high toned politics. We must learn to give and take good naturedly.

Then perhaps there will be some more of others and not to impute to one another sinister motives.

The motto of all should be the greatest good to the greatest number. Senator Tillman displayed a commendable spirit when he was defeated for our chairmanship. He is reported as saying that he was disappointed, but that he yielded gracefully and would accept the verdict of his fellow members and do the best he could under the circumstances.

Let's accord to Senator Evans the respect due one who holds the position he does and not act as a spoiled child.

There is more in this countenour than some think, and its correct solution is of immense importance to the county for a generation. "With malice towards none and love for all" let's do our duty as God gives us wisdom to see it.

Working on Commission

What would think of doing health work on commission? Well, that is really what North Carolina is doing.

In 1911 about $35,000 worth of human lives were saved by health work. For this the state paid $22,500. In other words, it was one on a seven per cent commission.

In 1912 the health machinery got to working a little better and as a result no less than $5,000,000 worth of human lives were saved by health work. In other words, life saving in 1912 was done a little less than a half per cent commission.

About the time some of these facts became known certain legislators who didn't have anything but sense began to wake up to the fact that health work pays and in order to make it pay a little better and in order to find out exactly what it did pay, they managed to secure an additional appropriation of $8,500 for health work, and $10,000 for the enforcement of a vital statistics law. The year 1914 will show us exactly where we stand with reference to death rates all over the state and after that we shall be able to know just what is or is not being done to reduce these death rates.

Then perhaps there will be some more life saving done on a commission basis.

What is the Answer.

If health work saved $5,000,000 in preventable sickness and death in our state last year, will some one please explain why we are afraid to risk over $150,000 in state, county and municipal health work combined to effect a still greater saving when our annual loss from preventable diseases still ranges around $40,000,000? If a business man could save an annual loss of $1 by spending 75 or 80 or even 90 cents, don't you think he would do it? Why then is not this great state run on a business basis? Why are we afraid to spend over three or four cents to save a dollar.

SPEAKING OF CHANGES

By COSTER BYLES.

There was not a wilder boy in town than young Cuthbert Tanhurst. All the mothers with marriageable daughters held up their hands in horror at the mere mention of his name, and the men-about-town were unanimous in pronouncing him a thoroughbred. It was partly the fault of his education. His father had been a most successful speculator, and had taught his son that he must spend his money like a gentleman or not at all.

The young fellow had imbibed aristocratic tastes from his earliest days, he had learned never to stint himself, never to do anything himself that others could be hired to do for him, and to believe that the end of each day of living was to exhaust from each day as much pleasure as the hours would hold.

Then his father dropped suddenly from the position of millionaire to that of pauper, a not unusual change on the stage of speculation. A grand coup went wrong and Tanhurst, Sr., was out of the game. The shock killed the old gentleman, and when the lawyers were done with the settlements, Cuthbert found himself penniless.

It was against his grain to go to work, so he became an inmate of the poker rooms at fashionable clubs, and a prominent figure at the race courses. It was at this time that his name became as a red rag to the good people of the town. With a very few exceptions all the strictly proper folks who had long been used to the hospitality of Tanhurst, Sr., turned away their heads when they saw the son.

At the close of a summer day he was walking home in a sultry mood. It had been a bad day, misfortune had dogged him persistently, and he was asking himself what was the use of continuing it. He was of no good to himself, and there was no one else in the world who cared for him, or of whom he dared think as caring for him. In the old days of luxury he had always hoped to

ONCE PLANNED TO SHOOT UP U. S. COURT

New Bern Pastor Writes Gov. Mann Of Allens Intentions

PREVIOUS TO HILLSVILLE AFFAIR

Sidna Allen Told Rev. Carter If the Court Had Convicted That Both the Judge and the Attorney Would Have Been Shot

RICHMOND, Va., March 16.—Evidence to show that Sidna Allen and his brothers had agreed that none of them should ever go to the penitentiary and that they had planned to shoot up the federal court at Greensboro, N. C., if Sidna Allen had been convicted of counterfeiting, has come to light since Governor Mann made his final decision not to interfere with the sentences of Floyd and Claude Allen.

It came from Rev. Edward T. Carter, D. D., pastor of Middle Street Baptist church, New Bern, N. C., to whom Carter had written the letter and told of the existing conspiracy and of what would have happened had he been found guilty.

