TERRY SANFORD
GOVERNOR

August 29, 1963

Dr. Leo Jenkins, President
East Carolina College
Greenville, North Carolina

Dear Leo:

As Governor of North Carolina, I want to congratulate you and your administration and all others who had a part in making this stadium possible.

From its modest beginnings, East Carolina College has grown in stature as it has grown in size. It has created for itself a position of dynamic leadership in higher education in North Carolina. It is an institution of which all North Carolinians can be proud, for it has played a vital part in the lives of many citizens of our State for the past fifty-six years.

We are all aware of the important role physical fitness plays in our lives and are indeed proud to have this fine new stadium to help carry out a well rounded program of physical fitness.

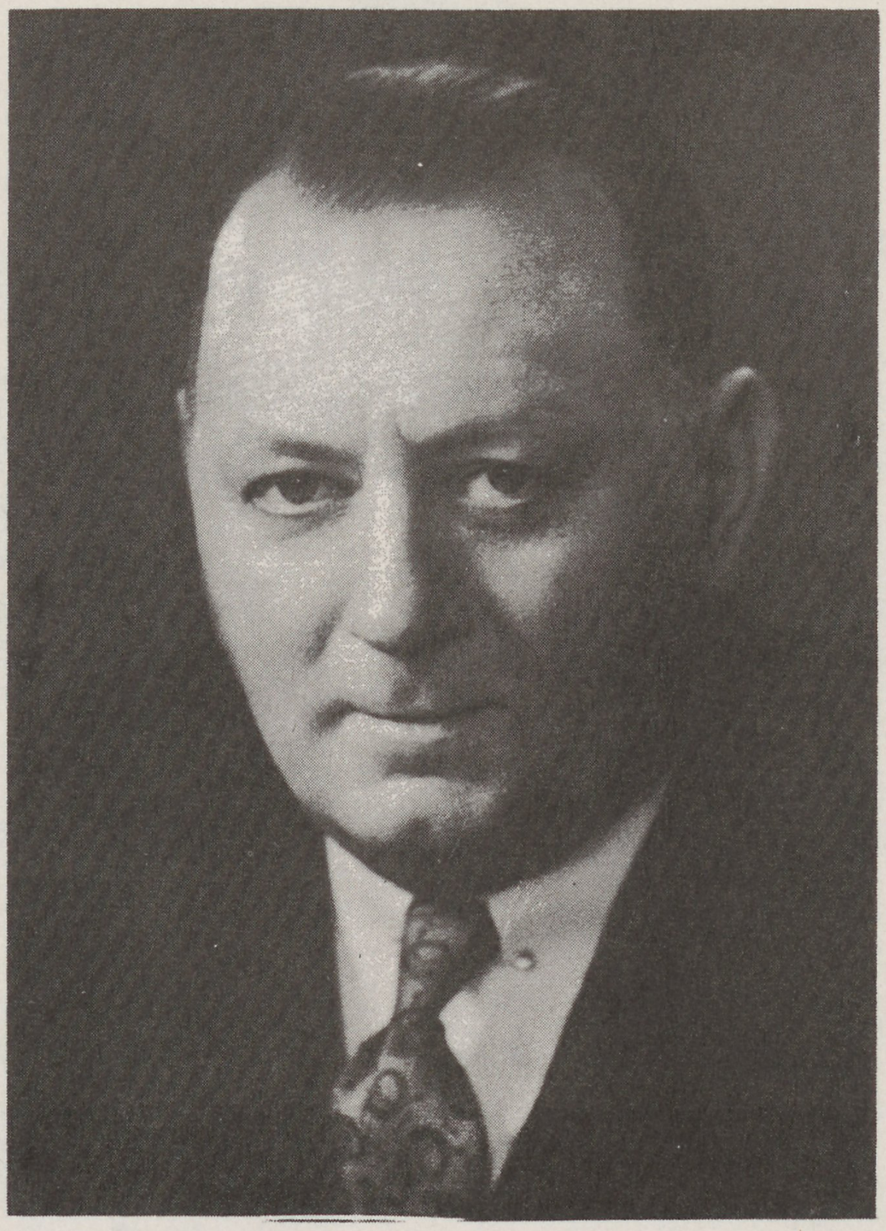

The energy and imagination which brought about this stadium are the very things which are making East Carolina College an institution to be reckoned with nationally. I congratulate you, your trustees, your faculty, your students, your alumni, and the citizens of Greenville on the vision and determination which are combining to make East Carolina College great.

With best wishes always,

Sincerely,

Terry Sanford

JAMES S. FICKLEN: The Stadium, The Man

James Skinner Ficklen Memorial Stadium stands as material evidence of two living facts. First, that the size, scope, and shape of East Carolina College ever broadens. Second, that the people of the surrounding community are actively lending vigorous support to the college as it strides ahead.

The stadium was added to the rapidly-growing physical plant of the college through the efforts of volunteers. Many donations from citizens of Greenville and Pitt County, from the college's staff, the Student Government, the students themselves, and from East Carolina alumni and friends financed the installation of the 16,000-seat facility. The stadium is valued at $350,000.

. . . A DREAM COME TRUE

