

WRECK NEAR WASHINGTON.

Fireman on Passenger Train Killed.

Just before noon on Tuesday the passenger train from Farmdale to Washington, on the Atlantic Coast Line, was about the 22 mile post, 3 miles out of Washington, when an axle on the engine broke and one drive wheel on the left side ran off. Emergency brakes were applied and the train brought to a stand still as quickly as possible. No damage was done to the train except the machinery of the engine was considerably warped and twisted. The track was only slightly torn up. The fireman, a colored man named Reddie Knight, became frightened, and after climbing up from the deck of the engine to his seat in the car jumped head first out of the window and was instantly killed. His limbs were knocked out.

Notwithstanding his apparent danger, E. George C. E. Lewis stepped bravely to his post and stopped the train in less than 20 yards, and none of the cars left the tracks. There were many passengers on the train, and a lot of them were injured in the wreck, but there was no excitement among them.

A freight train that came along after the passenger train, was also stopped by the wreck.

GLENN TO PEOPLE.

Governor Issues a Proclamation for Assistance.

Governor Glenn has issued the following proclamation: "To the People of the State: "The news from San Francisco continues to show increasing suffering and danger to the helpless and homeless people of that grievously stricken city, and it therefore moves the charitable and Christian citizens of our State to do all in their power to render aid to our brethren in this their sad hour of affliction. I therefore, as Governor of the State, call upon all good people throughout the State to respond to the calls of the different mayors and committees, giving of their means as God has prospered them, for the purpose of helping these destitute and needy people.

A more dire and fearful calamity has never befallen our country, and thousands are hungry, homeless, without clothing and threatened with disease, and "as we would that men should do unto us, so should we do unto them," by giving success and comfort to them in their great distress. I therefore urge our people to do all they can and believe they will respond both liberally and gladly.

"R. B. Glenn, "Governor of North Carolina."

What Baltimore Offers Baltimore's many contributions to the San Francisco relief fund today passed the $100,000 mark and tonight the amount is over $105,000. Mayor Thomas has telegraphed the mayor of San Francisco offering the services of Chairman Sherwood Swanwick, of Baltimore's board district commission, Building Inspector Preston, and City Engineer Franklin.

Time Extended. Mr. F. C. Toepelman, general manager, advises us that the time limit in which articles will be received in the tree residence telephone contest, notice of which will be found in another column, has been extended from May 1 to June 1st.

Notice to Creditors. Facing duly qualified before the Superior Court Clerk of Pitt County as administrator of Emily Joyner, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate to make immediate payment to the undersigned, and all persons having claims against said estate are notified that they must present the same for payment before the 24th day of March, 1907, or their claims will be placed in bar of recovery. This March 24th, 1906. Clavton Joyner, Admr. of Emily Joyner.

ALL AROUND GRIFTON.

Vanderbilt Finds Interesting Things to Tell.

The young ladies who took the cars at Grifton Sunday morning for Washington City safely returned on the evening train. [The couldn't get by Greenville--E.] We were very much pleased to have with us an hour or so Saturday evening our very clever friend J. J. Gilbert, of Kinston.

It is sad to chronicle the death of Mrs. Sallie Ipeck, of Lenoir county, who departed this life Saturday night. She was buried at St. John's, Pitt county, Monday. Our sympathies are with the bereaved ones.

We had a good shower of rain Saturday evening, accompanied by thunder and lightning. The rain came in good time, it was much needed in this section.

We were pleased to meet friend F. F. Brooks, of Kinston, Sunday evening.

Our brother's sermon Sunday at the Disciple church was glistering with vivid lightning flashes and red hot thunder for the men, and April showers for the women folks.

Mrs. Annie B. Loftin had the misfortune to step upon the oil can to the sewing machine and inflicted a wound which is quite painful to her when walking.

We are pleased to note quite an improvement in Capt. W. J. Pope, who has been confined to the house several days. Hope he will be up and out again before long.

Vanderbilt says he is still in training to defend the organization to which he belongs against the calumnies of all those who attack his principles as a Republican and says some of them will hear from him at no distant day, and then may the Lord have mercy on their souls.

COX'S MILL ITEMS. COX'S MILL, N. C. Apr. 24, 1906. A big white frost all over the land this morning makes one think he is all up with his work. But that is all right. Cheer up, it will be plenty hot after a while.

We have been having very nice weather for sometime and the farmers have made good use of the time. Much cotton will be planted this week. Corn is coming up nicely tobacco plants are scarce and small. Frank Carroll says he has some plants ready to set, if he had the land made ready.

Johnny Cox, Bill Williams, Louis Williams and J. H. Stokes are all gone to New Barn to attend Federal court as witnesses. Several colored witnesses also went.

Miss Rosa Tucker's school near here will close Wednesday, the 25th, we have had a splendid school for six months. Miss Cora Carroll and Harvey Stokes attended church at Winterville Sunday.

L. N. Edwards and Mrs. Edwards went to see her brother, Josephus Cox, near Winterville Sunday.

Fertilizers are on a boom in this section. Can't get it fast enough. B. C. L. Co. is hauling lots for the farmers. It must be a paying road from the amount of freight it handles.

I don't think the frost has hurt fruit any, it warms up from now. Cotton seems to be afraid to get much above eleven cents. Well, that would be all right if we could get it next fall.

Dark Everett is all smiles, it was a fine boy. Mrs. Masels continues in our section. Frank Carroll went to Winterville Sunday morning and says he was just in time to meet the dust going and the rain coming back. He got home all right, but the wind blew just the same.

IRS. PARHAM ENTERTAINS.

