

VALUE OF FINANCIERS

ESTATE NOT KNOWN

NEW YORK, April 21.—Interest in the will of J. P. Morgan made public yesterday centered today in the question of the value of the financier's estate and in what disposition his son would make of the vast collection of Morgan art treasures.

Less than $20,000,000 was accounted for in the specific bequests made by Mr. Morgan, the rest being the residuary portion left to the son without mention of the amount.

Some estimates made today placed the total estate as high as $125,000,000, but according to a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan and Co., not even the son himself can tell within many millions the actual value of the fortune.

Until appraised by the state for the purpose of collecting the inheritance tax the question will probably remain open.

J. P. Morgan declined to say today anything in regard to the disposition of the art treasures, but it was intimated that he might have a statement some time this week.

The treasurers were left to the son with the hope "that he will be able in such a manner as he thinks best to make a permanent disposition or dispositions of them or such portions of them as will be a substantial carrying out of the intentions which I have cherished."

Mr. Morgan declined to say today anything in regard to the disposition of the art treasures, but it was intimated that he might have a statement some time this week.

J. P. Morgan, the testator's son, Herbert L. Satterlee and W. P. Hamilton, his sons-in-law and Lewis Case Leonard, the Morgan attorney, filed their oaths as executors today.

An Erroneous Expression

To the Editor of the Gold Leaf

The idea has gone abroad in regard to the road bonds, that they may be purchased by wealthy men and are free from taxes and constitute a mortgage on all the land in the country may be sold if the bonds are not paid at maturity.

Strange what marvelous and mysterious things can be seen through the eyes of ignorance. Is it possible that any one capable of evolving such a theory should be informed that these bonds, if held by persons or corporations in Vance county, will be listed for taxes to the full amount of their face, dollar for dollar?

It is, of course, full true, that the county must pay these bonds, but it is paid by a sinking fund which accumulates from year to year by setting aside one per cent of the amount of the bonds.

There is nothing new, dangerous or hazardous in the matter presented to you. And if any citizen takes such rumors and reports seriously, it is his duty to investigate the grounds of his fears and find what the real facts are.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Mr. Godwin Says There Is No Doubt But That 4th Class Post-offices Will Be Filled By Democrats

WASHINGTON, April 21.—After several conferences with Postmaster Godwin said tonight that he did not have the slightest doubt that every fourth class post office in the country would be filled by Democrats when the postoffice department finally got through with the arrangement of the postal service.

Mr. Godwin said that Postmaster General Burleson told him that while some kind of an examination would be held for fourth class postmasters, that examination would be so easy that no man who could read and write would fail to pass the examination.

"I am in favor of filling every 4th class postoffice in the United States with Democrats," said Mr. Godwin. "If filling these offices with Democrats will place me in the class of the 'spottsmen' then I am a 'spottsmen' of the rankiest sort."

Mr. Godwin said that the postmaster general had left the slightest doubt in his mind about ousting the Republican fourth class postmaster he would not have given out the above interview. "I never was more confident of anything than I am that these Republicans will be ousted when the final test comes," said Mr. Godwin.

Mr. Godwin said he was opposed to the plan of holding any kind of examination for the fourth class offices, but after going over the proposed plan with Mr. Burleson he was perfectly satisfied that the offices would be filled by Democrats regardless of the examinations.

Mr. Godwin called at the treasury department today and secured the promise of the supervising architect that work would be started on the Wilmington custom house within 90 days.

Mr. Godwin had the Wilmington project advanced to the class of 30 largest building projects which the department believes will be possible to start work on the Wilmington building some time during July at the latest.

Representative Small said today he would recommend for appointment as postmaster of Elizabeth City Dr. Andrew L. Pendleton. Dr. Pendleton is not engaged in the practice of his profession. The other postoffice vacancy in Mr. Small's district is Asheville. The contest for this office will be decided by a preferential primary.

It has been agreed that the man who received the highest vote in the contest will be recommended by Mr. Small. The election was held Saturday.

Annual Meeting Of Stockholders

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Company was held today in the Star warehouse, with a large attendance. At this meeting a resolution was adopted authorizing the dissolution of the company in accordance with steps taken at previous meetings, and a partial distribution of assets, amounting to 80 per cent, was paid to the stockholders.

The dissolution of this company, after being carried on for ten years in which time the original stockholders were paid 147 per cent in dividends, is to be regretted, and many of the farmers connected with it were heard to express themselves. Still there had arisen conditions under which it was not wise to continue without a change in policy, and opposition arising to a proposed reorganization of the company on a somewhat different basis, dissolution was considered as the best step under those circumstances.

