burdens. Our neighbor W. R. Horne opens his heart and barn and gives a barrel of corn. R. L. Davis, cash $1.00. Jason Joyner, cash $1.00.

We had the pleasure of greeting our old friend J. L. Smith, from Maple Cypress, today in Farmville. He will spend a few days in our midst visiting his son, Glasco, who is with R. L. Davis & Bros., and his daughter, Mrs. Walter Barrett, Dr. Bynum and others.

Walter Sheppard of Trinity college is home among his friends and relatives for a short while. Walter is a good boy, and is taking a wise step, and we hope him much success in his ministerial efforts.

W. Y. Swain, of Rocky Mount, has been in our neighborhood since last Friday, returning this morning. Several of our young people went down to Blue Banks on the old Tar Sunday, just to try their luck fishing, sporting or courting.

At our spring last Sunday we had one hundred and thirty six visitors taking 120 gallons of water away with them, and we could not miss one drop. All seemed to enjoy the cool sparkling water very much and comparisons of the various springs that had visited but the greatest attraction seemed to be the many Indian mounds and other specimens of smaller articles that reminds us of the departed Redman.

Miss Mable Barrett will give a birthday party on Wednesday evening at her home. B. T. Thigpen, of Saratoga, spent Sunday and Sunday night in Farmville, the guest of Mrs. Letha Burnett.

Floyd Bryant came in to visit his sister, Mrs. F. M. Davis, Monday. Mr. Bryant has recently returned from Baltimore where he has been attending the medical college.

Dr. D. S. Morrill left Monday for Morehead City where he will spend several days. A. C. Monk and Miss Vivian Parker spent Sunday in Snow Hill visiting friends.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR. D. J. WEAVER, Editor and Owner. Truth in Preference to Fiction. ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR. VOL. No. XXV GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1907. NO. 22

RAISE OF SALARY. It was announced a few days since that the salary of the postal clerks would be increased on the first of July $100 and on the first of August $200. This was the first increase since the fourth associate postmaster general to the effect that the rural mail carriers will get the raise on the first, the increase being greater in proportion than that given the postal clerks. There are a few instances where the raise will not apply. Carriers that have been receiving $720 per year will be raised to $800; those receiving from $684 to $702 will get $864; $836 class is raised to $810; $812 class to $720, and $576 class to $630. It can be seen that the highest salaried men will get the largest increase, the greatest raise being $180.

Good News From the Department of Rural Free Delivery Carriers. Let the defendant serve six years in a Federal prison, the term beginning today. This was the sentence pronounced by Judge James E. Boyd this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock upon Frank H. Jones, the self-confessed defaulter of the Charlotte National Bank.

It was a hushed scene in the crowded court room when the presiding judge pronounced sentence after expressing much feeling for the widowed mother and the faithful wife of the condemned man. The defendant himself heard the sentence without a tremor, having stood his trying ordeal with all the fortitude that a man can command after fully determining to meet his fate regardless of the consequences.

As soon as the sentence was pronounced the large crowd began to disperse. But a number of people for a long time friends of the man who is now a prisoner remained behind to take him by the hand and express to him their sympathy in his giving way to a temptation over which it was shown in his confession that he had no control.

Several continue to attend church at Parkville from the services have been going on for two months. J. O. Williams and wife went to Parmelee Sunday and returned same day.

Rev. W. O. Winfield will preach in the C. B. H. hall next Sunday at 4 p. m. J. S. Cherry and family, of Stokes, visited here Saturday.

Miss Fannie Mizell, of Hamilton, was here last week. E. Rodges and J. E. Hines went to Robersonville last week.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT. Whereas, The Great Spirit in His wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst our good brother, Joseph Riggs.

Therefore, be it resolved by Shawnee Tribe No. 62, I. O. R. M. in council assembled. 1st. That in the death of Brother Riggs this council has lost a good and faithful member, and his family a kind husband and father.

2nd. That we extend to the family of Brother Riggs our generous and fraternal sympathy due from every Red Man to the widow and children of our deceased brother, and beg to assure them that the Great Spirit, who keeps the happy hunting grounds, will take care of them.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our records and a copy sent to the family of our deceased brother, and one be sent to the Daily Reflector for publication.

Bank Increases Capital. New York, June 18.—The stockholders of the New York County National bank met today and passed a motion to increase the capital stock from $300,000 to $500,000. They also authorized the directors to declare a special dividend of $3,000,000 out of the surplus to be used in paying for the new stock.

Record of Disaster. The year is not yet half gone, statistics compiled by the Chicago Tribune shows that its record of casualties already exceeds that of 1906. Two hundred and seventy-three persons have been killed and 925 injured in thirty-eight railroad wrecks and 902 lives have been lost in twenty-three steamer wrecks. There have been thirteen men accidents in which 35 persons have perished. Tidal waves have claimed 2,240 victims, and earthquakes, 5,100. This is the worst record since 1905.