Honor of Mrs. J. Hugh Parham and Mrs. J. W. Ferrall. On Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, at her home on the corner of Greene and Fourth streets, Mrs. B. Ernest Parham charmingly entertained a number of friends in honor of her guest, Mrs. J. Hugh Parham, of Kinston, and Mrs. J. W. Ferrall. As the guests arrived they were welcomed by the hostess, and upper was served in the hall by Mrs. S. M. Schultz and Miss Mag. Doughty.

The chief feature of the afternoon was a progressive literary contest that was exceedingly interesting. The first prize, a beautiful book, was won by Mrs. C. S. Forbes of Kinston. The second prize, a book of poems, was won by H. C. Hooper and presented Mrs. J. W. Ferrall.

After awarding the prizes the prizes, which were hand painted vase, were presented to the guests. The guests were Mrs. J. Hugh Parham, of Kinston, Mesdames J. Ferrall, W. F. Burch, J. L. Cooten, G. J. Woodward, D. J. Hiehard, C. O'H. Laughinghouse, Nana Brown, H. C. Hooper, M. Schultz, J. L. Fleming, J. Moye, C. S. Forbes, C. S. Carr, M. Nelson, W. H. Ricks, Mrs. Martha O'Hagan and Mag. Doughty.

A Wanderer 47 Years.

The Windsor Ledger gives the following interesting account of an individual who has almost circled the globe: "In October 1859 William Hoggard, son of David Hoggard, this county left home. On Saturday last he came back to visit his parents. In all that time he had not communicated with them and they supposed that he was dead. But he was his kindred dead, but he was his brothers and sisters are living. He and Mr. John Hoggard of Mr. Elisha Hoggard were in on Saturday. Not a white man living in Windsor that he knew--not a man or woman, man or woman, had wandered the world over, through the United States and foreign countries. He comes here from Florida where he has been engaged orange culture."

Mr. Gilliam stated that if the case is continued and set for some other term, he will agree to try the case then without objection to absent witnesses, provided the State will agree to allow depositions to be taken ten days prior to such trial time, if it is proved that witnesses could not attend.

Judge Long intimated that if the State insisted he would set the case for trial next week. After consultation by the State's lawyers, the solicitor announced that the State would be ready for trial whenever the court would set it. The court set Tuesday next at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Gilliam stated that as the court had announced the day for trial, he did not want anything to come up that would prevent the trial from being had, but could not tell just what may arise to necessitate a postponement.

RS. MANNING DERANGED

Information has been received from Belmont that Mrs. Fannie Manning had entirely lost her mind. She is the wife of J. A. Manning, the man who was white-knuckled and whipped three weeks for the midnight assault was made on the home of W. J. Teel. The report says that Mrs. Manning has left her home and is wandering in the woods. Her daughter left with her trying to keep her back and it is supposed they are both together. Mr. Manning and several of his neighbors are searching for them.

This is an evidence of the strain and anxiety the people of that community are placed under by a perpetration of these outrages in a reputable condition and every law abiding citizen should be interested in having it stopped.

So you are mistaken. A trust company is not a place where you trusted. You trust it.

COURT SUSTAINS STATE.

Bethel Case Set for Trial Tuesday. At the resuming of court Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Gilliam for the defense read a notice from Dr. Nelson that Harmon Wynn is physically unable to attend court. The messenger bringing the notice, a brother of Wynn, further stated that Harmon Wynn has pneumonia. Mr. Gilliam in renewing his motion for continuance, argued to some length his reasons for asking such continuance.

Mr. Fleming for defense, stated reasons why he could not possibly give any attention to the preparation of the case under consideration, being employed in a murder case, to be called Friday, and other cases.

Solicitor Moore still insisted that the case should be set for trial this term. He found himself embarrassed by the absence of Gov. Jarvis and Col. Skinner, who would appear for the prosecution. However, even in these gentlemen's absence, he would prefer to have the case set for this term. A suggestion by the solicitor that the defense had made up his mind to have this case continued if possible, brought a rejoinder from Mr. Gilliam that such is not the case, but he thought justice demands it.

Mr. Gilliam said it was evident to him that even the solicitor did not wish to try this case this term, owing to the absence of the distinguished counsel mentioned. This the solicitor denied, and made it very plain as to his wishes.

The court following up the suggestion of the morning discussed the statute relative to the taking of depositions of witnesses who could not attend and stated that the court cannot agree to hold a special term, the time between now and the summer recess being entirely taken.

Governor Urges Forest Reserve.

Washington, D. C., April 26.—Governor Glenn of North Carolina, was the star speaker today at the hearing held by the house committee on agriculture to hear arguments on the bill appropriating $3,000,000 for the creation of forest-reserves in the Southern Appalachian region and in the White Mountains of New Hampshire.

The North Carolina governor addressed himself to that portion of the measure affecting the Appalachians and he told the committee that the creation of the proposed reserve would exercise a beneficial influence upon the whole country through the Appalachians. He declared that a valuable timber reserve was being denuded, and if the Federal government did not step in and interfere that forest would be destroyed that were worth millions of dollars in themselves and that were a protection to many rivers in the Southern States.

R. F. D. IN REAL DANGER.

Postoffice Department Says One-Third of the Routes in North Carolina Show Lack of Patronage.

