

HOW TARIFF REVISION BILL WILL GO IN

Wilson is to Determine Plan As To Presenting Bill

SENT IN AS A SINGLE BILL

Certainly So If Pres. Wilson Favors Such Course Notwithstanding Opposition, Simmons And Underwood To Confer

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The "smoothing out" process that is to be initiated this week, in preparation for the handling of tariff revision in the extra session that opens April 7, is regarded by congressional leaders as the most important step in the program of tariff preliminaries. Senator Simmons, chairman of the senate finance committee, is to confer with Chairman Underwood of the house ways and means committee tomorrow or Tuesday and both are to talk with President Wilson and arrange for further conferences at which disputed points will be settled and a program of action outlined. While the tariff bill practically is complete, important developments hang upon decisions of President Wilson and upon results of a full canvass of the Democrats of the senate.

To President Wilson will be left the final decision as to whether there shall be one general revision bill, or separate measures for each of the different schedules of the tariff law. A majority of the house tariff makers, who have worked out the revision bill favoring the single bill idea and if President Wilson supports the plan, a single bill will be offered to the house.

Sharp Opposition Aroused
This plan has already aroused sharp opposition in the senate, however. The free sugar and 15 per cent duty on raw wool, put into the bill by the house committee, will be the target for attack in the senate not only from Republicans but from Democrats who come from states where sugar, wool or wool growing predominate. Should a single general tariff bill be introduced with the approval of President Wilson, it is believed the senate Democratic leaders would be forced to yield to the demand for separate votes on these two schedules. In such event they might be taken out of the general tariff bill and passed as amendments.

Ghost Will Walk at the White House Today

For President

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Woodrow Wilson will receive his final presidential check as President of the United States tomorrow, when Secretary McAdoo will present him with a treasury warrant for $5,625, representing his salary from March 4th to 31st. On payday hereafter, the President will receive $25,000 full month's pay, the former getting possession of Wilson's revolver and began firing at this juncture Officer Eskridge appeared on the scene and the negro fired upon him, killing him instantly. Wilson was struck across the head with some blunt instrument, but was not seriously injured. In the confusion which followed, the negro, whose name is unknown, made his escape and up to a late hour no trace of him had been found.

Todd Bound Over to United States Court in the Sum of $2500

Greensboro, March 31.—After a hearing before Commissioner D. H. Collins Saturday morning A. M. Todd one of the Todd family charged with making an assault on Deputy Marshal Harkrader and Sheriff Davis, of Surry County, was bound over to U. S. court under a bond of $2,500, which he was unable to give. Todd was arrested in Virginia several weeks after the assault on the officers last winter. The other members of the family who are alleged to have participated have not been taken.

Mr. Harkrader told of the arrest of Todd at a mountain distillery, from which he, with Sheriff Davis and their prisoner started across the country for Dobson. The officers were assaulted from beside the road and severely injured. Their prisoner then locked the hand cuffs on them and they were warned to walk towards Dobson.

On His Death Bed Admits Constructing and Mailing Bombs

NEW YORK, March 30.—Harry J. Glotz, the city clerk recently injured by the explosion of a bomb which he was building, according to the police, that he had constructed and mailed the two bombs which resulted in the death of Grace Taylor last year and Mrs. Madeline Herrera a few months ago, also the bomb which exploded last March in the library of Judge Otto Rosenthal. A few minutes later Glotz died. Glotz was sinking rapidly after an operation when he made his confession. He sent for the police and according to the statement given by them tonight, the dying man's confession was made directly to Captain Price of the detective bureau. It was explicit as to all but the Herrera bomb which to near the last he decided having sent. Glotz confessed according to the statement that he had sent the bomb to Judge Rosenthal because he "did not" like him. Judge Rosenthal had sentenced an acquaintance to thirty years for robbery in the home of Mortimer L. Schiff, where the acquaintance had been a valet.

Officer Killed by Negro at Moving Picture Hall in Charlotte

For President

CHARLOTTE, March 29.—Special Officer J. J. Eskridge was shot and killed almost instantly by an unknown negro in a negro moving picture hall here shortly before 9 o'clock tonight. A chase was in progress, the hall being crowded when the negro who did the shooting became belligerent and was ordered out of the hall by Officer Wilson who was stationed there to preserve order. A combat took place between the negro and the officer, the former getting possession of Wilson's revolver and began firing at this juncture Officer Eskridge appeared on the scene and the negro fired upon him, killing him instantly. Wilson was struck across the head with some blunt instrument, but was not seriously injured. In the confusion which followed, the negro, whose name is unknown, made his escape and up to a late hour no trace of him had been found.

SUCH CRITICISM SHOULD CEASE.