Mr. O. L. Joyner, who was president of the company during its existence, and who at personal sacrifice threw his whole energy into building it up, labored unceasingly for its success and the large benefit the farmers derived from it was due mainly to his efforts. No one regrets more than he that a lack of earnest cooperation led to the dissolution of the company. It is cause for congratulation to the farmers, however, that in the sale of the property Mr. Joyner purchased one of the warehouses, the Star, and will continue to run it. His association with the business will mean much for the strength and advancement of the tobacco market.

Not Waiting on Lumber Dealers. Mr. G. B. W. Hadley started out on a plan not to be delayed in the building of his new residence. As a result the work on his house is proceeding rapidly.

Auto Cuts Down Pole. Sunday Dr. T. G. Basnight and his wife took an auto trip over near Whitechapel to visit friends. In the afternoon Mrs. Basnight took another lady out for a ride. In crossing the railroad track the car stalled. The ladies' lights intending to crank the car so it would go on. A man at the station near by went to assist them. The man got behind the car and gave it a push, when off the machine started right by itself. The car struck a bee line for a telephone pole and cut it down. No damage resulted except for the telephone pole.

Entered Suit Against Allens. ROANOKE, Va., April 18.—The civil suits for damages for the widows and orphans of the officers of the Carroll county circuit court, shot up March 14 of last year by the Allen clan, have been docketed in the Wayne county circuit court to be heard by Judge Walter R. Staples at the July term.

Judge Staples presided at the trial of the Allens and sentenced Floyd and Claude to die in the electric chair. Sentence was passed September 11, but the death penalty was not inflicted until last month.

The suits for damages are to recover money from the estates of Floyd Sidna and Claude Allen and Wesley Edwards. The families of Judge Edward L. Maeste, Commonwealth's Attorney William Foster and Sheriff Low Webb are plaintiffs in the suits.

Attorney R. H. Willis, of the law firm of Hairston, Hairston and Willis, principal counsel for the Allens in their long fight for life and liberty following the Hillsville tragedy, said that it is likely he will submit to Prosecutor Stuart Campbell of Wytte county, the document now in his possession, in which Attorney L. O. Wendenburg, of Richmond, sets forth grounds on which, Dexter Goad, clerk of the Carroll court, may be prosecuted for his part in the courthouse battle.

Mr. Willis said that because of the press of other business he had not yet examined the Wendenburg opinion carefully. He said, however, that it is likely the paper will be submitted to Stuart Campbell, prosecuting attorney for Wytte county, with a summary of evidence on which it is based, and pointed out where witnesses can be reached who will testify in support of the Allens' version of Goad's part in the courthouse fight and the circumstances leading up to it.

Rev. W. N. Johnson At the Baptist Church Last Night

Rev. W. N. Johnson, of Wake Forest College and pastor of the Baptist church here, came to Greenville Sunday evening from Scotland Neck, where he preached that morning and occupied the pulpit of Memorial Baptist church at night. Mr. Johnson spoke on "The Era of Church Building" answering the question, "What are the people of today most interested in?" He first mentioned education, then amusement, then money making, bringing out some points in connection with these in favor with some as each occupying the chief place in the public mind. None of these, he declared, held first rank of interest, but the foremost popular thought is building something. We are just beginning the era of building extensively, and everything is getting in line with this.

The speaker then went into the need of adequate church buildings, especially in educational centers. Referring to Greenville he said in this particular town stood almost at the head in North Carolina, but there are other points where, but there are woefully lacking. In this connection he especially referred to the need at Chapel Hill and Wake Forest. He said educational centers are not moulting for the present, but are dealing with conditions twenty-five and fifty years ago. The students in our colleges are in the formative period and are to be the making of the next generation, hence their environments should be inductive to going forward and not going backward. They must have proper church advantages in this formative period, or else they will be lost to the reckless life of the state.

In closing he mentioned the work the Baptist state convention has undertaken to provide an adequate church building at Wake Forest, and said that before leaving Greenville he wanted to present the need of this assembly to some of our people. He remained over today for that purpose and received substantial encouragement for the building.

Another interesting and enjoyable part of the service Sunday night was a beautiful solo sung by Mrs. W. M. Pugh.

ATLANTIC HOTEL HAS BEEN LEASED

Announcement has been made by the Norfolk Southern Railway Company, owners of the Atlantic Hotel, at Morehead City, that they have leased this popular seaside resort to Bland and Cherry, proprietors of the Gaston Hotel in this city, for a period of five years.

