NORTH CAROLINA'S WEALTH.

Her Natural Resources Rich Beyond Popular Knowledge.

It is expected that a closer acquaintance with the great Pan-American Exposition to be held at Buffalo next year will convince the people of North Carolina of the wisdom of being represented by a proper state exhibit. Where there is one reason for the state's representation at Paris there are a score of good reasons why it should have an exhibit at Buffalo. The great markets into which this state sends her products are the cities of the United States. The state is seeking, not settlers speaking a foreign tongue, but Americans from any state who are looking for grand opportunities for investment or for engaging actively in profitable lines of business. Many of our own people do not realize that they have one of the most productive states in the Union and one of the richest in natural resources.

Both in agricultural products and possibilities and in mineral wealth North Carolina is one of the most favored states of the Union. All agricultural interests have rapidly advanced since 1890. The corn crop of 1893 approximated 30,000,000 bushels and that of 1894, 33,000,000 bushels. Much attention has been given to truck farming, and as much as $750,000 worth of produce has been shipped from a single town in one season. Peanuts are extensively grown by our citizens, North Carolina having been at one time almost the only source of supply for the United States. Since 1870 much attention has also been given to grape culture, both for the manufacture of wine and the supply of the northern market with grapes. The climate and soil are especially adapted to the culture of the vine, and vineyards are found in almost all sections. It will interest many to learn that no state has within its boundaries so many of the plants used in medicine, the Atlantic slope of the Blue Ridge furnishing 2,500 varieties. One firm annually ships over 2,000,000 pounds, the dried roots, herbs and barks going to all parts of the world.

In the cotton year ending Aug. 31, 1899, the area under cultivation for cotton was 1,311,708 acres and the production 629,620 gross bales. For the year 1899-1900 the area was 1,220,000 and the estimated yield 193 pounds of lint cotton per acre.

The timber lands of North Carolina are one of its most valuable possessions. The great variety of soils and the wide range of climate give rise to a rich and varied forest growth. In the southeastern counties under the influence of the gulf stream are found the magnolias, palmettos, live oaks and other semitropical trees, while on the higher mountains of the west are the spruces and firs. The state abounds in pines, and from this tree is derived one of its most valuable products—that of turpentine. Out of 22 oaks indigenous to the United States, North Carolina has 19. It has all the light pines, four of the five spruces, six of the eight hickories and all of the seven magnolias.

The mineral wealth of North Carolina is as boundless as its agricultural and forest resources, and the further development of this wealth offers great inducements to capitalists seeking investment. They have no need to go to South Africa or the golden sands of Cape Nome. There are both gold and silver to be mined in paying quantities in North Carolina. Work is being pushed in the Greer, Cappi Hill, Summerville and other mines in Mecklenburg county; in several mines in Cabarras county, at the Gold Hill, Dutch Creek, and one or two other points in Rowan county; at the B le mine in Moore county, Portes mine in Franklin county, Mann-Arrington mine in Nash county and at points in Stanly and Montgomery counties.

In silver the most notable activity is at the Silver Hill mines in Davison county and the Troutman, near the dividing line between Rowan and Cabarras counties. There was a notable gain in gold mining in 1898, the output being 4,064 fine ounces, valued at $84,000.

Copper and iron mines are being worked, and quarrying is carried on upon an extensive scale. In 1898 there were quarried granite valued at $79,769 and sandstone and limestone valued at $9,100, total, $90,574. The copper ores found include native free copper, cuprite, azurite, malachite, red oxide, copper glaze and the green and blue carbonades of copper. There are several promising iron mines in operation. A company has recently been formed in Macon county to mine systematically for the gem rhodolite, also for the ruby, sapphire and other corundum gems.

Mica In North Carolina.

There are extensive beds of mica in the western portion of the state. Mica mining showed an increase in 1899, there being 53 mines. What was pronounced to be the finest deposit of magnetic iron ore in the southern states exists in Ash county, and in November, 1899, a tract of 10,000 acres was leased by two Pennsylvania steel companies, and railroad extensions to the seat of operations were ordered. A first class exhibit of mica and other minerals at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo might be the means of attracting the attention of capitalized enterprise toward these invaluable deposits.

The Gems of North Carolina.

There are found in North Carolina more than 150 species of gems, including the rich "hiddenite," or lithia emerald, which is not known to occur elsewhere. There were 23 corundum mines in operation in 1899, and the price of corundum has risen from 4 to 20 cents a pound. There should be a well arranged exhibit of North Carolina gems at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo next year.

Gen Carr Sends Congratulations

The following telegram was yesterday afternoon received by Senator-elect Simmons from Gen. Julian S. Carr:

"Durham, N. C., Nov. 7, 1900.
"Hon. F. M. Simmons, Raleigh, N. C.

"Accept my heartest congratulations. In all your efforts to promote the welfare of North Carlina and the Democratic party, I pledge my loyal support.

"J. S. CARR."

Mr. Simmons acknowledged the receipt of General Carr's telegram as follows:

"Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7, 1900.
"General J. S. Carr Durham N. C.

