Tribute to Judge Brown.

Wilmington, Sept. 30.—With the adjournment of Brunswick Superior court at Southport today, at noon, Judge George H. Brown closed a distinguished service of 16 years on the lower court bench in North Carolina, a fact which was adverted to by Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy in a pleasing and most complimentary speech as the final act of the term was about to transpire. Mr. Bellamy personally, and in behalf of the bar of the state, thanked Judge Brown for his uniform courtesy at all times during his long service as a Superior court judge, and referred in most complimentary terms to the urbanity and deference to others which had characterized his judicial course. His elevation to the Supreme Court bench of North Carolina was spoken of in gratifying terms, the remarks of Mr. Bellamy having been seconded by Mr. Fredell Meares and other members of the Wilmington and Southport bars in attendance, all of which was gratefully acknowledged. Judge Brown came up to the city this afternoon and is spending a short while with friends on the sound before going to his home in Washington.

To Cook Carp.

Many persons have been dubious hitherto about the food value of the carp, which is so abundant in the Columbia. As much of the flavor is lost through careless cooking, it is important, to enjoy the fish, that a good recipe be strictly adhered to. The following method, which is in use at a local restaurant, is the best—in fact, the only way to cook carp so that it will be appreciated.

Take a good sized carp and clean it well. Get some stiff clay, make a paste of it, and plaster around the carp to a thickness of two inches. Bake in oven until clay is very hard. Then get a hammer and knock off the clay. Throw the carp away and serve the clay.—Portland Oregonian.

Marriage Licenses.

Licenses were issued to the following couples last week:

WHITE.
Chas. J. Wheaton and Laura Parker.

COLORED.
Berry Jones and Caroline Morton
Frank Williams and Katie Dickens.
Travis J. Allen and Lillie B. Cherry,
James Pender and Levella Parker.

John Sutton and Solor Dawson.

Dispensary Profits.

The total sales of the Greenville dispensary for the month of September was $3,743.76 and the net profit $1,252.40. This average for a year will give the county school fund $7,514.40 the county share of the profits. When Greenville had bar rooms they paid a tax of $2,200 that went to the county, so that it will be seen that a net gain of $5,314.40 is added to the county by the dispensary.

At the same time you only have to look about you on the streets of Greenville to see that there is not near the drunkenness here since the dispensary was established as existed when the town had eleven bar rooms.

NOTES FROM BETHEL.

Bethel, N. C., Oct. 3, 1904.

The share holders of the Bethel Banking and Trust Company met Sept. 30 and perfected the organization, by electing the following officers: President, M. O. Blount; vice president, J. R. Bunting; cashier, H. H. Taylor. The following gentlemen were elected as the board of directors: Dr. K. J. Grimes, chairman; Robert Staton; F. G. James and B. W. Moseley, Greenville; T. T. Cherry, Conetoe; S. C. Whitehurst, Grindool; S. M. Jones, J. W. Thomas, W. J. Teel, E. A. Cherry, J. J. Carson.

The Banking and Trust Company will be ready to accommodate the public in a few days. The cashier, H. H. Taylor, has had some experience in a national bank of Norfolk, and will conduct the business with that skill and honesty that characterize all his dealings with his fellowman.

Bethel is awaking from her lethargy and will not go into winter quarters 'till her army of busy toilers shall have won in the industrial strife.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Taylor have begun house keeping in their beautifully painted little cottage in front of the academy.

Mr. Blount's cotton gin has been running night and day this week. The farmers are selling their cotton as soon as they can get it ready for the market.

A new brick store on Railroad street will soon be completed, and will be occupied by Taylor, Smith and Thomas.

There is one thorn in the flesh of law-abiding citizens of Bethel. Unmistakable evidence was furnished that one certain man of Bethel has flagrantly violated the law against the sale of spirituous liquors in Bethel. The court found this man guilty and imposed a sentence of twelve months in jail. But within two days after this "certain gentleman," who has so persistently violated the said laws, found mercy in the court and returned to his home. This manner of procedure has been tried and failed to correct the evil until it seems time for the good people to inquire "who should have mercy shown them by the courts?" Shall it be those who try to protect the interests of the state and contribute to her industrial and intellectual and moral growth, or shall it be those who violate the laws and deal out those deadly influences that demoralize the citizen, and bring disgrace upon the community and the state?