Both Mr. Bland and Mr. Cherry are well and favorably known to the majority of the traveling public, having been engaged in the hotel business for a number of years and that the Atlantic Hotel is prospering under their management there is not the least doubt.

In an interview given a Journal reporter yesterday, Mr. R. A. Cherry who is in charge of the Gaston Hotel, stated that he and Mr. Bland would make a number of repairs and improvements before opening the Morehead City resort and that it was their intention to make it one of the most popular seaside hotels in the state. The hotel will be opened for the season on June 15 and will be in charge of Mr. Cherry another thorough competent hotel man taking his place at the Gaston during the few months that he is away.

In the past this hotel has been conducted by the owners and they have given Morehead City an excellent train service during the summer months. This same service will be continued. The big motor car will be placed on the line between New Bern and that point and will make trips whenever necessary. In addition to this there will be special trains operated there each Sunday and the low round trip rate from all points on the Norfolk Southern line will be in effect.

With the addition of the Atlantic Hotel Messrs. Bland and Cherry are now the proprietors of the most popular hotels in this state, the Gaston in this city, the Alton, Ricks and Cambridge at Rocky Mount, the Louise at Washington, the Bland at Raleigh and the Atlantic at Morehead City—New Bern Journal.

STATE AID IN ROAD BUILDING

Sociological Advantages And Philosophy of Highway Improvement in Civilization

(Published by North Carolina Good Roads Association, Lexington, N. C.)

Speaking to the delegates in attendance at the annual American Road Congress, Woodrow Wilson, governor of New Jersey and then candidate for the presidency of the United States, used these words: "The public mind has been brought together by its means of communication. Its means of communication create thought, its means of intercommunication are the means of its sympathy; they are the means by which the various parts of it keep in touch with one another."

A study of the development of civilization demonstrates that in the exact proportion that the education and enlightenment of a people advance, so does arbitrary government recede. "The theory of the divine right of kings lasted as long as the various units could be kept in ignorance of the strength which they could exercise if acting together."

As roads were built, and various communities were brought into contact with each other, absolutism in our colleges are in the formative period and are to be the making of the next generation, hence their environments should be inductive to going forward and not going backward. They must have proper church advantages in this formative period, or else they will be lost to the reckless life of the state.

In closing he mentioned the work the Baptist state convention has undertaken to provide an adequate church building at Wake Forest, and said that before leaving Greenville he wanted to present the need of this assembly to some of our people. He remained over today for that purpose and received substantial encouragement for the building.

Another interesting and enjoyable part of the service Sunday night was a beautiful solo sung by Mrs. W. M. Pugh.

ATLANTIC HOTEL HAS BEEN LEASED

Announcement has been made by the Norfolk Southern Railway Company, owners of the Atlantic Hotel, at Morehead City, that they have leased this popular seaside resort to Bland and Cherry, proprietors of the Gaston Hotel in this city, for a period of five years.

Both Mr. Bland and Mr. Cherry are well and favorably known to the majority of the traveling public, having been engaged in the hotel business for a number of years and that the Atlantic Hotel is prospering under their management there is not the least doubt.

In an interview given a Journal reporter yesterday, Mr. R. A. Flood Waters Driving 20,000 Persons From Their Homes

NATCHEZ, Miss., April 27.—The long threatened break in the main lower Mississippi river levees along the west bank in upper Louisiana came at an early hour this morning when the Lake St. John levee, 12 miles north of Ferriday, La., went out, turning the flood waters loose upon the fine farming lands and villages of lower Tenness and Concordia parishes.

Approximately 20,000 persons will be driven from their homes as a result of their levee, which will flood a territory embracing about 900 square miles. The property damage will total several hundred thousand dollars.

The break in the levee at Lake St. John development at 3:20 o'clock this morning. People living in the immediate vicinity of the crevasse and in nearby towns were advised to flee fully two hours before the crash came. It is not believed any loss of life has resulted from the break. Six river steamers and a score of motor boats were dispatched to Natchez and Vicksburg early this morning for use in rescuing people from the flooded district.

2 White Men Assaulted by Negroes

Saturday afternoon a bunch of noisy negroes congregated in front of Mr. C. C. Parkerson's store, near the A. C. L. depot. Mr. John Parkerson, a brother of the proprietor, went out and asked the negroes to stop their noise. One of the negroes used insolent words about it and Mr. Parkerson struck him. Another negro directly behind Mr. Parkerson, struck him a savage blow in the back of the head falling him to the pavement. In the fall, Mr. Parkerson's face was badly cut and he was rendered unconscious from the blow.