The information was sent to the governor by Dr. Carter. A friend of the executive secured a copy and gave it out, thinking the public entitled to the information. The author of the letter has no objection to the publication and says he will stand by his statement.

This recalls the Combs case in Cadrol county when Floyd Allen was given a fine and short jail sentence. The imprisonment feature was eliminated by the governor and Judge Robert C. Jackson, then on the bench, believes to this day that if the governor had not complied the tragedy of 1912 would have been enacted in 1902 with himself as one of the victims. It is stated that Floyd Allen forced Noah Combs, who had been shot, to pay the fine.

The letter from Dr. Carter is as follows: The Baptist Parsonage New Bern, N. C., March 7, 1913. To Governor Mann, Richmond, Va.: Honorable and Dear Sir: I have just learned through the press that you have decided that the sentences imposed against Floyd Allen and his son for murder must be carried out. Now that your decision has been reached if the paper reports are correct I desire to say that I have been acquainted with the Allen gang for some time, and most heartily concur in your decision. I am now pastor of the First Baptist church of New Bern, N. C., but at the time Sidna Allen was tried for counterfeiting in Greensboro I was the minister at Mount Airy and the day he was acquitted I returned to the latter city on the same train with Sidna Allen.

We engaged in conversation about the trial and in response to a remark I made about the narrow escape he had from a penitentiary sentence, he said: "Yes, it was a mighty close call, but it was a d— good thing for the court that I was acquitted." I asked him why, and he said: "My brothers were in court and if I had been convicted Judge Boyd and Attorney Hoidt would have been shot dead."

"Thinking it was simply a boastful remark, I suggested that he would not have attempted any such thing, to which he replied: "We had our guns with us, and Judge Boyd would never have been shot if we had not done so. My brothers and I have made an agreement that not one of us shall ever go to the penitentiary. Seeing I looked somewhat skeptical, he insisted that he meant every word he said.

I write this because I know you were desirous of doing everything you could for those two men and of showing them mercy had there been any way to do so. About the son, I know nothing, and until this sad affair had never heard a thing against him. My only object in writing this is to cause you to feel that you have made no error in deciding that the law must take its course.

If I have erred in writing you I trust you will pardon me. I remain, honorable and dear sir, Yours sincerely, (Signed) EDWARD T. CARTER, Baptist Minister New Bern, N. C., March 11, 1913, To the Governor of the State of Virginia:

RUN DOWN PEOPLE

Made Strong by Vinol
Run down conditions are caused by overwork, worry, too close confinement, a chronic cough or cold which is difficult to cure. We want to say to every person in this condition—you need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic with out oil, the great strength creator. It will supply iron for the blood in the most easily assimilated form, create healthy appetites, strengthen your digestive organs and make you eat better, sleep better and feel better.

A case has just come to our attention from West Scranton, Pa. Mrs. Chas. Proyer says: "For three years I was all run down, weak and had no appetite and after all that time I am glad to say Vinol has brought back my strength and health which is just what I was told it would do."

We are confident that Vinol is the best body builder and strength creator ever made. Try a bottle on your guarantee to refund your money if it fails to benefit you. Baer's Pharmacy.

The Cause of Rheumatism
Stomach trouble, lazy liver and de-gained kidneys are the cause of rheumatism. Get your stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels in healthy condition by taking Electric Bitters and you will not be troubled with the pangs of rheumatism. Charles B. Allen, a school principal of Sylvania, Ga., who suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys, writes: "All remedies failed until I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely."

Doctor Charged With Murder Has Stroke Of Paralysis In Jail

MORGANTON, March 15.—E. A. Hennessie, the leading participant in the Hennessie-Pitts fight at Glen Alpine some time ago and who is charged with the murder of Gorman Pitts, was this morning stricken with a stroke of paralysis which paralyzed his right side and for a short time was entirely speechless.

The attending physicians stated that his condition was serious. He was immediately taken to Dr. Long's sanitarium at Stateville where he will probably undergo another operation for the removal of a bullet which is still in his side.

Dr. Hennessie only yesterday was granted a postponement of his trial by Judge Lyon until the next term of court, on account of being too sick to stand the strain he would have to undergo with trial. He was placed under a $20,000 bond to be returned to jail as soon as he gets better.

Report Is That Surry County Desperado Is Caught In Virginia

GREENSBORO, March 16.—One of the most important desperados of the Todd crowd, who operated last winter in Surry and other mountain counties and who have been hunted for several weeks, was reported yesterday as captured. The message was received from A. M. Ross, of Independence, Va., who wired the marshal as follows: "Have A. M. Todd. Where shall I deliver him? Wire answer." He was instructed to bring him to Greensboro.

