MINISTER ORDAINED.

And Installed as Pastor of Church.

The commission appointed by Albemarle Presbytery—Rev. R. W. Alexander, of Tarboro, Dr. W. D. Morton, of Rocky Mount, Dr. Isaac Campbell, of Kinston and Elder W. B. Dove, of Greenville—to ordain and install Licentiate F. D. Viehe as pastor at Greenville, met in the Presbyterian church here at 7 o'clock on Wednesday evening, and was constituted with prayer by the chairman, Dr. W. D. Morton.

The ordination sermon was preached by Dr. Isaac Campbell from John 4:19, his theme being "God's Love."

The usual constitutional questions were propounded to the pastor elect and church by Dr. Morton, after which Mr. Viehe was ordained and installed by the laying on of hands of the Presbytery, the candidate kneeling and Dr. Morton leading in prayer.

The charge to the pastor was delivered by Dr. Morton and to the church by Dr. Alexander. Both of these charges were beautiful in word and earnest in expression and made a profound impression on the large congregation.

Rev. Mr. Viehe has only been in Greenville a short while, but has gained a strong hold on the esteem and affection of the people of the community. He is a young man of scholarly attainments and pleasant address and excellent Christian character.

Opera House Friday Night. One of the comedy hits of the season will be presented at the opera house on Friday evening Nov. 24th, entitled "Nothing but Money" written by Joe Ott of the "Dazzler" and "The Star Gazer" fame introducing Abbott Davison as "Old Sport Davie," a sporty tramp. Mr. Davison is a very well known comedian and baritone having appeared for the past few seasons in a number of large musical comedies and comic operas such as Marie Cahill company in "Nancy Brown" Otoy Opera Co. etc.

Presbyterian Church. The commission in charge of the ordination of Mr. Viehe having completed its work last night Rev. W. D. Morton, D. D., of Rocky Mount will preach at 7:30 tonight.

Postponed. Because of sickness among some expecting to take part, the ladies of the Baptist church have decided to postpone the exhibition of Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works that had been announced for next Tuesday night. There will be no rehearsal tonight.

HAULING COTTON BACK HOME.

Farmers Refuse to Sell at Present Price.

Something like the Resurrection does not recall ever having known before in Pitt county has occurred several times during the past week. It is farmers bringing their cotton to market and then hauling it back home. People coming in tell us they have met teams going back with cotton, and in one lot noticed they were twenty bales. The reason given for carrying it back was that the owners had been holding for 11 cents and finding the price below that figure took the cotton back home before they would sell for less. This is the kind of determination on the part of the farmers that will win out in the fight against low priced cotton. The farmers of Pitt county are able to hold their cotton and do not have to sell it unless they want to.

Resolutions of Respect. In memory of little Margaret Howard Joyce who was called to her heavenly home on the morning of November the third, therefore be it Resolved 1. That we, the members of the Men of the Century Club, do extend our heart-felt sympathy to our beloved member and her husband in their sad bereavement.

Resolved 2. That while we do deeply sympathize with the sorrowing parents, we know that God doeth all things right, and commend them to His loving care, and pray that His grace may comfort them in this dark hour.

Resolved 3. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the parents, a copy be sent to the DAILY REFLECTOR and a copy be spread upon the minutes of our club.

Mrs. M. H. QUINERLY, Mrs. E. A. MOYE, Mrs. R. W. WILLIAMS, Committee.

Court Closes. Court will probably adjourn this afternoon for the term. It has been a civil term and therefore afforded little interest to the public, as no cases of much consequence were on the docket. A considerable amount of business was done. The people of the county have been a very fond of Judge E. B. Jones and would like for him to come this way again to hold court.