Ficklen Stadium was nothing more than an idea, a dream, just two years ago. It was on the night of October 7, 1961, that East Carolina's president, Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, announced the launching of a fund-raising campaign at a meeting of the Society of Buccaneers, an alumni-booster organization. The result, President Jenkins told the Society, would be a 16,000-seat stadium to be located on the college's new South Campus. A dream had been unveiled and described. The next step, a vital one, was to make that dream come true. Then, through the dynamic leadership of W. M. Scales, Jr., Chairman of the Fund Raising Committee, this dream soon was on its way to becoming a reality.

Those among the crowd to attend the Pirates' first football game in the new stadium—a historic meeting between ECC and Wake Forest College—will remember the climax to the Ficklen Stadium dream . . . formal dedication of the stadium and its official acceptance by Governor Terry Sanford on behalf of the people of North Carolina, owners of the now-real dream.

The climax couldn't "just happen." There is a somewhat astounding story that helps to explain just whi the dream became a concrete-and-steel reality. It was early October of 1961 when the signal flag for stadium fund donation was hoisted Only weeks later, on December 4, President Jenkins made an announcement that srrprised even the most confident friends of the college. He reported that the stadium fund had grown to $260,000—already above the orginal goal of $200,000. The immediate success of the funds campaign was attributable to the spearheading efforts of an eight-man committee of Greenville businessmen: Chairman W. M. Scales, Jr.; Dr. E. B. Aycock; H. L. Hodges, Jr.; R. Wallace Howard; J. Con Lanier, Sr.; James T. Little; S. Reynolds May; and David J. Whichard, II. That eight-man committee, working with President Jenkins, led the drive upward to a total of $283,387 as the campaign reached its first anniversary.