Which Are You? This from an exchange may bring to mind similar cases that have come under your own observation. We recently saw one of our citizens going home with a small basket of fruit. A few evenings later we passed him again and held under $500 bond to court as a result of Mr. Hines, of Greenville, dogs trailing from the rear of Mr. Graham's store, which was burned at Harlowe Saturday night.

The dogs were not put on the track until at least 35 hours after and it was feared that the trail was too cold, but they followed from immediately back of the burned store a track made across a field by a running man, and taking this through a tortoise trail, seven miles, to where Harrington was plowing in a field near his home.

Mr. Hines was accompanied by the deputy sheriff of Carteret; Mr. Pratt, of the Dixie Insurance Company, at whose instance the dogs were brought, and Harrington made no resistance when the dogs pointed him out as the man.

A repeating Winchester rifle was found in Harrington's house and this the officer took charge of. He was taken to Beaufort and given a preliminary hearing at which some other evidence was offered besides the dogs' trailing him, and bonds were set in the sum of $500. Harrington mortgaged property for his bond. It developed at the trial that he was feeling on his part against Mr. Graham, whose store was burned.

She testified that she saw Harrington crossing the river at the point the dogs trailed to. The tracking lasted three and a half hours; winding through tortuous bypaths twice the distance it was by a direct road from Harrington's to Graham's store.

The fire occurred about 1 o'clock Sunday morning and Mr. Graham, a saw mill man and merchant at Harlowe, lost his store, entire stock and $50 in cash burned, with only $1,063 in insurance, making a loss to him of $2,500, at least. The money was chiefly in silver and this melted and all run in.

The insurance people paid Mr. Hines $30 and expenses for his dog's work and were highly pleased at the result.—Kinston Free Press.

Seven Bodies Found. Newport News, Va., June 17.—Clad in full naval uniform and with faces and hands fearfully mutilated, the bodies of Midshipmen W. C. Ulrich, of Wisconsin, class 1907; W. H. The bodies, after being identified, were taken by the naval hospital at Portsmouth. Newport News, Va., June 18.—Today the waters of Hampton Roads gave up the bodies of four more victims of the Minnesota's launch disaster, two dead midshipmen and two bluejackets being picked up within a mile of Fort Wood Riprap, within half a mile of where the launch was sunk. The corpses were those of Midshipmen Walter Carl Ulrich and Herbert Leander Holcomb and Coal Passer Jess.

BLOODHOUNDS TRACK MAN. Mr. Hines' Man Hunters Follow Tortoise Trail for Seven Miles to Carteret and Suspect Arrested. Truth in Preference to Fiction

GREENVILLE NORTH CAROLINA FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1907.

Sailors have a way of caulking their bottoms that leak. The professional caulker might take some lessons from them.

Astronomer says that the earthquakes are being caused by leakage of ocean bottoms. However, he fails to tell how to remedy the trouble.—Wiltinger Monthly.

The astronomers are working the sun spots again and accusing them of causing this freakish weather.

"It is never too late to marry," says an exchange. Yes it is. Sometimes they are so late the old man overtakes them and carries the girl back home.

As Greensboro has granted a franchise, and limited the construction to eighteen months, the Greenville road from that town to High Point may be built.

Secretary Cortelyou has decided to call in the $10,000 bills. We will not find any of them on us, so there is no worry in this quarter over the call.

Mr. Cuthbert comes forward and says he didn't say it, from which any disposed to believe him could infer that Mr. Connor jumped on him for nothing.

San Francisco has fired Mayor Schmitz from office. The city would have been the savor both in each and reputation to have taken this step sooner.

The Greensboro Record has also found that the coming out of the street sprinkler is followed by rain and advises the people to run for shelter when they see the sprinkler coming.

Governor Hughes, of New York, vetoed the bill passed by his legislature of that state making a two cent passenger fare on railroads more than 150 miles in length.

It would not be wise for those expecting nomination by the next Democratic State convention to give up their present business this far ahead. Some of them are not going to land.

The Norfolk & Western railroad has announced that it will submit to the law passed by the last legislature putting the 2 cent passenger fare in effect July 1st. That is the common sense view to take of it, and should have been the policy of all the other roads in the State.

We hope the effects will be dry before Friday.

GREENVILLE GOING FORWARD.
The enterprise and progressive spirit shown by Greenville and Pitt county in the willingness to put $100,000 in the Eastern Carolina Teachers Training school, together with the valuable sites offered for the same, has already brought forth even unexpected results. Never before in the history of the town and county has there been such a prospect of wonderful development.

The United Development Corporation, composed of Richmond and Norfolk capitalists, has already purchased a tract of land in and adjoining the town, and this has been laid off in lots with a park on the river front. After geological sidewalks are constructed on this property the lots will be offered for sale. This beautiful property, known as "Greenville Heights," will ere long be dotted with handsome residences.

An enterprise is now being projected that will result in the establishment here of a manufacturing plant costing from $100,000 to $200,000. Subscription lists for stock in this enterprise have already been opened and met with gratifying encouragement.

