Mr. J. F. Taylor, Chief Marshal. The election of Mr. Joseph F. Taylor as chief marshal for the state fair of 1904 is a deserved recognition of the merits of a young man and a deserved compliment to our sister town. The News and Observer relative to his election says: "Mr. Taylor is well known throughout the state as one of its most progressive and able young men. He has a host of friends in eastern North Carolina, and with his well known energy and ability it is certain that the social events of the state fair will be admirably managed."

Mr. Taylor is not alone well known in social life in the state, but politically also. He was one of the North Carolina delegates to the National Democratic convention from the first district. In an appreciative letter accepting the appointment, Mr. Taylor wrote the state fair officials, saying that he would give his most earnest efforts to the duties of the position. He says that he expects to have at the state fair, marshals from the mountains to the seashore, representing every part of the state.

The People Eliminate The Money Question.
It doesn't make any difference whether the discoverer of the world's supply of gold has been $2,000,000, 1000 and that the share of the United States in the discoveries amounts to $700,000,000, the people of the United States decided twice that they wanted the gold standard. The people eliminated that issue themselves and no Democratic convention was going to be guilty of the folly for a third time of attempting to make a closed incident an issue in a campaign in which there was not even a little bit of ice for it to cut.

inactive, sluggish liver, Early Risers

Piles upon top of piles of people

Hazel Salve cures them. There are many different kinds of Piles, but if you get the genuine and original Witch Hazel Salve made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, a cure is certain. H. A. Tisdale, of Summerton, S. C., says "I had Piles 20 years and DeWitt's Salve cured me after every thing else

Horace Greeley and Mrs. Stanton.

There was once a passage at arms between Elizabeth Cady Stanton, the eminent woman suffragist and Horace Greeley, on the occasion of a discourse by the former on the right of women to the ballot. In the midst of her talk, Greeley interposed, in his high pitched, falsetto voice:
"What would you do in time of war if you had the suffrage?"
This seemed like a poser, but the lady had been before the public too long to be disconcerted by an unexpected question, and she promptly replied:

"Just what you have done, Mr.
Greeley—stay at home and urge others to fight."

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CON-SUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreaded of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption.
Out of 115 test cases, 7 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed, the Bensonizer, prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas.
The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C.
P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call. —From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

Now that Wilmington has decided it, let it drop.

The Republicans seem to fear that they will be pressed for time.

It seems to take more "booze" for people near the sea than it does for those who live further up.

With Mr. Thos. Taggart as National Democratic chairman, and Mr. F. M. Simmons State chairman, we feel more and more confident.

With the unanimous re-election of Senator F. M. Simmons as the State chairman of the Democratic party comes renewed confidence and determination.

The Legislature of Georgia has increased the Governor's salary to $5,000 per year. No doubt there are other Governors who feel like saying "Go do then likewise."

It is beginning to be evident to the supporters of Mr. Roosevelt that the Democratic candidate not only has the support of his party, but has gained the support of the independent as well.—New York Times.

With such news as this confronting them, no wonder the followers of Teddy have to have a pill for nervous prostration before they can read their mail.

The political campaign of 1904 was formally opened July 27th, by Theodore Roosevelt at his country home, Sagamore Hill.

In the first instance he will be called a hero, a champion of liberty.

In this last instance what will be clean honest men call him. And in his championship of saloons, what will his posterity find of which to be proud. This is the tragedy of it.

A new town has recently been laid out on the Southern railroad in Mississippi, and named Vardaman after the governor. This name was forwarded to the post office authorities at Washington, and application made for its confirmation as the proper name of the postoffice.

This request has been refused and the people of Vardaman and surrounding community attribute the refusal to the fact that Vardaman is objectionable to the president and to the postoffice officials.

The people are stirred up, and if the refusal is persisted in a delegation will visit Washington to know why they can not honor their chief executive.

The fact of the business is the postoffice authorities seem to have their backs up because of former trouble in Mississippi, and use this means to vindicate their wrath upon Governor Vandaman.

If the name Vardaman had been recommended, no doubt it would have met the approval of the officials of the postoffice department, and would have been confirmed immediately.