If this is the right man, his captor will receive a reward of $25, $200 of which was offered by the government. This Todd is the one who was arrested by Deputy Marshal Harkader, and who was the cause of the disturbance in which severe injuries were given the officers. The prisoner has the distinction of having placed handcuffs on both the United States officer and the sheriff. If this is the right man he will be held in jail here for trial.

Taylor on the Falls road Friday afternoon waiting for an abatement of the electrical and thunder storm Mrs. Allen Critcher, who lives on Columbia avenue, was knocked on the head and rendered unconscious by a bolt of lightning which it is supposed struck somewhere in front of the store as a horse which was tied to a telephone pole in front of the store was also knocked down. Mrs. Critcher was immediately taken to the home of Roy Vivrette, which was nearby and called attention was immediately called. She remained unconscious for an hour or more. Politics and Politicians
Attorney General McReynolds is the only bachelor of the new cabinet. Michigan will take another popular vote on the equal suffrage question next month.

William C. Redfield, the new Secretary of Commerce, has the reputation of being an able authority on the tariff. Tampa, Fla., will hold a special election early next month to decide the question of adopting the commission plan of government.

There are still thirteen States of the Union that have never had representation in the cabinet of any President of the United States.

Less than two years represents the difference in age of several members of President Wilson's cabinet, while there is a difference of but seven years in the ages of the youngest and the oldest members.

Willard Saulsbury, the new United States senator from Delaware, may be said to belong to a senatorial family. His father was a United States senator for back in the sixties and he also had an uncle in the senate.

It is figured that the membership of the next house of representatives will stand: Democrats, 291; Republicans, 97; Progressives, progressive Republicans and Washington party men, 17; total, 425.

Jacob H. Gallinger of New Hampshire has lost the distinction of being the only physician among the members of the United States senate. A second representative of the medical profession has appeared in the person of Dr. Harry Lane, whom Oregon has sent to the senate as the successor of Jonathan Bourne, Jr. Senator Lane is a grandson of Gen. Joseph Lane, who served as United States senator from Oregon and was candidate for Vice President on the Breckinridge ticket.

Look Out For Ayden

Owing to the present conditions that are now awaiting Ayden's progress, as we somewhat see things as they are now presenting themselves for future development, first to name, is through the workings of the chamber of commerce by the appointment of a committee in person to get in touch with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad authorities, asking of them for material improvements and enlarging our depot so as to make it more attractive in keeping with our town and the patronage in general surroundings.

Progressive problems that are confronting the people of Ayden and community at present, is looking forward to establishing a cotton seed oil mill within our borders. As the spirit among many within our walls seem favorable with the idea of making Ayden the most practical place for the location of a plant of this kind, for this reason: heretofore the cotton seed oil has been sent to some getting along as well as could be expected.

Feeling and trusting that the committee named in looking forward to the future development may be maintained with a hearty co-operation and untiring interest may be maintained until something might be accomplished. The committee will please get on to their jobs and make available every effort to accomplish the best results available, with which you have the best wishes of "A Little Town With Big Opportunities."

ROBERT WORTHINGTON.

H. S. Cummings of Connecticut has succeeded William G. McAdoo as vice chairman of the National Democratic Committee.

James N. Baker, the new secretary of the United States senate, has for twenty years served as assistant librarian of the senate. He was born in South Carolina fifty-two years ago and was educated at Wofford College.

President Wilson's cabinet includes two members of foreign birth, who naturally would be debared from the presidential succession. They are Secretary of the Interior Lane, who is a native of Prince Edward Island, and William B. Wilson, head of the new Department of Labor, who first saw the light of day at Bhantry, Scotland.

GLORY ENOUGH FOR ONE DAY.

A man and an ape started out one day. They went to Raleigh, methinks they say. The man to the House wended his way. The other found a "chamber" in which to stay.

The man was tired of the wilderness wild. Apes like to dwell there all the while. The man wanted the grand old PH. Her primeval ways and lethargy to quit;

Put on some progress and move to the front. If it made a few beasts disapprove and grant. Either made good roads on which to travel. He wanted the children six months at school.

Said he: "deliver us from knave and fool." We want cows "as fine as silk." Giving the richest butter and milk. Swine he would have in pastures green. And herds of sheep by the shady hill side.