Northern capitalists are here prospecting with a view of locating another large manufacturing enterprise that will mean the investment of thousands and thousands of dollars. These capitalists express gratification at finding in this community such an abundance of raw material to meet their demands.

And so it goes on, every day bringing brighter and brighter prospects of Greenville's growth and development.

T. G. Cobb, editor of the Morganton Herald, announces himself a candidate for nomination as commissioner of labor and printing by the next Democratic State convention. Four newspaper men one now seeking nomination for this office.

When talking about greater things to come over Greater Greenville. This town has recently become greater in boundaries, greater in railroad facilities and greater in State wide reputation. Now we must become greater in population and greater in business and manufacturing enterprises. Everybody work to this end and lets have the greatest town in Eastern Carolina.

Manufacturing enterprises are what Greenville needs and must have. The people getting interested in these things shows that they are becoming aroused along the right line. The most mention of a contemplated enterprise starts them talking and many express themselves as ready to take hold and co-operate with the movement. For years the town has been losing, or rather falling to go forward as fast as might have been the case for want of manufacturing enterprises, but now that we are waking up to this important need greater things may be expected. There is not a better location for factories, nor one that offers better opportunities for investors.

HAS THE WORLD BORDO.

A ten-million-bale crop of cotton ought to bring 15 cents a pound. This would yield to the farmers of the cotton States $750,000,000. A fifteen million-bale crop will bring 10 cents a pound which would yield $750,000,000. It looks as though the cotton farmer had the world bonded for about the price of whether the crop is a big one or a little one. It is up to the individual farmer not to get left on his share.—Charlotte Chronicle.

With this view of the matter it would be money in the pocket of the farmers if they would keep the crop cut down. If a ten million bale crop will bring as much money as fifteen million bales it would be better to keep only ten million bales and save a third of the expense of cultivating a big crop.

Member of Co. A. 3rd N. C. Regiment Flowed Up in Maryland.

Last week a farmer near Sharpsburg, on Antietam creek in Maryland, while plowing in a field plowed up human bones, upon further investigation the skeleton of a man was unearthed and with a sword bearing the inscription "Arch W. Speight, Co. A. 3rd N. C. Reg. C. S. A." This find was on the battle field known as Sharpsburg, or Antietam, where Lee and McClellan fought one of the great battles of the Civil war, Sept. 17th, 1862.

Lieutenant Arch W. Speight, a son of Abner Speight, of Speights Bridge township, this county, was in this battle and buried upon the battle field, receiving a soldier's burial, being rolled in a blanket with his sword and thrown in a hole. He was a member of Co. A, 3rd N. C. Regiment which holds its reunion here every 10th of April. We understand that some of his relatives are talking of having his remains removed to some cemetery. His request when he left for the war, if slain on the battle field, was that his remains be allowed to remain where first interred.—Snow Hill Standard Laconic.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS.
By a Contributor.

"What a great world this would be," reflects the Baltimore American, "if the business man could banish care like the boys and girls on roller skates." Of ten it is the youngsters on roller skates who make it impossible for him to banish care.

The per capita distribution of wealth in this country is reported to be $1,310. The fact that John D. Rockefeller has cornered the vast majority of the per caps, somewhat detracts from the exceeding joy that this item might be expected to arouse.

Among other things, California now comes forward with the meekest man in the country. A bridegroom of that State is accused of forcing his bride to eat all the biscuits she bakes.

"Ohio Democrats hopeful" says a headline in the Baltimore Sun. It has been a long time since they were hopeful however.

Now that Mr. Roosevelt has been in a state of criticism, it would be well for Mr. Cleveland to look over his revises when he writes anything on fishing.

A girl at Pittsburg got out of bed, took a slat from her bed, and smashed a mouse that was annoying her. You don't have to believe it unless you want to.

Those fellows anxious to know if the newly elected board of aldermen have an eye on them, have but two weeks longer to wait before knowing that is not as bad as those who will have to wait to see what the next State convention will do with them.

If Mr. Roosevelt ever has anything to say about the fish preparators, we know of a Princeton man who will call on Webster's dictionary for an overwhelming reply.

A man inserted an "ad" for a wife in the Chattanooga Star and because he secured one the next day, the paper announces with a great flourish that advertising pays. We shall await the defendant before rendering final judgment.

The vote of the 2-cent fare bill by Gov. Hughes, was a great shock to the people of the Empire State. It was fondly hoped and believed that he was free from "corporate influence." But his veto of the bill to give 2-cent rate to passengers within the State of New York, shows that he is merely a "corporation tool" as Mr. Hearst declared last fall. The reason that the governor assigns for his veto is the veriest "rot." He says that the matter had no legislative inquiry or investigation. Has not Ohio and other great States been enjoying such a law for years, and the railroads of Ohio, and the other States show no signs of going into bankruptcy. If Gov. Hughes ever had the presidential bee buzzing in his bonnet, he might as well bid him a dieu.

