BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and a man prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the children or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid tubercin which are used, will personally have charge of the administration of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Free booklet on request.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMONDSVILLE, N. C., June 24.

W. A. Darden is in Greensboro attending the democratic state convention.

Elias Turnage and W. W. Ormond have gone to Seven Springs to stay several days.

A. D. Warren, one of the candidates for the office of sheriff of our county, was here a short while Wednesday. Mr. Warren seems very hopeful of his nomination.

Misses Palmetto and Vera Taylor, of Hookerton, Bessie Corbett, of Mebane and Mayme Galloway, spent several days in our neighborhood this week visiting Misses Fannie Hardee and Lucy Turnage.

J. M. Ormond made a bus'ness trip to Ayden yesterday.

Miss Nannie Frizzelle has returned home from a visit at Ayden and Kinston.

Our primaries are called for Saturday July 2nd. There are a good many candidates in the field and they are all good men. Candidates for sheriff; B. W. Edwards our present sheriff, A. D. Warren and F. A. Moseley, of Snow Hill. Walter E. Lane, of Bull Head township. Register of deeds; E. D. Little, of Ormondsville township. Treasurer, Will Carraway, our present treasurer and T. E. Barrow, of Snow Hill. House of representatives, J. T. Frizzell, of Ormondsville township, W. A. Darden, of Willow Green township, and Parrott Mewborne, of Shine. It looks like our county might succeed in getting good officers from the number of candidates on the tickets.

C. L. Hardee went to Snow Hill Saturday.

Mrs. Elias Turnage and children have gone to Ayden today to visit Mrs. W. M. Edwards.

F. T. Carr and wife went to Morehead City this week. From Morehead Mr. Carr went to Greensboro to be present at the state convention.

Miss Fannie Hardee spent several days last week in Hookerton attending a house party given by the Misses Taylor.

A. S. Wooten, has withdrawn from the race for the office of register of deeds. Mr. Wooten was a strong candidate, and his chances were exceedingly good but for harmony's sake and for the interest of his party he felt it his duty to withdraw. He is a good man and would have made our county fine office. He has gained many friends by this action.

Accepted Bids.

The board of internal improvements on Thursday evening completed the examination of bids for material to construct the electric lights and water works plants. Bids were accepted for the entire equipment of both plants. The contracts go to several different firms. The work of construction will begin as soon as enough material arrives and it is hoped to have both plants installed by the end of the year.

NEW MASONIC TEMPLE.

The Laying Of The Corner Stone and Dedication.

GREAT MASONIC DAY IN GREENVILLE.

Greenville Lodge no. 284, A. F. & A. M. now has a beautiful home of its own, and Thursday, June 30, 1904, marks a date that for years to come can be pointed back to with pride by every member of the lodge. That is the date set apart for the laying of the corner stone and dedication of the temple.

At the first recollection of this writer the lodge owned a lot on the corner of Pitt and Second streets on which was a two-story frame building, the upper floor used for the meeting of the lodge and the lower floor as a school room. To many of us that old school room will ever be held in blessed memory.

This lodge building was considerably removed from the centre of town and as the years rolled on and the lodge increased in membership it was found that the quarters were too small. In planning for more convenient quarters it was decided to secure a lodge room down town. When the Rialto building was being erected arrangements were made with the owners to construct a good lodge room for the Masons on the corner near the court house.

As soon as this was completed the lodge moved in and for several years held its meetings there. In the meantime the old lodge property was used for school purposes and for while a school for girls was conducted there under the direction of the lodge. The building was burned while being thus used.

The first steps taken by the lodge towards securing a temple in which to make itself a permanent home was near the close of 1899. At that time the two-story portion of the Rialto building in which the lodge quarters were located was purchased by THE REFLECTOR to make a home for the paper. This purchase necessitated the Masons looking about for other quarters and the outcome was that the lodge settled upon the idea of building a temple. Arrangements were made with THE REFLECTOR for the lodge to continue using its same quarters until the plans for building the temple could be carried out.