Despite the numerous utterances that have come from the postoffice department giving assurance that the rural delivery system in North Carolina would not be abridged, fears on the part of members of congress from the State have been aroused as the result of a letter received by Representative Pomeroy from Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Degraw, in which that official states that one-third of the routes show a lack of patronage, and that inspectors will be sent to the State to make a thorough inspection of all of these old established routes. In fact that Mr. Degraw state that inspectors have already gone to work to see what can be done towards improving the service, where the routes do not come up to department standards. The fourth assistant postmaster general suggests four remedies. First of all he suggests the stimulation of the service to secure greater patronage. A readjustment of routes is another suggestion; and finally, he points to a reduction in routes or absolute discontinuance. The fact that a third of the rural routes in the State are in jeopardy has given much concern to the delegation and the fear is entertained that the result will be to put some of these routes on an every other day or three times a week basis.—Washington Correspondent of Raleigh News and Observer.

A Wink to the Merchant. A farmer is credited in an exchange with the following: "I've been soaked a good many times since I started in business for myself and I note that it has always been in the article that wasn't advertised. I started into the getting soaked business by buying a lightning rod per foot and settling for it per inch.

"That soaking was followed up by the purchase of a patent gate that wasn't advertised. It was sold to me on such close margin, the agent said, that the firm couldn't afford to advertise it.

"I've bought everything from hedge fences to encyclopedias that wasn't advertised, and if there is a piece of unadvertised furniture on this place that is any account I've not fallen over it. I have gotten so that when an agent calls on me with something I don't understand I ask him where it is advertised. If he can't show me anything but a pocketful of handbills I call the dogs."

STEAMER SHILOH SUNK.

No Damage to the Cargo. On her last trip up from Washington, the steamer Shiloh ran on a snag near the mouth of Indian creek, 10 miles below Greenville. Such a hole was knocked in the hull that she began taking water rapidly. To save the steamer and cargo the pilot ran the boat on a shoal and she settled in shallow water. By this the cargo of merchandise escaped damage.

The Shiloh belongs to the Shiloh Oil Mills, of Tarboro. The steamer was floated and passed here Friday night going to Tarboro.

Funeral of Dr. C. A. Blount.

The funeral of Dr. C. A. Blount, who died Thursday morning, took place Friday afternoon from his late residence in Contentnea township, about 12 miles from Greenville. The funeral was under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity of which he was a member, Rev. H. H. Moore being the officiating clergyman. There was a very large attendance.

Dr. Blount was a highly esteemed physician and excellent citizen. He leaves a wife and two children.

ALL AROUND GRIFTON.

Vanderbilt Finds Interesting Things to Tell.

It was our pleasure to greet Mrs. Non Tucker, of Greenville, last Friday who was a visitor at Mrs. W. J. Kittrell's.

I rained just enough Thursday to cool the air sufficient for us to go to sleep, and oh, my, didn't we hate to wake up and find it had only rained skin deep. We expect more soon, between now and then or during June.

The Disciples at this place will commence their protracted meeting on the second Sunday night in May instead of the first Sunday night. This change was made because some of the brethren could not make their arrangements to come before then.

We had the pleasure of meeting with H. B. Hardy, of the News and Observer and passed off the time swapping a few of our jaw breakers and rib ticklers.

Our town police is very considerate of the welfare of its prisoners this hot weather. He places them under prison bounds so they can come out and cool.

There is a great intellectual treat in store for all those who attend the exercises at the Quinley High school next Thursday. Prof. Carlyle will deliver the address. He is an orator of high order. He knows what to say and how to say it.

We should regret very much to lose any of the lady teachers in schools in and near Grifton. They are so very clever and good looking too. Bless their hearts, don't you know.

Next Reunion at Confraternity of Old Capital.

New Orleans, La., April 26.—The formal business of the sixteenth annual reunion of the United Confederate veterans came to a close this afternoon. One day of the reunion proper is left and that will be devoted to the parade of the veterans.

Richmond, Virginia, was selected as the place for holding the next reunion, the choice being made by acclamation. The only competitor of Richmond was Birmingham, Alabama, but the sentiment in favor of Richmond was so strong that the advocates of Birmingham did not allow the matter to come to a vote and withdrew in favor of Richmond before a roll call was ordered. The fact that the monument of Jefferson Davis is to be unveiled in Richmond next year, was a potent influence for many of the old soldiers.

Rushing the Work.

Mr. R. Greene is in receipt of a letter from the factory with which he placed the order for machinery to install an ice plant here, advising him that the work is being rushed and will be ready for shipment in about three weeks. The ice plant is going to be a great convenience in Greenville.

Funeral of Dr. Blount. The funeral of Dr. C. A. Blount, who died Thursday morning, took place Friday afternoon from his late residence in Contentnea township, about 12 miles from Greenville. The funeral was under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity of which he was a member, Rev. H. H. Moore being the officiating clergyman. There was a very large attendance.

LAUGHINGHOUSE FOR THE SENATE.

Grimesland, N. C., April 27, 1906. EDITOR REFLECTOR:

As the time is drawing near for holding our Democratic county convention for nominating candidates for county office, and for the Legislature, we naturally look over the political field for the best and most competent men to fill these respective offices.

Especially should we look after our Legislative candidates, being watchful and careful in selecting one but men who are tried and true Democrats and who by their past record we can feel assured will serve the whole people without fear of favor.

In this connection there is one man better known to the people of Chicof township and to Pitt county than any man in it, who has taken a bold and fearless stand for the right of the people, as against corporate assumption and greed, and whose past record has proven him to be an ideal representative of the people of Pitt county in our Legislature, a man who knows the right and dares to do it.

In this connection I refer to the Hon. J. J. Laughinghouse as the man that our next Democratic county convention should nominate Senator from Pitt county.