The Bethel graded school has just completed a very successful month's work. With new plans, new desks and increased faculty the work goes on with increased interest and with increased success.

Many Bethelites visited Tarboro Friday. Shows do draw some people's money.

County Canvass.

The county candidates of the Democratic party will begin their campaign next week. They will speak at Fountain on Friday, Oct. 14 and at Farmville on Saturday, Oct. 15.

COUNTY MATTERS.

Proceedings of the Commissioners.

The board of county commissioners were in monthly session on the 3rd, all the members being present.

The usual pauper allowances were made and claims against the county were audited and paid.

The treasurer and superintendent of health both presented their monthly reports which were accepted and filed.

The members (21) of Greenville Volunteer Fire company were released from poll taxes for 1904.

The sheriff made report showing that he had established a public road in Contentnea township in accordance with an order issued at September meeting of the board.

R. M. Moye was released from taxes on $927 solvent credits erroneously listed.

It was ordered that a certain public road in Contentnea township, laid off in 1889, be discontinued.

Richard P. Moore, Hubert Jones, Wm. Hazard Tripp and John Dickens were released from poll tax for 1904.

Richard Anderson was added to pauper list to receive $5 per month and Sallie Baker $1 per month.

J. L. Fountain and S. M. Crisp were ordered to appear before the board at November meeting to give information concerning Phillipsboro bridge.

J. F. Allen and J. H. Kittrell were employed as guards for convicts. A consultation was had with the board of physicians to consult as to best steps to take in regards to smallpox.

Commissioners Barnhill and Spier were appointed a committee with the superintendent of health as to the location of pest houses, &c.

An order was passed that physicians shall be paid ten cents for each vaccination, the county to furnish the vaccine matter.

A resolution was adopted ordering compulsory vaccination in infected towns or districts in the county.

Jurors for November court were drawn.

A Great Sermon.

There was another large audience at the Baptist church, Monday night, to hear Dr. Wharton. His sermon was on "The Prodigal Son" and made a deep impression especially on the many men present. It could be seen that there was deep interest in all the speaker said. The sermon was strong and made even more effective by apt illustrations. Some of the obstacles met by a young man when he "comes to himself" and makes up his mind to "return to his father" were pointed out and helpful suggestions given as to how these may be overcome.

The service at 10 o'clock this morning was delightful. Tonight the service begins as usual at 7:30.

Fearful Odds Against Him

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with Kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

What's in a Name

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. HE OBLIGED QUAY.

How a Reporter Became the Agent of His Own Defeat.

One of the qualities which gave power to the late Senator Matthew S. Quay of Pennsylvania was a wonderful ability to judge human nature. An incident which the Brooklyn Eagle recounts illustrates the humorous side of Quay's ability to turn men to his own uses. Shortly before General Beaver, a personal friend of Quay's, was nominated for the governorship of Pennsylvania a political writer for one of the Philadelphia papers went to Harrisburg for an interview. He met Mr. Quay on the train.

"What are you hunting this time?" asked the senator.

"Oh, I'm going to interview General Beaver," was the reply.

"Is that so?" said Quay thoughtfully. "Well, I wish you would take a note to him for me. It would save my getting off the train there."

The newspaper man promised to do so. Mr. Quay borrowed his pad, wrote a few words on a sheet, folded it loosely and addressed it on the outside to General Beaver.

"Just give that to him if you will," he said, handing it carelessly to the writer. "That is all I was going to say to him."

Ushered into the veteran's office in Harrisburg, the newspaper man asked General Beaver if he would consent to an interview on the issues of the campaign.

"With the greatest pleasure in the world," was the ready reply.

"Before we begin," said the reporter, "I must give you this note from Mr. Quay, whom I met on the train."

General Beaver took the note and opened it. His face broke into a broad smile.