That a farmer might point to with pride. For these things of progress he would provide. But apes are used to the forests wild. And even if tamed their nature are vile. So this one who claimed a county Surely thought of no higher bounty Than to keep it wild, illiterate and rough. He would have no beautiful high-ways.

But would keep the path his pap did keep. He would have no child of learning. But would keep them in the wild wood, yearning. Yearning for a higher life. He would have no stock of beauty. But let the razor back go rusty. Until her nose became quite sore. And then no ornament he would pour. He would have no cows that are fat and sick. But the kind that wander all full of ticks. In opposing progress he thought he did splendid. And laws pointing that way he wanted amended.

My Birthday

Admiral von Tirpitz
Grand Admiral Alfred von Tirpitz, imperial secretary for the German navy and one of the most prominent figures in the official life of the empire, was born March 20, 1849. He started his naval career in early youth and at the age of 40 had risen in the service until he attained the high post of chief of staff to the command of the Baltic naval station. In 1897 he became secretary for the imperial navy and the following year he was made a minister. In 1903 he was made a Grand Admiral. He is a great favorite of the Emperor, who has a high opinion of his statesmanship as well as his ability as a naval officer and administrator. Recently Admiral von Tirpitz has been spoken of as a probable successor of Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg as chancellor of the empire.

NO STAMP OF APPROVAL ON TARIFF YET

Wilson is Not Prepared to Put O. K. on it

CONSULT CABINET MEMBERS

But Was Left With Him by Representative Oscar W. Underwood, Democratic Leader.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—President Wilson let it be known today that he has not yet put his stamp of approval on the tariff bill left with him by Representative Oscar Underwood, the Democratic majority leader, after a three hours' conference last night.

The president indicated to his visitors that he had only begun to study the measure but that before the Democratic caucus met to decide whether they should revise the tariff in a single bill or by separate schedules, he would make known his own conclusions, as well as his opinion of the bill.

The income tax problem and its intricate details are being carefully considered by the president. He discussed these in a general way with Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department. Col. E. M. House, of Austin, Texas, and Secretary Tumulty, who were at the white house tonight.

Mr. Wilson also is giving some attention to the possibility of getting a currency measure before the country during the extra session of Congress, and it was said that the conference tonight touched this subject to some extent.

Diplomatic Appointments.
Little information was forthcoming today concerning diplomatic appointments. It became known that Dean Henry Burchard Fine, of Princeton University, would not accept the ambassadorship to Germany, which had been offered him by President Wilson. Prof. Fine is now at Munich on leave of absence and while he is one of the President's most intimate friends and has been strongly urged to accept, the great expense involved is said to have been the reason for the declination.

John K. Sague, three times mayor of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., probably will be the next collector of the port of New York. He is said to be the most likely of those under consideration.

Shakes Hands With 1,612.
The President today received an army of school teachers, the usual excursion crowd of the Easter season. He shook hands with 1,642 in thirty-five minutes, among them 500 from Toronto, Canada, led by Dr. James L. Wilson, superintendent of schools in that place.

Congratulations to
Duke of St. Albans, 43 years old today.

Dr. Flaven S. Luther, president of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., 63 years old today.

Rear Admiral Albert Mertz who goes on the retired list of the United States navy today, 62 years old today.

Dr. Hugh Black, professor of practical theology in Union Theological Seminary, 45 years old today.

1912—Henry F. Ashurst and Marcus A. Smith elected as first United States Senators from Arizona.

Destructive Floods and Heavy Snow Storm In Wake of Omaha Tornado

Sever Cold Weather Adds to Misery of the Homeless

DEATH LIST NOW OVER 200

Governor Morehead Feared That Conditions Will Become More Elphiorable in Wrecked Zone

KANSAS CITY, March 25.—A message received here today from Leslie, Ark., sixty miles north of Little Rock, said a tornado in that vicinity last night killed eight or ten persons. Fifteen reported killed by tornado at St. Louis, March 25.—Fifteen persons are reported to have been killed in the tornado that struck Makanda, Ill., 235 hundred miles south of here, last night.

OMAHA, Neb., March 25.—Shivering from the cold and awe inspired by the nature of their work, scores of men, women and children today struggled in the snow to rescue the dead or injured bodies of relatives and friends who lay buried beneath the wreckage of their homes and buildings which were crumpled like eggshells by the tornado Sunday, swept with death-dealing force over Nebraska and Iowa killing more than 150 persons in Omaha alone.