He served us well and ably in our last Legislature, and his hard work did not stop at the adjournment of the Legislature. His recent correspondence and utterance laid before the people by our State and county newspapers, states in a measure what manner of man he is. Mr. Laughinghouse loves Pitt county and her people. He is outspoken, honest, earnest, and a hard-biter. Thus we know him as a man, and we of Chicof Township know him better and have known him longer and we take pleasure in placing him before the Democrats of Pitt county as candidate for nomination and election as Senator from this county.

Dr. C. M. Jones.

HADDOCK'S X ROADS ITEMS.

Haddock's X Roads, N. C., April 28.—Lep Hardee, of Grimesland, spent Saturday night and Sunday in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hardee, of Greenville, attended church at Rose Hill Sunday.

Miss Pearlie Garris, of Grifton, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Rosa Harris.

Mrs. Dennis Cannon has been very sick, but is now much better. George Hardee went to Grimesland today.

Misses Eva Hardee and Queenie Wilson are visiting friends near Grimesland this week.

Miss Annie Hardee and her cousin, little Bertha Hardee, are visiting relatives near Black Jack this week.

Miss Maggie Moore and her brother, Johnnie, of Cox's Mill, spent Sunday afternoon at J. A. Moore's.

Miss Maud Mandler has returned from Grifton after spending a few days there.

Rev. T. N. Manning filed his regular appointment at Rose Hill Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Garris, of Grifton, spent Saturday night and Sunday at L. H. Wilson's.

George and Marshal Hardee went to Ayden Saturday.

School Closing.

The Quinley school near Grifton will close with a school Thursday, May 3rd. All exercises will be made by Prof. Carlyle, of Wake Forest. The principal, L. I. Moore, of Greenville.

Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE NORTH CAROLINA TUESDAY MAY 1 1906

The trouble in Raleigh is a war of words. May it end at that.

A BIRD'S PECULIAR HABIT

The passengers on the mail train from Morehead City due here in the morning are greatly interested in the peculiar conduct of a pigeon which is owned by a man in Wildwood and engages the train in a race from Wildwood to Havelock every morning, a distance of 15 miles. The bird apparently watches for the approach of the train. It always picks out the passenger train and flies along with it, sometimes ahead of it, but never fails to accompany the train. It flies so near the cars that passengers can almost touch it. When the train stops at Newport the bird perches nearby and waits for it to start when it continues its journey to Havelock, then it returns to its home, evidently with an impression on its little brain that it has discharged some duty.

When the "kissing bug" gets in Congress the kissables may be expected to flock to the gallery.

The Gastonia Gazette charges the moon with the responsibility for that cold snap last Monday. First thing you know somebody will want to sue the man in the moon.

As the Raleigh adoration found out that the city charter forbade them from donating $500 to the San Francisco sufferers, of course they will be excused from paying it out of their own pockets. It were better, however, to look into the matters of this kind in advance, and not come before the public with the declaration of such beneficence and then have to take it all back.

The announcement is made that there will be a general increase in fire insurance rates in the business centers of all cities in the United States to enable the insurance companies to recoup the losses sustained in San Francisco. Thus it is the people, as usual, pay the bill, the losses falling on them instead of on the insurance companies. There is no justice in this. When the fire insurance companies go into business they do so with their eyes open, taking the risk upon themselves to protect the property insured, and when a loss occurs it is their place to stand it. Of course the San Francisco disaster is a lamentable one, yet such come but seldom.

NO REFLECTION ON BETHEL

The remark has been made that Bethel is getting more notorious out of the whitewashing case than the town should have, and that some persons not fully acquainted with the circumstances are disposed to look with discredit upon that community and regard it as surrounded by bad influences. Such an opinion is unjust and not warranted by the facts. Bethel contains as good people as are to be found, and they are as law-abiding as any. It was out of this law-abiding spirit and desire of the better class of citizens to curb up illegal traffic in whiskey, and this last trouble has grown because good men whose word could be relied upon were witnesses in these matters, those whose integrity and disreputable business was effected sought revenge through still further crime.

While two instances of whitewashing have occurred in which both the victims were citizens of Bethel township residing about three miles from that town, developments so far show that those engaged in this whitewashing were from other sections of the county. Not one of those so far arrested on the charge of implication in this crime is a citizen of Bethel township. Because the whitewashing occurred in Bethel township the people of that community, out of the regard for the safety and sacredness of their homes, naturally feel indignant and want to see those guilty of such outrages dealt with as the law directs, and this feeling should be shared by every

That Senator Elkins of West Virginia should declare in a speech in the Senate that he is the best friend the railroad rate bill has, either indicates that the railroads do not fear that measure will hurt them, or that the Senator begins to fear the people, who will soon have his case under consideration. His vote on amendments on the final passage of the bill will be closely watched by his constituents.

Every new enterprise for Greenville adds to the prosperity of the town. Day electric current would make the enterprises come faster.

Greenville's list of subscription to the San Francisco sufferers so far makes a small showing. Presumably the town has not realized its duty.

The editorial column of Saturday's Durham Herald, at least the absence of it, creates the suspicion that Editor King has gone a fishing. May he catch a full string.

If you lost your vote because of not paying your poll tax the majority will be big enough without you. But you will cut a sorry figure as a citizen standing off looking at the her fellows vote.

The announcement of Mr. J. A. Long, of Alamance county, as a candidate for the nomination of corporation commissioner by the Democratic State convention, commends itself to the voters throughout the State. Mr. Long's platform is brief, yet to the point. He says, first, that he favors passenger fares at two cents a mile; second, a reduction of freight rates to a point which will leave the railroads fair and reasonable dividends on the actual value only of their property, after excluding watered stock and bonds and exorbitant salaries; third, taxation of railroads upon the same valuation upon which they are entitled to earn dividends.

From comments The Reflector hears, Mr. Long will get the vote of Pitt county in the convention on this platform.