Mr. C. C. Parkerson started out to the assistance of his brother, when the same negro assaulted him and badly injured one eye. The negro, who hailed from Greene county, fled to the country. Before day Sunday morning he was located and captured by Policeman Clark and brought to jail.

ROLLER SKATES CLAIM LIFE OF NEW BORN BOY Piece of Wood Playfully Placed On Side Walk HIP AND THREE RIBS BROKEN New York Man Claims Fish Trust Exist At New Bern. Forty Barrels Of Liquor Seized And Negro Arrested

NEW BERN, April 27.—The roller skate claimed its first victim here today when Ellis Meekins, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Meekins, who reside at No. 31-2 New South Front street, died from injuries received from a fall sustained while he was skating on Pollock street last Sunday night. The young man, in company with several companions, was skating on Pollock street and some one playfully threw a small strip of wood across the sidewalk. Not seeing this obstruction Meekins went down the sidewalk at a pretty fast clip and when his skates struck the stick he was thrown to the pavement with great force and his hip and three ribs were broken. He was taken to his home and under the attention rendered, but he did not rally and yesterday congestion of the brain set in and death occurred a few hours later. Several accidents have occurred lately to roller skaters, but this is the first that has had a fatal culmination.

Ernest H. Leonard, a New York fish dealer, has created quite a sensation among the fish dealers of this city by declaring that the fishermen here are combined and that there is a trust here. Mr. Leonard claims that he wants to start a new industry here and he calls it the New York market. However, he claims that it will be impossible for him to secure herring which are used as bait for this species of the water food on account of the fact that the local dealer have banded together to prevent an outsider coming to this city to start business, and that they have it in their power to prevent him from getting this bait. The leaders deny every statement made by the New York man and are very bitter in their denunciations of him.

The Craven county board of commissioners received notice Saturday from the state board of health that on May 19 Dr. G. F. Leonard, an expert in the treatment of hookworm and other intestinal diseases, will arrive in Craven county to conduct a six weeks' dispensary for the treatment of these diseases. This is the second time that these dispensaries have been conducted in this county.

Big shipments of liquor from Norfolk and Richmond continue to pour into New Bern on every train from the north and the express people are jubilant over the prospect of the business which they are doing. The majority of the whiskey arrives on the afternoon train and it is not an unusual thing to see from 200 to 400 four-quart packages unloaded on one of the big trucks which the express company uses in hauling the whiskey goods to their down town office. It is estimated that 150 express and postal money orders are sent to Virginia from this city each day in the week in payment for whiskey. This condition has existed only since the search and seizure act and the Webb bill went into effect.

Forty-three barrels of whiskey shipped here several weeks ago to one J. H. Smith, by F. Westheimer Sons and Co., a liquor dealer firm of Charlotte, O., are now being held in this city pending shipment to Raleigh during the coming week and will be seized by the government. A negro said to be J. H. Smith and whom it is known had taken similar shipments of whiskey from the Norfolk Southern warehouse, was arrested on a charge of retaining. The whiskey was found in the warehouse of the government immediately attached it and placed it under lock and key. Just what will be done with the whiskey is a matter of speculation with many. The government officers aver that it will be sold, but it is understood that the shippers will endeavor to reclaim it, having signified their intention of sending an array of legal talent to Raleigh on the day set for the trial of the case.

TARIFF BILL WILL BE TAKEN UP ON TUESDAY General Debate On The Measure Ends This Evening PLAN TO GOVARD BILL Underwood Opposes Special Rule. He Does Not Wish To Resort To Any Such Draconic Measure

WASHINGTON, April 27.—General debate on the Democratic tariff revision bill will end in the house of representatives tomorrow night. The measure will be taken up on Tuesday in the senate. Republicans and Progressives, characterized in the debate last week as "the two pronged fork" minority, are planning to bombard the measure with amendments until Democratic Leader Underwood with his overwhelmingly majority repulses their attack. With two minority leaders, however, Mann for the Republicans and Murdock for the Progressives, directing assaults upon the items as they are brought forward, progress necessarily will be retarded longer than usual.

Bringing up the bill under the five minute rule will afford the first opportunity in more than half a century to test the working of a three party house organization, the new Progressive being entitled to majority recognition for offering amendments to the pending measure. It being the determination of the majority to hasten the passage of the tariff bill, any attempt to filibuster will be checked by special rule if necessary.