The Reflector never did like to hear one Democrat talking against another. North Carolina has had instances of this that the people rebuked. When Governor Craig first became a candidate for the position he holds, all manner of things were said against his Democracy. Yet when he was elected it was by the largest majority any governor in the state has received. In the senatorial campaign last year bitter attacks were made on the Democracy of Senator Simmons, but these charges were rebuked by the people in the tremendous majority given him in the primary. We are referring to these things now because of a recent interview given out by Mr. E. J. Justice, while in Washington city, in which he criticised the Democracy of Mr. A. D. Watts who is a candidate for collector of internal revenue for the western district of North Carolina. The Democracy of Mr. Watts is above criticism and Mr. Justice is not making any friends for himself in speaking against so good a man and one who has rendered such valuable service to his party.

Saturday's issue of the Raleigh News and Observer was a legislative edition that was highly creditable to the staff of that excellent paper. It contained a complete resume of the work done by the last general assembly.

The home Building and Loan Association is one of the best assets Greenville has and much of the growth of the town is due to its aid. A new series will open the first Saturday in May and it ought to be the largest of any previous series.

In several sections of North Carolina a response is going to the appeal for help for the western flood sufferers. Surely Greenville and Pitt county can do something in this particular.

Walter H. Page, editor of World's Work, one of the foremost magazines of the country, and a former North Carolinian, has been appointed by President Wilson as ambassador to England.

Every day between now and next Monday keep it in mind to attend the meeting of Carolina Club that night. Your presence may be needed to help push along some good things for Greenville.

Durham also voted Tuesday on adopting the commission form of government, but it was defeated there almost unanimously. Not half of the people showed enough interest to vote either way.

We heard an officer say that he thinks the search and seizure is going to help in stopping the sale of liquor. That was the idea in passing the law.

There is no mistaking the fact that when Greenville's fire alarm whistle toots in the dead hours of the night it wakes up things.

Good for Raleigh! The capital city carried the election, Tuesday, for commission government, by a tremendous majority.

The regular monthly meeting of Carolina Club will fall on next Monday night, and every member should lay plans to be present. Other things have interfered with recent meetings of the club, but the next meeting should get busy on some things that need to be done, for the advancement of Greenville.

We are told that Farmville township is moving right ahead on the matter of voting on the question of issuing bonds for building good roads in that township. Sentiment in that township is strong for it, and the prediction is made that the election will result almost unanimously for good roads.

All eyes are turned on Raleigh today to see the result of the election on the commission form of government. If the movement carries in Raleigh, other municipalities may not be long following.

The death of J. P. Morgan, which occurred in Rome Monday, removes the greatest financier this country has produced, and perhaps the greatest the world has ever known.

Houses are so scarce in Greenville that residents have to rent out their spare rooms to give new comers somewhere to stay. We believe a large apartment house here would be a paying investment.

It is enough to bring a feeling of horror to read reports of the disastrous floods in the West, that were the worst this country has ever recorded. A general response should be given the cry for aid.

After the first of April you will have a right to look at the records and see who is having liquor shipped to them.

If every citizen's lamp of pride for East Carolina Teachers Training School is not larger today than ever before, he is not built right.

Going after the breeding places of the flies will bring better results than trying to kill the flies after swarms of them come.

Some may have their millions in this world, but when death comes they occupy about the same space as the pauper.

Since the execution of the Allens is over, Governor Mann is being recommended than condemned for the stand he took.

The fool killer can find subjects to work on any time without waiting for the first of April.

People will stop talking about how rich they are as tax listing time approaches.

The Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore is certainly a booster for the south.

We are hearing something else on a large scale that looks mighty good for Greenville.

The time to help the Western flood sufferers is now, not after it has been relieved.

A new spring dress adorns the Williamson Enterprise. We are glad to see our neighbor making such progress, for it is a good paper.

New York is making one more little effort toward reform in ordering the heretofore all-night saloons to close at one o'clock in the morning.

A new afternoon paper recently started in Rocky Mount is The Transcript. The editor, Mr. R. B. Wilson, is a Pitt county boy.

March did enough blowing on its own account without having to borrow any days from April.

While we were yet feeling that this was a new year, one fourth of it has slipped by.

THE NEXT TOWN ELECTION

It is now only two months to the time—first Monday in June—when the town election will be held and five aldermen, one for each ward, are to be chosen. So far we have heard no names mentioned as candidates for aldermen. While the aldermanic election comes every year, the election of a mayor comes but once in two years and this year is the time to choose a mayor for the next term.

For this reason the coming election will have more interest than in the years in which the aldermen only are chosen, and talk is already beginning as to who shall be the next mayor. The Reflector has had its ear open as to the probable candidates for mayor and at this writing has heard two who will be in the race. Mayor F. M. Wooten, who with a short interval between times has served nearly six-and-a-half years and made a most excellent official and put forth his best efforts for the progress of the town, will not be a candidate in the coming election. The two who have stated that they will enter for the nomination are Messrs. J. B. James and N. W. Outlaw, both good men.

Mr. James was a candidate for nomination two years ago. In the primary held then to select the nominee Mr. Wooten received 192 votes, Mr. James 132 votes, and a third candidate 53 votes, the latter being in the way enough to prevent a nomination. Rather than force the holding of another primary, Mr. James withdrew and let the nomination go to Mr. Wooten.