"Accept my thanks for your wire of congratulation. It is my earnest desire lhat any dissensions in our party may be speedily healed. I trust that the spirit of your telegram may meet a universal response from our party friends and that we may all work together for the success of Democracy and the welfare of the State. Surely nothing shall be left undone on my part to accomplish this much to be desired result.

"F. M SIMMONS."

Since early Tuesday afternoon, when it became apparent to those who were watching the progress of the election that Mr. Simmons was elected, telegrams and letters of congratulation have been pouring in from all parts of the State, and from people of all classes and callings. In addition to this, Mr. Simmons' office has been constantly crowded with admirers, anxious to shake the hand of the new Senator and congratulate him on his victory.

In the election returns, it is very gratifying to Mr. Simmons to note that in Jones county, where he was born and lived twenty-two years, only two votes were cast against him. Also that in Onslow county, where he practiced law for fifteen years, only thirty-seven votes were cast against him.—Raleigh News and Observer.

IN THE SHADOW OF DEATH.

A Whole Family Cured.

Mrs. C. H. Kingsbury, who keeps a millinery and fancy goods store at St. Louis, Gratiot Co., Mich., and who is well known throughout the country, says:

"I was badly troubled with rheumatism, catarrh and neuralgia. I had liver complaint and was very bilious. I was in a bad condition; every day I began to fear that I should never be a well woman; that I should have to settle down into a chronic invalid, and live in the shadow of death. I had JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA recommended to me. I TOOK FOUR BOTTLES AND IT CURED ME, and cured my family both. I am very glad that I heard of it. I would cheerfully recommend it to every one. I have taken many other kinds of medicine. I prefer JOHNSTON'S to all of them."

VOL. XIX. GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16 1900. NO 94

The Path Is Plain.

We have simply got to do in national affairs what the party did in this State in 1898, refuse further alliance with the traders in politics, stand squarely upon our own integrity, cease grasping at every catch penny scheme that idle and ambitious minds may devise, and devote ourselves to those questions which appeal to the consience, the judgment, and the integrity of the people and whose aim will satisfy the people that their best interests will be safeguarded and promoted. This is old-time Democracy, and when we start out again along these lines we may rely with some confidence upon popular support.

The party will revive and reorganize under new leadership. The experience we have just had will prove enough for a generation, let us hope. Ambitious ignorance in our own ranks will not be permitted again to lead us into association and under the leadership of political malcontents and calamity howlers on the one hand and vicious demagogues on the other. Let us be true to ourselves, and we cannot fail to merit at least the respect as well as confidence of our fellow-countrymen.—Raleigh Post Imprisoned by Bank Robbers.

About midnight last night Dr. G. H. Albright, a leading physician of this place, was called out to see a patient. On his return home, while crossing the public square in front of John A. Black's bank, four men rushed out and, covering him with their pistols, ordered him to throw up his hands. He was then taken to the corner of the building and carefully guarded and told that if he looked at any of them he would be killed. Confederates were inside the bank proceeding to blow open the vault. After hearing several dynamite explosions the doctor heard one of the men in the building say:

"Bring him in."

This was done, and he was thrust into the vault and the door closed, one of the men remarking:

"Have a seat, doc."

Dr. Albright remained in the vault till 6 o'clock this morning, the opening hour. The time door of the safe was blown to pieces, but the side door was not opened. There was about $5,500 in the vault, all of which was accounted for but $300, which the robbers succeeded in obtaining.

The Cumberland Valley Bank was also entered, but no damage done. The bank had a large safe, which it is supposed the burglars were afrraid to tackle.—Barboursville, Ky., Dispatch. 9th.

The policeman who is compelled to patrol a cemetery must expect to have references to "dead beats" hurled at him.

How to Hurry.

Reader do you know how to hurry? This is a hurrying age, and you ought to know how to keep up with it if you think it worth while. Here are a few suggestions that may help you.

Do nothing that you don't have to do.

Cut out the non-essentials.

Don't hesitate. Begin at once.

When you are through, stop, and begin on the next thing.

Don't be too particular what part of the job you begin with. Other things being equal, do what's under your hand first and the next nearest thing next.

Don't pause between jobs.

Don't go from one job to another until the first is done. "Do one thing at a time." It takes time to change your mind.

Do your thinking while you're acting. And think about the work in hand.

If you have assistants, use them. At first do only what they can't do, and afterward help them out.

Do nothing twice. This makes it neccessary to do it right the first time.

Don't lay down one tool except to take up another.

Beware of looking out of the window, That way distraction lies.

Don't put things off. Do them when you think of them.

If you'll follow these rules and a few more that you can make yourself, you will be able to reduce your work hours one-half; you won't think you are hurrying; you won't be boared and worn out by your work; and when it's over you can go and romp with the baby with an approving conscience and a mind at rest.—Monthly World.