"I have changed my mind," he said. "I have decided not to be interviewed today."

Then as the joke grew upon him he laughed aloud. "Oh, this is too good to keep!" he cried, and handed the note to the reporter.

Dear Beaver—Don't talk. QUAY.

Mr. Quay had assumed that the newspaper man, being a gentleman, would not read the loosely folded note, and that he would give it to General Beaver before the interview to get it off his mind, and perhaps to impress General Beaver with his acquaintance with the "boss." Quay had judged correctly, and the interview was not given out till he had had time to advise his candidate.

50 STIEFFS---BARNAU COLLEGE.

Gainesville, Ga., May 10, 1904
Chas. M. Stieff,

9 Liberty St., Baltimore, Md.
Dear Sir: I beg to enclose you an order properly executed for the purchase of fifty (50) Stieff Pianos, to be delivered at Brenau Conservatory, Gainesville, Ga. This will equip the Conservatory with Stieff Pianos exclusively, with the exception of one Concert Grand which we have on hand.

When I began to investigate pianos with a view of taking out all and putting in an entirely new supply, the Stieff came to my notice. I have studied pianos closely during the last ten years and have purchased ninety instruments in that time. After visiting the factories in a number of cities, I inspected your plant in Baltimore. I felt sure that no factory in the United States was better equipped to produce a strictly high-grade piano than the Stieff factory.

We have had one of your instruments in the Conservatory for one year, and have tested the tone, quality and mechanical construction. After thoroughly testing it for eight or ten hours per day, I have placed an order for fifty new Stieff Pianos. I find the action of this piano in every way desirable to the artist and to the student.

While the cost of your piano is considerably more than I have to pay for others, it has greater merits, and I considered they're best none too good for Brenau Conservatory.

I take pleasure in saying that after we have secured the pianos ordered all of our practice rooms, both for teachers and students, will be supplied with your excellent instruments. Yours very truly,
A. W. VANHOESE.

Rarest display of these artistic pianos now on at Greenville, N. C., direct from the factory at factory prices. Terms to suit.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR

SEMI-WEEKLY—TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.

D. J. WHICHARD, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Entered in the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter. Advertising rates made known upon application. A correspondent desired at every post office in Pitt and adjoining counties.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1904

Between the speakings and the facts this month the people need not get dull.

Sunday's Raleigh News and Observer was a hummer. It was a Democratic paper right.

Governor-to-be Bob Glenn is conducting a great campaign in the state. His speeches not only attract attention over the state, but throughout the nation as well.

Senator George F. Hoar, of Massachusetts, has passed into the great beyond. He lived to a ripe old age and was a man of towering intellect and influence.

The Charlotte Observer has been caught on the Wilmington Messenger's error about resolutions purporting to have been adopted by the Democratic convention of Pitt county. Brothers, let us remind you that Pitt held a strictly resolutionless convention.

In Raleigh Friday morning Dr. Thomas D. Hogg, one of the oldest and best known men of that city, was run over and killed by a railroad shifting engine. By his age he had become enfeebled physically and mentally, and having a fascination for railroads he unconsciously wandered into danger.

Monday's papers contained the letter of acceptance of Henry G. Davis as the candidate for the vice presidency on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Davis' letter is much the shortest of any of the expressions of the other candidates; receding him, but it is full of meat and to the point. As a running mate of Judge Parker he is a strong man, and every passing day gives a brighter forecast of the election of the Democratic ticket.

Judge R. B. Peebles has brought more disfavor upon himself. The Superior court clerk of Warren county tendered his resignation because of ill health. Mr. J. R. Rodwell, who was deputy clerk, made application for the office, and the power of filling the vacancy was vested in Judge Peebles. It seems that Mr. Rodwell was not a supporter of Judge Peebles in the convention that nominated him for judge over ex-Judge F. D. Winston, and he did not get the appointment as clerk. Wanting some excuse for not appointing him Judge Peebles accused Mr. Rodwell of being a defaulter and said he would regard it a crime to appoint such a man to office. This effort to blight the character of an honest man aroused the just indignation of the people of Warren county who knew and honored Mr. Rodwell, and it has not tended to change the already poor opinion people in other sections of the state had of Judge Peebles.