SCARCITY OF HOUSES
Houses are so scarce in Greenville that residents have to rent out their spare rooms to give new comers somewhere to stay. We believe a large apartment house here would be a paying investment—Greenville Reflector.

No doubt, The Reflector has sized up the situation correctly as to its town, but often times this condition is caused by too high rents, which, coupled with too high living expenses, compels a person seeking only part of a house, instead of an entire house. In other words, it is frequently the pocketbook and not the scarcity of houses.

Either one is not enough, however, and it is something that should be quickly remedied—Wilmington Dispatch.

In the case here it is the scarcity of houses that forces the renting of spare rooms in the homes. If it was a very large one, probably the largest on the market, this will make several tobacco sales warehouses to be operated here next season.

Imperial Factory Enlarging
The Imperial Tobacco Company's factory is being enlarged with an extensive addition to the building. Another automatic drying machine has been installed, and the capacity of the plant will be doubled in a few months. The Imperial is an extensive buyer on the local market and handles a large quantity of tobacco.

Canada also is sending some representatives. The contests will continue over a period of three weeks.

Coughs and colds, when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The wisest thing to do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. Good for Raleigh! The capital city carried the election, Tuesday, for commission government, by a tremendous majority.

In the United States the cabinet has no relation to congress, its members have no seats in either house and no voice upon the floor, and the President of the United States has the entire range of his fellow-citizens from whom to choose. Thus the newspapers and the public find a certain mild speculative excitement in guessing from election day, in the first week of November, until inauguration day, in the first week of March—who men will be called to the nine posts (now increased to ten by the creation of a department of labor) which carry so much responsibility and involve the exercise of such vast power. This concern about the cabinet is speculation of no idle sort; for it deals with that which concerns the lives and fortunes of men and with public matters of vast moment.

We are a nation possessing a far greater number of men of political aspiration than any other country; and from the standpoint of men's ambitions the selection of a cabinet is intensely interesting. For it must be remembered that a multitude of other appointments are directly or indirectly dependent upon the choice of ten department chiefs. Every state has its quota of men who have had opportunity to serve in elective or appointive office, in such a way as to have become notable among their neighbors and ambitious for higher preferment. When an administration at Washington changes, there are literally hundreds of men who might be regarded as possibly available for cabinet posts, and there are several thousand who might naturally aspire to important positions of lesser rank.

Another Tobacco Warehouse
Work has begun on a large tobacco warehouse to be built for Mr. C. T. Munford on his property just across the A. C. L. railroad track opposite the Imperial factory. Every day between now and next Monday keep it in mind to attend the meeting of Carolina Club that night. Your presence may be needed to help push along some good things for Greenville.

Durham also voted Tuesday on adopting the commission form of government, but it was defeated there almost unanimously. Not half of the people showed enough interest to vote either way.

We heard an officer say that he thinks the search and seizure is going to help in stopping the sale of liquor. That was the idea in passing the law.

There is no mistaking the fact that when Greenville's fire alarm whistle toots in the dead hours of the night it wakes up things.

This is My Birthday

Marie Delia, the celebrated grand opera singer, was born in France, April 3, 1875, and was educated in a convent at Meudon. At the age of 17 she made her debut at the Opera Comique in Paris and met with almost immediate success. At the age of 20 she was recognized as one of the best contraltos in the world. She remained at the Opera Comique until 1903, when she married and retired from the stage for several years. In 1907 she was persuaded to resume her professional career and appeared at the Theatre de la Gaite in Paris in "La Viandiere," one of her greatest successes. Four years ago the famous singer joined the forces of the Metropolitan Opera Company in New York. Marie Delia's husband is Baron Adolphe Henri Edmond de Savary.

SMITHTOWN SCHOOL Closes
The school at Smithtown, taught by Miss Nina Harris, of Greenville, N. C., and Miss Bertha Joyner, of Farmville, N. C., closed Monday, March the thirty-first.

Monday morning the regular lessons were heard, after which the humorous readings were read and the prizes that were offered for the ones not missing a day, were presented by Mr. E. W. Hearne of Greenville, N. C. The young people that were so faithful in attendance, not having missed a day, were Miss Nellie Willoughby, Elsie Smith, Robert Willoughby, Masters Oscar Irwin, Violet Irwin, Eugene White, William Irwin and Alton McGraw.

Instead of a commencement at the close of the school a picnic was decided on. So Tuesday was set aside for it. All the pupils and their parents were invited, and also several visitors. After all had arrived a number of games were played, then all went into the schoolroom where Mr. Hearne presided and singing a number of late songs.

At two o'clock dinner was served and a better dinner was never prepared. Early in the morning several of the young people were going with their mouths full of quinine as a result of the first of April. The excellent dinner soon changed the taste and appetite seemed to enjoy the day very much and the visitors declared the Smithtown people the jolliest, most entertaining and kindest people that they were ever the guests of and expressed a wish that they might have the pleasure of attending another such feast in the near future.

A VISITOR.