The Wilmington Star states the truth forcefully in the following:

Some of the gentlemen who helped to defeat the Democratic party four years ago and again last Tuesday by voting for McKinley, or by refusing to vote for Bryan, have come to the front to tell how the party can be organized. This is gall to say the least of it. Deserters are not the men to reorganize a defeated army, and bolters are not the men to reorganize a defeated party. The men who called themselves Democrats, who left the party four years ago because a majority of the party differed from them on the financial question, and refused to come back to it for the same reason had a right to go and a right to refuse to come back; they had the right, too, to vote against it or not to vote at all, but they have no right to be posing as the only true Democrats, and they should not have the audacity to come forward now and talk about reorganizing the party which they labored to defeat and helped to defeat.

A Great Battle in South China.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 11.—News was received by the steamship Victoria concerning the rebellion in South China. The Traids have broken out in Kwang Si and Marshal Su, commander-in-chief of the imperial forces, is asking for 3,000 men to suppress them. The British have dispatched infantry and artillery to guard the Kow Loon frontier. When the torpedo boat destroyer Handy was landing men, she encountered a force of rebels and threw shells among them as they advanced on San Chuan, routing them and killing forty.

A force of Kwang Si rebels marching to join the Kwan Sing rebels met and defeated the imperial troops near Kuanging and captured 30. Great preparations for the building, mine laying and drilling of troops were going on in the affected provinces.

A battle was fought at Tsan Tsou, on the Shan Tung-Chi Li border, October 17, between imperial troops and Boxers. General Yuan's troops numbered 8,000 and the Boxers 12,000. Two thousand men were left to guard Tsang Chou and General Mel, in charge of the imperial troops, gave battle outside. The battle lasted all day and resulted in the defeat of the Boxers with great loss. Their leader, Chen, refused to retreat, and when the fight was lost fought with 300 desperadoes in a ravine until all of them were killed. His head was taken and hung on the walls of the city. Six thousand rebels were killed.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT BUILDING, PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

Copyright, 1900, by the Pan-American Exposition Co.

So vast is the number of valuable and interesting objects for exhibition in the possession of the government that none but a building of great proportions could possibly contain them. Instead of one building, however, at the Pan-American Exposition, which is to be held in Buffalo from May 1 to Nov. 1, 1901, the Federal group will consist of three massive structures connected by colonnades. The main building will be 130 feet wide and 600 feet long. The others will each be 150 feet square. The government work is under the direction of James Knox Taylor, supervising architect of the treasury department. The group will be treated architecturally in a modified Spanish renaissance, and the color scheme, in marked contrast to that used at Chicago, will be rich and brilliant.

Courtship of Savages.

Among the land Dyaks no youth dare venture to pay addresses to a maiden unless he can throw at her feet a netful of skulls, it being necessary for him to prove his prowess by killing a few men, women or children. Among these tribes the lover offers the maiden of his choice some betel nuts. If she accepts, he is happy, but if she refuses and says, "Be good enough to blow up the fire," it means that he is dismissed. Sometimes the courting is carried on through a medium of a sort of Jew's harp, one handing it to the other, asking questions and returning answers.

When a young Hottentot goes courting, to render himself more attractive he paints his nose, cheeks and forehead with soot. Among some tribes of Madagascar the boys decorate their long locks with leaves, flowers and feathers, "only in order to please the women." The natives of New Britain blacken some of their teeth and knock out others, knowing that otherwise they run the risk of being refused by the ones of their choice on account of ugliness. A woman in that beautiful land would "scorn to accept the addresses of one possessing white teeth, like a dog or pig." A girl who has arrived at a marriageable age has her teeth filed.

The beaus of Zambesia file the middle teeth in the upper jaw into the form of a swallow's tail. In one province of Tasmania a rebellion nearly broke out when orders were once issued forbidding the u of other and grease, for the young men feared the loss of favor in the eyes of their countrywomen. Among the Guayrayos the suitor when courting keeps for days close to the cabin of the cabin of the mistress of his heart, being painted from head to foot and armed with his battle club.

The Melonesian women do the courting. When a girl likes a man, she tells his sister and gives her a ring of string. The sister says to her brother: "Brother, I have good news for you. A woman loves you." If willing to go on with the affair through the sister, an appointment is made, and the following dialogue takes place:

The man says: "You like me proper?"

"Yes, I like you proper, with my heart inside."

Unwilling to give himself away rashly, he asks, "Now you like me."

"I like you altogether. Your skin good."

The girl, anxious to clinch the matter, asks when they are to be married. The man says, "Tomorrow, if you like." There is a mock fight when they tell their relatives, and everything is settled.

In Maoriland the girl generally begins the courting. The love token which the girl throws at the feet of her lover is a little bit of flax made into a sort of half knot. "Yes" is signified by pulling the knot tight. "No" by leaving the matrimonial noose alone.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

What Pluck and Industry Accomplished in the Case of Two Boys.