. . . . A FITTING NAME

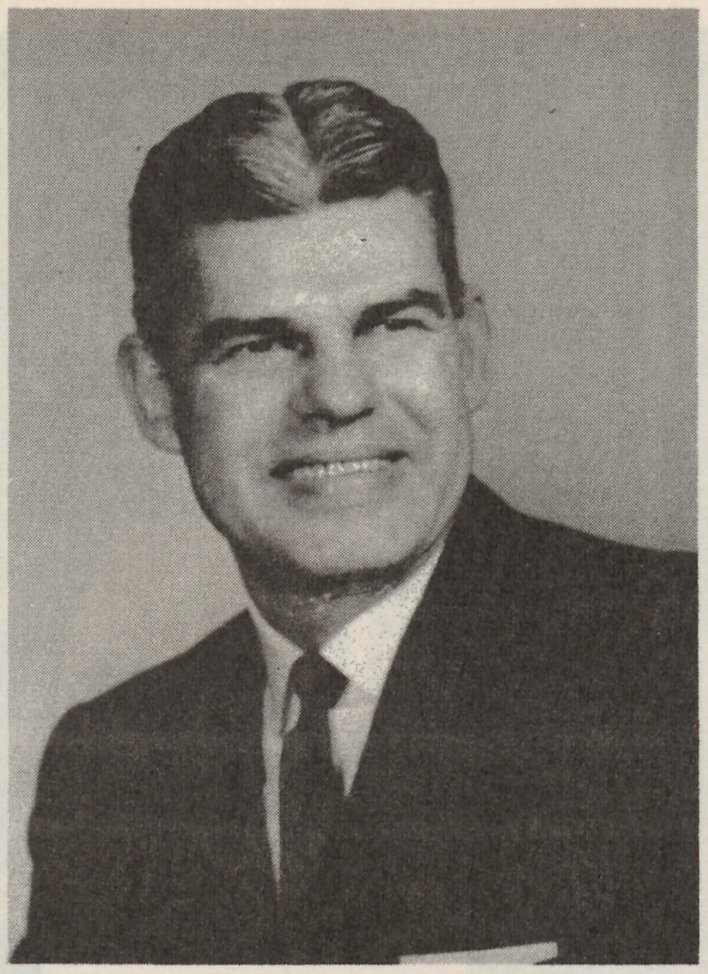

The energy and interest demonstrated by the committee and by those whose donations so quickly provided the needed funds found compatibility with the memory of the man for whom the stadium is named, the late James Skinner Ficklen. Mr. Ficklen died eight years ago at age fifty-five after a distinguished career as one of America's leading tobacconists and after a prominent role in the life of Greenville as one of its most admired and respected citizens. He distinguished himself and his home town by his service as president of the Tobacco Association of the United States and of the Leaf Tobacco Exporters Association. At the time of his death—September 17, 1955—Mr. Ficklen was President and Chairman of the Board of the E. B. Ficklen Tobacco Company of Greenville. He had held those offices continually since 1925. A graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Mr. Ficklen was an ardent supporter of the University and served for many years as a member of UNC's Board of Trustees. At the time of his death he was Chairman of that Board's Finance Committee. A close friend of East Carolina College, Mr. Ficklen in the early 1950's established the Ficklen Foundation which has, among other projects, sponsored scholarships for a number of students at East Carolina College. Surviving members of the late Mr. Ficklen's immediate family are his widow; one son, James Skinner Ficklen, Jr.; and one brother, Louis Stuart Ficklen. All are Greenville residents.

You'll be striking up a lasting friendship, too. You'll discover Robt. Burns Cigarillos are just different enough to provide a stimulating change of pace. Size it up. The Cigarillo is not so long you need a lunch hour to enjoy it. Not too long. Not too short. Just the right size. Just the right mildness, too. Cigarillo's fine blend of tobaccos sees to that. It's mild but full of flavor—the kind of flavor you don't have to inhale to enjoy. Change of pace. Peace of mind. Only 5¢ each. Remember, if it's not a Robt. Burns, it's not the Cigarillo.

Robt. Burns Cigarillos are on sale at this stadium.