Birds and Beasts of Old Times.
Plants, animals and birds of the Bible have been made the subject of a special exhibition in the natural history department of the British Museum. Among the striking bits of information contained in this work are the following: The common fox is not mentioned in the old testament, and was probably introduced into Palestine after the Roman conquest. The "unicorn" of the old testament was probably the Syrian aurochs, now extinct. The hippopotamus is believed probable because of the fact that there is no record of the latter animal in Syria in the Bible. The "rose" was probably the narcissus, while the "lily" was the poppy anemone.

UNCLE SAM TO RECOGNIZE CHINESE REPUBLIC

Secretary Bryan Confers With President Wilson

Press Will Receive In A Few Days The Attitude Of The Government Towards The New Chinese Government

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The United States government has declined to recognize the new Chinese Republic. Secretary Bryan conferred with President Wilson for nearly an hour today at the White House, completing the details and a note is being prepared at the state department to be addressed to China through the Chinese minister here.

Whether it will be presented before the meeting of the Confucius Assembly next Thursday or is intended to reach the Chinese government on that date has not been disclosed, but the mere presentation of the note to the Chinese minister and resumption of formal international relations with the Chinese empire are regarded in diplomatic circles as tantamount to recognition. The United States government is anxious to show its friendliness toward China and while there has been rumors that other nations might designate the action as a recognition, the United States does, in official circles here, it was believed that the United States would be found first to show its faith in the new republic.

This afternoon at the request of the secretary of state, members of most of the foreign embassies and legations in Washington appeared at the state department and were received individually by Mr. Bryan. Among them were representatives of Brazil, Japan, Great Britain, Russia, Portugal, France, Germany, Belgium, Sweden, Peru, Denmark, Mexico, Austria-Hungary and Spain. The calls lasted but a few minutes in each case and both Secretary Bryan and his visitors by agreement declined to make any statement as to the object of the visit.

A noticeable fact, however, was the absence of the Chinese minister, and it was concluded that in order to prevent a repetition of the criticism in foreign capitals occasioned by the recent Chinese loan statement, the state department was endeavoring to give due notice of its intentions regarding China and to all interested powers.

It was admitted at the department that a formal statement of the attitude of the administration towards the new Chinese government would be given to the press in the course of a few days and there is ground for the belief that without immediately recognizing China, assurance has been conveyed to Yuan Shi Kai's government and the world powers have been notified of such recognition. It was also extended after the first Chinese congress has assembled and organized next Monday.

Ohio Waters at Standstill But Peril is Not Yet Over

Engineers Says Relief Will Be Only Temporary

Train Service Into Cairo Not Resumed. No Fair Of An Outbreak Of Typhoid. Big Warehouse A Wreck

CAIRO, Ill., April 2.—Cairo had a little respite from its flood scare today due to the fact that the Ohio waters were at a standstill from midnight.

The reading at that hour was 54 and if anything the gauge showed a slight rise. The relief, however, will only be temporary, it is said, as engineers gave as the cause the passing of the crest in the Wabash high water. The crest of the Ohio river flood waters is still to come and it is expected that before tonight the gauge readings will again be in the ascendancy.

Another cause for the standstill was said to be due to the vast volume of water now flowing into the lowlands of the drainage district.

It was reported that the water flowing over the Big Four tracks in the presence of a distance of three-fourths of a mile.

Those who are looking out for the reinforcement of the levees did not allow work to abate, even though the rise had stopped. Train service into the city had not been resumed today. Only work trains came in and the sand hauled on these was rapidly placed on the levees by a big force of workmen.

Hope is held out that the waters may continue to recede today in order that the city may be better prepared for the high water which is coming.

Conditions in the drainage section were at a standstill. All business was abandoned and it was said that by the time the great area would be under at least 12 feet of water.

No Danger of Outbreak of Typhoid
WASHINGTON, April 2.—While health conditions seem very satisfactory in the flood districts at the present time, there is of course, danger of a typhoid fever outbreak, which may not appear for several weeks, said Surgeon General Clegg.

A noticeable fact, however, was the absence of the Chinese minister, and it was concluded that in order to prevent a repetition of the criticism in foreign capitals occasioned by the recent Chinese loan statement, the state department was endeavoring to give due notice of its intentions regarding China and to all interested powers.

Greensboro Police Force Take in the Prisoners For Retailing

Greensboro, March 31.—After preparation of at least 10 days in which every detail had been carefully planned, the Greensboro police department Saturday in one hour's time drew their net, and in it they found 10 alleged retailers, both white and black. The swoop was made without any warning, and their plans had been kept absolutely secret until after the arrests had been made, they giving no hint that anything was about to happen.

Chief Isley and his entire force both day and night crews, started on their rounds promptly at 8:30, and so carefully had their plans been made that within an hour's time the cala-bace was filled with the prisoners.
The patrolmen were dressed in plain clothes, and leaving the police station they placed themselves at different points ready to hold their men before any warning could be given to others.
As the arrests were made the police patrol began its rounds, and the prisoners were hauled to the station post haste.