A Detroit man was trying to support three families has just been declared a bankrupt. In view of the cost of living, it is a wonder he was not also declared insane.

"It dollar wheat makes $6 flour," asks the St. Albans Messenger, "where does the greater public benefit come in?" Why the public has less trouble getting rid of its money of course. Ask us another.

Dr. Kincaid, in the First Presbyterian church of Charlotte, on Sunday administered the ordinance of baptism to a baby girl, and concluded the ceremony by imprinting a resounding kiss on the baby's lips. The Charlotte News says "it was the most unique baptismal service ever witnessed in the staid old First Presbyterian church." Now that Dr. Kincaid has started it he may have to kiss all the babies as a part of the baptismal service, or run the risk of making some parents feel that their little one has been slighted.

Is it Persecution?
The investigation of the affairs of our dear and dumb school at Greensboro has become tiresome. The first investigation which was instigated by a former teacher in the institution, consumed several days, cost the State a pretty penny, and resulted, as all who knew him believed it would, in the complete vindication of Prof. Goodwin. Now comes W. A. Self, Esq., of Hickory, who charges that Miss Jessie Ball, a teacher, whose testimony at the investigation was unfavorable to the superintendent, was persecuted until she was driven to self-destruction. We can but believe that Mr. Self has permitted his zeal to get the better of his judgment in this matter. We would not attribute any unworthy motive to his request for another investigation but we are forced to conclude that there are moving spirits behind the proposition other than our Hickory friend. In fact it looks like Professor Goodwin is the victim of persecution. That he should have permitted a young woman to be hounded and tormented to her death to vent a spite is unbelievable.

If Governor Glenn will trace the origin of these charges he may find another investigation unnecessary.

ANTI-CIGARETTE DAY.

Practising Periodical Gets Opinions From Leading Men on the "Coffin Nail."

In view of the setting apart of June 20 as anti-cigarette day in the Sunday-schools of America, the Sunday School Times asked a score of prominent business men, educators, and others for opinions on the cigarette.

Being an officer of a company that carries—and of course is responsible for the safety of—over two hundred and twenty-five million people per year, it becomes my moral and legal as well as my public duty to use all reasonable means to protect the lives and further the comfort of this large number of people.

It is my aim and intention to pursue this policy without abatement since I have by it provided beyond all doubt that it has raised the standard of our men. I have been criticized for the stringency of the order especially the prohibition of the use of cigarettes, but on the other hand I have the assurance of our division superintendents of which we have twelve, aided by my own observations, that persons addicted to the use of cigarettes, especially young men are the least careful in their duties and less able to perform them than men using liquor in moderation.

John Murphy, General Superintendent. Wed Boyhood Sweetheart. There is a romance attached to the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Kenna, of Charleston, W. Va., a bride and bridegroom of a few days, who are staying at the Waldorf-Astoria.

GLENN CAPTURES NEWSPAPER MEN.

His Speech Applauded Again. Jamestown Exposition, Virginia, June 12. Governor Glenn captured the National Editorial Association today when once during his speech and again at his conclusion he was given a demonstration such as has not been accorded any speaker by the association during its history.

Before Governor Glenn concluded his speech, in which he had paid tribute to nation and section, he brought to the attention of the editors the good old North State. Taking up each industry separately he drove home the facts regarding progress, he quoted authoritative figures, showing the development of the State and nation.

"The Lord's Day." The Massachusetts legislature is completing a revision of the Sunday laws. The Boston Post notes that in this legislative work, venerable traditions are being shaken up. For about 300 years, or ever since civil government began in New England, the first day of the week has been called "The Lord's Day!"

Not What He Meant. A gentleman was chiding his son for staying out late at night, and said: "Why, when I was your age my father would not allow me to go out of the house after dark." "Then you had a nice sort of father, you had," said the young profligate.

Special to Reflector. St. Paul, June 15.—Secretary Taft's condition is better today, but he will rest a few days before completing his trip.

THAT GOLDSBORO EARLY TRAIN.

Greenville Should be Interested in This. President J. A. Taylor, of the Chamber of Commerce, ex-officio chairman of the Transportation Committee of the body, to the Association, recently referring the matter of inducing the Atlantic Coast Line to run the Norfolk "shoofly" train through from Goldsboro to Wilmington on a schedule about like that which now obtains on the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta division, yesterday addressed a letter to Fourth Vice President John R. Kenly, asking for a conference with him on the subject.

While this question is up at Wilmington might be a good time for Greenville to take further action toward getting connection this way from Norfolk. To extend this "Shoofly" train from Goldsboro to Wilmington, as the people of the latter city desire, may necessitate some change in the time that train leaves Norfolk in the afternoon. If a change in this respect is to be made it might be so arranged that connection can be made at Hobogood with the train coming to Greenville. Such a change in schedule would enable people to leave Norfolk in the afternoon and make connection for any point east or south of Pamlico on either the Plymouth, Washington or Kingston branches of the Coast Line.