Majority Leader Underwood is inclined to suppress efforts of anxious Democrats to bring in a special rule limiting amendments. He has announced that he does not wish to resort to any such drastic measure, but has further declared that the country is entitled to the new tariff bill if it possibly can be enacted, and that undue delay will not be tolerated. This being the attitude of the majority leader, the bill is expected to pass the house before May 10.

Democratic opposition to the bill on account of free wool wool and freer importation of wool is now expected to develop much strength in the house, though a few Democrats will not vote for the bill, having been released from the pledge binding them to the party measure in the caucus. The Republican minority will have amendments to every paragraph of the wool schedule, the sugar schedule, the Progressives also will have many amendments to all the schedules and both minorities will present amendments to the administrative features of the bill. Amendments that will change the exemptions in the income tax and its administrative features, also are to be made.

Manufacturers Demand Public Hearing. While the house is at work the senate finance committee will continue consideration of the measure. This committee now is being deluged with appeals from manufacturers and other interests all over the country for public hearings on the Underwood bill. Every influence that possibly can be brought to bear is being used to induce the Democratic majority to grant hearings. Thus far they have withstood all appeals, but the demand is so insistent and widespread that it is possible they may yield. Should they do so consideration of the bill by the committee will be delayed. In the appropriation bill, re-passed by the house, will come up. This measure vetoed by former President Taft, because it prohibited the use of funds as found in the warehouse of the government immediately attached it and placed it under lock and key. Just what will be done with the whiskey is a matter of speculation with many. The government officers aver that it will be sold, but it is understood that the shippers will endeavor to reclaim it, having signified their intention of sending an array of legal talent to Raleigh on the day set for the trial of the case.

JUDGE ALLEN SAYS TIMELY THINGS

Now and then in the progress of a court over which he presides, Judge O. H. Allen stops long enough to deliver a little lecture. He never takes the time for this without making it worth while for what he says is always timely and carries a good lesson with it. The other day when he was about to pass sentence on a man, as an appeal for mitigation counsel for the defendant called attention to his being an unlearned man, one who could not even read and who was no doubt ignorant of the gravity of the offense with which he was charged, Judge Allen paused and looked compassionately at the defendant and said "What a pity! A splendid looking man physically who cannot read. A great wrong has been done somewhere that such a fact exists. I will repeat what has been often said that 'ignorance begets crime, and here is a striking example of it. If that man had been trained and his ability turned in the right direction he could have been a power for good. Yet I expect some of you people who are listening to me, voted against a school tax in your community. Be ashamed of it if you did for you are helping to cause such examples of ignorance as this. There is no place that more than a court room brings to light the real conditions that are to be found in a county, and both preachers and teachers can here see the greater need of the good work they are doing."

RALEIGH NEWS AND OBSERVER'S FIRE

We doubt if there is a citizen of North Carolina in whose heart there was not a feeling of deep regret upon learning that morning that the plant of the Raleigh News and Observer had been destroyed by fire. The fire started about six o'clock, Thursday evening, and in a remarkably short time had practically wiped out the magnificent new building and splendid mechanical equipment of the paper, together with its mailing lists and valuable records. The financial loss is estimated at $75,000, about half covered by insurance. The News and Observer was the pride, not only of its editor, Secretary of the Navy Joseph Daniels, but also of all people in the state. While all sympathize with Mr. Daniels in this great misfortune, they rejoice that immediate steps have been taken to restore the plant and building as quickly as possible, and that through a temporary arrangement with the Raleigh Times the plant of that paper will be used so that not an issue of the News and Observer will be missed.

The papers have got Jack Johnson in jail again. Ought to keep him there.

A contributor to the Wilson Times, speaking of the sympathy expressed for Mr. Josephus Daniels in the destruction of the News and Observer plant and building, says "but what a great business enterprise needs it a time like this is cash, and if every subscriber would send in at once a year's subscription of $6 the News and Observer would have ready cash enough without the burden of interest to place the plant in first class shape."

That is a sensible suggestion and those who act on it first will be the greatest help.

The Reflector dislikes to mention a matter that hints of trouble, but if there is not a change in the conduct of some colored people around town trouble is likely to occur. They seem at times to almost take possession of that portion of Dickinson avenue from the terminus of Ninth street to the Atlantic Coast Line depot, and people are often annoyed getting to and from trains. In addition to complaints of this, we have heard people who live beyond the railroad say they dreaded to come through that street after night because of having to work their way through bunches of them. This is a condition that should be corrected, and the better class of colored people should help to correct it.