Enterprises of such magnitude must of necessity move slowly, but the earnest efforts of the Masons were crowned with success. Their old lot was sold and they bought the Delaney lot near the court house on which to build the temple. Work on the building was started Aug. 10, 1903, and on the first of April, 1904, the lodge moved into its own quarters.

The temple is a handsome building representing an outlay of about $20,000. It is three stories, the first floor being devoted to suites of offices, the second floor a modern opera house, the third floor lodge rooms. The town as well as the Masonic fraternity are to be congratulated upon having such a creditable building.

After getting the building completed the next step was to arrange for laying the corner stone and formally dedicating the temple. Owing to circumstances at the time of starting the building the corner stone could not be laid then and was deferred until the completion of the temple.

Below is the program: Masons meet at Masonic temple opera house at 10 a. m.

Laying corner stone at 10:30 by the Grand Lodge.

Public installation of officers. Dedication of temple.

In Honor of Greenville Ladies.

Kelford, N. C., June 25.—Mrs. George W. Baker, of Lewiston, entertained her friends delightfully on Monday evening at the Rawles hotel. The occasion was a progressive "Up Jinks" card party, given in honor of her guests, Miss Hennie Ragsdale, and Miss Sophie Jarvis, of Greenville. The first prize, a handsome fan, was won by Miss Hennie Ragsdale, Miss Laura Phelps and Miss Daisy Britt tied for the booby, which was finally awarded to Miss Phelps. Mrs. Baker was a charming hostess, and looked radiantly beautiful in white silk over taffeta. Miss Sophie Jarvis, who ranks among the pretty women of Eastern Carolina, was gowned in green silk. Miss Hennie Ragsdale was attired in white silk. She is fair, tall and graceful, and a social favorite.—Norfolk, Virginia Pilot.

It was figured out that had the train been on time that it and the man would have met on the trestle.

Negro Man Flagged Glenn's Train.

Winston-Salem, N. C., June 25.—A colored man flagged down the incoming passenger train from Greensboro last night just in time to prevent what might have proven a bad wreck on the long trestle, two miles below town.

A horse ran on the trestle and the train was held an hour or more until the animal could be removed.

Capt. R. B. Glenn and several other Winston-Salem people were on the train, and when the infamy was given out that a colored man saved the train from being wrecked there were many expressions of commendation with the statement that the Southern should reward the colored man for his action.

It was figured out that had the train been on time that it and the man would have met on the trestle.

Shot From Ambush.

Saturday night while sitting on the porch of his home, five miles from town, Wiley Downs was shot by some one secreted near by. Three balls took effect, one of them penetrating the right lung and Mr. Down's injury is serious, though not necessarily fatal. Monday afternoon William Norris was brought before Justice J. P. Norrtee on a warrant charging him with doing the shooting. The matter was postponed for preliminary hearing until Wednesday and a $500 bond was required of Norris. He could not give the bond and was placed in jail. Both the parties are white.

Dr. H. Yatt, of Kinston, will be at Farmville at the hotel July 6th, 6th and 7th, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for the purpose of treating diseases of the eye and throat.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.

The Schools Showing Rapid Progress.

On Sunday afternoon the quarterly meeting of the Sunday school union was held in the Christian church. The attendance was not as large as it should have been, but the oppressive weather can be blamed for this.

The lateness of publishing the program was also responsible for such of the program being omitted, but there was enough to make the session interesting. E. A. Moye, Sr., gave a splendid review of the lessons during the past quarter, bringing out many good thoughts suggested by the lessons.

The reports of the schools for the quarter were excellent and indicated the growing interest in Sunday school work in the town. The increase in both attendance and collections was large. That the public may be better acquainted with the work being done by Sunday schools, a motion was adopted that the reports for the past quarter be published. These are found below in condensed form.