Still Holding Back Spring Knit Goods. special to Reflector. New York, June 13.—There is very little in the way of change in the knit goods market to report on this date. Prices have continued to show an upward tendency with sellers refusing to book orders for 1908 unless the situation clears up somewhat. Underwear manufacturers who opened their 1908 lines have become alarmed over the situation in the raw material market, notably the withdrawal of yarn prices. Then it is taken into consideration that many of the new lines were opened at prices named without the manufacturers having completed requirements on yarns, the anxiety displayed by manufacturers over the present situation is not to be wondered at.

Remarkable Rescue. "That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Felora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: 'I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased, the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work.' Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds, $1.00, at J. L. STATE REPUBLICAN PARTY. What it Stands for and What its Chief Aim. Time was when the republican party in North Carolina was a party for the good of the state, and not so now. The party does not stand for the application of republican policies to the government of North Carolina; it does not stand for the upholding of the republican form of national administration by sending republicans to congress. As the party is now constituted in this state, it stands for little more than a piecemeal change of the present dispensing machine.

A BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATION

The Prison Gates had Been Opened too Soon. I once heard from the lips of a beloved pastor, a beautiful illustration. A naturalist one day was studying a cocoon in which a butterfly was struggling to be free.

Other officers elected were: First Vice-President, W. H. Hayes, Brownwood, Texas; Second Vice-President, A. Nevins Pomeroy, of Chambersburg, Pa.; Third Vice-President, R. E. Dowdell, of North Dixie, Corrothers, of Waterloo, Iowa; Recording Secretary, J. W. Cookrum, of Oakland City, Ind.; Treasurer, W. A. Steel, Seattle, Washington.

Do Not Neglect the Children. At the season of the year the first natural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for Infants and Children is the best.

A Fortuitous Texas. Mr. E. W. Goodloe, of 107 St. Louis St., Dallas, Texas, says: "I have been acquainted with Dr. King's New Life Pills, and no laxative has ever done me so much good as these pills. They don't grind nor grip, and they don't irritate the bowels."

National Convention of the T. P. A. Special to Reflector. Jamestown, Va. June 17.—Governor Swanson today welcomed the members of the national convention of the T. P. A. which has assembled at the exposition for its annual meeting.

ENTRY OF VACANT LAND.

Jeese Sutton, Sr., enters and claims about 100 acres, more or less, of vacant land lying in Chesed township, Pitt county, N. C., on south side of Tar river and on Fatchet's well branch, beginning in the John Haddock patent line in the north side of said branch, and then north with said Haddock's line to his beginning corner on south side of Cypress creek, and thence south with the Wm. Haddock Patent line to the Bryant Dixon line, thence up Fatchet's well branch to a pine on west of said swamp, thence east with the M. L. line across the branch corner on M. L. line, then south to Jesse Sutton's line on the north side of Round pond, thence with the Sutton line to the beginning.

Common Honesty.

Common honesty—how many of our social and industrial and political ills would disappear of themselves in a regime of universal honesty! How little legislation would be needed in a world of honest men, if fair dealing, in Washington's phrase, or the square deal, in Roosevelt's, were everywhere prevalent!

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

Literally Speaking, the Doctor Told the Truth. Two or three generations ago Dr. Samuel Reed was one of the prominent physicians of Boston. His large practice included many patients outside the city limits, and these he visited in a buggy. One day he bought a new horse, with which he was much pleased until he discovered that the animal had an insurmountable objection to bridges of all kinds and could not be made to cross one. As at this period it was necessary to cross some bridge in order to reach any one of the surrounding towns, the doctor decided to sell the horse. He did not think it necessary to mention the animal's peculiarity, but was much too honest to interpose any hindrance to some thoughtless buyer who produced the following advertisement, which he inserted in a local paper: For Sale—A bay horse, warranted sound and kind. Will cross any bridge. The owner is obliged to leave Boston.

Practical Father—Why did you find it necessary, Elmer, to discharge the baby nurse? Hygienic Mother—Why, I actually caught her giving baby a bath in water a third of a degree hotter than the physician had ordered. We can't afford to risk baby's life in that reckless manner.—Bohemian Magazine.

Mysterious. "You say the alimony was a million?" "So the paper states." "And he paid it without a grumble?" "I believe so."

Two Views of it. Rivers—Don't you get tired of hearing Worries always telling his wonderful stories of adventure in the first person? Brooks—I don't mind that so much as his always telling them to the first person he happens to meet.—Chicago Tribune.

The Limit. Biggs—The Dupons are very exclusive, I understand. Diggs—Yes, indeed. Why, they even have wire screens on their doors and windows, so their flies can't get out and associate with the flies of their neighbors.—Chicago News.

Beat For the Poor. "Surely," remarked the good man, "it goes without saying that 'honesty is the best policy.'" "It is," replied the wise man, "until you get prominent enough to drop policy and start playing the stock market."—Philadelphia Press.