GRADED SCHOOLS CLOSING

Treat In Store for Pitt County. This week the graded schools of the county will begin to close. Below we publish the dates of closing with names of those who deliver addresses. It is not often that a county has before it the prospect of such a feast of reason and a flow of soul as is here presented to Pitt county.

Bethel school exercises are as follows: Thursday, 11 a. m. address by Dr. Alphonso Smith, University of North Carolina.

Thursday afternoon 3 o'clock exercises by the graduating class.

Thursday 8:15 p. m. concert, etc., by pupils.

Grifton closes on the night of the tenth of May; address by Hon. E. E. Hillard, of Scotland Neck.

Ayden closes on the night of the 11th of May; Prof. J. B. Cary is delivering the address.

Farmville school will close on the night of May 18th, Lieutenant Governor Frances D. Winston will deliver the address.

Winterville High School closing is as follows: Tuesday night, May 15th, 8 o'clock, primary concert.

SILKS & WHITE GOODS

We have no trash or Special Sale stuff but we will have the latest and best things that were obtainable in the American markets and we cordially invite the Ladies that are desirous of seeing the NEWEST CREATIONS IN SILKS AND WHITE GOODS to call at our establishment and feast their eyes. Very truly yours,

THERE IS A WAY TO SAVE AND A WAY TO LOSE.

You save when you buy the best goods, you lose when you buy a cheap article. Its poor policy to buy any but the best, especially when it comes to GROCERIES.

Don't put just anything on your table and think it is good enough. The same money at my store will get the best to be had. I have just put in a fresh stock of

Canned Goods, Package Goods,

Butter, Cheese, Coffee, Sweet and Sour Pickles and other articles in this list also Fruits and Confections. And I know the best in Greens and Tobacco. Just try me for the best of everything in the Grocer's line.

A good deposit in a bank will make you feel more like a landlord. Make a beginning with what you have hidden away for safe keeping the next time you come to the Bank of Winterville. They can keep it safer than you can.

Miss Minnie Cox left Thursday evening for Goldsboro, where she will attend the Sunday School Association that is being held there this week.

Quite a large number from Winterville attended the burial of Dr. Blount Friday evening.

Nice line of fresh groceries always on hand Harrington Barber & Co.

J. F. Stokes went up the road Friday evening on business.

Any one in need of a good cart one that will last and render good service just call to see or write the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

J. B. Smith, of Ayden, came up Friday evening on business.

John Manning went to Plymouth Monday on business.

Wille Hooten, a student of the Winterville High School, went home Friday evening to spend Saturday and Sunday with his parents who live near Grifton.

If you expect to exchange your seed for meal you can save time by taking meal for your seed when you have your cotton ginned at the Pitt Co. Oil Mill.

John Nichols, of Kinston, came in Friday evening on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cox returned from Morehead and New Bern Wednesday evening.

If you want good seed Irish potatoes go to Harrington, Barber & Co.

Messrs. J. H. Harrington, H. L. Johnson, B. F. Manning and W. B. Wingate went to Kinston Thursday night and returned Friday morning.

G. A. Kittrell went up the road Friday evening on business.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. are still shipping cotton planters and guano sowers by the car load, and if you need any you had best write or see them at once.

Misses Bertha and Edie Moore, who are students of the Winterville High School, went home Friday evening to spend Saturday and Sunday with their parents who live near House.

All farmers anti-patting out sawing and wheat can be supplied with mowers, rakes, reapers and binders at Harrington, Barber & Co.

Quite a number of traveling men have been in town this week doing business with our merchants.

Be sure not to forget the furniture and those iron bedsteads at A. W. Ange & Co.

Winterville is always on a boom you can see a new house being built in almost any direction you can look.

We offer our silver table ware 25 years guarantee at a bargain. See us, B. T. Box & Bro.

Miss Bessie Mooring, a student of the Winterville High school, went to Greenville this morning shopping.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. continue to ship cotton planters and guano sowers by the car load.

Joshua Manning made a business trip this week to Shelburne and surrounding vicinity.

A. H. Taft & Co.

We've got the size and to catch your eye, we only ask a visit to our Furniture Store, where you can get Draperies, Furniture, Cook Stoves, Bicycles, etc.

We especially note the attractiveness of our line of Rugs, Tapestry, Curtains, Table Spreads, Toilet Sets, Lace Curtains, Window Shades, Mattings, Floor Oil Cloth, Couches, Parlor Suits, Bedroom Suits, Hall Racks and Baby Carriages.

We believe we are in a position to satisfy the taste of the most fastidious with anything in our line. However, chances for a trial will be appreciated.

If you need any plants for planting go to A. W. Ange & Co. He has both sizes, large and small, and can fill your order any time.

Straw tell which way the wind blows, just notice the stream of customers going in and out from Harrington, Barber & Co's.

Try a Prince George, or a Dan Emmett cigar. Jim Dixon at the drug store will show them to you.

200 barrels of seed oats at Harrington, Barber & Co.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. is now in a position to fill your orders promptly for cotton planters and guano sowers.

Notice the new spring goods at Harrington, Barber & Co., before you buy elsewhere, for they can suite you in kind and price.

Any one in need of a plow will do well to go to A. W. Ange & Co., and get one of those "Oliver Chilled Plows." They are the best on the market.

Farming implements of all kinds at Harrington, Barber & Co.

A nice lot of new summer Bugby Robes at Harrington, Barber & Co.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. is still shipping out on planters by the car load. The people know a good thing when they see it. Therefore they are using Cox cotton planters.

GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, TUESDAY, MAY 1, 1906

The Panama is again having its inning—or outage.