If you kept up with the daily record of the term of criminal court, last week, you will see that Judge Allen was correct in the statement in his charge to the grand jury at the beginning of the term, that if all the whiskey cases were removed from the docket there would not be enough left to keep the court busy for two days. In looking back over the reports for each day it is shown that there were twenty-two convictions during the week, and of these 25 were whiskey cases. In addition the grand jury found true bills in several cases for selling liquor that had to go over to next term for trial, and many of the convictions for affrays and carrying concealed weapons grew out of liquor.

You have heard folks say that the young sport with a new buggy and good horse, trying to drive by everybody on the road was a fool. But he is not a circumstance in the fool line to the one driving an automobile along the road and trying to speed by everybody. One tried it up near Shelby, the other day, with the result that he nearly killed two young ladies, but himself and wrecked his car.

A few days ago Davidson county held an election on the question of issuing $300,000 bonds for good roads, and it was defeated. In commenting on this the Charlotte Observer intimates that it is best "to work up to good roads township by township."

Why Not Get A Guarantee

Every Article of Merit That is Sold These Days is Guaranteed—No Guarantee Often Means Poor Quality

There is very little excuse for any person to claim that he has been "stung" on a purchase. Fifty years ago the buyer had to look out, but today it is unusual to find a merchant who will not return the money for any article that has proved unsatisfactory.

An excellent example of this kind of fair dealing is shown by the clean-cut guarantee that Basnight's Pharmacy give on Dodson's Liver Tone. The people tell us that any person who pays for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and does not find it a gentle and most pleasant liver tonic, harmless, but a sure reliever of constipation, can get his money back just as quick as he can get it out of the money drawer.

Dodson's Liver Tone has practically taken the place of calomel. It is absolutely harmless, sure in its action and causes no restriction of habit or diet. No wonder the drug people are glad to guarantee it, while other remedies that imitate the claims of Dodson's Liver Tone are not guaranteed at all.

Tired out, weak, nervous men and women would feel ambitious, energetic, full of life and always have a good appetite if they would do the sensible thing for health—take Electric Bitters. Nothing better for the stomach, liver or kidneys. Thousands say they owe their lives to this wonderful remedy. Mrs. O. Rinehart, of Vestal Center, N. Y., says: "I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest gifts of God. I can never forget what it has done for me." Get a bottle yourself and see what a difference it will make in your health. Only 50c and $1.00. Recommended by all druggists.

Did you wake up this morning with something on your mind for Greenville's advancement? Bring it to the front if you did and push it.

The excess of four thousand dollar income to be taxed is not causing people around this quarter to lose any sleep.

In addition to the untidiness and bad looks, piles of rubbish and old lumber in back lots of the business section are a menace to property.

Why Not Get A Guarantee

Every Article of Merit That is Sold These Days is Guaranteed—No Guarantee Often Means Poor Quality

There is very little excuse for any person to claim that he has been "stung" on a purchase. Fifty years ago the buyer had to look out, but today it is unusual to find a merchant who will not return the money for any article that has proved unsatisfactory.

An excellent example of this kind of fair dealing is shown by the clean-cut guarantee that Basnight's Pharmacy give on Dodson's Liver Tone. The people tell us that any person who pays for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and does not find it a gentle and most pleasant liver tonic, harmless, but a sure reliever of constipation, can get his money back just as quick as he can get it out of the money drawer.

Dodson's Liver Tone has practically taken the place of calomel. It is absolutely harmless, sure in its action and causes no restriction of habit or diet. No wonder the drug people are glad to guarantee it, while other remedies that imitate the claims of Dodson's Liver Tone are not guaranteed at all.

Tired out, weak, nervous men and women would feel ambitious, energetic, full of life and always have a good appetite if they would do the sensible thing for health—take Electric Bitters. Nothing better for the stomach, liver or kidneys. Thousands say they owe their lives to this wonderful remedy. Mrs. O. Rinehart, of Vestal Center, N. Y., says: "I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest gifts of God. I can never forget what it has done for me." Get a bottle yourself and see what a difference it will make in your health. Only 50c and $1.00. Recommended by all druggists.

Did you wake up this morning with something on your mind for Greenville's advancement? Bring it to the front if you did and push it.

The excess of four thousand dollar income to be taxed is not causing people around this quarter to lose any sleep.

In addition to the untidiness and bad looks, piles of rubbish and old lumber in back lots of the business section are a menace to property.

Swimming is prohibited in that pond on the Reflector corner, though it may look inviting for a plunge.