However, the people of Mississippi are not going to swallow the black pill no matter how many capers are cut by the postoffice officials and the chief magistrates of the nation.

A large number of watermelons and cantaloupes are now on the Greenville market.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of the First Congressional District held in Plymouth on the 14th day of July, 1904, it was ordered that a Democratic convention of the first congressional district be held in the town of Edenton on Wednesday the 17th day of August, 1904, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for representative in Congress from said district, and for a Presidential elector, and for such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The Democrats of the several counties composing the first district will take notice accordingly and send delegates to such convention. By order of the committee, W. B. BODMAN, Chairman.

THE TRAGEDY OF IT

A few years ago when the cry of "white supremacy" was heard in this state from east to west, there was a call for a "mainly" action, and men responded.

On the hustings, in the stores, at public gatherings everywhere the clarion call of arms was being rung in clear tones from the lips of statesmen, orators and business men.

They said our political institutions were threatened and that we were in danger of being dominated by an inferior race.

At Wilmington was heard the eloquent appeals of Col. Alfred Moore Waddell. He went up and down in the state and men listened to this man because he was afire with zeal and spoke in the name of freedom.

Today in North Carolina is heard the cry of temperance. From the cloud-capped mountains of the west, to the wave washed shores of the east, is heard the clarion call for men to rise up in the strength of their God-given love for the good and the pure and to hurl from our fair state this curse that makes beasts of men and robs home of its purity and glory.

And men are responding. At Wilmington where the call was heard we have another view. Behold the once manly and noble Col. Alfred Moore Waddell. This time he comes with more gray hairs about his brow, and his years have increased and his head is beginning to bow under the weight of years.

But his voice this time is not raised in the name of liberty to free frail sinful man from the accursed drink. The aged veteran stands out the avowed champion of that which blots civilization and damns the souls of men.

His appeal rings out before blood-shot eyes and bleared faces and he defends that which curses men.

In the first instance he will be called a hero, a champion of liberty.

In this last instance what will be clean honest men call him. And in his championship of saloons, what will his posterity find of which to be proud. This is the tragedy of it.

LET'S HAVE

No joking, it is high time that some of the streets of our town were being paved. A ride from the Coast Line depot up Dickinson Avenue and Evans street to the Post office will convince the most "fountain" that the next step for us to take is to pave these streets.

This can be done at a comparatively small price and the result will be more than pleasing.

And these streets are not the only ones in our city that need paving. When we consider the state of our town, the amount of business done here, and the energy and zeal of our people, we are surprised that so many of our streets are in their present condition.

Then let us get together and make our streets compare with some of the elegant homes built on them.

Deadly Bomb. At ten o'clock Friday morning M. von Pleven, the Russian Minister at St. Petersburg, was assassinated at St. Petersburg by a bomb thrown at his carriage while he was driving to the Baltic station to take a train for the palace at Peterhof, where he was to have made his weekly report to the Emperor.

The assassination, it is believed, is the outcome of a wide-spread plot, the existence of which has been suspected several days. Numerous arrests have been made, among them that of the assassin, a young man who is believed to be a Finn, named Legio, also an apparition Finn, whose name is unknown has been arrested, having in his possession a bomb which he tried to throw, but was prevented from doing so by the police.

TRACTABLE PATIENTS. Doctors Like Those Folks Who Know How to Be Sick. "What I like," said the doctor, "is a patient of experience. Next to no patients at all the greatest trial for a doctor is to have a lot of green hands under treatment. Experience counts in taking medicine, as in everything else. Doctors like a man who falls a victim to disease frequently and does heavily. He is more amenable to instructions than a person who is draining his first draft at the medical fount.

"The new recruit to the ranks of the ill is afraid of many things. His eye is untrained and his hand unsteady. He exaggerates danger at every point. He may get the spoon too full or not full enough; he may pour out a drop too few or a drop too many. In his perplexity he sees but one sure way to avoid either horn of the dilemma and that is to take no medicine at all. He is intractable in many ways. He stays indoors when he should go out, and he goes out when he should stay in.