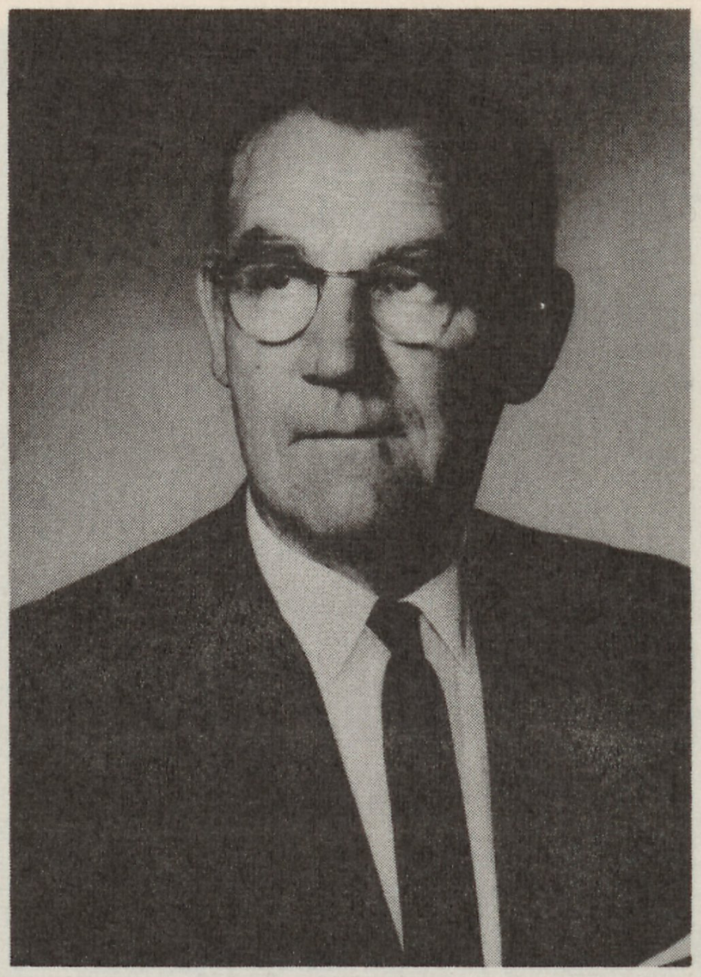

CLARENCE STASAVICH

Head Football Coach and Athletic Director

This fall Clarence Stasavich will field his second Pirate football squad. Stas came to East Carolina in January 1962 and last year his first football team posted a 5-4 record.

A native of Georgetown, Illinois—he was educated in the city schools of this small community. Being an outstanding high school football player he journeyed south to shop around for a college and ended up at Lenoir Rhyne College in Hickory. From then (1932) until a year ago—Clarence Stasavich became a very important part of the lives of the people of Catawba County. He was a star football and basketball player for the Bears where he earned the reputation of being one of North Carolina's all time great athletes.

DR. N. M. JORGENSEN

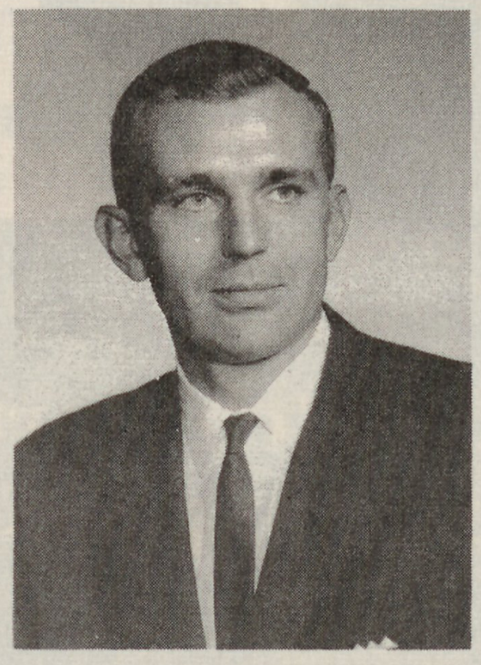

Head of the Department of Health and Physical Education at East Carolina since 1947. The tremendous growth of the Physical Education Department necessitated that Dr. Jorgenson give up his responsibility as Athletic Director July 1 and devote full time to the P. E. program.

While serving as Athletic Director for the past 16 years, intercollegiate athletics at East Carolina developed at a rapid pace. Through his guidance East Carolina now fields teams of top calibre in all sports.

