

Dear Red:

" Mr. Attorney Generall Noy was a great lawyer and a great humorist, There is a world of merry stories in him..... He caused the Breeches of a Bencher of Lincoln's Inne to be taken-in by a Tayler and made him believe that he had the dropsy."

From The Life and Times of John Aubrey Edited from The Original manuscripts and with an Introduction by ~~John~~ Oliver Lawson Dick, whom I talked with a couple of years ago here in New York, and who is one of the most charming young men I ever saw. But could your merry Doctor have ever ~~seen~~^{read} this yarn? I don't think Aubrey's mss. have ever been published before, certainly not this fragment. Yours etc.,