Those arrested Saturday were John White, negro, two warrants; Jim Boyd, white, two warrants; John Hines, a negro, Monroe Briggs, negro, Joe Meadows, white, Will Inzold, white;
Oliver York, white; Tom Curry, negro;
Richmond Allen, negro; and Charlie Wilson. Monroe Briggs and Tom Curry gave bonds of $200 each. Joe Meadows gave a bond of $500. The others were locked up, unable to give bond. They will be tried in Municipal court Monday morning.

For a while, white, was brought in from Revolution.

Test of the Webb Law

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 31.—The local agent of one of the express companies was arraigned in the circuit court for trial today on a charge of delivering liquor in violation of the Webb law, the new Federal statute which prohibits the shipment of liquor for sale in prohibition territory.
This is the first case to be filed in Kentucky and it probably will be used to test the law in the supreme court.

On account of increased practice

FOR A GOOD DIGESTION

A Local Druggist's Suggestion

It has been said the body is like a machine and digestion and elimination of food are the two great factors to health.

If the digestive organs are weak,
the stomach overtaxed, waste matter accumulates in the system—the liver gets sluggish and the blood becomes thin and deteriorated.

We want to ask every person in this vicinity who is troubled with indigestion or a weak worn-out stomach to try our delicious cod liver and iron tonic Vinol.

We know it will strengthen and tone up the weakened, tired and overtaxed nerves of the digestive organs, create a hearty appetite, and replace weakness with strength.

We just heard of a case of a man in Onondaga, N. Y., who suffered from a bad stomach trouble for fifteen years and had become so weak he could hardly walk—who was cured by Vinol.

Try a bottle of Vinol and if it fails to help you we will give back your money. Hasnight's Pharmacy, Greenville, N. C.

PRES. WILSON IS PUZZLE TO POLITICIANS

Senator Says He Expects Wilson To Make One Of The Greatest Executive Officers The Country Has Had

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Pres. Wilson is a puzzle to Washington politicians. His like has not been seen here in many a day. He receives callers, listens to their troubles or rejoicings, and resumes the even tenor of his way. His profound silence, the office seeker or the favor hunter. Three times the suffragists have visited him and three times he has said nothing to indicate his attitude toward the cause of suffrage.

Sen. L. M. Simmons of North Carolina, who as chairman of the Senate committee on the bill to amend the Underwood, and President Wilson don't is going to make one of the frame a tariff bill, thinks the president's greatest executives the country ever had.

"Pres. Wilson weighs men and their statements," said Mr. Simmons. "He listens, absorbs and then acts. President Taft took up a thing today and dropped it tomorrow. Roosevelt watched the popular wind and sometimes rode it. Mr. Wilson is weighing everything and everybody. It would be a difficult task to impose upon him."

The impression that Sen. Simmons got from a visit to the White House is in line with what other congressmen get. Mr. Wilson is keeping his head and does not let any sort of story throw him off the track.

National Chairman McCombs May yet Accept the Post at Paris

WASHINGTON, April 2.—White House officials were unable today to throw any light on the report that Democratic National Chairman William F. McCombs had reconsidered his decision of the ambassadorship to France and was now inclined to take the post.

Mr. McCombs has for nearly a month been undecided and while on one day he had informed the White House he would accept, the next day or two after that Mr. McCombs signified his intention of reconsidering.

To all inquirers at the White House officials today admitted that they were puzzled and did not know exactly what Mr. McCombs would do. On the day before the senate adjourned Mr. McCombs telephoned to the Republican state committee, of having indicated the resolution offered yesterday by Senator Brown requesting the Senate Judiciary committee to determine what, if any, action should be taken by the Senate or the Legislature in relation to a published letter in which the governor was quoted as having made a pre-election promise to sign the full crew bill.

"If Ross Barnes does not keep out of the Senate and keep his hands off the legislature, I will get after Mr. Barnes," declared the governor. Until Mr. McCombs makes another public announcement or his nomination or that of some other man for ambassador to France actually is sent to the senate.

JOSEPH, Mo., April 2.—With interesting exercises conducted in the presence of a large crowd of spectators a handsome granite monument was unveiled here today to mark the site of the spot from which the first pony express rider started across the plains on April 3, 1860. The memorial was erected by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Look to Your Plumbing.
You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by all druggists.

Universities of Virginia, Johns Hopkins and North Carolina will Debate April 19

CHAPEL HILL, April 2.—The high school record of the freshmen class that averaged 100 on all grades, began September 1, 1911-12, and 1912-13, includes one member of the class that averaged 100 on all grades. The University of Virginia, Johns Hopkins and North Carolina will debate the distinction and individual credit due A. R. Newson. The high schools of Greensboro and Charlotte led all high schools represented at the University in the scholarship exhibit, each school contributing four students each to the record of not less than 90 on all studies. Raleigh, Winston-Salem and Webb schools furnished two students each in the scholarship record.