Eight years ago a citizen of this county died, leaving a widow and five young sons. The man had been unfortunate and after his death his land and personal property went under the auctioneer's hammer and the widow and her sons were left with nothing, save their pluck and resolution to surmount difficulties. Sickness came upon them, the mother died and it seemed that fate was against them but those boys went to work with a will and determination which takes no denial and their success has been phenomenal. By hard work alone, by the wear of muscle and sweat of their brows those boys have redeemed their father's farm, have purchased three hundred acres of good land adjoining it and have plenty of good stock and implements and piled in their cribs is this year's corn crop measuring two thousand bushels under their sheds is fifty bales of cotton made this year.—Monroe Enquirer.

Cotton seed, once deemed worthless, but which under the magic wand of industrial invention has become so prolific in its yield of products—oils, feed stuffs, fertilizer, etc.— has been requistioned yet another contribution to man's needs Mr Robert Thomas in a small way a paper maker from Florida, and of and inventive turn of mind, has discovered a process of making paper of a great tenisle strength out of cotton seed hulls and at a less cost than is required to make it out of wood pulp. Mr. Thomas has a patent on his process and a company has been organized to handle the invention. Thus do we move forward in silence and invention. Charlotte Observer.

The Democratic party stands for principles which can never die; that's why the party cannot be killed either by victory or defeat. In the past it has been worse crippled by its victories—some of them —than by its defeats, says the Durham Herald.

EASTERN REFLECTOR

GREENVILLE, N. C.

D. J. WHICHARD, Ed. & Owner

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1900.

The Observer publishes this morning returns from 38 county chairmen in reply to an inquiry sent to all county chairmen last week as to the effect of the recent senatorial primary in their respective counties upon the democratic party. The replies are of the same general tenor: that the effect was injurious. From some counties they are that there is no perceptible influence. It is noticeable that in several instances in which this is said to be the case, the chairmen add that they want no more senatorial primary. The Mecklenburg chairman says that the constitutional method of choosing senator is good enough for him. The Vance chairman says that the populists used to charge the democrats with all the crimes of the decalogue, and that the primary gave democrats the opportunity to make the charges good. Nearly all of the state papers speak out on the primary question last week and the press is found to be practically unanimous in opposition to another. It is to be hoped that all of the fun to be gotten out of the fad has been extracted and that we have seen the end of this thing. We don't believe that the legislature is going to be guilty of the folly of adopting any "legalized" primary plan. This would simply be another thing under a bigger name and would afford the same opportunity for democrats to blackguard each other.—Charlotte Observer.

The old Stewart house at Fifth avenue and Thirty-fourth street, which is again reported as practically sold, is still looked upon by country visitors as a model of a New York palace. When A. T. Stewart built the house nearly forty years ago he was one of the most talked about of New York's millionaires. Every visitor to the city saw Stewart's store as one of the sights and then gazed on the exterior of his new house. The appointments of this mansion were so embelished by the imagination that Stewart himself would not have recognized them. From its situation and style the house was always been conspicuous, but as a residence it would not bear comparison with any one of a hundred New York houses. Since Mrs. Stewart's death the only tenant of this property has been the Manhattan Club and that organization was almost killed by it. Since the Manhattan Club moved down to the University Club's old house the property has been for sale. Rumor has turned it into a restaurant several times and once into a store, and now there is no certainty as to what will be done with it. It is a conspicuous monument to A. T. Stewart's fortune and so long as it stands it will be known as the Stewart house.—N. Y. Sun.

Leprosy's Spread in the East.

Mr. Stapleton, writing to The Temple Magazine on mission work among lepers, makes the following appalling statements:

"India has about half a million, China probably as many and Japan 200,000 registered cases. The moment leprosy appears in a man, woman or child, banishment is irrevocably decreed. There is no pity or compassion, for leper, young or old, are turned adrift as unclean things on the highway and by-ways and are dependent for substance on the casual doles of food thrown to them. In India the leper loses caste which is regarded the worst doom. In Japan he is treated with the greatest cruelty. The same is true in China. The leper there is often put to death by fire without compunction, and religion has not a ray of hope for him in the next world."—London Cable 10th.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER

Shall the National Democrati Corpse Be Revived by the Gold Cure?

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 13.—Now the party "reorganizers" are coming to the front, each a modern Solomon, charged to the muzzle of his lingual gun with advice anent what we must do if we hope to have the Democratic party figure in national political contests hereafter. Simply as a matter furnishing "food for reflection" along this line, let me say this: I have been surprised at the number of well known Democrats in this city who have openly expressed themselves as being not at all sorry that Mr. Bryan was defeated—and nine tenths of them voted for him, too. Judge——one of the best Democrats and best men in the State, said to me: "The Democratic and not the Republican voters beat Bryan; they do not believe in his policies." Now, I submit that when such conditions as these obtain there is unquestionably something radically wrong in our party household. Let the uninformed probe the mystery.

Yes, let 'em talk! We've got a recess that will give us ample time to consider why they have to say. But mind you this: The old maxim of Democracy is a tough number when it comes to surviving blows designed to serve as "knock-outs," and he's a political publist of right valuable experience and no mean order of ability—with hardened muscles and a "thinker" that doesn't always go wrong—and nobody has yet seriously thought of caging him for a lunatic or of sending him to an infirmary for the balance of his natural life.

