

Chapter	Page
XXXI. HEALTH AND MEDICAL CARE—Continued
Fatigue and Health Impairment	627
Reconditioning	629
Separation	630
XXXII. TRAINING	631
WAC Training Centers	631
Basic Military Training Courses	634
Basic Technical Courses	640
Miscellaneous Courses	646
WAC Officer Candidate School	648
Intermediate Officers' School (IOS)	649
Leadership Courses for Enlisted Women	650
Testing Procedures	651
Evaluation of Effectiveness of Training	651
Closing of Training Centers	658
Attendance at Army Specialist Schools	660
Army Specialized Training Program (ASTP)	661
Continuation Training in the Field	661
Opposition of Personnel Officers	662
Physical Training for Field Units	664
Personnel vs. Training Needs	666
XXXIII. THE LEADERSHIP OF WOMEN	669
Capabilities of the Woman Leader	670
Efforts To Determine Qualities of Leadership	672
Sensitivity to Discipline	672
The Maternalistic Commander	673
Other Leadership Problems	674
Problems Peculiar to WAC Leaders	676
The One Essential Quality	677
Selection and Training of Leaders	680
The Army Commander as a Leader of Women Troops	681
XXXIV. RECRUITING AND PUBLICITY	684
Recruiting	684
"Fighting Men and Wacs"	685
Improvement of Recruiting Machinery	686
Diagnosis of Resistance to Enlistment	688
Remedial Action by The Adjutant General	692
Establishment of a Separate WAC Recruiting Service	694
Achievements of the WAC Recruiting Service	696
Last Days of WAC Recruiting	696
Public Relations Support	699
Establishment of the WAC Group	701
Support by Films and Stage Shows	705
Evaluation	708