

Sixty-fifth Annual Commencement
of
East Carolina University
Greenville, North Carolina

SUNDAY, MAY THE TWENTY-SIXTH
NINETEEN HUNDRED SEVENTY-FOUR

FIVE O'CLOCK
FICKLEN STADIUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

TO THE 1974 COLLEGE GRADUATES:

As graduates of America's colleges, you cross the important threshold from the classroom of academic learning to the other and equally exhilarating classroom of working experience. The world that awaits your skills and welcomes the useful knowledge you have acquired throughout your course of study is one of infinite challenge and excitement. It is a restless world, impatient to right past wrongs and ready to witness the realization of yesterday's dreams.

The focus of education in our country has been more than ever adapted to the practical realities with which you will have to cope. I know that the knowledge you have assimilated and the insights you have gained into many of the major problems we face bode well for the America of the future. But more than this, I am confident of your spirit of involvement and your selfless desire to serve your fellowman. These are the qualities that will best guide you as you put to use for yourselves and for our nation the educational opportunities you have shared in throughout your college years.

As you go forth each in your chosen endeavor, I can think of no words that better capture the thought that I want to leave with you than those of Woodrow Wilson:

"The day of our country's life is still but in its fresh morning. Let us lift our eyes to the great tracts of life yet to be conquered in the interests of righteous peace. Come, let us renew our allegiance to America, conserve her strength in its purity, make her chief among those who serve mankind. . ."

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Richard Nixon". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a prominent flourish at the end.

ALMA MATER

Praise to your name so fair,
dear old East Carolina,
Your joys we'll all share,
and your friends we'll ever be.
We pledge our loyalty
and our heart's devotion
To thee, our alma mater,
love and praise.