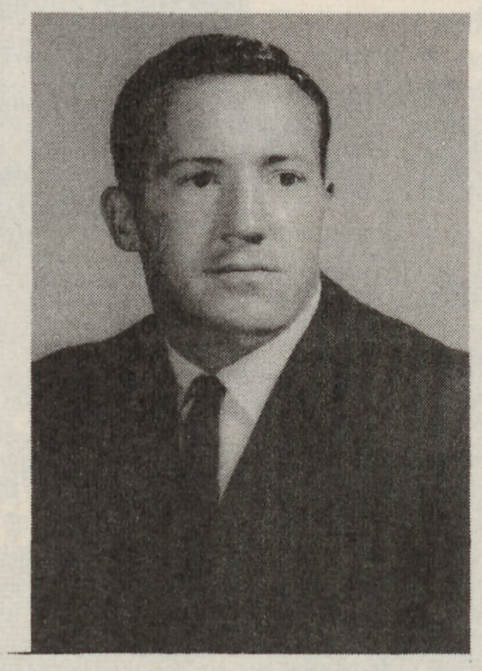

Dr. Jorgenson, a native of Rigby, Idaho, attended Utah State and received his M.A. from the University of Oregon. He earned his Ph.D. at the University of Iowa. He is married to the former Martha Green of Iowa and they have seven children: Larry, Lynn, Layne, Mark, Karen, Janice and Eva.

For Eastern Carolina

Sports lovers of the world, unite . . . let's all go Wildcat-ing!

Face it—if you're the rocking chair, watch-it-on-TV type, forget the wild, wild '64 Buick Wildcat. But if you like your action furious and first-hand, Wildcat is for you! You can bark your signals to a regular 325 hp V-8 formation, or really take to the air with a 340* or 360* hp passer. Three scat-back transmissions add to your fun: 3-speed synchromesh; 4-speed synchro stick shift on the floor*, or Buick's new trigger-quick Super Turbine 400 automatic* (very sparing with gas, too!). Four new models: 4-dr. hardtop; 2-dr. sport coupe; 4-dr. sedan; convertible. Give one a workout; see why we say . . .

TODAY'S GAME

Two of the Nation's Top—Small College Single Wing powers meet here at Ficklen Stadium this afternoon. The Lenoir Rhyne Bears Coached by Hanley Painter and The East Carolina Pirates by Clarence Stasavich will square off in what is billed to be a hard fought—rockem-sockem affair, so fasten your seat belts—you might get tackled in the stands.

The Bruins from Hickory carry a 4-3-0 record into today's contest, having won over Wofford, Presbyterian, Guilford and Western Carolina and dropping three to Newberry, Appalachian and Wittenburg University. But don't let the record fool you—since during the past three games Coach Painter's boys have found the right combination with Freshman Fullback Eric Vivian going full steam. So, coupled with their fine Tailback Craig Wardlaw they should be ready in full force—for today's game.

The Pirates are looking for their seventh straight. Their fourth without Coach Clarence Stasavich. Just last week they added No.6—as they overpowered a big, strong Citadel team—20-6. Coach Odel Welborn, who is subbing—for Stas, is doing a masterful job at the helm of the Pirate ship.

Last year—the Bucs lost to the Bears in Hickory in a close one—7-6, and will be giving everything they have to avenge this defeat in today's affair. Stas's Pirates have presented him the game ball after the last three victories. Stas is hoping (in absentia) that Captains Maurice Allen and Richard Huneycutt will drop by his house tonight with—another football.

W. M. "BOOGER" SCALES, JR.
Chairman Stadium Committee

W. M. Scales is the only person in Greenville to win the town's two top awards for civic work—the 1957 Distinguished Service Award of the Greenville Jaycees and the Exchange Club's 1961 Golden Deed Award. The DSA is based on a single year, The Golden Deed Award is for civic work done by the recipient.

In 1957, after winning the local DSA, "Booger" went on to win over 125 competitors—the Jaycees' State Distinguished Service Award. This is the highest award that the State Jaycees present to any individual, and it was the last time the State organization gave the award to a single individual. Since then, the award has been made regional and three are given each year.