"What Happened to Jones," the successful comedy staged by the Dramatic Club of the University of North Carolina, is booked to make a tour of a number of North Carolina towns during the next two weeks. Visits to the following eastern towns have been planned: Fayetteville, Wilmington, Winston, Smithfield, Wilson and Wendell. This production by the dramatic talent of the University has met with due recognition wherever it has been staged and it was met with such favor in Raleigh that its second appearance was made.

The triangular debate between the universities of Virginia, Johns Hopkins and North Carolina, to be held on neutral grounds, is scheduled for April 19. The query to be discussed by the three institutions is: "Resolved, That disregarding the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, the tolls of the Panama Canal should be the same to the merchant ships of all nations."

Professor P. H. Boynton, of the University of Chicago, delivered the second of the series of lectures by eminent Americans under the auspices of the University faculty Friday night. His subject was "The London of Dickens." Maintaining a high record as a lecturer, as well as a writer and teacher, his lecture was in keeping with the high standard aimed at in these lectures by scholars from all sections of the country.

Sulzer Goes After Barnes

ALBANY, N. Y., April 2.—Governor Sulzer tonight accused William Barnes, chairman of the Republican state committee, of having instigated the resolution offered yesterday by Senator Brown requesting the Senate Judiciary committee to determine what, if any, action should be taken by the Senate or the Legislature in relation to a published letter in which the governor was quoted as having made a pre-election promise to sign the full crew bill.

"If Ross Barnes does not keep out of the Senate and keep his hands off the legislature, I will get after Mr. Barnes," declared the governor. Barnes is the man who instigated the resolution. He is a part of the invisible government. He has no business meddling with the legislature. There would be a howl if Mr. Murphy came here and went into Senator Wagner's room and drew resolutions against the governor. I want Mr. Barnes to keep away from the capitol. He is the Republican boss. The people do not want bosses up there. The people are the bosses now.

"Even if I had promised I would sign the full crew bill it would be all right on April 2, 1913. The memorial was erected by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Some Things We're Doing

HANNAHAN, March 31.—Methinks it was Father Ryan who expressed these thoughts, though in more beautiful language than I can put them. "There are pearls which lie in the ocean far beyond human seeing. There are chords which break on the music too sacred for mortal ears. And thoughts that enter this 'noisy' world, the on our ears cannot appear."

But just here I must come to a halt along this line else my friend should think I am going off on the Longfellow route again.

I started out to tell something of what we are doing at Hanrahan. Our highways are beginning to look something like the one depicted by one of the major prophets for indeed they are beginning to look beautiful and surely no ravenous beasts shall travel thereon, because we keep stock enclosed in pastures green and our lands furnish their tenants with land sufficient for all the pasture they need and with wife to fence them and therefore we are all of us just plain people, though we have but very few, if any, "common" people.

Our new organ has just arrived for the school and ere long our music will charm as well as inspire, for we have musical talent among our plain people that can't be excelled. Beauty and true modesty adorn our maidens. Such as only those fortunate ones who daily dwell among nature's charms can put on or wear.

I feel safe in saying that our school is not surpassed in excellent work by any rural school in the county and is equalled but by few and that includes the state for we have as good schools in Pitt county as anywhere in North Carolina.

Now, if anyone thinks that I am tooting our horn too loud let that doubting Thomas write to Prof. Ray Funderburke, principal of the High School, and as a result two colored men are held under bond for Superior Court.

Policeman G. A. Clark had his liquor sent out Wednesday night. He found the trail all right, and secreted himself near the house of Young Vincent. In a short while Louis Allen appeared on the scene with a package and as he went into Young's house was heard to remark: "If I didn't get ahead of George Clark that time." The officer waited a few minutes for them to get busy, and about the time they were drawing liquor from the package and putting it in bottles, he showed in, captured four gallons of liquor and both negroes.

Another case before the mayor this morning was Wm. Brown who was caught in the act while making a sale of liquor. Brown was also bound over to Superior Court.

COATED TONGUE MEANS A LAZY LIVER.

A Lazy Liver Needs a Dose of Dodson's Liver-Tone—Guaranteed to Take Place of Calomel.

When your doctor looks to see if your tongue is coated, he is trying to find out if your liver is working properly. A few years ago doctors had to prescribe calomel—there was nothing else to give.

Recently in many sections of the country Dodson's Liver-Tone has practically taken the place of calomel as a liver remedy. Dodson's Liver-Tone is a fine medicine for use when your children become bilious and constipated. But the most remarkable feature of Dodson's Liver-Tone is the fact that Basnight's Pharmacy, who sells it, guarantees it absolutely. The druggist will refund your money without argument if a bottle fails to give entire satisfaction.

Price, 50 cents. We suggest that you get a bottle today and have it ready for the next member of your family whose liver goes wrong. (adv.)

OFFICER CLARK PUT THE SEARCH AND SEIZURE LAW IN TO EFFECT

The first trial here under the search and seizure law, that went into effect on the first of the month, took place this morning before Mayor F. M. Wooten, and as a result two colored men are held under bond for Superior Court.