DAN HUGH McLEAN'S SPEECH.

A large crowd heard Hon. Dan Hugh McLean in the court house, Monday night, and his speech fairly bubbled with old time Democracy that brought frequent applause. After an introduction by ex-Senator F. G. James, Mr. McLean spoke for an hour and crowded much sound logic in that time. He empaneled his audience as a jury before whom he tried the issues of the two parties, and leave it to their judgment to decide whether the Republican party of misrule should remain in charge of the affairs of government, or the Democratic party with a clean, honest record take its place.

He took Roosevelt's record as a first witness, and forcibly showed how he did not occupy his high position by the will of the people but was a creature of circumstance. He referred to the president's vilification of Southern chivalry in scathing terms and said he did not see how even a self-respecting Republican of the South could support him. Any who should vote for him would be endorsing his denouncing as traitors the heroes of the Confederacy.

In State matters Mr. McLean rehearsed the records of both parties and over against the corruption and misappropriation that blackened Republican rule, he placed the clean, honest, prosperous administration of the Democratic party, and pointed his hearers to the facts.

The speaker gave independentism some severe raps. He said the man who went into a Democratic convention seeking a nomination, and because he failed to get it announced himself an independent and tried to defeat the party, was no better than a Republican, in fact was a Republican at heart. He argued that every Democrat stand by the principles of the party, that if any objections existed to laws that had been enacted let these be remedied within the ranks of the party and not try to do so by going to the camp of the enemy.

He wanted on the close of election day to hear the good news that old Pitt county had been true to herself and rolled up fifteen hundred majority for the Democratic ticket.

There are no treasures in this sin-stained world more pure, more sweet, more precious, more valuable, than those found in the hallowed vaults of a woman's ministry and a woman's love; for they are the richest gifts that God ever lent to earth to show man in their raptures the ecstasies of the higher and purer and nobler birth.—Raleigh Times.

A northern exchange inquires: "Where can we find the ideal woman?" We haven't got space enough to mention the nooks in North Carolina where whole bunches of them can be found.—Wilmington Star.

BENEFACTOR'S DAY AT TRINITY COLLEGE.

DURHAM, N. C., October 3, 1904.

Today was a holiday at Trinity college known as Benefactor's day. This evening ex-Governor T. J. Jarvis, of Greenville, delivered the address of the evening in the Craven Memorial Hall.

Governor Jarvis delivered the address at the laying of the cornerstone of the first building erected on Trinity college campus about fourteen years ago. At that time he called upon the Methodist of North Carolina, of every age and station, to rally to the support of the situation and build such a school as should be a credit to the Methodism of North Carolina. This evening he congratulated all concerned on the wonderful achievements made by Trinity college since that time.

His address was directed mainly to the young men, and the messages that he brought were these two: Live the life of service, and never be satisfied with anything but the highest round of success. Governor Jarvis amplified and enlarged these two themes, and pointed out in glowing terms the nobility of the life of service, the difficulties that stand in the way of success, the moderate measure of success with which some are contented, and the grandeur of complete and total success. His address was timely and thoughtful, and I with his living personality produced a splendid effect upon his audience.

At the conclusion of the address President Kilgo read the list of donors for the year just closed. The amount of donations was something over one hundred and thirty thousand dollars.

Judge Parker on Red Hair.

Judge Alton Brooks Parker, the democratic candidate for President, was recently chatting with an Auburn-haired visitor on his veranda at Rosemount, New York. Naturally, the conversation turned to the subject of red hair, which is a characteristic of the Parker family.

"When I was your age," said the judge to his guest, "my hair was redder than yours—it was fiery red, in fact, and, in consequence, my fighting instinct was over-developed while I was in school. In the country district where I learned my 'three R's,' it happened that I was the only red-haired youth. When I first attended school the boys had a good deal of fun shouting 'sorrel' and 'red top.' It never failed to rouse my fighting blood and I lived a strenuous life."