Blind tigers had as well get their eyes open to the fact that they must quit the business.

Something else good for Greenville is coming and we can soon tell you about it.

The straw hat, the peek-a-boo waist and low shoes still have a hard time getting on their job.

A good way to disperse bunches of loafers would be to try the vagrant law on them.

Don't be deceived by a few bursts of sunshine, but stick to 'em a while longer.

This is the open season for earth worms.

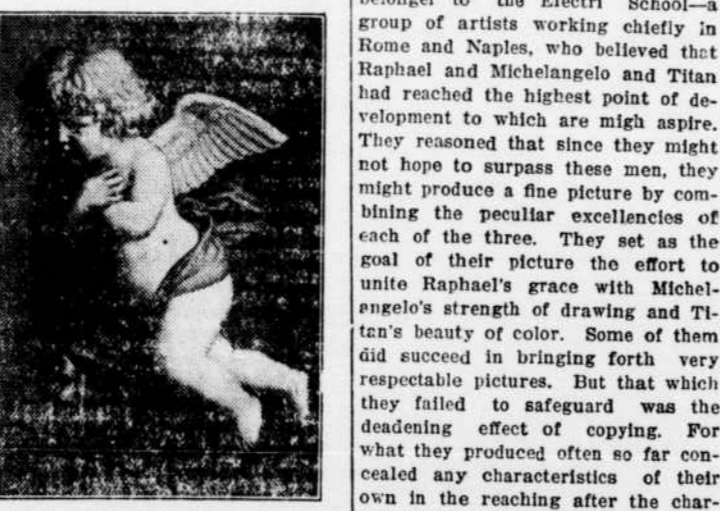

Can you call a dentist a stamp puller?

CHERUBS IN ART

"Learn One Thing Every Day."
NO. 3. CHERUB, BY SASSOFERRATO
Copyright 1913, by The Associated Newspaper School, Inc.
One needn't go far in the streets of sunny Italy to find a cherub. Perhaps that is the reason we find so many of them in the paintings of the Italian artists. Black-eyed, radiant, they look out from their pictures with the smile of children who have known no sorrow, and that is the way the children in the children in the streets of many of the Italian cities look today.

These child-cherubs should not be confused with the biblical cherubim, although they are the outgrowth of the cherubim idea. Strictly speaking, the seraphim and cherubim are the two orders of angels placed in pictures nearest the figure of the Deity. In the earlier Italian paintings they are seen merely as faces or heads surrounded with six wings, either red or blue in color. The wings of the cherubim are the wings of the seraphim. It is the wings of the cherubim that are the most interesting feature of the picture. The wings of the cherubim being blue, the cherubim being the angels of knowledge, and they are placed next the seraphim. But as early as the time of Fra Bartolommeo we find that there had crept in a perversion of this idea, and we find cherubs as little winged babies, used in the pictures of the Madonna to help out the composition.

The artist who painted the picture of which the cherub here shown formed a part is not one of the important figures of Italian art; he belongs rather to the period of the

GENERAL STORE PAINTS OILS
When You Paint
Use PURE PAINT and Use Pure LINSEED OIL to add to it at one-half the cost of Paint.

PURE PAINT is made with WHITE LEAD, ZINC and LINSEED OIL—that's the way the L. & M. SEMI-MIXED REAL PAINT is made.
But ALL the OIL needful to make the L. & M. PAINT ready for use is NOT put into the Paint when it's prepared for the Consumer who buys it.
The ADDITIONAL quantity of OIL is put into the Paint by the CONSUMER, as by so doing he SAVES MONEY.
Therefore—buy 3 gallons of LINSEED OIL with every 4 gallons of L. & M. PAINT and MIX the OIL with the PAINT.

If the Paint thus made costs more than $1.40 per gallon—If the Paint as you use it is not perfectly satisfactory—Then return the money you have paid for it. This is the policy of the WHOLE of its business. The money you pay to the Painter.

WAYS OF FRENCH BEGGARS

Select Their Favorite Prison, Then Commit an Offense to Insure Winter Accommodations.

Beggars and professional vagabonds who have passed thirty years do not fall each year when the winds of October blow to select their winter quarters.

It is then that each of them commits some offense, well knowing that he will get a penalty of six months' imprisonment. The delinquent so chooses his offense that he will not be at liberty until the month of April, in the first warm breezes of spring. He chooses his winter quarters wisely, for he knows the good and bad prisons.