NO MORE AUGUST ELECTIONS.

I said last week, in these letters, before the polls closed, that we would probably have no more State primary campaigns, "legalized" or of the outlawed variety we have just passed through. That statement seems to have met with the prevailing opinion and desire expressed since in various quarters. And we are to have no more August elections, it can be added. The Legislature will, in January, again designate November as the month for State and county elections, as well as National, I am told. And nobody will object, I am sure.

REDISTRICTING OF THE STATE.

One of the important duties which the Legislature will attend to at the approaching session will be the redistricting of the State for the election of the ten congressmen to which we will be entitled after the next Congress. It is already mooted that an effort will be made to place all the stronger Republican counties of the west in one district—such as Mitchell, Madison, Yadkin, Wilkes, Surry, Stokes, Davie, Ashe, Alleghany, Davie, Wautauga, etc., if found to be practicable and legal. But as fighting Democrats in some of these counties will probably object to this scheme.

LLEWXAM.

While the sickness at the Normal existed but little if any talk in Greensboro, the news was magnified elsewhere to some extent and there was some alarm—and naturally—that there was to be a reception of last year. For the benefit of all living away from Greensboro it can be stated that the sick are getting well. One patient left the hospital yesterday and the others are all free from fever and in a convalescent state. The disease was of a mild form, but always had to run its course. Parents of few of the students took them home, but these have returned.—Greensboro Record.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Nov. 14.

It is said. "A man is not without honor, save in his own country." It is further said, "There are exceptions to all rules." So with the A. G. Cox Mfg Co. Right here at home, as well abroad, they are highly honored, from every source come letters and words of commendation and praise for the excellency of their work, and the superiority of their wagons, carts, cart wheels, buck bands, cart saddles and cotton planters, which have no rival and all this from our own people "who know a good thing when they see it and hold fast when they get it," and that accounts for the high appreciation placed upon the articles manufactured by this company.

While out hunting items yesterday, we inquired of a crowd of gentlemen, if they would kindly tell us something to put in the paper. Mr. R. J. Sutton promptly replied. "Yes, I have an old hog out at my home, broken down in the loins and I've got a carpenter making a pair of crutches for her so she can go out in the field and eat peas. Will that do?" he added. We told him yes, "that he was intitled to the key," to go and get it from Rob Dixon." The last we saw of him he was headed that way.

A Wild, Fierce Desperado.

Resting quietly in the city's repository for young, old and middle aged criminals, awaiting the regular Monday afternoon matinee, yesterday and last night, was a youthful desperado hailing from the quiet precincts of the South side. He was captured after a desperate struggle and a winding race by Special Policeman Hiatt, Saturday night. He carried a six shooter, which is now in the curio cabinet at police headquarters. The arrest was the result of a hand to hand encounter with a fellow citizen Saturday night, in which the captive endeavored to use his gun. The captive is a coon, a wild, fierce coon. He is, by actual measurement, twenty seven inches high in his boots. He gave his age in as five summers, but his mother said he is ten. His gun, which he tried to use on a fellow citizen of similar size, is a "baby hammerless" six shooter, about three inches long, 22 calibre, corresponding in size to its owner. When Special Policeman Hiatt arrested him and started up town he tried to shoot the policeman, and when his gun was taken from him, he quietly submitted until an opportune time, when, he nailed the policeman's hand with his teeth. The policeman slung him off something like one might do a terrapin that had become too familiar. Being thus freed, the officer sought liberty from his legs, and here is where the long chase came in. The policeman finally landed him.

The boy's mother came up today to seek release for her wild young offspring and agreed to have him whipped. Chief Scott gave him a mild thirty and turned him over to her.

The gun is still in the curio cabinet, and Special Policeman Hiatt is making inquiry to find out if the "biter is a "blue gum nigger."—Greensboro Telegram.

Happenings in North Carolina

Burglars blew open safes in the post office and in Black & Co's. store at Mathews, N. C., and took $1,000 in cash.

The six-year-old child of a negro woman, named Maynot, was burned to death last night. She was playing near an open fire place when her clothes caught afire, and before her screams brought help, she was burned to a crisp.—Fayetteville Observer, 10th.

Near the clay deposit on Fishing Creek is the famous mammuth bone that spans the creek from the Nash to the Halifax side. Tradition says that years ago Indians used it in summer to cross, thinking it a moss covered log. As a matter of fact, it can be clearly seen in dry weather, or when the water is low. The late Maj. J. M. Mayo succeeded in digging up from the Nash county bank one-half of the lower maxillary—jaw-bone—but it was so decomposed as to crumble before it could be handled and moved. This condition due to the head being buried in the earth while the main body, lying submerged nearly all the time in water, is still intact. If disinterred and mounted there are naturalists who could easily supply the missing head.

The Zionist Dream.

