The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society met on Saturday evening Dec. 14, 1912. The roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Misses Mary Moore and Eliza Branch who were not present at the last meeting and who had been elected as office holders on the meeting before, took their oath of office. Miss Mary Moore chairman of Portrait Committee reported to Society that the E.A. Poe Society had finished paying all but about $5.00 of their part on the Portraits of Gov. Jarvis and Mr. Ragsdale. It was decided that this should be taken from the Treasury. Many remarks of appreciation were made for what has been done for getting money to pay for our Portraits. Miss Lalla Pritchard made a move that the active workers for the success of the "Mikado" (our light opera) should be written to and thanked for their faithful service. The Secretary has written to the following: Miss Muffly Miss Hill, Miss Pugh, Miss Edna Campbell Miss Arleen Joyner, Miss Flint, Mrs. L. M. Savage and Mrs. Kate Beckwith.

As the business part of the meeting was ended the President turned the meeting over to the Chairman of the Programme Committee, Miss Alice Predlin who explained to the Society that this was strictly a "Poe" meeting. The following programme was rendered:
