

FORBES & MOYE,

PROPRIETORS OF THE

PLANTERS' WARREN BROS.,

GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA,

OPENS THE FIRST DAY OF AUGUST

For the purpose of handling the tobacco of Eastern Carolina for more money than any other warehouse in the State. We also have a polite set of drummers whom we have hired for the purpose of drumming and not buying tobacco. We do strictly a commission business. No pin-hooking or country buying allowed among our force. We are working for the interest of the farmers, and not the pin-hookers. Bring us a load and be convinced.

Yours as ever,

FORBES & MOYE.

Whether the administration is making a gigantic bluff for the purpose of frightening Spain into begging for peace on any terms that we may choose to offer, or has actually determined to utilize the enormous resources at its command for the fighting in every direction, Spain is inclined to believe least clearly apparent at this writing. But everything points to one of the other. Members of the administration say it is the latter. Very good American ought to hope it is.

The Porto Rico expedition, under way, under command of Gen. Miles and Admiral Sampson is no bluff for one of the cranks of the war is that we are to keep Porto Rico for our own use. The landing of the advance guard of the troops is expected to be accomplished by the first of next week, and then the combined land and water movement against San Juan will begin. How soon the town will be captured will, of course, depend upon how vigorously the campaign is conducted. The bluff, if bluff it is, is in connection with the movement against Spain itself. All this week there has been mysterious talk about Watson's fleet being accepted, or closely followed, by an army of invasion, and the activity in the movement of troops from the various camps, which has been much greater than was necessary in connection with the invasion of Porto Rico, has lent probability to the talk. And the calling of Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, who is still drawing salary as United States Minister to Spain to Washington for the purpose of conferring with Mr. McKinley and his cabinet, has not lessened the talk, although some think that Woodford was sent for in connection with some proposition for peace that may have been received, notwithstanding the official denial that any such proposition had either been received or made.

The clash between Gen. Shafter and Admiral Sampson, which formed such a disagreeable feature of the campaign against Santiago, broke out in the cabinet this week. Secretary Logg

TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION. TERMS: $1.00 per Year in Advance.

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1898. NO 63

Our Party Abroad
The London Speaker, the weekly Liberal organ, in commenting upon the destruction of Cervera's ships says: "So far as her fleet is concerned America has no need to fear comparison with any other country in the world."
The Spectator says: "The American fleet could face even that of France without any great disaster," while "as for the German and American navies there can be no comparison."
The Germans, it says, "are fine soldiers and brave men, but a naval struggle between the United States and Germany would be very short and very complete."
This result, it adds, "would surprise the Emperor, no doubt, who thinks himself invincible, but his self-confidence cannot alter his loss. The English have a habit of winning at sea, and the Americans have shown us that they have inherited the habit to the fullest possible degree."
This opinion as to the French Navy is based upon the belief that "the American gunners would keep cool and hit every time. The French would get excited and fire too high or too low, and lose all the advantage of the best guns and the best explosives in the world."
Our extraordinary naval successes have opened the eyes of Europe, but the fact remains that we are a peaceable people, and shall never make war except to resist aggression or to recent interests.

to which these guidings we appointed and there may be some inaccuracies. We will thank our friends in the counties in which they live to give us any corrections and additional particulars, for as these men did not, as Judas did and as they should have done and hang themselves, the facts that throw light on the "200 good occasions that we can fill by voting for Jeter Pritchard" ought to be known to the public.

The names of the "treason traitors" ought to be remembered along with the names of the Beneficial Agents of all ages. They were betrayed, so that their names are declared, by corrupt motives. Senator Ulrey, the "Populist" Senator from Wake, being sworn as to Senatorial scandals said: "On Saturday night after the bolt to the Populist caucus, while the majority Populists were holding a meeting in the Brasserie Honore one of the members said: 'There is 200 good occasions that we can fill by voting for Jeter Pritchard and we will vote for Jeter Pritchard and all these positions.'"
"At this time the minority Populists were discussing the advantages of voting for Pritchard and their own party of getting positions. One of the minority Populists said just before the breaking up of their meeting: 'If what we have done, is right is ever found out we are ruined.'"
"It was not in the minority caucus but occupied an adjoining room to them. There was only a door between them and we and their talk was so loud that I could not help hearing them. At the time I thought Representative Park of Perquimans was prominent in the discussion."

Most of the two hundred pieces for which they bartered away their votes, have been distributed and nearly every one of the nineteen is now filling a position, or has had the gift of a place to some one or relative or kinsman. Here is the Roll of Dishonor, with the offices distributed: Baker-Senator from Lincoln, he has a Federal office. Cannon-Senator from Brunswick he was the first director of the penitentiary and afterwards got a good paving position as an employee of the penitentiary. Egan-Senator from Bertie. His son has a postoffice. McCaskey-Senator from Martin. He is superintendent of a penitentiary farm. Odum-Senator from Anson. His wife has a postoffice. Newsom-Senator from Hertford. Not heard from. Pugh-Senator from Randolph. Is Conductor of Farmer's Institute at a fancy salary. Wakefield-Senator from Caldwell. Has a place in the Revenue office at Asheville. Abernethy-Member from Lincoln. Not heard from. Exhibit-Member from W. Union. Deputy Revenue collector. Brown-Member from Jones. Clerk in U. S. Marshal's office. Bryan-Member from Chatham. U. S. Commissioner. Father-in-law postmaster at Lockville, and brother-in-law postmaster at Youngsville. Fagan-Member from Martin. A place was made for him as clerk in the railroad commission office. Harris-Member from Hyde. Deputy oyster commissioner. Hedges-Member from Beaufort. Edgar will not be empty handed. Pucker-Member from Perquimans. Deputy revenue collector. Rountree-Member from Gates. Not heard from. Yarbrough-Member from Caswell. Not heard from. We may not have all the offices

Purchase Tax
There is one item of taxation which we have always believed to be unjust and that is the purchase tax which the merchants are required to pay. It simply amounts to double tax on making the merchant pay tax twice on the same article or articles.

The merchants are required every six months to believe it is to make out and return a sworn statement of their purchases for the preceding six months and based on this return they are required to pay a tax. Then the list maker comes along and use and they are required to list their full stock of goods for taxation again. But, it may be argued, as has been said, it is not probable, as has been said, that the merchants are not to be taxed on their purchases, but on the goods which they sell. The purchase tax and only paid for regular taxation what he has left.

Let's see if this is so. Grant that he has bought and sold goods amounting to much more than he has in stock at the time of list. What has he done with the proceeds? He has either sold goods for cash or he has sold them on time to parties he believes will pay for them. If he knows they will pay him, or has security by which he can force payment, he has a list of what is known as solvent credits. The amount of this he is required to "give in" to the list maker, and here he pays a tax.

If he has sold the goods for cash and hasn't invested that cash in other goods, which are on his shelves and counters, he has the cash on hand or in bank. To the amount of these items he is also required to make oath before the list maker, and here he pays a tax.

If he has invested the money in stocks or bonds, he is required to swear to the amount and here he pays a tax. He is cornered anyway, without the purchase tax system. We run it up this way: He must pay the tax when he lists the goods. If he doesn't sell them he must pay a tax on them again. If he does sell them he must pay a tax on the proceeds. A buying tax, a selling tax and a tax "who'er or er."

All taxes should be laid without discrimination. A drummer comes into the city sells a merchant some thousand dollars worth of goods and is only required to pay his hotel bill, while the merchant is required to pay in addition to freight and purchase tax on the goods bought.

A great deal has been written and said about the burden of taxation, but the desired reform is yet a long way off in the dim and misty future. Greensboro Telegram.

Greenville, N. C.

D. A. WILKINSON Editor and Proprietor

Established at the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class mail matter.

Published weekly, except on legal holidays, at Greenville, N. C., as second class mail matter.

Honolulu went wild with joy when the report reached there that Hawaii had been annexed to the United States!

Reports from Madrid say that the King of Spain is suffering from an attack of measles. Poor little boy! Wonder if he has had the whooping cough and chicken pox.

For war news now the big papers are having to tell over and over again about the fighting around Santiago and the destruction of Cervera's fleet. And once in a while some enterprising fellow tells that Dewey destroyed a fleet at Manila. It is Porto Rico and Camara's fleet that most readers would like to hear of now.

There is a law requiring the Superintendent of the State penitentiary to make an annual sworn report. The administration of John R. Smith, an appointee of Gov. Russell, of that institution, was so corrupt that he had to be removed, and it is a notorious fact that no report has been made since his took charge. In order to show to the people of the State how much they have been plundered and how bad the management under Smith, Chairmen Simmons of the State Democratic Executive Committee wrote a letter to the proper officials asking for a report. Instead of getting the report, Gov. Russell dictated through his henchman, McWhorter, a letter to the chairman, Simmons, in which the issue is dodged but occasion is taken to denounce Simmons and the Democratic party.

Chairman Simmons replied vigorously to the subterfuge and showed the corrupt regime up in its true light. Verily, we have a disgraceful State administration. The good old Commonwealth is in the hands of thieves and robbers, and any white man who gives support to the Republican-Popular combine helps to keep it there.