"But you wouldn't have changed the color of your hair, would you?" asked the visitor, blandly.

"No, indeed," said the judge; "red hair is all right. My daughter has it, and my little grandson there is as red as he can be. They say it is a sign of high temper, but it is also a sign of numerous excellent qualities."

"We've had two red haired Presidents," said the visitor—Jefferson and Jackson, and they were both Democrats."

"That's true," said the judge "and don't you think it's about time we had a third?"—October Success.

Standing for Morality.

The press of North Carolina stands today more firmly for morality than ever before. Almost every newspaper which one reads makes some declaration in favor of high morals, either in editorial utterances, prints from other papers or in its own general policy. A majority of the North Carolina editors to-day are fearlessly outspoken on the subject of morals, and make moral excellence a part of their papers' creeds.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

How the Trusts Strike every Home in the Country.

The tariff question is a business proposition that concerns every man, woman and child, for it taxes the average home $110 a year, or more than one-tenth of the average family's total income. There is an average of one and one-eighth tenths earners in the average home. These contribute thirty days' labor each, or fifty-four days' labor a year to the tariff tax collectors. If this $110 went as honest taxes to our government to meet necessary expenditures, no fault would be found, though the tax would be considered extremely high. But only a very small part of this $110 can be classed as legitimate taxes. By far the greater part goes to million and billion dollar tariff trusts and monopolies, which thrive now as never before in this country. These greedy trusts levy a tribute of $94 a year upon the average home, while the government collects an average of about $15 a year in tariff taxes; the collection last year amounted to $3 49 per capita, or $16 52 per family of 47 persons. Do the heads of these 17,000,000 families, the voters, knowingly and willingly donate $94 a year to the hundreds of trusts? Do they love these trusts more than they love their wives and children? If not, why should they vote to give this $94 to trusts that do not need it rather than to keep the $94 for their own families, who do need it? An extra $94 a year would mean much to the average family in the way of better food, clothing and education. A vote for the Democratic party means a vote to dispense with this additional tax.—Ex.

MOHAMMEDAN FERVOR.

American Tourist Calls Attention to a Railway Gang at Prayag.

I have often remarked the fervor of the Mohammedans, says Jerome Hart in the Argonaut. Their strict attention to their religious rites is unique among denominations so far as my observation goes, for when the hour of prayer comes, whether they find themselves in public or not, they go through their devotions. I admire a man who has the courage of his convictions, religious as well as political, and the unaffected devotion of the Mohammedans has always impressed me.

On the outskirts of Cairo one day we saw a row of workmen on the railway lining up just as the muezzin's call to prayers rang out from an adjacent mosque.

"Look," cried I. "There is another instance of Moslems' devotion to their religious rites."

"How so?" I was asked. "What do you mean? What are they standing in a row for?"

"To pray," I replied sententiously. "Don't you see they are facing toward Mecca?"

Now, they were all standing in a row. As I spoke, as if at a given signal, they all went down.

"See!" I cried. "They are prostrating themselves. In a moment you will see them begin to bow toward the sacred city and go through all the elaborate forms of Mohammedan prayer. Ah, is it not interesting to see a group of ordinary workmen interrupt their toil in the middle of the day and turn to their religion?"

We were all much impressed. I was particularly so. But as we gazed on them, with reflex religious interest, the row of men arose. With a unanimous grunt they rose, bearing on their shoulders a long stool beam, which they proceeded to walk away with down the railway track.

An awkward silence followed. I imagined I heard a faint snickering, but I affected not to observe it. There are moments when it is just as well not to be too observing.

A Bit of Enterprise.

A man with an observant eye noticed a bit of enterprise at Rockingham when the John Robinson circus was there the other day. The only field that suited the showmen as a location for their tents was one filled with cotton ready to pick. So what did the show folks do but buy the cotton on the land, as well as rent the ground. Then several hundred men were put to work picking cotton until the field was cleared and the staple saved. Now this story is vouched for strongly.—Charlotte Observer.

