

Eighty-Ninth FALL COMMENCEMENT

Saturday, December the Thirteenth
Nineteen Hundred Ninety-Seven
Ten O'Clock

Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium
Greenville, North Carolina

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

For the benefit of our visitors the following information, digested from "An Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide" prepared by the American Council on Education, may prove helpful in identifying the costumes you will see in the Commencement Procession.

In the procession, first come the speakers, trustees, administrative of officers, candidates for honorary degrees and other members of the platform party, then the faculty; and finally the candidates for degrees arranged in the order in which the degrees are to be conferred.

The history of academic dress reaches far back into the earliest days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors" of the University of Coimbra wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges prescribed the wearing of a long gown. When American colleges and universities desired to adopt some suitable system of academic apparel, a conference held at Columbia University in 1895, made up of representatives from various institutions drew up a "By-law, Regulation, or Statute" for the establishment of a suitable code of academic dress for colleges and universities in the United States. This code, with modifications made in 1959 by The Committee on Academic Costumes and Ceremonies of The American Council on Education, is still in force; the costumes and colors, trimmings, and patterns you will see are all traditional, and interpret both the degree and field of learning. The bachelor's gown, designed to be worn closed, has pointed sleeves, the master's gown, which may be worn open or closed, has an oblong sleeve open at the wrist which hangs down in the traditional manner. The rear part of its oblong shape is square cut and the front part has the arc cut away. The doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves. It may be worn open or closed.

Black is the recommended color for all academic gowns. Bachelor's and master's gowns are untrimmed. Doctor's gowns are faced with black velvet, with three bars across the sleeves; or the color of the velvet may be that which is distinctive to the degree, agreeing with that of the edging of the hood. The colors you will see in the hoods and gowns of our faculty represent the various fields in which the degrees were taken:

Apricot .....	Nursing	Olive-Green .....	Pharmacy
Brown .....	Fine Arts	Orange .....	Engineering
Citron .....	Social Work	Pink .....	Music
Crimson .....	Journalism	Purple .....	Law
Dark Blue .....	Philosophy	Sage Green ....	Physical Education
Golden Yellow .....	Science	Salmon Pink .....	Public Health
Green .....	Medicine	Scarlet .....	Theology
Lemon-Yellow .....	Library Science	Yellow-Brown .....	Commerce, Business, Accountancy
Light Blue .....	Education	White ...	Arts, Letters, Humanities
Lilac .....	Dentistry
Maroon .....	Home Economics

The hoods, differing in length for the three degrees, bachelor's, master's, and doctor's, are lined with the official colors of the university or college conferring the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Hoods are edged and bound with velvet of the color appropriate for the degree. You will see in our procession many edged with the dark blue, for doctor of philosophy.

Mortar boards are the approved headgear. The tassel, worn on the left side of the cap, may be of gold if the holder has a doctor's degree.

The Commencement Program is printed prior to administering final examinations. Therefore, the inclusion of names of degree candidates in this program is not certification that degree requirements have been satisfactorily completed.

COMMENCEMENT HONOREE

Irwin Belk

Irwin Belk is a native of Charlotte, North Carolina. He was born there on April 4, 1922, son of William Henry and Mary Lenora Irwin Belk. His distinguished career in business as Officer and Director of the Belk Group of Stores and his dedicated service on many business, civic, educational, fraternal, and church boards and councils make him well known across our state and region.

