Miss Angie Bollo
550 Summit Ave
Schenectady 7, N.Y.

Tuesday, January 9, 1945.
8:00 P.M.

Dear Frank,

What's up? I haven't heard from you for quite some time. How are you? Have you seen much of Ernie lately?

Gee, Frank, I sure was very glad to finally meet you. I think you're swell and I'm glad you're a friend of Ernie's & mine*. I do hope that the next leave you get - you'll stay to come, and spend more time here - but I suppose you'd rather stay with your folks. I don't blame you - I'd feel the same way if I was in the service. What did Ernie say to you when you got back & told him you were here?

Well Frank, I haven't any more to write about. So until I hear from you —

So long Frank,

God Bless You

As Ever,

"Angie"

P.S.

Give my love to Ernie.
Do write — I'll be glad to hear from you.

"Angie"