THE WAR NEWS.

Washington, July 29.—Congress has arrived at a calm. President McKinley and cabinet are to session this afternoon discussing peace terms.

The monitor Terror is sailing at St. Thomas, D. W. I., on Saturday at 10 o'clock.

The hospital ship Relief arrived at New York with 40 wounded soldiers.

The First Regiment of United States Volunteer Engineers, now commanded at Peekskill, N. Y., has been ordered to report to Gen. Miles for duty in Porto Rico.

The greatest Vicksburg returning to Key West, Fla., after having been 38 days on the blockade.

The President has decided that all prisoners of war shall be returned to Spain, and that the Spanish soldiers on territory acquired by the United States whether through peace, cession or through war, shall be transported.

There are several hundred new cases of fever daily among our troops at Santiago. In all something over 2,000 of the soldiers are sick.

Spain has asked through the French Ambassador at Washington, if the American government will consider negotiation for peace.

The cruiser Philadelphia has sailed from San Francisco with Admiral Miller, a staff of 35 officers, 285 men, and 50 marines to proceed direct to Honolulu and raise the American flag there.

The Spanish volunteers at Ponce, in Porto Rico, refused to fight the Americans when the latter drew up to make an attack.

WHERE WILL IT END?

Mr. Editor: I have just stopped reading the Standard Neck Commonwealth. It is raising a woful wail on negro domination. I prophesied some time ago that this war would bring about a change that will be deplorable to the South. A Southern soldier has already been court-martialed for slaying a negro officer. I saw a letter in a Baltimore paper a few days ago written at Fort Monroe, saying negro and white soldiers occupied each side by side in the hospitals, fighting side by side in battle, no difference made on account of color. In passing a colored church the other night a preacher was eulogizing his race on its progress on this line and exhorting them to have stores, doctors and lawyers to patronize their own color, or which was the great race of this time. When this war is ended and the volunteers are disbanded the race problem of this country will give more trouble than at any time since the war of '61. Satisfy your Uncle Ben.

Washington July 30.—Admiral von Scharnow announced the arrival of Gen. Merritt.

Up to Friday the number of sick among the soldiers at Santiago was 4,122. The troops will be moved to a healthier location, probably brought back to this country and camped at Long Island.

Sagasta's Demand Madrid, July 27.—Sagasta denied that official negotiations for peace had been asked for or in progress, but a foreign official announces that negotiations due to private initiative are in progress.

Paris officials assert that the French ambassador was authorized to approach the President at Washington with overtures for peace.

Spain Sparring for Gain Madrid, July 27.—The Spanish government claims to have expelled the American legation at Porto Rico, and the Spanish representatives at European capitals have accordingly been instructed to make protests, based on the fact that Gen. Miles invaded the island after Spain, through the French ambassador, Cambon, made proposal for peace.

The action of the United States as to Porto Rico is claimed to be contrary to neutrality laws and usage.

LAUREL WITH HIM.

Leave it with Him— The lilies all do, And they grow; And they grow in the rain, And they grow in the dew, Yes, they grow;

They grow in the darkest, all hid in the night, They grow in the sunshine, revealed by the light, Still they grow;

The grapes are clothed, And the navies are fed, From His store; But you who are loved, And guard and are led, How much more

Will He clothe you, and feed you, and give you His care? Then leave it with Him; He hath everywhere

Ample store, Yes, leave it with Him; You're more dear to His heart, You will know,

Than the lilies that bloom, Or the flowers that start, "Natch the snow," What you do not, if you ask it in prayer, You can leave with Him, for you are His care— You, who know,

A Fable. The Danville (N. C.) Breeze published the following fable: A donkey stepped into a store one day and asked for the proprietor, who walked out of his private office to meet him, but was surprised to see a donkey in his store.

"Why are you here?" he asked. "You know that this is no place for a donkey."

"I am here," said the donkey, "because I saw your advertisement on the fence that surrounds my pasture. I knew that you too must be a donkey, or you would have placed the advertisement in a live newspaper where it would be read by people and not donkeys. Being lonesome today, I thought I would be neighborly and call on you."

Are You Just Married? Try to be satisfied to commence on a small scale. Try to avoid the too common mistake of making an effort to begin "where the parents ended."

Try to go step further, and visit the homes of the poor when secret disbursement is liable to spring up. Try to be perfectly independent from the first, and when you are all in some.—The Southern Messenger.