It has been estimated that Mr. Scales has been instrumental in raising over a million dollars for civic and church activities in Greenville in the last ten years—by either Chairman, Co-Chairman or personally.

President Jenkins recently commented on the man whose name Ficklen Stadium bears: "He did much; he accomplished much; he helped many persons in many ways, not for reward, but because of his responsibility to his fellow man, his state, and his nation. It is with great humility that we dedicate this beautiful stadium to a great North Carolinian."

. . . FOR THE RECORD

The stadium was under construction within seven months after the kickoff date for the funds campaign. Ground was broken on May 3, 1962, by Mrs. James S. Ficklen, widow of the stadium's honoree. Mrs. Ficklen turned the first shovel of earth with the same spade used by the late Governor Thomas J. Jarvis in breaking ground for the first building on the East Carolina College campus on July 2, 1908.

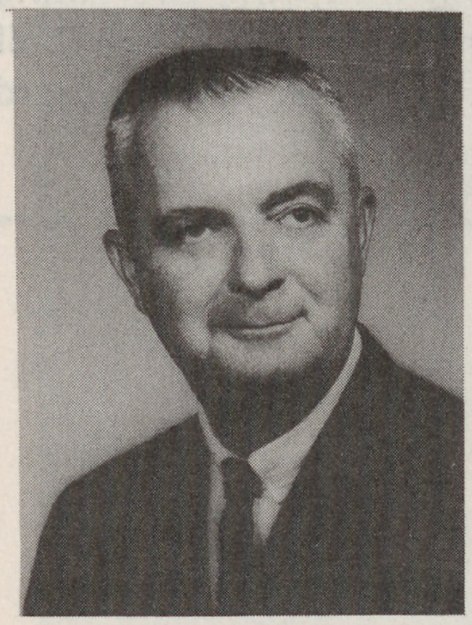

Ficklen Stadium is designed for eventual expansion, when necessary, to provide for a seating capacity up to 50,000. Plans in the immediate future call for installation of dressing rooms and other facilities beneath the present structure. The new concrete portion of the stadium measures approximately 280 feet in length; the highest of its fifty-eight rows of seats is sixty feet above ground level. Ficklen's 60-foot-long press box hoists sportswriters and cameramen some seventy-five feet above the playing field. Mounted on seventy-seven steel "legs," the pre-cast concrete stands are estimated to weigh about 3,000 tons. The structure is supported on the necessary pilings to assure firm footing. In the west end of the stadium stands a modern scoreboard equipped with a haughty Pirate who fires his pistol with each East Carolina touchdown. This magnificent scoreboard was a gift of the John F. Minges Family of Greenville.

. . . BUT MORE THAN FOOTBALL

In future years, the Pirates' first football game in Ficklen Stadium will be reviewed as a milestone in East Carolina gridiron warfare. But the dedicatory game with Wake Forest also promises to mark the beginning of other far-reaching programs destined for Ficklen Stadium. East Carolina has recently moved from membership in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) to affiliation with the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). That move broadens the scope of ECC's fast-developing athletic program. Meanwhile, the academic side of East Carolina College is swiftly moving from a traditional public image as a teacher-training institution toward popular status as an all-purpose liberal arts college. Ficklen Stadium figures into this transition. It is to serve as the home of the football Pirates. But it will double as an arena for various types of programs, including Broadway-type theater, which reflect a liberal arts atmosphere and which promise to attract audiences too large for indoor auditoriums in the area.

The stadium's accessories include a portable stage, purchased with proceeds from the "Paper Penny" project—an offer by Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company to contribute one penny for each empty pack of its cigarette brands collected by the college. William A. Blount of Durham, former L&M President, current member of East Carolina College's Board of Trustees, and a brother-in-law of the late Mr. Ficklen, was instrumental in arranging for the "Paper Penny" campaign that netted about $10,300.