New Version of Alphonse and Gaston.
John Bunyan to Martin Luther:
—"By the way, Luther, I notice that a flashograph has just been posted from planet No. 1,480,90 stating that Josephus Daniels, an editor, has been attached for contempt. In his paper he compares himself to each of us. I am sure that he means to confer the great honor upon you alone, my dear Luther."

Martin Luther—"My dear Bunyan, you are too generous. I am sure that Mr. Daniels meant that only for yourself. I beg you to so consider it, my dear Bunyan."

John Bunyan—"I beseech you to take the coveted honor to yourself. Positively I can not permit you to deprive yourself of one iota of the splendid honor, the irresistible honor, my dear Luther."

Martin Luther—"I pray that you grant this one request, for the sake of our long friendship do not decline, my dear Bunyan. You have been in jail and passed through the valley of the shadow of death all for your friends' sake, and now I beg of you that you do not get yourself into any new trouble by attempting to shift this honor, my sincere friend, my loyal friend, Bunyan."

John Bunyan—"I beg that you
be sensible, my dear Luther. You, too, have been in jail and ate the diet of worms all for the sake of a righteous cause. Never before have you shown the white feather.
On my bended knees I implore, I beseech, I beg that you agree with me that Mr. Daniels is like you only, and that he was too hasty
when he referred to me in his paper."

Martin Luther—"Enough is enough, my dear Bunyan. You can throw it up to me that I am an ex-jailbird and insinuate that I ate worms, but if you value my friendship, my dear Bunyan, say no more about my accepting the honor, and I'll withdraw all my remarks."

John Bunyan—"Certainly my dear Luther, let our long friendship be unimpaired. Really, old man, I was joking anyway. Mr. Daniels also said he was like Thomas Jefferson and Josiah Turner. They were both politicians and are not so sensitive as we. Let us beseech them to monopolize the honor. Let's shake and continue to be friends!"

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR

SEMI-WEEKLY—TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.

D. J. WHICHARD, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Entered in the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter. Advertising rates made known upon application. A correspondent desired at every post office in Pitt and adjoining counties.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 1 1904.

All of them are for Glean now. Only the hide bound refuse to sweat in this weather.

It might be well for campaigners to wait for cooler weather to begin the canvass.

The legalized primary got no mention at all in the recent state convention.

When Teddy gets through changing his cabinet it will look like something else.

If the democrats do not win in the coming national election it will not be because of failure to have a good chance.

The late republican national convention was the thirteenth that party has held. That is the number to get knocked out on.

A California astronomer claims to have discovered a hundred new stars. And just to think he can't have a single one of them.

The number of victims by the excursion steamer at New York, week before last, has exceeded one thousand and other bodies may yet be found.

Given is not a delegate from Mississippi should be allowed no vote in the national convention at St. Louis. His recent actions show that his purpose is to create disturbance.

Say what you will against him, Grover Cleveland's name continues to be spoken in connection with the presidency. That name may have something of a magnetic effect in the St. Louis convention.

The lynching of a negro in Mississippi was execution, was not a creditable spectacle. If the hanging of the brute by a mob must take place, the girl should have been kept at home.

The fact that diamonds have advanced 10 percent need not trouble many of us. They were cheap enough during tax listing time, at least the assets of diamond owners don't make much better showing on the tax list than other folks.

An Ohio man has gone into the courts of New Jersey asking that a receiver be appointed for the Standard Oil Company. The object of the action is to bring about a dissolution of the company, which it is charged exists contrary to the anti-trust laws of the United States. We hope the Ohio man will win out in his case.

By way of contrast with a national convention recently held, it can be said that the convention to be held in St. Louis next week will be no out and dried affair. The delegates are not going there knowing that there is only one man for whom they can vote, and that they must vote for him or nobody.

The kidnapping of Americans and holding them for ransom is becoming monotonous.

The true note of Democracy is sounded in the platform adopted by the state convention.

Greensboro got deserved praise for the splendid manner in which the delegates were entertained.