A Law of Nature. The rain was falling. Somebody had made an observation to this effect, conversation having languished. "Did you ever know of a rain that didn't fall?" asked a querulous person.—New York Times.

Safer Behind the Bars. "The man with fifteen stripes was sentenced to a year in the penitentiary." "I'll wager something handsome that he dreads the day when they let him go."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Useful. "You enjoy writing dialect?" "Yes," answered the youthful scribe. "It enables you to lay the blame for your uncertainties in grammar and punctuation on some imaginary character."—Washington Star.

CONDENSED STORIES.

How a Ready Actor Overcame an Awkward Dilemma. E. H. Sothorn a few days before he set out on his London venture talked at a farewell dinner about stage presence of mind. "When a dilemma unexpectedly crops up," he said, "I manage, in an awkward way, to master it somehow. But I never acquit myself with the brilliance that marks the typical anecdotes of stage presence of mind. They tell of a really remarkable case that happened in Cincinnati. It was a melodrama. The hero in the second act stood in the bow of a ship soliciting about love, while the waves rolled and roiled. The waves were made in this way: Blue canvas was spread loose-

Ed. Edwards is in our town placing sidewalks and curbing on some our streets. Maybe the electric light man will some day put in his appearance, or the water man may stroll along to quench our thirst. Our brick manufacturer opened his kiln of 100,000 last Monday morning and before Tuesday night had sold and delivered the last load. He says he could have sold more if he had had them. Mr. Belcher knows exactly how to make and burn them to please his many customers. The sale of lots on last Thursday was very satisfactory, there being some over twenty lots sold to some of the most prominent farmers in our community. Townsend and Windham know just what to do with real estate placed in their hands, and they have quite a number of vacant lots that will soon be on the market, so any one wishing to purchase can get all necessary information by addressing or calling on the above named gentlemen. Our friend Bill Wilkerson, Jr., who was so severely stricken with paralysis a few days ago, was brought home last Friday. He is slowly improving, we are glad to note, and hope he will soon get on his feet again. We will tell it anyhow, the sun is shining again.

Blaine and the Bore. A notorious bore came to see James G. Blaine when he was secretary of state. Mr. Blaine was busy. Still, he was polite. He was extremely sorry his engagements made it impossible to talk to the visitor, but he would be glad to see him the next day. "What time?" asked the bore. Mr. Blaine made an elaborate consultation of his engagement book. "Come at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning," he said. "I shall be glad to see you then. You understand the hour, do you not? Ten o'clock precisely."

"I shall be here," said the bore. "Mark you," cautioned Mr. Blaine, "when I say '10 o'clock I mean 10 o'clock. You must be here on the exact minute. Promptly at 10, then."

"All right," replied the bore. And he went away jubilant. "Blaine," asked William E. Chandler, who was present, "why did you make such a precise appointment with that man? You do not want to see him."

"I know it," replied Blaine, "but I fixed the hour with exactness and impressed it on him so I shall know when to be out."—Saturday Evening Post.

Hot Weather Refuge. The Rev. E. W. Webber, a Maine minister, who was located for awhile in a Georgia town as pastor of a Universalist church, occasionally relates this story: He was talking with William Dodson, ex-president of the Georgia senate. "I suppose you feel the heat greatly down here in the summer, don't you?" queried Mr. Webber of the southern man. "Well, it does get pretty warm here sometimes," admitted Mr. Dodson, "but every time I feel too warm I think of the visit I once made to Boston, and it sends the cold shivers all over me."—Boston Record.

Tillman on Chivalry. "The duel," said Senator Tillman at a dinner in Washington, "is a thing I abhor. I believe, though, in magnanimity and pluck, and I hope the time will never come when a conversation such as was recently overheard in a New York club will be typical of American chivalry."

A New York clubman approached a friend and whispered anxiously: "Bludd threatens to kick me the next time he sees me in company. If he should come in here now, what would you advise me to do?" "Sit down," was the reply.

FIR T. N. & TRAM. Officials Pass Through on Inspection. The Norfolk & Southern railroad has completed its line of new road between Greenville and Washington, and the first train was run over it Monday.

Greenville's Good System of Water Works Saves the Factory. About 4 o'clock this morning the boiler house of the Building and Lumber Company was burned, and the entire plant narrowly escaped destruction.

At such an early hour the town was in deep slumber, and not many people in other sections of the town were awakened when the factory whistle sounded an alarm. In fact there is so much blowing of whistles here in the early morning hours that people are less liable to observe a whistle alarm at such an hour.

Work is progressing rapidly on a temporary building for the regular plant on Ninth street to be used until the handsome depot between Ninth street and Dickinson avenue can be erected. Much of the material for the depot is already on the site.

This Parson Was Honest. "Yes," said the railway claim agent, "we come across queer things sometime. The queerest thing in my experience was the case of a minister."