The re establishment of the Jewish nationality and the restoration of Palestine to the Jews is a hope which lives in the hearts of millions of the Chosen People.

The Zionist movement which was organized a few years ago has attained considerable proportions and its leaders confidently predict its success. The fourth Zionist Congress was held in London recently and was attended by delegates from all parts of the world. Many favorable reports as to the growth of the movement were received and there was a display of great enthusiasm.

The American delegates on their return a few days ago were given a reception in New York by more than 3,000 sympathizers. On that occasion the secretary of the American Federated Zionists said:

"We political Zionists desire a charter from the sultan, authorizing us to take back our Holy Land, and we ask the Powers to approve and protect the charter. We desire a full local self-government under the suzerainty of the sultan. Thus ten millions persecuted persons will meet after three thousand years to work out that great destiny of saving the world for which they were called by God."

This is an authentic statement of the political side of the movement. Another member of the association interprets its spiritual side:

"The present movement is a revival of Judaism, which I hope will not cease until the Hebrew race is acknowledged, as in ages past, to be the spiritual leader and comforter to mankind. The God of Abraham is the God of all nations. The world has need of a renaissance of Judaism. The Jews are the only race sufficiently disinterested to be the arbitrators of peace."

In the opinion of mankind generally, including, perhaps, a majority of the Jews themselves, Zionism is regarded as an "irridescent dream," but this does not chill the ardor of its advocates or cause them to doubt the ultimate success of their movement.—Atlanta Journal.

Wreck on the Coast Line.

Fayetteville, Nov. 10.—A wreck occurred this morning on the Atlantic Coast Line to a north-bound passenger train. It was caused by a spike tied to the rail. A sheriff's posse and bloodh ounds are pursuing the perpetrators of the act.

The engine ran a yard on the flange, jumped on a sand bank and turned over with the baggage and postal cars on top. Capt. McGowan, Postal Agent Craft, a lady walking in the aisle of the sleeper at the time and a colored fireman were injured, but none fatally except McGowan, who, it is feared, cannot survive his injuries. The through passengers were brought to this city. The injured men were conveyed to the hospital.

The track was blocked and travel delayed for several hours.

Something to Talk About.

It will not be a great while now before the Legislature meets, and Greenville ought to be ready to petition that body to pass a bill authorizing the town to vote on the question of issuing bonds for water works, electric lights, better streets and graded schools.

An Old Man Hurt.

Mr. Tom May, about 70. or 80 years old, who lives about 6 miles north of Greenville started to town on a load of fodder this morning and in some way fell off to the ground and hurt himself severely internally. We have taken great care in growing the most improved bright tobacco seed—the White Stem Orinoco, the Broad Leaf Orinoco are the most reliable tobacco ever grown in any section. Every man in the east, who cultivated this kind will average from 2 to 5 per cent more than any other kind. Mr. Sam Mumford, at Ayden, says that his Orinoco will bring fifty dollars more per acre than any other kind grown on same land. Martin county people are growing Orinoco and coining money. You will find these seed for sale at Dr. Wooten's and Dr. Bryan's Drug stores and at some store in each section of the county at 25 cents per package.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12th.

Democratic Senator and Representatives who have been in Washington since the election have not been disposed to talk for publication on the result, not because they are discouraged or then—they consider the future of the democratic party in either doubt or danger, but on the general principle that it is always good policy for the defeated party to let the other fellows do the talking for awhile, just as they will have to do the legislating and administrating of the country for awhile. For the same reason they think the talk about re-organizing the democratic party, which has been indulged in to a limited extent since the election, premature at this time. The best policy for the democrats to adopt for a while is to keep a careful watch on the republicans, show up every blunder they make, and do a whole lot of thinking. It will be two years before there is another congressional election, and until then, the democrats will have no opportunity to get control of any branch of the National Government. The gentlemen who are talking about holding conventions, etc. for a re-organization of the party at this time, are doubtless perfectly honest and wholly unselfish in their wishes for the future welfare of the party, but if they persist they will surely be suspected by many of being more anxious to get the party reins in their hands than of really help ing the party. Party reorganizations, so far as leaders and principles are concerned, are things which generally take care of themselves, as has been demonstrated more than once in the history of the democratic party, and doubtless will be again Party upheavals which are genuine, usually start from the bottom, the rank and file of any party know how to change leaders when they consider it desirable or necessary to do so.

Secretary Root has gone to Cuba and for two reasons his going has caused much gossip in Washington, where it is believed to be connected with matters of importance relating to the future of Cuba, The first of these reasons is that the Cuban Constitutional Convention is now in session in Havana, and the second is that this is considered the unhealthy season in Cuba. Mr. Root's heath has not been robust since he had that operation performed on him a month or two ago, and he would hardly have chosen this season for his visit to Cuba, unless his going was important.

Just $100,000 more of good American money will be invested in the Philippires if the Senate ratifies the treaty signed by Secretary Hay and the Spanish Minister, which binds this country to pay Spain that amount for three small islands located just outside of the boundaries set by the treaty which ceded the Philippine island to the U. S.