The negro who was arrested for burning the Burlington hotel has confessed the crime. Let him swing.

Charlotte never says a word about having the state convention. It gets almost everything false it wants.

Wilmington has fifty-eight saloons. No wonder the people there are becoming aroused on the question of a dispensary.

Some South Carolina farmers have found another insect that is a menace to the cotton crop. Don't the poor cotton have a hard time?

As Raleigh is saying that city could furnish a warehouse in which conventions can be held, Greensboro has begun talking for an auditorium.

The outgoing board of aldermen have chosen another anti-dispensary man as a dispensary commissioner. Trying three wrongs to make a right, as it were.

McBee and Finch get a continuance and their suspense goes on awhile longer. In the meantime the railroad continue to do business at the old stand.

When a man starts out for office "for the good of his country" or at the "solicitations of many friends," you can make a mental note that the salary attached to the office is at the bottom of the desire.

About the hottest thing in the shape of a newspaper we have run up against during this hot weather is The Hornet, which has for its motto "Hottest Democratic Paper in all America." It is published bi-weekly at Fork Church, N. C., by W. Henry Davis, at 25 cents a year. That The Hornet is red hot anti-republican is shown in every line from heading to foot slug. The Hornet wants a good printing press and outfit on which to do its printing and makes a novel proposition to secure this: It asks for loans in sums of $2.50 and offers therefor 8 percent interest bearing notes. This makes the interest on each note 20 cents a year which the lender can draw or use in keeping his subscription paid up for life. Hese's hoping the Hornet will continue its hot buzzing and not get its sting nipped off back of the neck.

BANKS ARE HELPFUL.

At a recent meeting of farmers held in this section the question was brought up, "Does the multiplication of country banks help the farmer," and some took the position that they hurt, rather than help, the farmer by withdrawing money from circulation making it harder for the farmer to borrow.—Rich Square Times.

"The Reflector is of the opinion that no institution is more helpful to a community than a bank. Instead of withdrawing money from circulation and making it harder for farmers to borrow, the bank affords a place of safety where the farmers can deposit their money instead of keeping it hid at some insecure place around home. It does not withdraw the money from circulation to deposit in bank, but money is withdrawn from circulation when it is hid in places about the house. Banks are always ready to lend money on proper security, and people having money in bank can withdraw it and lend it to others whenever they choose to do so.

It is a good indication of prosperity in a community to have a good bank in which the farmers, as well as business men, deposit their surplus money, and it is a wise farmer who keeps his money in bank instead of taking the risk upon himself of keeping it protected at home.

Good Advice, This.

Some people have an idea that if a man puts himself on the markets of the world for sale, if one has the where-withal to pay for him, it is right to buy. There is strange ethics in this theory, and yet it is the hypothesis upon which great many people base their conduct. They argue they have a right to whatever they can buy with their money even if it is a man; One should not put himself on the market for sale, but if he is weak enough to do so, no man has a right to take advantage of his weakness. A man came in tired and hungry from the chase. As he came in he inhaled the appetizing odor of kid and beans. "Give me to eat lest I die," cried the hungry man. His brother said, sell me this day thy birthright." For as many red beans as Esau could eat he sold his birthright to Jacob. The world has never justified the shrewd brother for buying his brother, even though he put himself on the market. There are many of these weak impulsive people who can be bought cheap. But no man is justifiable in buying because he has the red pottage, or whatever the nature of the where-withal may be to buy him with. The strong ought to help the weak.—S. E. Mercer in Lumlerton Robesonian.

A Lad's Horrible Death.

Salisbury, June 25.—News which reached here this morning that Lee Elbertson, young 12-year-old boy adopted by Mr Burgess Elliot, a farmer living four miles from this place had met a horrible death, is particularly sad. He had finished his work for the day and upon dismounting from a mule, made a racket with the dipper in the bucket. The animal began to run and dragged the young fellow at a rapid rate. The boy's feet had caught in the traces and after he had been carried more than an eight of a mile, the frightened animal was stopped. It was seen at once that there was no hope for the little fellow and he died within half an hour, never having regained consciousness.