Extending the Loan.

Old Mr. Dobson was nothing if not neighborly, but in the case of the Perkins he really felt that a line must be drawn somewhere. It was the fifth time that week that little Sammy Perkins had been over to borrow something, and this was only Wednesday.

"Please, Mr. Dobson, mother says won't you lend her your lawn mower for about an hour or two?"

Mr. Dobson scratched his head dubiously. "Well, sonny, 'dead I can't," he said at last. "I'll be needing it now, straight through the summer, off and on. But I'll tell you what," he added, when he saw the youngster's downcast countenance. "There's the snow shovel he borrowed last January; I'll let her keep that a bit longer."

His Love Letters.

Many men able to write excellent business letters fail lamentably when they attempt to compose anything else. The relatives of one such hampered person complained, not without reason, of the extreme brevity of his home letters.

"But," pleaded the offender, "you know very well that I never could write much of a letter."

"You write long enough ones to your betrothed," asserted the aggrieved sister. "Sometimes she has to pay extra postage on them."

The engaged girl, who was present, laughed and blushed; then she rushed to the rescue.

"He just says 'I love you' at the top of each page," she explained, "and fills all the space between with ditto marks."—Ex.

OUR SHOE STORE IS A VERY INTERESTING PLACE

We claim to have the largest and most complete stock of Shoes in this town. We are now showing large variety of styles in the best makes for Men, Women, Children and Infants. We can't tell you much about them in this space, but we want to call your attention to the famous

Ralston Health Shoes For Men.

It is easy enough to cry "Best" but that which convinces is the test. We make strong claims for this Shoe, and ask a trial that our claims may be proven. We claim a unique, common sense sole construction, found in no other shoe. A system of last modeling which makes a shoe that fits the foot as nature intended.

We also claim that while quality of material and workmanship may possibly be equalled, they cannot be excelled at the price, and that as good a shoe cannot be made and is not sold for less. They are, however, the tangible results of many years study of the highly complex needs of the human foot. They appeal to common sense and warrant a trial by every one who desires foot comfort and good service combined.

RE: Dr. J. H. Wilson

A Georgia physician says that while he was in the shop of an optician in Atlanta he once overheard an amusing conversation between the proprietor of the establishment and an aged dandy who was just leaving the place with a pair of new spectacles.

As the old chap neared the door his eye lighted upon a most extraordinary looking instrument conspicuously placed upon a counter. The venerable negro paused for several moments to gaze in open-mouthed wonder at this thing, the like of which he had never seen before. After a long struggle with his curiosity he was vanquished. Turning to the optician, he asked:

"What is it, boss?"

"That is an ophthalmometer," replied the optician in his gravest manner.

"Sho," muttered the old man to himself as he backed out of the door, his eyes still fastened upon the curious looking thing on the counter—"sho, dat's what I was afraid it was!"

The Proper Amount of Sleep.
A proper amount of sleep is of course absolutely essential to continued good health, but if dietetic habits are correct it is a matter which will regulate itself. If a rule is needed, one will follow naturally from the fact that almost every one feels languid on waking and is disposed to take another nap, no matter how long he has been sleeping. This is a morbid sensation which it would take too long to explain here. It is enough to say that lack of sleep should be made up, if possible, at the beginning and not at the end. The best general rule is to rise at a given hour every morning, whether tired or not, and go to bed when sleepy.—Century.

SALE OF VALUABLE FARM LAND NEAR THE TOWN OF GREENVILLE

By virtue of certain decrees of the Superior court of Pitt county made in a cause therein pending, and of H. H. Wilson, administrator, of the estate of J. Wilson, dec'd, against J. C. Brown, G. C. Edwards and Susie B. Wilson and the other heirs-at-law of the said J. Wilson, the undersigned will expose to public sale before the court house door in the town of Greenville, on Monday, 7th November, 1904, for the purpose of making assets, the following described tracts of land, to-wit:

One tract known as the home-place of H. J. Wilson and is a part of his homestead, and described as lands whereon the buildings are located, adjoining the lands of S. O. Brown and Mrs. A. D. Johnson, and being all of the home place lying on the west side of the railroad, containing fifty-eight acres, more or less.