The dispatches say that of Bay Islands, the Panama is now.

Some of the Vespers beats the average politician or a Raleigh newspaper controversy.

They have come to meeting up in the coal mining regions of Pennsylvania where the miners are on a strike.

Dowie has a talk back to his own at Zion City, but how long he will remain there is something else.

Keep your mind on The Home Building and Loan Association this week. It begins business next Saturday.

This month town politics comes on for a share of talk, as the election for alderman will be held the first Monday in June.

The 10th days near when the 11th comes will their reunion. Let it be a thing to be done to give them a good time.

The government is about to wake up to the fact that salaries in connection with the Panama canal are too high. Better late than never.

The Atlanta Journal suggests that New York loses Niagara Falls she will still have Wall street to fall back on. Some sense is needed.

The Louisiana Times has taken another stride to the front, having entered from four to eight pages. The Times is always all right.

They are awful stories of looting that come from San Francisco. The sight is a scene to be seen in the streets of some of the cities and some of the people at heart could perhaps do us more good in the Louisiana largely composed of railroad attorneys than one not a lawyer. But it will require a wise discrimination in selecting candidates. The people should exercise a wise discrimination in selecting candidates, and it is not a man's profession, but a man's convictions and his record that should be considered. No man ought to be selected who is "retained," etc., by a railroad, trust, insurance company or any other interest that the Legislature need to be regulated. Raleigh News and Observer.

Another matter to take into consideration is that lawyers are so easily "retained" after they are elected.

Over Two Hundred Cars
Over three million quarts, quite a hundred thousand cases, of 206 solid refrigerated cars, of strawberries went north through Santa Rocky Mount Tuesday, the shipments during the day having broken the record, perhaps of several seasons. At the low rate of 10 cents per quart the value of the shipments to Eastern North Carolina in the single day will be in the neighborhood of $300,000.

Nashville, Tenn., is one of the few cities that have no whiskey law, rather where the saloons are permitted to stay open day and night and where the saloon-keepers do not require a front door key. A movement has been started to bring about a closing from midnight to 4 a. m., and it is being vigorously fought by the saloon interests. All over the country the sentiment for greater restrictions upon the whiskey traffic is growing and everywhere the whiskey men put up a fight against reasonable regulations, they lose. The Nashville saloon-keepers do not seem to be any wiser than those in some other towns.—Charlotte

Now they are trying to prove that Gen Knorki is really Hector McDonald. They might leave Japan a little credit in the way as long as she did not get an indemnity.

Wonder was the government playing for a more rapid prize. There was much howling of trumpets over appropriations aggregating $2,500,000 to aid the San Francisco sufferers, when here come the announcements that only $300,000 of it available. Looks like sailing under false colors.

Puffness under the eyes is usually an indication of a disordered condition of the system.

Chronicle almost everywhere there is a growing sentiment against whiskey, and we hope it will continue until the whole business—manufacture and sale—is wiped out of existence. Whiskey is the greatest evil of the country. It causes more poverty, more suffering, more crime than any other agency. Examine the records of any criminal court, and a great majority of the cases there can be traced to whiskey. It fosters crime not only by its use but also in its traffic. Of course there are exceptions, but in most cases where a man is engaged in the manufacture or sale of whiskey, he will resort to almost anything to keep from being put out of it. And when it comes to the illegal traffic of it nothing so quickly robs a man of every vestige of character and principle. It is horrible to think how low the whiskey business can drag men.

Joseph H. Appel, advertising manager for John Wanamaker's Philadelphia store, in a speech at an advertising club meeting in New York the other night, said: "Good advertising is merely giving proper information to the public about the goods that a store has to sell—informaton that will enable the public to buy intelligently." These are the words of a man who "does both act and know" and hence should have weight. They give the whole secret of advertising. An advertisement is a bit of information. It tells the reader facts that he or she does not or may not know. When a merchant, through an ad has told of what he has to offer and has given the price and a good reason for the assertion that it is a low price, in case he so asserts he has covered the ground pretty thoroughly. And the reader, too, should remember that the ads. in a paper are information about the stores. Look at the ads, and you will know what is inside the stores.—Greensboro Telegram.

Offer to Advance Frisco $100,000,000.
San Francisco, May 1.—The first definite proposition for furnishing money in large scale to San Francisco for the purpose of rebuilding some of the burned sections was made public today when it was announced that a syndicate of New York capitalists had agreed to advance one hundred million dollars.

The news came in a telegram received by W. E. Perrin, chief counsel of the Southern Pacific, from United States Senator Newland, who had a large interest in the burned Palace Hotel. Senator Newland stated that he had submitted the plan to New York financiers, and that they had virtually consented to supply the money in a bond and mortgage issue. The matter is discussed by the San Francisco committee.

The speed and agility with which "Judge" Andy Hamilton has been dodging the subpoena servers indicates that his fatal illness was almost as severe as Mr. Rockefeller's.
None of the corporation officials on a salary have been heard to make any great howl over the law prohibiting them from making campaign contributions.