Judge Robinson Takes a Negro in to Get a Cold Drink

Goldboro, N. C., July 26.—Apparently not being content with being almost totally estranged by the white people of this city, Judge W. S. O'Brien, walked into one of the most prominent drug stores here this morning accompanied by a negro man and ordered for "Sambu" a cold drink.

The clerk courteously told the Respectable Judge that drinks were not dispensed to negroes at that fountain, whereupon the Judge became furiously enraged and left the store in company with the "colored gentleman," and was a mile distant before he came and ordered the proprietors for not serving his dusky friend.

I hope that when the Judge enters that store again whether he orders some drinks or not, the season for winter drinks will have arrived before he finds in his official report.—Special to News and Observer.

Almost Electrocutted Mr. J. Groeschel, of Chester, S. C., who represents Messrs. Blumfeldt & Dickbar, of Atlanta, arrived in Wilmington yesterday from Kinston, N. C.

While at the Hotel Tall, at Kinston, on the 14th inst., Mr. Groeschel went to his room about 8:30 o'clock and found the wire of an incandescent electric light touching the floor of his room.

He picked up the globe and turned on the light and not knowing where the wire was he stepped on it and was electrocuted. He was taken to the hospital and died there.

THE BANKRUPT LAW.

The bankruptcy law will become operative Monday, August 1st, so far as voluntary bankruptcy is concerned. This law passed by Congress at its recent session, and much interest is felt throughout the country in its operation.

The act provides that no position for involuntary bankruptcy shall be filled within four months of its passage, or sooner than November 1st.

Under the new law any person who owes debts except a corporation, shall be entitled to the benefits of this act as bankrupt.

"Any natural person, except a wage-earner or a person engaged chiefly in the tillage of the soil, any 'incorporated company' and any corporation engaged principally in manufacturing, trading, printing, publishing, or mercantile pursuits, owing debts to the amount of one thousand dollars or over, may be judged an involuntary bankrupt upon default or on payment of trial."

"Private bankers, but no national banks or banks incorporated under State and Territorial laws, may be adjudged involuntary bankrupts."

The courts of bankruptcy include the district of the United States and of the Territory of Columbia and the United States Court of the Indian Territory and of Alaska.

A discharge from a court of bankruptcy will release a bankrupt from all of his provable debts except taxes, money or property obtained fraudulently, debts due for willful and malicious injuries to the person or property of another, debts which have not been properly scheduled, or debts created by embezzlement, delinquency or fraud while acting as an officer or in any fiduciary capacity.

The bill provides that acts of bankruptcy shall consist in having conveyed, transferred, conveyed, or removed, any part of his property with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors, or any of them; or transferred, while insolvent, any portion of his property to one or more of his creditors with intent to prefer such creditors over his other creditors; or suffered, or permitted, his property to be sold or disposed of by any creditor or creditors, or by any other person, in violation of the provisions of this act.

The bill provides that acts of bankruptcy shall consist in having conveyed, transferred, conveyed, or removed, any part of his property with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors, or any of them; or transferred, while insolvent, any portion of his property to one or more of his creditors with intent to prefer such creditors over his other creditors; or suffered, or permitted, his property to be sold or disposed of by any creditor or creditors, or by any other person, in violation of the provisions of this act.

Represents Only First Class Companies.

"It has been decided by the Company that if war should be declared, free permits to enter the United States Military or Naval service will be granted on application to all persons now insured with us whose policy contracts require the same. This will include policies issued on our present form, which are not yet two years old, as well as old policies not containing the two years' limitation, but permits on this nature will not be granted under policies not yet two years old, unless war should be declared and the parties are about to enter the service. It has not yet been decided what action will be taken if war should be declared and parties then desire to insure with us and enter the United States service."

EDWARD L. DOBBINS, Secretary. You will see from the above action of the Company that the Mutual Benefit is still up-to-date, and is always pursuing the most liberal and just course towards its policy-holders. We do not make any flourish of trumpets when we show a spirit of liberality, because it is natural and expected that the Mutual Benefit will always be patriotic and do the right thing. In case war is not declared, the permits will not be granted, as it will not be necessary, and the Company desires to avoid that expense and trouble. In case war is declared, every one of our policy-holders will be protected.

Yours truly, J. L. SUGG and L. C. ANTHUR, Agent, GREENVILLE, N. C.

Tutt's Pills. Cure All Liver Ills. Doctors Say: Bilious and Intermittent Fevers which prevail in miasmatic districts are invariably accompanied by derangements of the Stomach Liver and Bowels.

The Secret of Health. The liver is the great "driving wheel" in the mechanism of man, and when it is out of order, the whole system becomes deranged and disease is the result.

Tutt's Liver Pills. Cure all Liver Troubles.