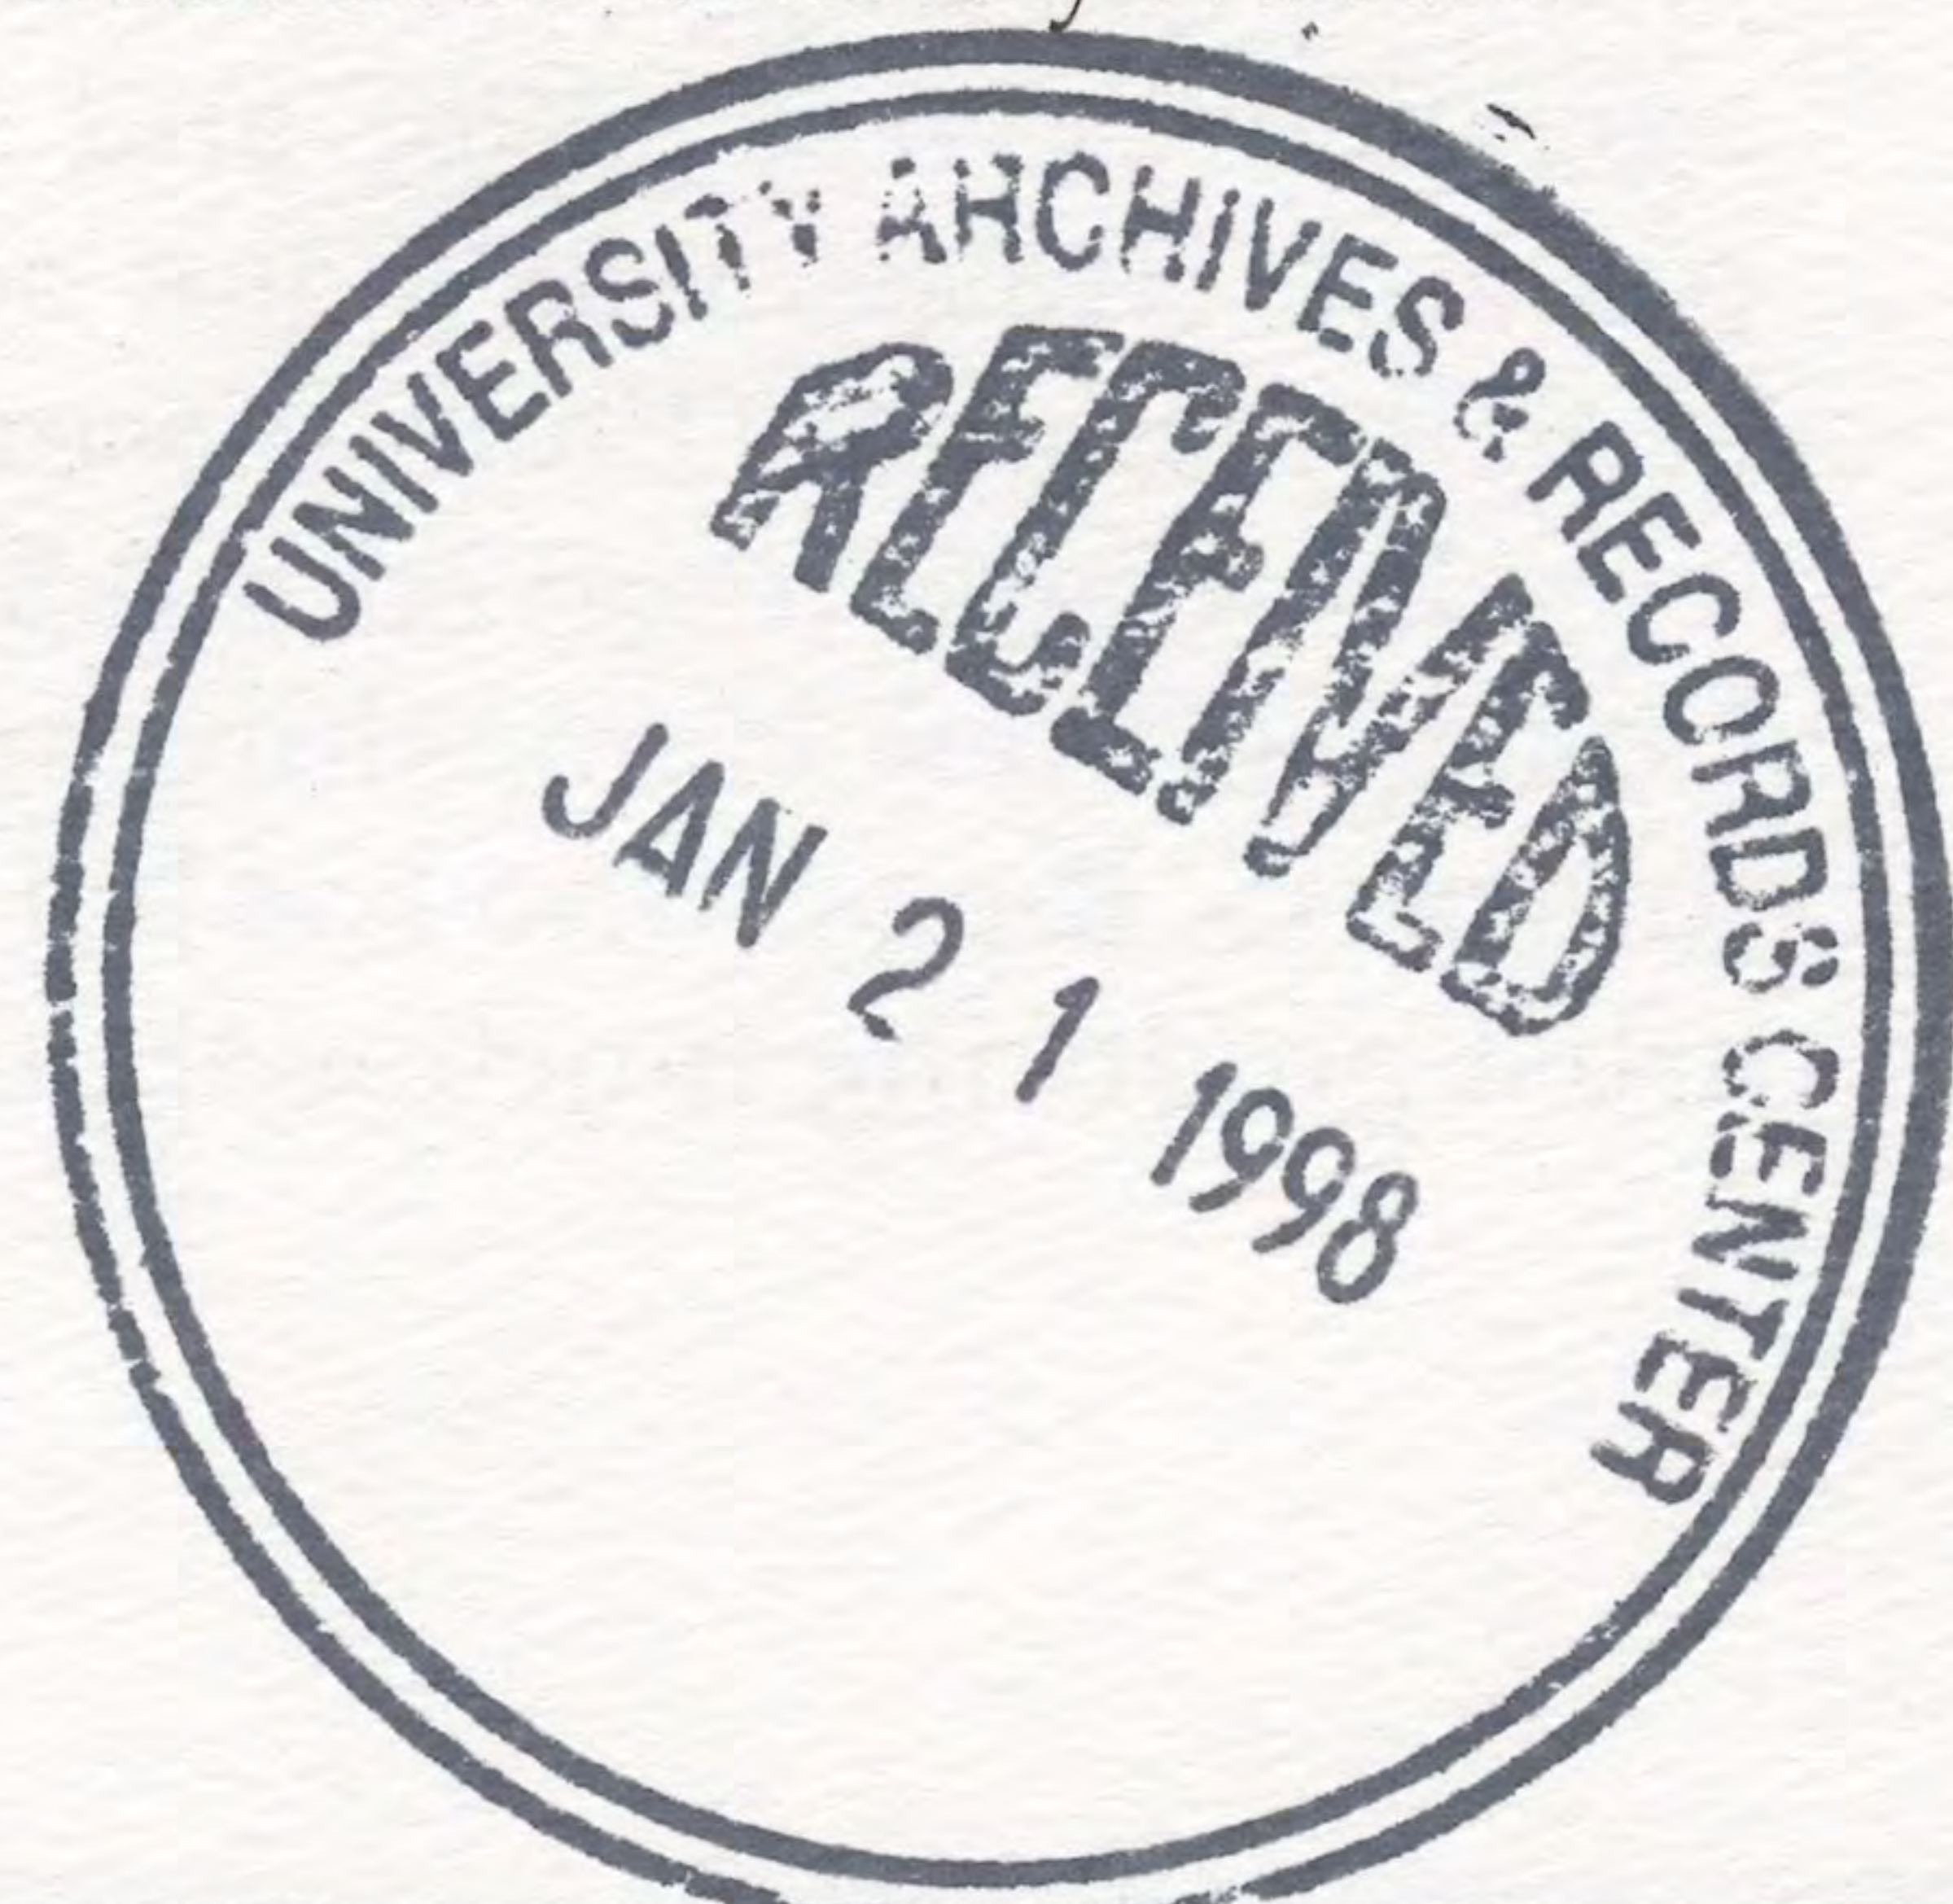

After attending McCallie School in Chattanooga, Tennessee and Davidson College in Davidson, North Carolina, he earned the BS degree in Commerce from The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1946. Along the way he served two and one half years in World War II with the 8th Air Force, 491st Bomber Group.

He married Carol Grotnes September 11, 1948, and they have four children: William Irwin Belk, Irene Grotnes Belk Miltimore, Marilyn Belk Wallis, and Carol Grotnes Belk.