"The old stager who has saturated himself with medicine until his pores ooze oils and tonics is the fellow who brings joy to the heart of the physician. He knows what medicine is for, he takes it faithfully, scientifically and even joyfully. He watches his symptoms and the effect of the drugs. He knows all about his tongue, his temperature and his pulse, and can determine for himself whether one pellet or two is the proper dose. That self-analysis saves the doctor a lot of trouble. Hence the doctor's partiality for a visiting list made up of persons who know how to be sick.—New York Press.

Quick Arrest
J. A. Qulledge of Verona, Ala. was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Wooten's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c. at Wooten's drug Store.

Made Young Again
"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again" writes D. H. Turner of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c. at Wooten's Drug Store.

Carl Schurz, who lays claim to being entirely independent in politics, has written a letter to Judge Parker endorsing his candidacy. This is a good sign, for it is the independents—or the mogwumps, as they are generally called—who choose every president. The voters without a party are the ones who say who shall be elected. —Charlotte Observer.

A Startling Test.
To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt of No. Meopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months. Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Wooten's Drug Store.

John L. Wooten.
Ask the readers of this paper, who are suffering with indigestion or dyspepsia to call on him, at once and get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. If you know the value of this remedy as we know it, you would not suffer another day. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a thorough digestant and tissue-building tonic as well. It is endorsed personally by hundreds of people whom it has cured of indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart and stomach troubles generally. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. It is pleasant, palatable and strengthening.

When a man goes into politics every mean thing he had done from his youth up is remembered against him. When he joins the church he is never reminded of his mean acts. The reason is that religion aims to lift him up, and politics is bent on dragging him down. —Wilmington Star.

Weak Hearts
are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells, and puffs up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the final result. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A Sure Thing
It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but this is not altogether true. Dr. King's New discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Meter of Shepherdstown, W. Va. says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery cured me absolutely. It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia, and Consumption. Try it." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store.

A PERTINENT QUERY.

One Question That a Certain Man Will Ask His Wife No More.

There is a young wife in Baltimore who naturally enough prides herself upon the trim daintiness of her shoes, and in order to live up to her reputation for small hands and feet she very properly refuses to purchase footwear that would warrant the phrase "as easy as an old shoe" on first wearing. There is a period of what is termed "breaking in" her shoes, and her husband's unfeeling habit on such occasions has been to cheerfully inquire, "Why don't you get shoes to fit you?"

It happened that last week the husband bought a pair of new shoes, and as he expressed it, "got fooled on the number." Of course his wife never "got fooled on the number," she made mistakes with "malice aforethought," but, anyway, there were days of woe in that flat and nights of profanity and calls for old slippers and hot foot baths, all of which that woman bore with heavy meekness and silence.

The other day, however, her liege lord announced that he was going to break those shoes in or die; he was going to wear them to his office and trust to the excitement of business duties to divert his mind from any possible discomfort he might experience. The wife humbly suggested that he take an old pair of shoes along in case of emergency, but he scorned her remarks and departed.

Three hours later an office boy appeared at her home with a laconic message to send down the oldest, biggest and easiest masculine footwear the house afforded. The request was complied with promptly, but accompanying the parcel was a delicately perfumed note containing the tenderly solicitous query, "Why don't you get shoes to fit you?"—Baltimore Sun.

A Prize.

The only son had just announced to the family his engagement. Mommer—What, that girl! Why, she squints. Sister—She has absolutely no style. Auntie—Redheaded, ain't she? Grandma—I'm afeared she's flighty. Uncle—She hasn't any money. First Cousin Jim—She doesn't look strong. Second Cousin Jane—She's stuck up. Third Cousin Jezebel—She's an extravagant thing. The Son (thoughtfully)—Well, she's got one redeeming feature anyhow. Chorus—What's that? The Son—She hasn't a relative on earth. Popper—Grab her, my boy, grab her.—Pittsburg Post.

An Appeal For Clemency.

"I want you to discharge that hired girl," said Judge Blixham. "I said I wanted spareribs for dinner this evening, and here she has cooked a mess of pork chops!"

"Probably she misunderstood," suggested Mrs. Blixham. "It is the same kind of meat anyhow. By the way, before I forget it, let me ask you what you did with that man you told me about the other day who was up before you for burglary?"

"I had to let him off on a technicality. There was a flaw in the indictment."