Please Take Notice.
As this is campaign year and the time drawing near for candidates for the various offices to be coming from under cover, The Reflector wishes to give notice that hereafter a small charge will be made for all announcements of candidates, either by themselves or by their friends through communications. It is a heavy tax on newspapers to do all such work free, and the candidates have no right to expect it, but should be willing to pay for what they get just like other advertisers. Therefore all such communications must be accompanied by a check for the amount of the charge. If you want your communications printed write them, but don't count the words and send the money along with them.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMONDSVILLE, N. C., April 30
J. R. Turnage, of Ayden, came over yesterday.
J. L. Corbitt and W. E. Rodgers, of Spight's Bridge, spent Saturday night with R. L. Corbitt.
Geo. W. Dail and family, of Ayden, spent Friday night here on their way to the union meeting at Grimesville Saturday and Sunday.
H. C. Ormond and family and Will Edwards and family, all of Ayden, attended the burial of Earnest Ormond here yesterday.
Rev. A. L. Ormond, of Kittrell, came yesterday to attend the burial of his brother, Earnest Ormond, and will remain here until Tuesday.
Y. T. Ormond, John and Eben Hooker, of Kinston, were here yesterday.
Jas. Smith and daughter, Dr. G. C. Edwards and others, of Hoxterton attended the burial here yesterday.

Our farmers are exceedingly anxious to see a few showers of rain now as tobacco plants are nearly setting.

Quite a number of our people attended the union meeting at Grimesville Saturday and Sunday.

Elder J. M. Barfield, and G. M. Prescott, of Ayden, spent Saturday night in the neighborhood.

Earnest Ormond, son of John J. Ormond, deceased, and Nancy J. Ormond died here on last Saturday evening, being 35 years old. He suffered very much for near two weeks before his death. The cause of his affliction was not known exactly but resulted in total paralysis before death.

We were very much shocked at the fruits of the dispensary of Ayden, last Friday evening. We were forced to believe by what we saw here that it is a poor improvement on the regular saloon. At least it is no trade business on the same old plan and make drunk in the same old way.

Black Jack Next Saturday.
County Organizer A. S. Forbes will be at Black Jack next Saturday, 5th, for the purpose of organizing a club of the Southern Cotton Growers Association. Let all the people of that section be present to hear him speak and give their support to the association. He has recently organized local clubs in several sections of the county.

FACIOLUS SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT
ADDRESS BY PROF. W. H. BAGSDALE.

Miss Charlett W. S. Ireland entertained quite a large crowd at Pictotus public school house Friday evening, with tableaux and recitations rendered by the children. This was given in observance of "North Carolina day." Recitations and tableaux represented all covered that period from Colonial days to the present time, showing the development and resources of the "Old North State." Each child did his or her part well, and reflected much credit on their teacher who is recognized as one of the most efficient in the State.

After the recitations Prof. W. H. Bogsdale entertained the audience for one and a half hours, in which time he talked convincingly of the necessity of education, and urged parents and guardians to send their children to school, ever if they were compelled to make a sacrifice to do so, as the result of so doing would repay them double fold in years to come.

Miss Ireland's school will close May 4th it being the end of the present term, and the patrons unite in hearty approval and appreciation of the superior training and rapid advancement of their children, while under the care and surveillance of this efficient teacher and they will spare no effort in trying to secure her services for the next term.

This closing term has been one of the most prosperous and instructive the school has ever known.

STRAY TAKEN UP.

Whose Say-so is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the worst cases of female weakness, prostration, nervousness and nervousness, irregularities, cure painful periods, dries up diarrhoeal and watery discharges, soothes known as peptic catarrh and a multitude of other diseases peculiar to women. Bear in mind, it is not a patent nor even a secret medicine, but the favorite Prescription of a regularly educated physician of long experience in the cure of the various peculiar ailments, who frankly and confidently takes his patients into full confidence by telling them just what his Prescription is composed of, and of the medicine put up for women's special maladies and add through druggists, can be said that the maker is not afraid to deal thus frankly, openly and honestly with every patient using the same know exactly what he is taking.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SCHOOL RECORDS SHOULD REVEAL SPECIAL NEEDS.

In delaying the adoption of adequate records and accounts, educators, whether in New York or in other cities, must have overlooked the important fact that a system which fails to disclose weakness, inefficiency, and unsatisfied needs must also conceal strength, efficiency, and progress; to oppose revision is, therefore, to deny a school system the privilege of proving its true worth and of securing the generous financial and moral support to which it is entitled. A searchlight directed upon every city from its educational headquarters, and from educational bureaus of State and nation, will reveal social needs that otherwise escape notice; will, by prompt notice of children, families, and districts needing attention, materially strengthen every private and public child-saving agency and render the schools themselves more efficient in preventing ignorance, truancy, crime and dependence. One negligent New York trustee officer, or one Philadelphia teacher who fails to tell of truancy because "the truant suffered very much for near two weeks before his death. The cause of his affliction was not known exactly but resulted in total paralysis before death.

It is just as important for the officers of the law to protect bird nests and eggs in the spring and summer from the raids of the small boy, as it is for the game wardens to protect birds during the closed season.

In copying this from The Asheville Citizen, we endorse the sentiment of that paper that "bird life is one of the greatest charms which this old earth possesses."

QUINERLY SCHOOL CLOSSES.

Splendid Speeches by Hon. L. I. Moore and Prof. J. B. Carlyle.

Pitt county has reached the distinction of having as fine a system of public schools as any county in the state, and of the excellent schools in the county Quinary school near Grifton is surpassed by none.

During the past term of the school the enrollment reached 75. The school is conducted as a public school for six months and the people of the community by private subscription carry it on for two months longer.

In January the building met with the misfortune of being destroyed by fire. Through a serious loss, the people were undaunted by this disaster and the school closed for only one week.

A new building will be erected this summer in time for the next session, and it will be larger and even better than the one that was destroyed.

Because of not having a suitable building in which to hold their meetings, the pupils at the end of the past session. Instead of this it was decided to have a picnic and speaking. This took place Thursday and reflected the highest credit upon the good people of that section.