PREVIEW — 1963

The East Carolina Pirates, their second season under the tutorship of Coach Clarence Stasavich, could be a little stronger (depthwise) due to the addition of several capable sophomores to the second and third units. In fact, two or three of these men may be called on to start—but as the old story goes, sophs make costly mistakes during the first of the schedule. So, if the machine is to function properly, it will be by mid fall.

Schedule—will be one of the strongest in the history of East Carolina Football. The addition of Big Four member, Wake Forest and The Citadel Bulldogs of the Southern Conference charts a course of tough sledding for the Buccaneers. Presbyterian replaces Catawba and Tampa University steps in for Eastern Kentucky—with both of these games being a "Frying pan into the fire situation." Richmond, Elon and Western Carolina will be improved and the Lenoir Rhyne Bears will have the strongest line in their history—therefore we arrive at this definite conclusion—the only breathers the Pirates have are the two open dates.

Lettermen—Eighteen will be back but it must be remembered that only eleven of these men are seasoned for more than one year. Too, several are specialists and are not capable of playing both offense and defense. Counted on to carry a heavy load will be veterans Ted Day, Maurice Allen, Dave Bumgarner, Tom Michel, Bill Cline, Frankie Galloway, Jerry Tolley and Colon Quinn. Tailback Cline, who made honorable mention Associated Press and Williamson All American teams should be a strong candidate for first team honors this year.

Sophomores—Twenty-seven men with twenty-five of them playing in the three freshman games last fall. Will Siler, a transfer from Duke, looked great during winter drills and the Buc coaches expect this boy to become a fine linebacker before the 63 battles are over. Buddy Bovender, voted last fall's outstanding freshman, will help to make the tailback post the strongest position on the roster. Many of the sophs will have to come through to fill the gaps left on the three varsity units.

Losses—Included Captain Center Dave Smith, Guard Earl Sweet and Tackle Mickey Brown. All of these shoes must be filled with inexperienced sophomores.

The Backfield—The first unit being intact with Cline, Michel, Tolley and Allen. Tailback Bill Cline will me the only veteran at this post but great things are expected from Sophomore Buddy Bovender who will spell Cline. Wingbacks Larry Rudisill and Rickey Jarrell will help Tolley but Michel and Allen will have to depend on the sophomore flower to blossom.

The Line—Three experienced ends—Dave Bumgarner, Frankie Galloway and Richard Honeycutt; two good tackles—Colon Quinn and Skipper Duke; one outstanding guard in the personage of Ted Day plus Ralph Royster and Phil Harris who are still developing, but void of letterman at the Center position. Again—the sophs must come through.

Offense—as always—The Stasavich Single Wing.

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE 1962-1963

Stasavich received his A.B. Degree from L. R. in '35 and his M.A. from U. N. C. in '47. His first coaching job was at Campbell College where he stayed for three years before being tagged by Pat Shores to return to his alma mater as assistant coach. He acted in this capacity for four years and then came the war. Stasavich enlisted in the Navy and rose to the rank of Lt. Commander. He saw action in both theaters as the skipper of an LST.

In 1946 he was appointed head football coach at Lenoir Rhyne and during his fifteen years at the helm his teams registered a 120-36-7 record. A serious illness today which may require special treatment can cost far more than you can afford to spend. The family man who wants to be sure of the best medical care for his loved ones, must rely on insurance especially designed to meet this current need.

You have your choice of such plans with Metropolitan. I'd be glad to talk them over with you. No obligation, except to your family.

Three ways to quarterback the most important drive of the day —your drive home

1. Don't buck the line of traffic, stay in it. Fancy open field running doesn't pay on the highway.
2. When dusk falls and your visibility is limited, slow down and turn on your lights. What you can't see can hurt you.
3. Don't try to beat the clock by speeding. Remember, when time runs out on the highway, everybody loses.