"This man was hurt in a rear end collision and we gave him $5,000 damages. At the end of the year we got a letter from him that ran something like this: 'My salary is $2,000 and the accident cost me to lose it for twelve months. My medical expenses were $750. My board at a mountain sanitarium for six months was $850. Other expenses due to this accident were, in round numbers, $1,000, total $4,600. Now I am back in the pulpit again, as well and strong as ever, and I have $400 of your money in my hands. Not being entitled to that sum I do what any other minister would do in my place—I return the money to you as per checkbook closed.'

"How was that for honesty?" said the claim agent. "The ministers are a wonderful lot. We sent the $400 back to this honest minister and he gave it to charity in our name."—Ex.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT. Thereas, I is with a sense of profound sorrow that we chronicle the death of our much beloved sister and co-worker, Mrs. Pattie Hooker, therefore be it resolved:

First, That we bow in submission and resignation to this dispensation of divine will and pray God's blessing upon all those who sorrow in this separation.

Second, In the death of our beloved sister, the C. W. B. has lost one of its oldest and most faithful members. We miss her sweet face and kindly presence. We extend our sympathy to her loved ones. May they follow in her footsteps and ever look to Jesus for comfort in their loss.

Resolved 3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Missionary Tidings, one to the Carolina Evangelist and the Watch Tower publication. Also a copy be spread upon the minutes of this society and one be sent to each member of the family.

Resolved 2nd. That in the loss of our dear sister the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church has suffered the loss of one of its most faithful members.

Resolved 3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Carolina Evangelist and the Greenville Reflector for publication, also a copy be sent to each member of the family and one be spread upon the minutes of this society.

MINISTER GOES WRONG. Forsakes Wife and Child for Malatto Servant. Blackville, S. C. June 24.—The greatest sensation that has ever stirred this town reached a climax yesterday when the congregation of the Baptist church, at a conference called for that purpose, excluded its pastor, Rev. C. M. Billings, from the church and dismissed him from the pastorate. This extreme action came as the result of a report which had been circulated about Billings' conduct with his chambermaid, a neat colored girl, who had been in his employ for several years. His story was generally reported on the minister recently but the positive proof of the charges was not secured till letters by the preacher, which were read at the church conference yesterday, to the negro girl who had fled to Bamberg, S. C., cleared away the least vestige of doubt and made those who had been the preacher's friends shudder with the horror and debasement of his conduct, the like of which was never before known in this community.

These letters addressed to the negro girl at Bamberg told, in many terms of endearment, of the love the minister bore for her, that he could not live without her presence, and that in order to be with her at all times he would leave his home, his wife and all his friends—and go with her, even to death.

Before coming to Blackville Billings preached at Waynesville, N. C., Timmonsville and Waltherboro, S. C., and other places. Reported trouble of a nature similar to that here was circulated on the man at Waynesville.

Billings married an invalid wife in North Carolina and to them was born a boy, who is still quite small. The physical condition of his wife and the youth of the child greatly increase the enormity of the offense against society and the church.

C. T. Munford is going to give one free trip to the Jamestown exposition. Attend his big sale now on and learn about it.

Glad Tidings. Mr. E. U. N. Gawdet, general manager of the Merchants Stock Liquidating Co., of Atlanta, who is here conducting the special sale for Mr. C. T. Munford, received a telegram this morning announcing the arrival of a fine girl at his home. It makes him wear big smiles.

Everything in furniture—side boards, bedsteads, hall trees, chairs, center tables, baby carriages, go carts—at your own price. Must be closed out in 10 days. Munford's special sale.

Go to the Jamestown exposition as the guest of C. T. Munford. The lucky number at his special sale wins a free trip.

Greenville managed its campaign for the location of the Eastern Training School provided for by the last Legislature with decency and order. A good guess is that the school will be located here.

White ants are eating out the wooden rafters in the Smithsonian Institute at Washington and a force of men is now trying to exterminate them with kerosene. The government is also carrying on a campaign against rats. Between ants, rats, and obnoxious railroad magnates the government is doing a busy business.

Follow the crowd to Munford's special sale. Every purchaser to the amount $1 gets a coupon for a free trip to the exposition.

OAKLEY ITEMS. Oakley N. C., May 25 1907. J. T. and J. R. Jenkins visited at Rocky Mount last week.

Mrs. W. J. Whitehurst and children are visiting here. Rev. W. O. Winfield filled his appointment here Sunday p. m. and preached an eloquent sermon to a large crowd.

Mrs. Matilda Taylor and little Miss Cadie Bell Warren, returned Monday from Winterville, where they had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. K. Barnhill.

Mrs. Mahala Highsmith left Tuesday for Kingsboro to visit her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Madry. S. A. Congleton went to Robertsonville Tuesday.

Master Wilmer Nelson fell Saturday afternoon and sprained his knee. He has not been able to walk any since. We hope he will soon be himself again.

Master Elbert Andrews, of Rocky Mount, is visiting his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jenkins. Capt. Levi Whitehead, of Winterville, was in our town Sunday.