Prisons, because of its valued and luxurious accommodations, occupies the first rank among prisons. This year the temperature was such as to bring about some true knavery on the part of these beggars and vagabonds.

From the month of August they were forced to commit some offense in order to assure themselves a shelter.

So in the antechamber of Prisons, was gorged with prisoners for whom the tardy rays of the September sun proved a cruel irony. If the magistrates show clemency and condemn these derelicts to only six months of prison the disaster of these poor devils will be complete, for they will, without pity, be thrown into the street in the open month of January.—Lo Ori de Paris.

ARE HANDSOMEST IN WORLD

Royal Irish Constabulary Bear Off the Palm From All Police of the Earth.

According to those most entitled to speak on the comparative pulchritude of the police, the Royal Irish Constabulary bear off the palm from all policemen in all other parts of the world. Dean Hole is quoted in the London Chronicle as contributing the following tribute to the fascinations of the noble Irish force:

"Our London police are well favored in appearance, but if the Royal Irish Constabulary were to take their place for a week there wouldn't be a single female servant to be warranted heart whole in the metropolis."

London goes to the rural districts for its policeman largely, and the result is often as amusing, not to say enervating, as that which arises in New York from the employment of foreign car conductors, submitted by a report of city streets and neighborhood. The Chronicle writer tells of an encounter with an inexperienced foreign car conductor, submitted by a policeman who was asked the whereabouts of a famous firm in the neighborhood, to which query the new boy replied savily:

Tea Drinking a Vice?

A foreign critic says: "In hunting a cause for this apparent decadence of the once mighty people (the British), some scientists have had much to say on the subject of tea drinking for nowhere else is the habit so universal as in the British Isles. Women and children drink tea off and on during the day. Business men have to stop their work at intervals to partake of their tea. And in most instances the brew is exceptionally strong. It has been estimated that each person in Great Britain, on an average, takes daily dose of 2 1/2 grains of alkaloid and 9.7 grains of tannin consumed in tea. This means that the average tea drinker takes half as much alkaloid and nearly as much tannin as the Maximum allowed by the British pharmacopoeia for an occasional dose. And, of course, many thousands of people drink a great deal more than the average dose."

Speed of a Bullet.

Experiments with improved instruments for measuring the velocity of projectiles have shown that the speed goes on increasing with the distance. Leaving the muzzle with a velocity of 1,474 feet a second, a projectile has been observed to increase its speed to 1,659 feet a second within the first six feet. It is only after having traveled 25 yards that the projectile's velocity becomes reduced to the speed it has on leaving the muzzle. This is ascribed to the impulse of the expanding gas being felt for some distance beyond the cannon's mouth.

Farmer's Suggestion.

A Florida farmer who was raising strawberries for the market sent a shipment to New York and the commission merchant wrote back that the berries were too ripe, consequently poor prices and small return checks, so next time the grower picked them earlier and the results were about the same, as the New York man said they were too green for the market; so the next shipment the man pulled up the plants by the roots, packed them in boxes and said, "You can pick them when just right for your particular market."

Made Dogs and Rats Fight.

For keeping premises in Soar Lane, Leicester, for dog and rat fighting, Walter Manship was at Leicester yesterday fined £5 under the protection of animals act, and for assisting him Ernest Manship and Albert Martin of Leicester, Joseph Ward of Hinckley and James Mason of Birmingham were fined £1 each. It was stated that on Boxing day terrier dogs were placed in a rat pit and a number of rats were killed. All the competing dogs were badly bitten and in one competition two rats were seen hanging from the bleeding jaws of a dog.

Advice About Reading.

Be sure, then, to read no mean books; shun the spawn of the press in the gospel of the hour. Do not read what you shall learn, without asking, in the street and the train. Dr. Johnson said he "always went into stately shops," and good travelers stop at the best hotels; for though they cost more they do not cost much more, and there is the good company and the best information. In like manner the scholar knows that the famous books contain, first and last, the best thoughts and facts. . . . The three practical rules, then, which I have to offer are (1) Never read any book that is not a year old. (2) Never read any but famed books. (3) Never read any but what you like.—Emerson.

Community in News.

At a friend's southern hunting lodge his wife has learned that her "ring-up" on the telephone is accompanied by the click of receivers all along the line. Every one is obviously listening to what she says. On one occasion a telegram was telephoned to the lodge, and the following day, when her husband met a rural neighbor on the road, the latter drew rein to converse.

"Mr. Grey," said he, "I didn't catch the last part of that telegram we got yesterday."

Mr. Grey accordingly enlightened his ignorance forthwith.—New York World.