The orders sent to Gen. MacArthur, from Washington to take the field in person in the new campaign that is to be waged against the Philippine insurgents as soon as the rainy seasen ends over there show that the administration takes no serious stock in the statement constantly made during the campaign that the recolection of Mr. McKinley would be followed by the collapse of the revolution. That was good enough talk for campaign purpose, but now orders are to fight it to a finish. In ordering General MacArthur to to take the field in person, Gen. Otis, who was so generally criticized for not doing so, is indirectly given a side swipe.

Gossip has mortgaged several Cabinet portfolios in the second McKinley administration. As told in Washington, these stories make Mr. W. W. Gibbs, of Philadelphia, who helped Hanna squeeze the rich men and corporations of that town, just as St. John Wanamaker did previous to his entrance of the Harrison Cabinet, the holder of one of these mortgages, and some go so far as to say, that Mr. Gibbs is to become Secretary or the Treasury. If he does, it will be an awful throw down for Secretary Gage, who h d understood that he was to remain at the head of the treasury, or he would not have fathered those freak interviews given out during the campaign to alarm the business interests of the country.

It is now practically admitted by republicans that the talk previous to the election of a repeal of the war taxes was nothing more than a campaign bluff. A call for the ways and Means Committee of the House to meet on the 20thinst, has been issued. The bill the committee will prepare will merely revise the war taxes some campaign obligations are to be paid that way and will not repeal all of them. The republicans know very well that with the total appropriated by the last session of Congress of $974,000,000 and the probability that a larger sum will be appropriated by the coming session. All or nearly all of the money produced by the war taxes will be needed. The bill prepared by the committee will probably reduce the war taxes in the interests of favored classes, something like $15,000,000 or $20,000,000 a year, but the bulk of those taxes will have to be paid by the people for an indefinite period.

RHEUMATISM and CATARRH CURED —BY—

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

IN THE SHADOW OF DEATH.

A Whole Family Cured.

Mrs. C. H. Kingsbury, who keeps a millinery and fancy goods store at St. Louis, Gratiot Co., Mich., and who is well known throughout the country, says:

"I was badly troubled with rheumatism, catarrh and neuralgia. I had liver complaint and was very bilious. I was in a bad condition; every day I began to fear that I should never be a well woman; that I should have to settle down into a chronic invalid, and live in the shadow of death. I had JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA recommended to me. I TOOK FOUR BOTTLES AND IT CURED ME, and cured my family both. I am very glad that I heard of it. I would cheerfully recommend it to every one. I have taken many other kinds of medicine. I prefer JOHNSTON'S to all of them."

Stage Glints

Baden-Powell of Mafeking is an amateur actor.

Alice Neilson is to have a new opera from the French.

The temperature of the New York theater is now cooled by a liquid air device.

C. B. Lewis (M. Quad) has written his Bowser stories into a short sketch for stage use.

Sol Smith Russell has a double in the senate. His name is Turley, and he is a senator from Tennessee.

The heroine of D'Annunzio's "La Princess Georges," a role in which Duse has scored a hit, is an armless woman.

When Sarah Bernhardt and Coqueline come to America next season, they will appear in "L'Aiglon," "La Tosca," "Cyrona de Bergerac" and "Hamlet."

In New York the sale of intoxicants in any theater or in any part of the building accessible from a theater without going outside is forbidden in plain terms.

The Barnum-Bailey circus exploited itself in Hamburg by paying the street railway companies $50,000 to stop all their cars during the five hours of a parade.

President McKinley at yesterday's Cabinet meeting expressed the hope that every one his present official advisros would remain with him during the next four years, inasmuch as he regarded the result of the recent elections as an indorsement not only of his ideas and policies, but also of those of the administration of every department of the Government. The dis, cernment of the American public must have been very keen, indeed, to have discovered the ideas and policies of an Executive whose views of his "plain duty" on one day have so frequently been changed to the opposite on the morrow! There is no warrant for the Interpretation given qy President McKinley to the verdict of the American people. Because the conscientious citizens who hold the balance of power voted for him as the onlyeffective way of condemning the principles and vagaries represented by Mr. Bryan, it does dot follow that the elections Involved a vote of confidence in the "ideas and policies" (whatever may be) of Mr. Bryan's opponent.—Philadelphia Record.

Virginia College Burned.

Roanoke, Va., November 14.—The Virginia College, an institution for young ladies, situated just outside the city limits of Roanoke, was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. Soon after the "rising bell" had been rung, it was discovered that the hallways of the big building were filled with smoke. The young ladies were notified to lose no time in getting out of the building. The word quickly passed around and the young pupils, 150 in number, made their way out, many of them thinly clad and hardly any with anything more than the simplest costumes of the bedroom, There was little confusion and no great excitement. As soon as men reached the scene they cheerfully loaned their overcoats to girls in light costumes. Some of the neighbors meanwhile brought blankets and the girls who had the least clothing went into nearby houses.