Sad But Beautiful Thought.

When John Adams, the second President of the United States, was ninety-two years old, Daniel Webster, then a young man just rising to distinction, passed through Quincy Mass. the residence of Mr. Adams and called to see him.

Entering the room where Mr. Adams was, feeble and tremulous from age, he said: "I hope you are getting along tolerably well, Mr. Adams." To which the old man replied: "Quite the contrary, sir. I am a poor tenant, occupying a house much shattered by time, and from all I can discover, my landlord does not intend to make any repairs."

In our reading we have never seen a more beautiful or touching sentiment.

A poor tenant! of a frail tenement, poor in infirmity, having "sounded all the depths and shoals of honor," and experienced their vanity, rich in life's prizes, rich in the trophies of ambition that had proved to be empty bubbles, and turned out at last from the old dilapidated house he had occupied so long and loved so well, to go, he "knew not where."

We have known no more touching commentary upon the vanity of human aspirations and the emptiness of earthly ambitions.—Col. R. B. Creecy in Economist.

Glenn and The Other Candidates.

We have felt that Glenn deserved the honor for his own qualities and for the service he has rendered his party in time of good and of evil report. Party service alone is no reason for exaltation to a high office. But faithful party service plus the qualifications for the office sought will always be regarded by fair minded men. There is no doubt that Glenn had served his party well.

For the defeated candidates we have only respect and regard. Major Stedman is one of the finest figures in our public life today and it is with much regret that we think of the disappointment of his comrades, of the brave men who wore the gray, at his defeat. It was no lack of love for the Confederate soldiers that caused it. Colonel Davidson is another veteran who deserves all that his friends have said of him. Turner is a clean, straight-forward, honest gentleman, to whom the temperance forces owe much for the advance of their cause. We wish them all mighty well. We wish they all could have been elected.—Charlotte News.

Mule Falls Into a Well.

Robert Green, near Boiling Springs, had a mule to fall into a well fifty feet deep Wednesday evening and it was rescued a few hours later unhurt. Mr. Green was ploughing near the open well. His plough "hitched" on something which jerked the mule backward. As it started downward the harness string broke, stripping it of all of its harness except the collar, and it fell to the bottom of the well. It appeared to be unhurt, and Mr. Green secured a block and tackle appliance and by the aid of some neighbors the mule was rescued a few hours later unhurt.—Charlotte Observer.

Swallowed Live Fish.

Roanoke, Va., June 26.—A most unusual death is reported from Appalachia, a mining town in Wise county, this State. Mrs. Thoma S. Yakes was rubbing the mouth of her little three-year-old girl, Lillie, with a live gold fish in an effort to cure the child from slobbering, having been told that such a remedy would break her of the habit, when the fish slipped down the child's throat, head first choking her to death before the fish could be gotten out. A physician, Dr. Holdy, was near at the time and promptly attended the child, but before the fish could be removed she was dead.

A Careless People.

The carelessness and oversight of a hurrying people is exemplified by the report of the dead letter office at Washington that there are on the average, 213 letters and parcels without an address whatever received there daily. Considerably more than half of them contain money. Last year the dead letter office received 259,255 letters, all containing postage stamps, and besides these $5,831.95 in postage stamps that had gotten out of the letters were found loose in the mail bags.

The dead letter office returns what it can, but the carelessness or ignorance which misdirects letters is very apt to record no return address for the enlightenment of the postoffice.

In consequence while there were in the past year, 2,645,379 letters sent to the dead letter office, which were subsequently delivered to their owners, and 5,806 returned to the writers, there were 6,111,494 that gave no clue and were destroyed.

There will be sold at public auction 5,702 pieces of merchandise that came to the dead letter office in the last year, and cannot be delivered, also 939 parcels of books and 476 pieces of jewelry.