The latest reports this morning give the number of injured at 220 while the death list has not increased over the night report of 202.

Sixteen additional bodies were taken from the Idlewood, a negro pool hall, this morning, making the total thus far recovered from that place 31.

The buildings, after being wrecked by the tornado, caught on fire from overturned stove and burned.

Snow Storm Work of the Rescuers
The snow storm which seriously is hampering the work of rescue, began shortly after midnight this morning and is continuing with greater force. More than three inches of snow covers the debris in the section of the city which was struck by the cyclone.

Privations of the storm sufferers are being greatly increased by the heavy snow storm which is following so closely in the wake of the tornado. Women tugging at heavy beams, hoping against hope to find the living bodies of dear ones beneath the tons of wreckage; men gruffly cheering their sorrowful mates; shivering children wrapped about with shawls and blankets, were the scenes which as sunrise this morning greeted the federal soldiers as they patrolled the afflicted district, aiding in the rescue work and potting the destroyed and unoccupied homes from conscienceless looters.

Sufferers Given Clothes and Food
Laid-off office employees gathered within the lines drawn around the district by the soldiers and distributed clothing and other necessities among the sufferers.

More than $50,000 has been subscribed for their work—25,000 by the citizens who attended yesterday's meetings of commissioners and other individuals.

The injured at hospitals are receiving the best possible attention. Physicians of Omaha and Council Bluffs have volunteered their services and trained nurses have willingly followed the example of the physicians.

The snow which according to reports is falling with blizzard like proportions from Colorado to Central Iowa, has seriously interfered with that slender thread of telegraphic communication which yesterday afternoon was established from Omaha to the outer world. Practically no information has been obtained this morning from devastated portions of Nebraska and Iowa.

BULGARS CLOSE LINES TO EAST OF ADRIANOPLE

Capture all of the Fortified Points Near Fortress

WILLING TO CEASE FIGHTING

Allies to Insist Upon Identity—Several Turkish Officers are Ordered Back to their Posts of Duty.

SOPIA, Bulgaria, March 25.—The Turkish advanced positions and all the fortified points to the east of the fortress of Adrianople were captured by the Bulgarian besiegers this morning.

Allies to Insist Upon Identity.
COLOGNE, Germany, March 25.—The reply of the Balkan allies to the proposals on the suggested mediation between Turkey and Bulgaria should run from Sofia on the Black Sea by way of Muradli above Rodosto to the Gulf of Sarai, an inlet of the Aegean Sea.

In this way Bulgaria would be excluded from the Sea of Marmora in accordance with the desire of the powers.

Bulgaria, however, and the other Balkan allies insist on the payment of an indemnity by Turkey. They are willing to suspend hostilities at once, if Turkey surrenders the fortress of Adrianople and demobilizes her armies.

Turkish Officers Ordered Back to Posts
CONSTANTINOPLE, March 25.—The military governor of the Turkish capital published a notice today warning Turkish officers absent from any army on leave or for other reasons to return forthwith to their posts.

Bombardment of Scutari Ceases
BELGRADE, Serbia, March 25.—The bombardment of Scutari is understood to have been stopped on orders from the Serbian government. Serbia acted on the advice of the French and Russian ministers who notified the Serbian premier that the powers had come to the unalterable decision that Scutari must belong to the future state of Albania.

Civilians Can Leave Scutari
CETTINJE, Montenegro, March 25.—The Montenegrin government in reply to the Austro-Hungarian note, agreed today to permit the civilian population of Scutari to leave the city. This was the most radical of Austria's demands.

At the same time Montenegro informs Austria that the Montenegrin government has addressed a note to the powers protesting against Austria's action which it calls a breach of neutrality.

Chas. McLawhorn Surrenders to the Officers Tuesday Afternoon

Realizing the almost impossibility of his escaping the clutches of the officers Mr. Chas. McLawhorn, who on Sunday night shot Mr. Will D. Smith, near Arden, quietly walked into the office of the sheriff Tuesday afternoon and surrendered to Deputy Sheriff Ernest Dudley who escorted him to the jail where he is now confined. All Hope of Saving The Virginia Clansmen is Abandoned

RICHMOND, Va., March 25.—Despite Governor Mann's emphatic statement that his action is final, attorneys for the condemned Klansmen who have just returned from Washington are today preparing to make a final appeal to the governor, pleading that certain legal phases of the case be considered.

