ALMA MATER

Praise to your name so fair,
dear old East Carolina
Your joys we'll all share,
and your friends we'll ever be.
We pledge our loyalty
and our heart's devotion
To thee, our alma mater, love and praise.

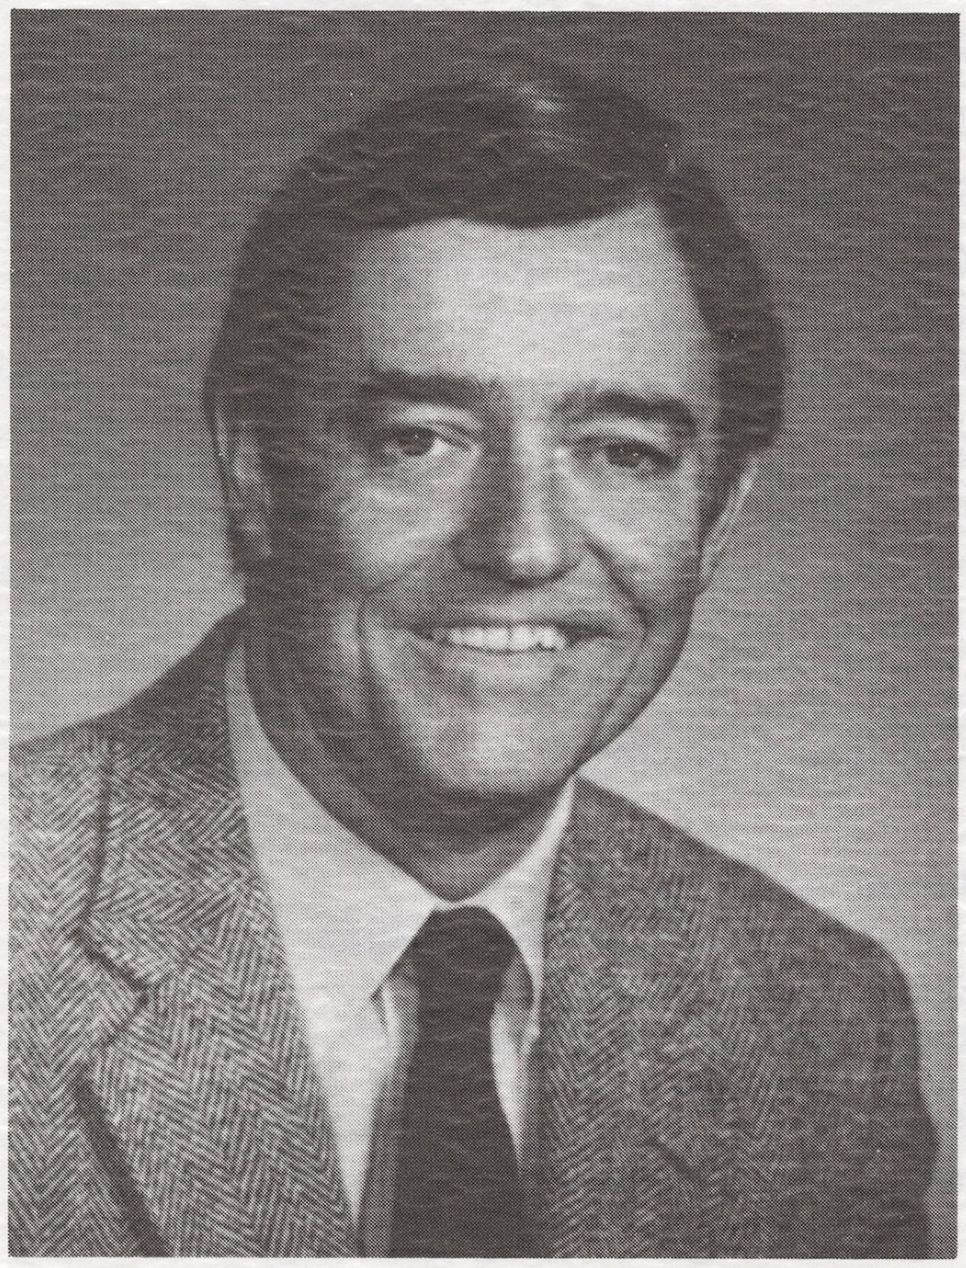
COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER



Robert L. Jones

President, Davidson and Jones Corporation

Robert L. Jones is a distinguished alumnus of East Carolina University and among North Carolina's most noted industrial and business leaders. A native of Wake County, he received his high school education at Needham Broughton High School and was awarded the bachelor of science degree from East Carolina University in 1958. Mr. Jones served with great distinction as a member and chairman of the East Carolina University Board of Trustees in the early and mid-1970's. His leadership was a major force in forging the University into new horizons of growth and achievement. Notable was the realization of an outstanding School of Medicine as well as important progress in every major area of the University, including academic development, improvement in facilities and growth in athletic programs. He served as chairman of the Ficklen Stadium expansion project in 1978 and gave excellent leadership as Vice President of the ECU Alumni Association. Mr. Jones is presently a member of the University of North Carolina Board of Governors, contributing to the leadership of the 16-campus System. He also served with distinction on the Board of Trustees of Shaw University and Board of Directors of Peace College. Mr. Jones is a member of the State Advisory Council on Vocational Education, the North Carolina Housing and Finance Agency and numerous other public, civic and community organizations and activities. He is affiliated with more than thirty major business and industrial enterprises, as president, director or partner.

He is an Elder of White Memorial Presbyterian Church. He and his wife, Linda, reside in Raleigh and have three children, Robbie, 15, Christina, 14, and Russell, 12.

Robert L. Jones was the recipient of the East Carolina University Outstanding Alumni Award for his distinguished service and leadership for the University and the State. It is a distinct honor for the University to have him as speaker for the 1986 Commencement.