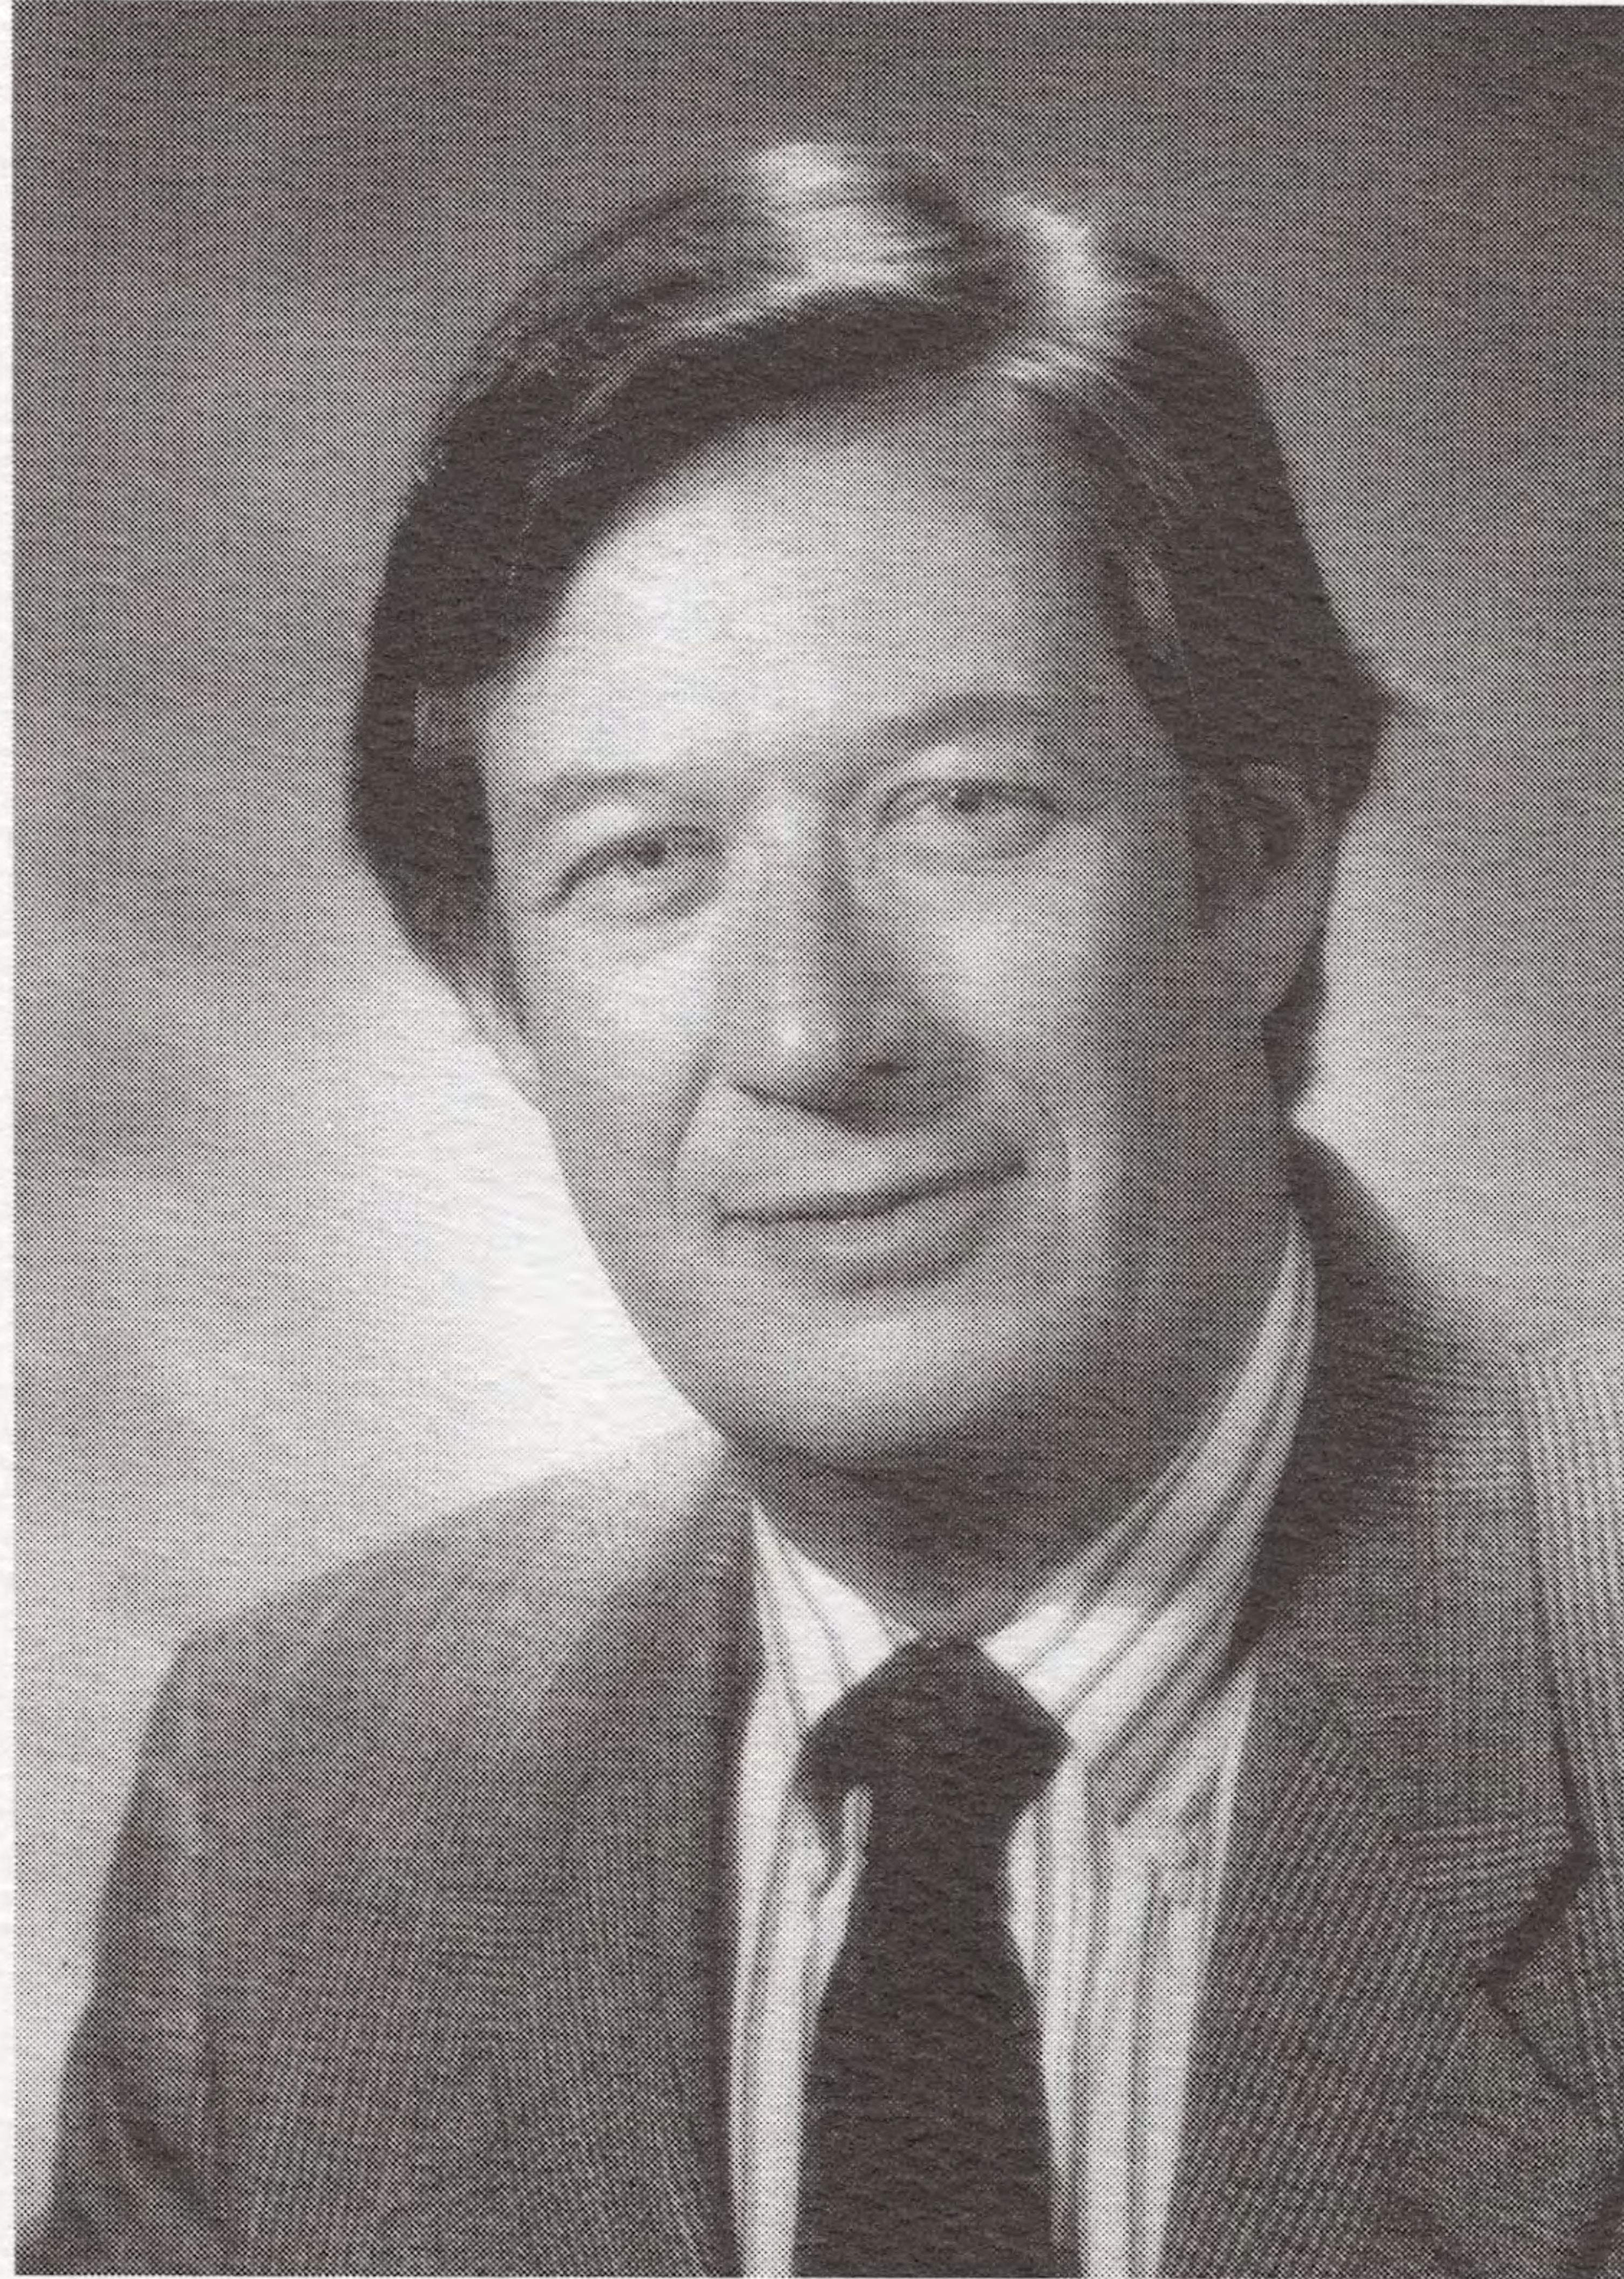

Among the many boards on which he has served are the Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina, the Board of Trustees of St. Andrews Presbyterian College in Laurinburg, North Carolina, and the Board of Advisors at Mars Hill College in Mars Hill, North Carolina. He has also served on the Board of Directors of the Business Foundation of North Carolina, The Educational Foundation of UNC-Chapel Hill, The North Carolina State University Design Foundation, the East Carolina University Foundation, and the North Carolina State College Foundation.

He has received Honorary Doctor of Humanities Degrees from Erskine College and from Elon College and the Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree from Missouri Valley College.

East Carolina University takes pride in awarding Irwin Belk the Honorary Doctor of Letters Degree.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Stanley R. Riggs, Professor of Geology, joined the East Carolina University faculty in 1967 as one of five faculty hired to develop a new program in Geology. In 1994 he was the first recipient of the lifetime honor of Distinguished Professor of the College of Arts and Sciences for "stellar achievements in teaching/advising, research/creative productivity, and professional service." In addition, he holds adjunct faculty positions of Professor at UNC-Chapel Hill and at North Carolina State University. During 1986, he was the Queen Elizabeth II Senior Research Fellow in Marine Science, Canberra, Australia and in 1989, Visiting Professor of Geology at the University of Louis Pasteur in Strasbourg, France.