Four justices of the supreme court of the United States—Chief Justice White and Justices Hughes, Lurton and Holmes—heard their pleas and decided that no federal question was involved.

It is said today that Senator Swann after whom Claude Allen is named, has approached Governor Mann personally asking for clemency for the younger Allen.

RICHMOND, Va., March 25.—That the Allens, father and son, will die in the electric chair Friday morning, there is no longer doubt. Their courts' sentence to the last degree and fighting to the last ditch, have reached the end of their rope, and no human agency will prevent the execution of the law, which demands the lives of Floyd and Claude Allen for their participation in the shooting of the court at Hillsville last March.

The final legal effort, which was directed toward saving the life of Claude by an appeal to the United States supreme court, on the plea that the young man's life had been twice jeopardized, thus depriving him of the rights guaranteed him under the constitution, was abandoned yesterday after Messrs. O'Flaherty and Willis had been successfully turned down by Associate Justice Hughes.

Announcing their determination to carry their petition to each of the other seven justices in the effort to secure a writ of error and a stay of execution for the younger Allen, the attorneys remained in Washington all day yesterday, but after a conference decided that further effort was useless and abandoned it.

So far as any executive channel is concerned, Governor Mann sealed the doom of the condemned men several weeks ago and has had no hesitation in stating since his official decision was issued that it was absolutely final.

LOSSES OF INSURANCE COMPANIES WILL BREAK ALL RECORDS
CHICAGO, March 25.—The losses of insurance companies caused by tornadoes in Nebraska, Iowa and Indiana brought out the statement from insurance companies that losses thus far this year on tornado insurance breaks all records, while fire losses are smaller than usual.

Tornadoes do not usually come so early in the year. Insurance agents say that the storms in the south last week were unusually destructive and that the Nebraska storm will pile up the losses. Fifty per cent of the policies affected by the Omaha storm are not yet available, but it is said that many buildings destroyed were protected by tornado insurance.

One castles company collected $124,000 in premiums on such policies in Nebraska alone in 1912.

My Dear Judge Hinebaugh:
"Good for you; I am more than pleased with what you have done. It would be an admirable thing to run Victor Mardock as our candidate for the speakership and I hope that, as you have suggested to him, he will announce himself as willing to accept the nomination of the Progressives for this position."

"Then I think it would be a good thing for the Progressive party that our men should act together and should consult one another freely and in addition that they should keep in the closest touch with near-Progressives so as to act substantially on the same lines, with the idea that they may ultimately join with us. We should go ahead with our organization as a separate, distinct national party, not you think this is sound?"

TO ORGANIZATION BE FORMED BY PROGRESSIVES

Other Members of The House Greatly Stirred

TEDDY TO LEND MESSAGE

Propose a Conference, and Eighteen Have Promised to Attend, Victor Choice For Speaker.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The movement to bring all Progressives in the House into a compact third party organization has stirred up Republican, Progressive-Republican and Independent circles of the House to an unexpected degree. Up to tonight, eighteen members of the House had notified Representative William H. Hinchbaugh of Illinois, the active leader in the organization plan, that they would attend the proposed conference at which Representative Victor Mardock is to be made the Progressive choice for speaker.

The attitude of many of those Progressive-Republicans, denominated "near-Progressives" by Colonel Roosevelt, has not yet been determined. A partial canvass of many of those who have been prominent in the ranks of the insurgent Republican forces for the last two congresses but who are not officially members of the new Progressive party, showed today that the majority of them had not decided whether they would take part in the Progressive conference.

While the Progressives, as represented by Mr. Hinchbaugh, have applied direct for recognition as a separate party in the distribution of committee places, the Progressive-Republicans are still dependent upon the regular Republican organization of which Representative Mann of Illinois is the leader. Some strength was added to the Progressive organization today by the rumor that the Republican leaders were inclined to withdraw some of the choice committee places from the Progressive-Republican members.

The date for the conference or "open caucus" of Progressives, originally set for April 2, was changed today to April 4. Representative Hinchbaugh will go to New York within a few days for a conference with Colonel Roosevelt. The latter is expected to send a personal message to the Progressive gathering. A portion of his recent letter to Representative Hinchbaugh, made public today, follows:

"My Dear Judge Hinebaugh: "Good for you; I am more than pleased with what you have done. It would be an admirable thing to run Victor Mardock as our candidate for the speakership and I hope that, as you have suggested to him, he will announce himself as willing to accept the nomination of the Progressives for this position."