"Well, can't you let Norah off on a technicality this time?"

The judge scratched his chin and took the case under advisement.—Chicago Tribune.

Rebuking the Indolent.

Two darkies lay sprawled on the levee on a hot day. Moses drew a long sigh and said: "Heey-a-h-h! Ah wish Ah had a hundred water-millions!"

"Tom's eyes lighted dimly. 'Hm-m-ya-h! Dat would sutably be fine. An' ef yo' had a hundred water-millions would yo' gib me fifty?'"

"No. Ah wouldn't gib yo' no fifty water-millions." "SW 26 3NO."

"Would yo' gib me twenty-five?" "No. Ah wouldn't gib yo' no twenty-five."

"Seems ter me yo' powahful stingy, Moses. Wouldn't yo' wouldn't yo' gib me one?"

"No. Ah wouldn't gib yo' no one. Leck sayah, nigh are yo' yo' good ter nuffin lay dat yo' calkin' wish to yo' own water-millions!"

TOBACCO MARKET OPENED.

Fine Beginning of New Season.

The Greenville tobacco market began the new season today under most favorable conditions. The sales were not large, but this was as expected, the farmers being nearly a month later in their curing than last year.

An encouraging feature of the sale was the good prices that prevailed, being fully fifty per cent higher than that at the opening a year ago. Most of the offerings today were first primings, yet the prices ranged from 3 to 17 cents which was very gratifying to the sellers. Smokers or first primings, green or dark, 3 to 4 1-2 cents; bright and clean smokers 5 to 9 cents; bright and clean cutters 10 to 16 cents.

The first sale was at the Farmers warehouse, proceeding through the other houses in regular order. There is a good force of buyers on the market and they are going to keep prices here up to the best.

As business is expected to be light for the first month of the season the warehouses have not yet put on their full complement of employees, but as at present constituted they are as follows:

ACCEPTED THE CHALLENGE.

And Won a Huge Watermelon.

Four little girls while down town Tuesday evening, were admitting some 50-pound watermelons. By way of a banter they were told they could have one of them if they would carry it home. The challenge was accepted, and borrowing a bag the huge melon was placed therein, a little girl gathered hold of each corner and off they went taking it home a third of a mile distant. The trip was safely made and the little girls were proud of their achievement as well as of the melon. They created much merriment along the way.

Victim of an Unfortunate Accident.

Mr. C. A. Moseley, the general Charlotte traveling man, spending his vacation with his family at the old Mosely homestead, at Drake's Branch, Va., met with a serious accident Tuesday, sustaining a severe sprain of the hip. The information came in a private letter and details of the accident were not given. The letter states that Mr. Moseley is confined to his bed and his physician insists upon absolute rest and quiet. The many warm friends of the splendid gentlemen will hear with genuine sorrow of his misfortune and will wish for his speedy restoration.—Charlotte Observer.

Mr. Moseley is a brother of Mrs. A. T. Lipscomb, of Greenville.

Charlotte Officer Killed by Boy.

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 2.—Asth result of an altercation with a 14-year old boy, Officer J. H. Brown, who has been a regular patrolman for the past six months, died this afternoon. Paul Biggers, a news-boy, had some words with Officer Brown this morning, the trouble arising from a bull dog owned by Biggers. During the fight Biggers struck Brown in the stomach with his head, causing injuries from which the officer died five hours later. The boy is held for murder and the trial will take place tomorrow morning.

Big Sale Going On.

It is a stroke of advertising enterprise that has not before been equalled in Greenville. People visiting his store are finding unusual bargains.

BOYS WITH GUN.

One Accidentally Kills the Other.

A distressing accident occurred near Winterville, Saturday afternoon, in which a boy lost his life. Ollie Kittrell, a son of C. T. Kittrell and Louis Crawford, a son of David Crawford, both about 16 years of age, were out together shooting at the mark with a breech loading gun. While young Kittrell had the gun young Crawford happened to step in front of it just in time to receive an entire load from the gun in his left shoulder and was almost instantly killed. Young Kittrell was almost wild with grief over the accidental slaying of his playmate. Both families are greatly distressed. The victim of the accident was buried Sunday.