In 1983 Dr. Riggs was the recipient of the prestigious Oliver Max Gardner Award from the UNC Board of Governors to the faculty member who has "made the greatest contribution to the welfare of the human race." This award was for his work in mineral resources around the world where "he helped to avert starvation for some and greatly improved the standard of living for many others" and coastal systems where "he has been trying to teach us to live sensibly with our beautiful but shifting coastline, a lesson we are slow to learn."

From 1984-88 Dr. Riggs was Co-Director of an international program on mineral resources sponsored by UNESCO and the International Union of Geological Sciences with participants representing 59 countries. This program organized, raised operating funds and implemented 29 international field workshops and 9 international training programs that involved geologists from 49 developing countries.

Dr. Riggs has 95 peer-reviewed publications and has obtained over 62 research grants valued at $3.7 million, mostly from the National Science Foundation, National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration, Environmental Protection Agency and various State agencies. Between 1967 and 1997, he participated in over 50 oceanographic and estuarine research cruises, was major advisor on 30 M.S. theses, and was a committee member on 45 M.S. theses and 9 Ph.D. dissertations.

Dr. Riggs received a B.S. from Beloit College in Wisconsin, an M.A. from Dartmouth College in New Hampshire, and a Ph.D. from the University of Montana. Dr. Riggs is married to Ann G. Riggs, who has her M.A. from the ECU School of Art and is a successful working artist producing functional pottery. They have two daughters and four grandchildren.

EAST CAROLINA UNIVERSITY MACE, LOGO, AND SEAL

The mace, a medieval weapon, has become through the centuries an insignia of university authority. In this instance it represents the continuity of the institutional governing body.

Some forty-three inches long and weighing approximately fourteen pounds, the East Carolina University mace is constructed of sterling silver. It features a unique purple fluorite crystal cluster contained within a gold-plated cage. The shaft of the mace has a hammered texture and is divided in the center by a pierced band. The pierced design is repeated at the mace boss (symbolic head) and terminus. The terminus is a representation of the historical weapon head which has diminished in size as the mace has changed from a weapon to a symbol. The same representation of symbolic use has increased the size and importance of the boss or mace head. The mace bears the inscription East Carolina University 1907.

This handsome mace was designed and executed by John Satterfield of the Design Department of the East Carolina University School of Art, who comments on the design concept: "In designing the East Carolina University mace I have attempted to maintain the visual integrity of a traditional mace and at the same time create a contemporary symbol which is unique to this institution."

The East Carolina University logo uses historic arches to unite the University's heritage and its future over the words East Carolina University. The logo, which will be used on all University publications and stationery, was adopted in 1989 after a year-long study by the Image Task Force to develop an integrated and consistent visual identity system for the University.

Old Austin, East Carolina's first auditorium, classroom, and office building, introduced arched doorways to the first entering class in 1909. The motif dominates Wright Auditorium and continues in the striking entrance to the General Classroom Building. The concept can also be seen throughout the campus in doorway and window treatments.

The logo is not a picture of a particular arch. Rather it is stylized to capture the University's contemporary and historic elements in order to suggest a timeless quality and the distinctive character of East Carolina University.

Arches have been used in architecture for centuries to symbolize buildings of prominence, stature, and dignity. Arches also suggest doorways or entryways. For East Carolina University, the arch suggests not only the academic stature and strength of the University but also the doorway to education that East Carolina has been and will continue to be for future generations of students.

The official East Carolina University seal is a six-cornered shield encased in a circular border containing the name, location, and founding date of the University. It appears on the diploma. The shield represents the "shield of trust," as was used in the Crusades.

The motto servire, meaning to serve, is emblazoned on the scroll. The blazing torch and the open Book of Knowledge symbolize education and the service rendered to the students by the University. The ink pot and quill, symbols of scribes, represent the creative arts and the contributions of the students to the world of business. The pirate is the school mascot.

The central motif of the design—a shield within the shield with Polaris, the guiding star, behind the two half globes that make up the world—expresses the idea that East Carolina University has the mission to educate graduates who will serve to the four corners of the world.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

*Oh! say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh! say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

— Francis Scott Key

ALMA MATER

*Praise to your name so fair,
dear old East Carolina
Your joys we'll all share,
and your friends we'll ever be.
We pledge our loyalty
and our heart's devotion
To thee, our alma mater, love and praise.*