Also one other tract, it being a part of the homestead, containing about fifty acres, described as adjoining the lands of S. O. Brown, the land formerly owned by William Whitehead and known as the Proctor lands, and being the same land whereon Ashley Teel now lives.

Terms of sale cash.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

Castle Hall, Tar River Lodge No. 93, Knights of Pythias. Whereas God, in His Supreme Wisdom, has seen fit to take from the home of our brother, R. L. Carr, his devoted wife and loving companion, therefore be it resolved:

That each member of Tar River Lodge, No. 93, Knights of Pythias feels deeply the loss sustained by brother Carr, and while we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who rules all things aright we extend our tenderest sympathy and heart felt condolence.

That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to brother Carr, a copy be spread on the minutes of this Lodge, and a copy be furnished to THE DAILY REFLECTOR, for publication.

Munford's Opening.

The scene of openings in Greenville has been the fall display at C. T. Munford's big store the last two days. Hundreds of ladies have visited his store and they all express delight at the superb display. Not only are the latest styles in millinery shown but also the very newest of fashion and shade in dress goods, trimmings, laces, ornaments, jackets, coats and furs and just such pretty things as the ladies admire.

Especially attractive were the trimmed hats, among them being noticed one of broadtail velvet in the shade of mahogany. Another large velvet hat in four shades of purple violet. Another is a French turban in brown and four shades of Cognac de Rouche. Then a very large hat in mahogany velvet and the burnt onion shades. One of the handsomest was a large black velvet hat with high collar of ecru lace edged with large black beads, handsome ostrich plume and tulle ties.

Still another attractive feature of the display are the exquisite center tables.

The Bazaar.

The executive committee of the Ladies Guild, of the Episcopal church, met at Hotel Macon Wednesday night and perfected plans for the bazaar which they expect to have about the middle of December. The various booths were definitely determined and assigned to the several ladies who are expected to have charge of them. Sub-committees were appointed to attend to the details of the work. The ladies who are managing the bazaar have the matter well in hand and their forces organized. Judging from present prospects the bazaar will be a success, and it is hoped that their many friends will help to make that success assured.

Hon. Thos. E. Watson, of Georgia, Populist party candidate for president, will address the people at Tarboro on Thursday, Oct. 27th. Everybody is invited to hear him.

The Pitt county corn fair will be held on the 13th. Every farmer should bring a sample of his best corn.

CAME THE WRONG DAY.

Corn Fair Speech Would Not Do For Populist Convention.

Prof. C. B. Williams connected with the state agricultural department at Raleigh walked in at THE REFLECTOR office this morning to inquire when the Pitt county corn fair would be held. When told that the 13th was the date for the fair a look of astonishment came over his face. "Why," said he, "I thought it was today. Some one wrote the department that it would be held on the 8th and requested that I be sent here to make a speech, and here I am." It was explained to him that today, 8th, was the date for a Populist convention here and that as the chairman of the Populist convention was the leading mover in the corn fair, he might have mixed things up in his letter and given the department the date of the convention instead of the corn fair.

Chairman A. J. Moye was looked up later in regard to the mistake, and the joke was on him. The speech Mr. Williams had for the corn fair would not fit a Populist convention, even if his political faith had not been defeated.

Mr. Williams will come again on the 13th when the corn fair will be held.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

First Meeting of New School Year.

The Pitt County Teachers' Association after a vacation for the summer held its first meeting today of the new school year. The attendance was good, about sixty teachers being present.

The devotional exercises were conducted by A. J. Moye. A committee was appointed to recommend officers for the year. The committee recommended the following who were unanimously elected:

President—T. H. King.
Vice-President—J. H. McIver.
Secretary—Miss Nancy Coward.
Assistant secretary—Miss Leila Brown.

Treasurer—Miss Rosa Quinley.
Rev. J. A. Hornaday delivered an interesting address on "The School, the Teacher and the People."