The fire started in the boiler room, exactly how it is not known. It made quick work and in less than two hours the buildings were entirely destroyed. The desks from the business office and a few articles of furniture were about all that was saved.

The building was of brick and fitted with all modern conveniences. The loss is $75,000 with about $25,000 insurance. The building belonged to Miss Harris and Mrs. Boatwright.

The students will be kept together in Roanoke for a few days until it is decided where the school will resume.

Jeffries and Sharkey.

New York, November, 14.—A match was made in this city today between James J. Jeffries, the champion pugilist, and Tom Sharkey. The terms in the agreement are that the winner shall take the entire purse. The battle will be decided next May before the club offering the largest purse.

If the battle takes place in Nevada it will be to a finish. Bids for the fight will remain open till January 15th. Marquis of Queensberry rules will govern the contest and five ounce gloves will be used.

Each principal deposited $2,500 to insure his appearance in the ring.

The articles also contained the provision that should Jeffries make a match with either Bob Fitzsimmons or Gus Ruhlin the battle would be decided before the present one. The same conditions prevailed in regard to the match being made between Sharkey and Ruhlin.

Is He Alive or Dead?

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 14.—The young man Tart who caused the wreck on the Atlantic Coast Line near Hope Mills, has not yet been captured. Geo. Lovett, held as a State witness, is the man to whom Tart confessed the deed.

According to Lovett, Tart said he placed the spike upon the track to see the wheels cut it in two—he had no idea that such fearful results would follow. Horrow stricken at the consequences of his deed he then fled from the spot. Lovett says Tart told him he meant to kill himself. This caused the dragging and dynamiting of the pond near the scene of the deed, it being thought that Tart might have drowned himself therein. But no body was found in the pond.

Tart was reared in Harnett about four miles from Dunn. He went to Hope Mills where he found work about two weeks before the disaster which according to his alleged confession, was the result of his criminal folly.

At the election last week McKinley carried 28 States with 292 electoral votes, and Bryan carried 19 States with 155 electoral votes, McKinley's majority in the popular vote was about 625,000.

McKinley carried this year six States that Bryan carried in 1896, and they are Kansas, Nebraska, South, Dakota, Utah, Washington and Wyoming. McKinley carried this year all of the Eastern, Middle, Northwestern and Pacific coast States, except Colorado, Idaho, Montana and Nevada, which together have only 13 electoral votes. He also carried the border States of Maryland, Delaware and West Virginie.

The new House of Represenatives will have 252 Republicans and 125 Democrats.—Pittsboro Record.

For the past few years the most odious epithet, in the opinion of many persons, that be hurled at a political opponent was that "he is a gold bug." The use of such an epithet was considered sufficient to consign the victim to the lowest depth of infamy, and to brand him as an enemy to his country and to his fellowmen. And this epithet was hurled indiscriminately against all persons who dared to doubt the wisdom of the United States attempting to establish "the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 independent of any other country." We predict, however, that hereafter this denunciatory epithet will not be so much used, nor will its victims be so odious as heretofore.—Pittsboro Record.

Having fastened negro suffrage upon the country—a curse to the people of the South, a danger to the people of the North and an injury to the negroes themselves who were unfitted for the safe or proper exercise of the privilege thrust upon them—the more radical spirits of the Republican party now propose to punish the Southern States which have sought to protect themselves against negro domination by reducing the representation of the South in Congress in proportion to the number of disfranchised blacks. This would be equivalent to an attempt to atone for one crime by committing another. We cannot believe the wiser leaders of the Republican party can be persuaded or driven into the support of such a mistaken policy, which would involve the country in a certain revival of sectionalism.—Philadelphia Record.

Women and Strong Drink.

Chicago physicians are alarmed over the increase of drinking among women.

"I am fearful that such conditions as are reported from London will some time prevail in this country," said Dr. Nicholas Senn. "There is much more drunkenness among women than dreamed of by most people."

"During the last ten years drinking among American women has steadily increased," declared Dr. Sarah Hackett Stevenson. "The increase has been greater among the wealthy classes and the younger social set than among the lower strata of society."

If this be true the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will have to turn its attention to the women, aided by the sober minded men — Atlanta Constitution.

Fitz Says He Spurns the Challenge.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 12.—Bob Fitzsimmons, who is here with his theatrical company tonight, expressed himself on the subject of Champion Jeffries' proposition to take him on for another fight immediately or at the close of the theatrical season. He says Jeffries is playing for a boost for his show and that he simply spurns the offer.

"I'll tell you what I'll do if Jeffries is so anxious to make a fight," said Fitz, "I'll stake my sparring partner, Ed. Dunkhorst, and will back him against Jeffries and I'll post $2,500 as a forfeit."

A methodist preacher in Pike county Kentucky, is very dangerously shot. His name is Holden. He went to Mr. Bostock's during his absence. He returned home at mid-night, says he found the minister in the room usually occupied by himself, and he immediately pulled his revolver and opened fire. One ballet pierced the minister's right breast and came out just below his shoulder blade.—Wilmington Messenger.