J. E. Hines went to Rocky Mount Sunday. Mrs. Jarrot Jenkins and sister visited Mrs. F. F. Nelson Monday.

You miss the chance of a life time if you do not take advantage of the special price sale now going on at C. T. Munford's.

The Bolt Didn't Know. Attorney General Jackson, of New York, was criticizing in Albany a certain excuse that had been offered him.

"It was a slim excuse," he said. "It reminds me of the excuse of the lightning rod agent. 'In the days when all the world swore by lightning rods, a farmer had two costly ones put on a new barn. But only a week or two later there came a violent thunder storm, the barn was struck, and in a few hours all that remained of it was a heap of charred black refuse.'

"Next day the farmer sought out the lightning rod agent. 'Fine lightning rod you sold me,' he shouted. Here's my new barn been struck and burned to ashes!"

"What?" said the agent. "Struck by lightning?" "Yes, sir; by lightning." "In the day time?" "No; at night. Last night. The agent's puzzled frown relaxed a little.

BIG EXCITEMENT ON THE STREETS OF GREENVILLE. C. T. Munford's gigantic 10 day sale opened this morning (Wednesday) at 9 o'clock.

Every buyer of the Jamestown exposition, with all expenses—railroad fare hotel bill and all that will make the trip pleasant—given away free through the generosity of Mr. C. T. Munford.

Every buyer of $1.00 or over gets a coupon and the one holding the lucky number on the last day of the sale will go to the exposition as the guest of Mr. Munford.

Two car loads trunks, valises, suitcases and hand bags, being sacrificed at C. T. Munford's special sale.

This floating item is credited to the Lamar (Mo.) Democrat: "If a man was a bootblack or janitor before he rose to success and local eminence he never fails to refer to it. He boasts of it. He's proud of it. It indicates that he has in him the stuff to rise under circumstances that were unfavorable and discouraging. But suppose a woman who now belongs to the leading set in town has one time worked in some one's kitchen, do you suppose she would ever refer to it? Really, what would she do to ary one who would refer to it in her presence? The man glories in his work. The woman is ashamed of hers once she gets beyond it. She is an economic factor when she has to be, but never from choice.

Fact, isn't it? We hadn't thought of it before, but one's own experience confirms it. The average man who attains a little prominence or accumulates a little property likes to boast of his success. It is to his credit that he has accumulated something and he makes the most of it. In fact it takes a very little rise to set some man boasting and the best of them will sometimes magnify their difficulties and their success. But did you ever hear a woman boast if she has attained prominence in the social circle, or even thinks she has, that she has cooked or washed or done any other sort of labor? Not one in 500. Sometimes you will strike a candid soul, but they're extremely rare. To hear them talk—after they have gotten up a little ways, and some times when they haven't—you'd think they were born with silver spoons in their mouths: that for them everything had always been ready to hand. In fact when you know they've been reared in poverty, and everybody knows it, some of them will pretend they don't know how to do household work, sewing or anything, and act as if they had been reared in fairyland. Strange, but a fact.

Laces and embroideries marked down 24 to 39 cents, less than half price, at Munford's special sale.

Hotel and Lunch Stands Destroyed. Special to Reflector. Jamestown Exposition, June 26. A destructive fire early this morning swept a large territory of hotels and lunch stands around the gates of the exposition grounds. The fire started at 5 o'clock in the third story of Berkeley hotel. This with 25 other hotels and 200 hundred lunch counters and soft drink stands were destroyed. The inside Inn just inside the grounds from the fire was saved by 1 or 2 lives in the fire and 30 others were injured.

Robin's Appreciation. About six weeks ago Hugh McGill of Rock Hill, S. C., was an old robin fluttering in the grass in front of his home as if it had been injured. Mr. McGill caught the bird after some little effort. He discovered that one of the robin's legs was broken, which rendered it almost helpless.

Taking the redress into the house he washed the bones, applied splints and carefully bandaged the leg and kept the robin a prisoner. To Mr. McGill's surprise the robin grew together and a few weeks ago the leg was found to be as good as ever. The robin was given its freedom, but in appreciation of the kind surgical act performed by Mr. McGill the robin comes about the house many times every day and has become so tame that it will eat crumbs from Mr. McGill's hand.

The bird has a nest in a near by tree and on being called by Mr. McGill invariably flies to him and perches on the vines, a fence or some other object near where Mr. McGill may happen to be.—Philadelphia Record.

They have had a big rucus in the treasury department over the installation of a negro draughtsman among the white men and women of that office. The white men always remove their hats in respect to the women, but the negro walked about in an insolent manner with his hat on and when requested to remove it, told the man who had made the request to mind his own business. Later in the day another white man took an insult from him, but toward the close of business, emboldened by these successes, he shoved a white man away from the water cool—and then he found that he had made a mistake. He was hammered all over the room and was glad to finally escape with his life. It is a mistake on part of the department officials to try to force negroes on their white employes in the manner that they have been doing. It invariably stirs up hard feeling, demoralizes the service for the time-being and is of harmful results to the colored race.—Charlotte Chronicle.