It was a splendid scene, and inspired the speakers to their best efforts. Hon. L. I. Moore was the first speaker. He congratulated the community upon its educational development and pointed to their splendid school as the result of unity of effort.

He paid a just tribute to the noble work of pioneer teachers of the past, but said it made a heart well with pride upon hearing the grand progress of these latter years.

TOWN MATTERS.

Proceedings of the Aldermen. The board of aldermen met in regular monthly session Thursday night, all the members being present.

The street committee reported the streets in fair condition, some new tiling has been put in. It was decided to pay hands at the rate of 10 cents per hour for sprinkling streets.

The white cemetery committee reported connection had been made with the water main to provide water in the cemetery.

The cemetery committee was instructed to have the property recently purchased to be added to the cemetery enclosed and laid off in lots. It was decided to make the price of the best lots in this new addition $150, the less desirable lots at $120, and the price of lots on the slope in the old part of the cemetery $80.

GREENVILLE R. F. D. ROUTES.

What they Have Done the Past Month.

There are six rural free delivery mail routes operating from Greenville, and during the month of April these routes handled the following amount of mail:

Table with 3 columns: No., Deliv'd., Col., Total. Rows 1-6 showing mail statistics for different routes.

All of the routes have made good increase in the amount of mail handled, but the majority of them should be further enlarged to keep them from coming under the government pruning axe.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Adopted by the Methodist Sunday School of Greenville.

Whereas, our loving Father in heaven, on the first day of May saw fit in His inscrutable providence, to take unto Himself little Linwood Bertram, infant son of L. B. and Nannie B. Barnhill, who was a member of our Sunday school cradle roll, therefore be it resolved:

Resolved, That this Sunday school extend to the parents of little Linwood, and to all whose hearts are sad because of his departure from earth, our profound and sincere sympathy in their sore bereavement.

Resolved, That we point the bereaved ones to the sympathetic Savior, who said while here in the world, "suffer the little ones to come unto me, and forbid them not for such is the Kingdom of God."

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of our Sunday school, a copy be sent to the bereaved parents, and that a copy be handed to The Daily Reflector with request that they be published.

FARMVILLE ITEMS.

Farville, N. C., May 5, 1906. Miss Rouse's art exhibit and rainbow fete was much enjoyed on Monday night.

With regret, this Sunday records the death of Paul Brown, a member of the cradle roll, which occurred on Sunday morning, the 29th day of April 1906, at the tender age of 13 months.

To his parents we extend our kindest sympathy, and we pray that he who said "Suffer little children to come unto me" will comfort and sustain them in the loss of their little one, and that his transition to a higher life will be but another thread to the cord to bind their affection to our Heavenly Father.

Next Meeting in Greenville. The W. F. M. Society of the North Carolina conference, M. E. church, South, convened in regular annual session in Wesley Memorial church, Warrenton, N. C. last Thursday.

The following telegram to Mrs. H. L. Carr largely explains itself: "Warrenton, N. C., May 5, 1906, To Mrs. H. L. Carr, Greenville, N. C. Congratulations. The W. F. M. Society was pleased with Greenville auxiliary in 1907."

Register of Deeds R. Williams issued orders to the following couples who had reported COINED: B. F. H. Edwards and Emma Gilbert; Anthony Dudley and Annie Tyson; Wm. Ennis and Hattie Blow.

PROTECTION FOR THE TRUCKER.

Senator Simmons has introduced a bill in which the truckers of the eastern section of the State are particularly interested.

It provides for the proper inspection of vegetables, strawberries, melons and the like, so that all of unmarketable nature may be condemned and that which is damaged may be passed upon in order to prevent the consignor from being duped relative to the latter.

In other words the bill provides that the consignor will have to transmit to the consignor the certificate of inspection, a duplicate, which will show the precise status of the products when received; also that the commission in receipts who receive vegetables, melons, berries and the like on consignment must keep a record of sales, with the prices, and that these records must be open at all times to inspection.

All consignees who fail to transmit certificates to the consignors in cases where the products are reported damaged or who shall make false entries about the same shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to punishment by both fine and imprisonment.

The Wilmington Dispatch says that such a bill is intended to protect the interests of the consignors and will stop them from being swindled. It is now on the case. Unscrupulous commission merchants who have been in the habit of writing checks that vegetables or berries were in badly damaged condition, when in truth they were not, and who sell for one price and quote another under that to the consignors, will have to halt in their nefarious ways or run the risk of imprisonment. The recording of all sales may prove somewhat cumbersome, but will be excellent if it can be accomplished. However, such recording is deemed too impracticable, on account of its detail and botheration, the penalty for misrepresentation should still stand.—Charlotte Observer.

Early Closing.

The merchants of the town, at least all but the grocers and druggists, have begun early closing in the evening for the summer. The idea is to close promptly at 7 o'clock and the people of the town should help the merchants as far as possible in conforming to this movement.

This organization includes all of the North Carolina conference, and is composed of the most prominent and consecrated women in the church.

J. M. Windham has a new office next door to Dr. Morrill. Dr. D. S. Morrill has moved in his new office recently fitted up by R. L. Davis.

W. C. Askew has returned from the Tarboro hospital very much improved. We hope he will soon be able to be out again.

As this is campaign year and the time drawing near for candidates for the various offices to be coming from under cover, The Reflector wishes to give notice that hereafter a small charge will be made for all announcements of candidates, either by themselves or by their friends through communications. It is a heavy tax on newspapers to do all such work free, and the candidates have no right to expect it, but should be willing to pay for what they get just like other advertisers. Hereafter all such announcements or communications advertising any man for office will be charged for at the rate of one-half cent for each word. If you want such communications printed write them brief, count the words and send the money along with them.