Policeman G. A. Clark had his liquor sent out Wednesday night. He found the trail all right, and secreted himself near the house of Young Vincent. ALL FOOLS' DAY

Forty girls from the Presbyterian College gave Charlotte almost its sole reminder that yesterday was All Fools' Day. Had it not been for them the celebration of this notable date would have been almost nonexistent. Hiding all textbooks on which they could lay their hands, they then hid themselves forth from the confines walls of the college, and marching in single file, "did" the upturn portion of the city in a game of "Follow leader". Having circumnavigated the shopping district executing varied figures, they mobilized the steps of the public library and gave that edifying cheer, which begins with "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," and then ends with one interrogatory sentence. Having thus expressed themselves they marched back to the college in buoyant spirits. A prominent citizen endeavored to persuade a policeman to carry out the spirit of the law by placing the entire college under arrest, presumably on a charge of truancy, but the officer couldn't see it that way.

The illness of President C. B. King of Elizabeth College caused the students there to voluntarily forego the usual observance of the day. The principals of the graded schools cruelted forestalled the usual scheme of many of the pupils to decamp for home at recess time according to ancient custom. Recess was abolished and the pupils performed remained at their desks despite the call of the sunshine and the budding spring which beckoned them out of doors.—Charlotte Observer.

So it seems the schools are pretty much alike in playing April fool jokes on the teachers.

ELECTION OF SENATORS BY THE PEOPLE

Made Compulsory by Connecticut's Ratification IS EFFECTIVE AT ONCE

In The Future United States Senators Will Be Elected By Vote Of The People. May Prescribe Method

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Direct election of United States senators by the people was authorized and made compulsory today when the Connecticut legislature ratified the constitutional amendment submitted by congress less than a year ago. Ratification already had been given by 35 states.