The non-delivery of these objects probably cost much disappointment regret and sense of loss to as many unknown parties. The postoffice with all its vigilance cannot altogether supply the lack of care and intelligence in directing matter confided to the mails. The defect in the original address may be due not to carelessness, but to lack of proper information on the part of the sender, but the lack of the return address makes the original error final and fatal.—The World's Crisis.

New International Questions.

Every war brings to the front new questions of an international character to be passed upon by the different governments and to add new chapters to international law. Already two such questions have been brought out by the war between Russia and Japan. One of these involves the treatment of the wireless system of telegraphy, the others the use of floating mines at sea. These are two of the new problems which the present war has brought to the front. There may be others. In any event, there will be something for the international laws of the foreign departments to busy themselves about after hostilities have been concluded, if not before.—Atlanta Constitution.

Republicans Circulating Campaign Documents.

Chairman Rollins, of the republican state executive committee, has had printed in circular form and distributed as a campaign document an editorial from the Wilmington Messenger of June 1st, entitled "Whither Are We Drifting." The editorial condemns Mr. Daniels for criticising Judge Purnell and upholds the latter in his arbitrary and illegal attempt to punish Mr. Daniels.—Chatham Record.

After spending sometime in games and social enjoyment, refreshments were served in the dining-room, which was very artistically decorated with magnolias, evergreens and roses.

The occasion is one to be long remembered by everyone present, but sometimes a fellow will feel lonely in spite of all the brightness and surroundings, Mr. Britton doesn't take a moonlight stroll often in Winterville, therefore we hope all will go well at the depot.

A Wise Provision.

Did you ever notice when a man smites his thumb with a hammer while putting down a carpet under his wife's supervision how quickly he thrusts the bruised and throbbing member into his mouth? People think it is because the application is soothing. But the movement is purely involuntary, like winking. The man cannot help it.

The fact is that nature knows what a man is apt to say under such circumstances and so has provided him with an automatic stopper. When a man hits his thumb hard enough to hurt—and it doesn't take a very hard blow to almost kill a man when he is doing something that he doesn't like to do—by a sort of interlocking system his thumb flies into his mouth, and to the critical moment speech is cut off.—Ex.

A Startling Test.
To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months. Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them Only 50c at Wooten's Drug Store.

Governor Aycock in Maine.

Governor Aycock has received an invitation from W. W. Stenton, superintendent of public instruction for the State of Maine, inviting him to deliver a series of twelve educational addresses at such time as the governor may select between the dates of September 12th and October 10th. The governor has accepted the invitation and will deliver the addresses sometime during the fall, the date of his departure not having yet been definitely decided.—Raleigh News and Observer.

A Sure Thing

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but this is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Meter of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery cured me absolutely. It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by J. L. Wooten Druggist. Trial bottles free. Reg. U. S. 50c & 1.

The Color Came from the Land.

A great many negroes are natural-born liars, according to the verdicts of people who observe them closely. This is shown very markedly in the city police court, but in other places also they show their natural aptitude for lying and making excuses. A negro who was peddling blackberries yesterday was told that his berries were red and therefore not good ripe.

"Yes, sah, dey is ripe. Dey's red all right, too but dat's 'cause dey was raised on red lan'."—Charlotte Observer.

For a Hundred Years.

For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other substances in the form of a salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name "DeWitt" on the package, and accept no other. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

An Indiana man has been fined $500 for shooting at another man who asked him whether the weather was hot enough. Instead of a fine, the man with the gun should have been awarded a Carnegie hero medal.—Atlanta Journal.

GREENVILLE WON.

The home team showed its superiority over her old rival (Washington) yesterday afternoon at Munford's Park, by a score of 17 to 8.

It was thought that the storm would delay the game but about 4:45 the Washington aggregation turned up in new uniforms, black and old gold, which of course showed up fine, but we must say they were soon trampled upon by the red and blue.