Following this there was a discussion of the plan of work for the year.

Mrs. Frank G. Whaley left yesterday to spend the night in Greenville and this morning left for her father's home in Suffolk for two week's visit.

Mr. Jacobs, an employee of the Beaufort Co. Lumber Co. was suddenly taken quite sick yesterday but is much better today.

Dr. Moye, of Greenville spent yesterday here. He visited a patient in the country and later was the guest of Mrs. F. G. Whaley. Dr. Moye is such a cordial, genial gentleman he may always be sure of a warm welcome here.

Mr. Cook, who has been quite sick with fever we are glad to say is improving.

J. W. Cox went to Washington today on business for the Beaufort Co. Lumber Co.

Beaufort Co. Lumber Co. is logging in Craven county this week. Be there for some time perhaps.

This Kind Counts.

You may talk about good sales of tobacco, but the Liberty warehouse makes the kind that count. G. W. Venters sold at the Liberty today (Thursday) and here is the way his lots and prices run:

130 pounds at 15 cents, 54 at 25, 56 at 31, 45 at 36, 55 at 36, 25 at 50, 56 at 45, 34 at 46, 55 at 35, 115 at 30, 61 at 25, 31 at 15, 100 at 24, 63 at 20, 66 at 30, 68 at 36, 56 at 21, 28 at 37, 15 at 30, 14 at 30, 56 at 40, 18 at 12, 18 at 50, 30 at 20, 38 at 40, 14 at 24.

This was an average of about 34 cents a pound. It shows what W. T. Lipscomb & Co. do for those who sell at the Liberty.

Roots Go Deep.

While digging a well, Wednesday, Willis Clark found a lot of long mulberry roots at a depth of 37 feet. There was a considerable mass of the roots and it shows to what a depth they will penetrate the earth.

FIRST MEETING OF THE CENTURY BOOK CLUB.

Reported for Reflector

As has been the custom for years the End of the Century Book Club held its first meeting at the residence of its president, Mrs. R. R. Cotton, Tuesday Oct. 4. The club as usual spent the day delightfully with their exceedingly charming hostess.

It is needless to say that the swift gliding hours were saddened by but our regret, the fact that the club is to lose one of its most valued members in the departure of Mrs. M. A. Allen from Greenville.

The club loses a valuable and highly prized member, while regretting our own loss we feel that her usefulness is only transferred to another community which will receive additional blessings by her presence.

The tenderest expressions of sympathy were embodied in resolutions to be forwarded to Mrs. Allen touching the death of her beloved daughter, Mrs. R. L. Carr, who previous to her demise had been filling so acceptably the office of president in the young ladies book club of Greenville.

The End of the Century Club wishes to push with vigor every effort to make their newly established library a source of enjoyment and instruction to the citizens of our town. The members are pleased with the evidence already manifested by our people.

The next semi-monthly meeting will be held with Mrs. L. C. Arthur Tuesday, Oct. 18th.

POPULIST CONVENTION.

The Populists met here in county convention today as advertised, but had a smaller attendance than at the mass meeting in September.

The convention started off its work without any speech making. A. J. Moye was elected permanent chairman and F. Ward secretary.

A committee was appointed to retire and select candidates.

While the committee was out there were two or three efforts to get a speech, but the calls met with no response. They called on W. J. Pope, one of the Republican nominees for the house of representatives only to find that he was not loaded either.

The committee after a long session returned and recommended the following ticket:

For senate, A. J. Moye.
House Representatives, Shade Cox and Dr. R. J. Grimes.
Sheriff, no recommendation.
Treasurer, W. J. Thigpen.
Register, D. T. Housa.
Coroner, Dr. J. E. Nobles.
Surveyor, J. S. L. Ward.
Commissioners, H. S. Tyson, W. L. Smith, J. F. Tyson.

Dr. Hyatt at Farmville.

Dr. H. O. Hyatt will be in Farmville, at the hotel, October 17th, 18th, and 19th, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, for the purpose of treating diseases of the eye and fitting glasses. Those not able to pay a fee will be examined free.