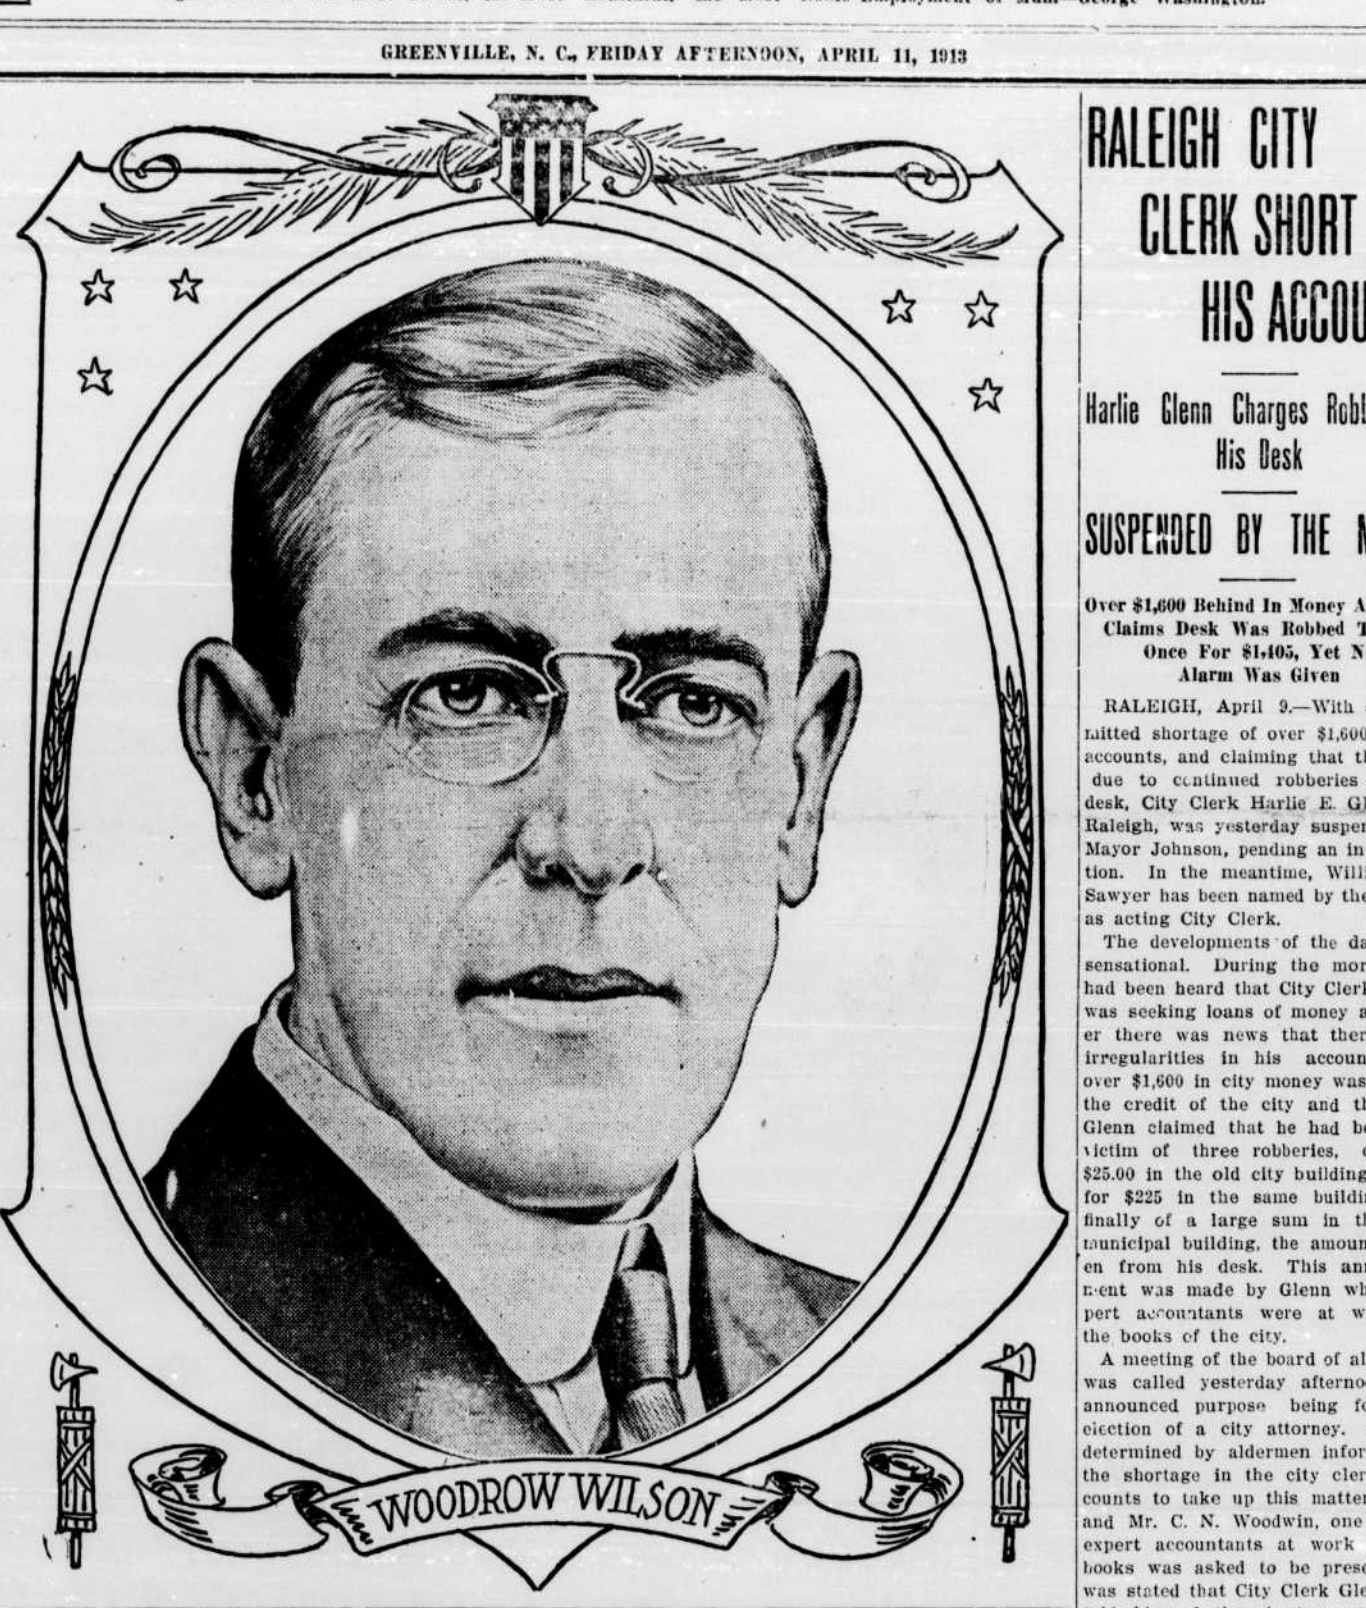

The situation that results throughout the country where many legislatures have adjourned until 1915 is such as to leave confusion in the minds of members of the senate, as to how the early steps toward direct election of senators will be carried out.

While the proclamation of the secretary of state announcing final ratification of the amendment by 36 states is required by law, Senators Bristol and Borah, leaders in the direct elections fight in congress, expressed the opinion today that the amendment is for all practical purposes now a part of the constitution.

"Any man who may be elected to the senate hereafter must be elected directly," said Senator Borah.

White Man Goes To Penitentiary For Shooting Colored Woman

WILMINGTON, April 8.—For shooting a negro woman, the gunshot wound necessitating amputation of one of her legs, W. G. Baldwin, a well known white man of this county and a well to do merchant of the village of Castle Hayne, was sentenced to three years at hard labor in the state penitentiary.

Baldwin went to the home of the woman in search of a negro man and while there became infuriated and shot the woman. The wound came near ending in her death and caused the loss of her limb. After a hard fought trial he was convicted in the superior court, but while the jury was considering the case, Baldwin, who was out on bond, tried to escape, but was overtaken by officers in an automobile.

In spite of earnest pleas of his counsel, he was sentenced to the penitentiary by Judge Justice, who is holding court here. Baldwin is a married man and has three children.