The game was full of errors, but the manner in which the home boys used the wood, and not knowing how to meet the sphere on the part of Washington was the cause of the result.

The scores by inning was as follows:

We are living in a progressive age and we must be progressive to keep up with the times and be Up-To-Date. No business has made greater progress in the last few years than the Reports Fine Fishing and Makes Us All Want to Go.

Ocaoke, N. C., June 28, 1904.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I arrived here Thursday morning, after having to spend twenty-five hours to Bell Haven. I am improving slowly, this fine salt breeze always makes me feel better.
As soon as I get a little stronger,
I expect to have some fun fishing.

I went out alone in a small boat
Friday evening late and caught eleven fine sheephead, they would have weighed sixty pounds. I could have caught more but had enough. Saturday evening late Will and I went out, we caught fourteen. Will caught four that would have weighed thirty pounds.
The ten I caught were not quite as large. The whole fourteen I think would have weighed seventy pounds or more, so you see I will have some sport here if I am on the sick list. I wish I had some of the boys here to help me, especially George W., Ed. H. and Doff. H. Oh how they would enjoy it. Ocaoke is the place to come to have a good, easy quiet time and live cheap. As good board as you want for five dollars per week. Can't you come down and spend a week? I shall come home as soon as I get well but I hate to leave here.

Yours Truly,
J. J. CHERRY.

TEMPLE DEDICATED.

Large Assemblage of Masons and Interesting Exercises.

This was a proud day for Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. & A.
M. It was the occasion of the laying of the corner stone and dedication of the new Masonic temple, and the lodge here had as their guests to participate in the exercises several officers of the Grand Lodge, and representatives of all neighboring lodges. There were several hundred Masons here and the exercises were very impressive.

The Grand Lodge convened with the following officers:

Worshipful Grand Master, W.
S. Liddell.

Deputy Grand Master, F. D.
Winston.

Senior Grand Warden, H.
Harding.

Pridgen.

The Masons and public then assembled in the opera house where public installation of officers took place. Officers of Greenville,

Temperance and Winterville lodges were installed.

At the conclusion of the installation services, J. L. Fleming introduced Prof. J. B. Carlyle, of Wake Forest, the orator of the day. Prof. Carlyle's subject was the mission of Masonry in the twentieth century. His speech was a magnificent one and delighted the great audience that heard him.

The lodge again assembled in the lodge room where the dedicatory exercises were held, and after this a bounteous dinner was served in the Center Brick warehouse—

The Opera House Thursday Night!

A large and representative audience greeted the drama "Forgiven" Thursday night at the new opera house in the Masonic temple.
The play was rendered by the amateur home talent and was a great success from start to finish.
Although much annoyance and disadvantage had been realized in the changing of characters, for various reasons, the play was elegantly and splendidly rendered in every part and detail. Had the weather been good a crowded house would have seen a magnificent performance. The community and the Masonic fraternity specially are greatly indebted to the good lady management of Mrs. A.
L. Blow, Mrs. Bernard Greene and Mrs. Richard Williams and their helpers, all of whom have been faithful and active in getting up and rendering so attractive a performance, as witnessed by an enthusiastic audience.

We cannot specialize, and do justice to every one who took such a zealous and untiring part to please the people and make a great success of such a splendid drama.
Suffice it to say there was no mistake in any part of the performance.

Music was delightfully dis-coursed by Forbes' orchestra assisted by Misses Bessie Patrick and Ina Allen. The vocal music was charming by Misses Sallie Cotten, Jamie Tyson and A. A.
Forbes, Jr., and the Quartette club of young men of the town. A most beautiful and enjoyable feature, was the skirt dance by little Miss Bettie Russ a beautiful little Mrs. daughter of Mayor Bass, of Raleigh. This was the only ending of the new and beautiful opera house and everybody enjoyed the occasion. Receipts were $171.50 which will be donated to the Masonic Temple.
