Walking The Plank

By: John Hendrix

The Pirates go up against another potent passing attack today with the invasion by Furman's Purple Paladins.

Furman brings an aerial combination that consists of Clyde Hewell and Robbie Hahn with visions of two years ago when they sprang the upset trap on the Pirates to spoil a perfect season.

East Carolina, smarting under last week's 21-19 setback at the hands of The Citadel, goes into the game probably in the best physical condition of the year.

Several players came out of The Citadel game with bumps and bruises, but none were so hampered they'll miss today's action.

Offensively, the Pirates had another outstanding game against The Citadel, winning every department except the most important one of all. . . the score.

Neal Hughes picked up more than 200 yards on total offense for the third straight game, running his season's total to 1,041. And Butch Colson had his finest game of the season, rushing for 153 yards in 34 carries and scoring three touchdowns.

Colson now has 743 yards for the season with 10 touchdowns and is less than 300 yards away from the single season rushing record of 1,025 yards held by Dave Alexander and posted in 1965.

Colson has been averaging over 100 yards per game for the season and his top effort last week came despite the fact he had been hobbled off and on for three weeks with a pulled thigh muscle.

As a team, the Pirates completely dominated the statistics against The Citadel and controlled the ball on 89 plays to The Citadel's 52. In total offense, the Pirates picked up 423 yards to 246 for the Cadets.

"The Citadel was able to come up with the big play and we weren't" said Coach Clarence Stasavich.

Coach Harold Bullard, who scouted the Paladins last week against Lehigh, says Hahn and Hewell will be the big offensive threats, but that fullback Joe Street had his best night of the season.

"We were impressed with their pass offensive and the running of their fullback against Lehigh" Bullard said. "They dominated the game and controlled the ball."

Furman's victory last week broke a two-game losing streak and brought the Paladin season record to 4-3.

The Pirates, now 6-1, have three more games to play including tonight's encounter. Next week it will be West Texas at home and then on Nov. 18 East Carolina closes out the season at Marshall.

Tonight high school seniors from Eastern North Carolina are guests of the athletic department.

ADMIRAL OF THE FLEET

CLARENCE STASAVICH

Clarence Stasavich, one of the nation's leading single-wing coaches, begins his sixth year as head skipper of the Pirates.

Last year his Bucs, though winning a share of the Southern Conference crown, ended up with a meager 4-5-1 season, a rather poor one compared with his teams of the past.

But enthusiasm is running high in the Pirate camp after highly successful spring drills.

Born in the "Land of Lincoln," Stas is a native of Georgetown, Illinois. The citizens of this northwestern Illinois town gave him a "hero's welcome during the Pirates' visit to Southern Illinois last fall. Just before the Pirates left the dressing room to return to the field prior to the start of the second half of the Buc-Saluki game, a Georgetown delegation presented Stasavich with a handsome plaque in commemoration of his first visit to the home soil with one of his teams.

Stasavich's overall record to date is 156-48-8, and his ECC slate for five years reads 36-12-1.

He received his A.B. degree from Lenoir Rhyne College, Hickory, N.C. in 1935 and his M.A. from the University of North Carolina in 1947.

While attending Lenoir Rhyne, he was an outstanding athlete in all sports with his greatest athletic skills displayed on the gridiron. In 1933 and 1934, he was named to the Charlotte Observer's "Flaming Five," which honored the top five athletes in North and South Carolina.

Stas entered the coaching profession at Campbell College in 1935; then he returned to his Alma Mater Lenoir Rhyne, 1938-42.

In 1942, he was called to active duty with the Navy where he served as a commanding officer of a LST in both theaters of war. After his discharge in 1946, he returned to coach the L.R. Bears and remained at the helm until joining the Pirate ship in 1962.

While at Lenoir Rhyne, his football team won nine conference championships; and won the National NAIA Championship in 1960.

Honors which have been bestowed upon the Pirates' admiral would reach from goal to goal. Some of these include American Football Association, College Coach of the Year, 1964; NAIA Coach of the Year, 1959; District Coach of the Year, 1960, 1961, 1963, 1964 and 1965; Helm's Hall of Fame, 1960.

Stasavich has appeared as lecturer at many National Coaching Clinics and has authored many articles on "Single-Wing Football."

Since hanging up his hat at East Carolina, his teams have won three bowl games; and last year, garnered a share of the Southern Conference title.

Stas is an Elder and Sunday School teacher in the First Presbyterian Church, Greenville. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Cerebral Palsy Hospital; and the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame. He is listed in Who's Who in the Southeast and was 1966-67 chairman of the Christmas Seals campaign for the Tuberculois Association.

He is married to the former Helen Warlick of Hickory, and they have three children, Rebecca, Mary Helen and Walter.

Odell has been on the Pirate football staff longer than any other Coach, coming to ECC in 1959. "Odey", as he is affectionately called by his working partners, is a native of Thomasville, North Carolina and a graduate of Elon College, class of 1956. He received his M.A. from UNC in 1958. During his undergraduate career, he played football as a tackle and end. While in the Air Force, he played and coached a Service team during 1951-1954.

Welborn's chief assignment with the Pirates is tutoring the line and is the "defensive line coach." During Coach Stasavich's illness in 1963, Odell took over the reins as head coach, taking the Bucs through their remaining six games without a loss.

He is married to the former Rachel Poole of Thomasville, and they have two children, Jane Bennett, 6 and David, 2½.

His chief pastime is duck hunting.

Bob joined the Pirate coaching staff during the fall of 1962, coming to East Carolina from Albemarle High School where he served as "top man" from 1959-61.

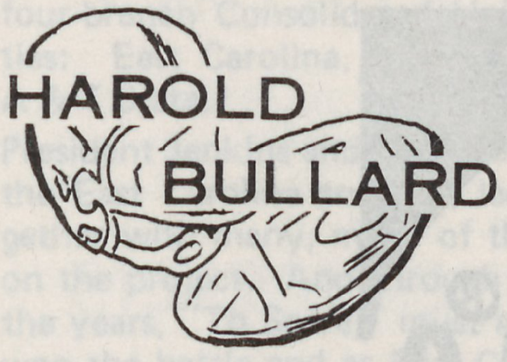

"Goo-Goo", so nicknamed since his starring days in the UNC backfield during 1949, 50, and 51, is recognized by his coaching fellows as a master-mind of the football arts.

Gantt received two degrees from the University of North Carolina, his A.B. in 1952 and his M.A. in 1957.

From 1952 through 1955, Bob served as an officer in the USMC. He was discharged with the rank of captain.

Mrs. Gantt is the former Christine Williamson of Rock Ridge, North Carolina. They are the parents of three, Lynn 9, Janet 7, and Bobby 5.

His chief pastime is studying football.

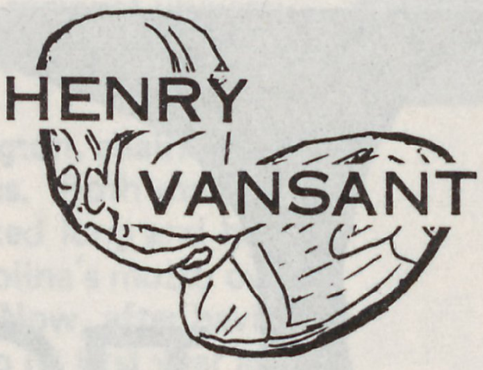

Harold Bullard was an All American star for Coach Stas at Lenoir Rhyne during 1955, 56, and 57; and has been a part of the Stasavich team for many years. Hence it is easy to see why Stas tapped "The Bull" so nicknamed by the press during his playing days as a fullback, to be on his coaching staff at East Carolina.

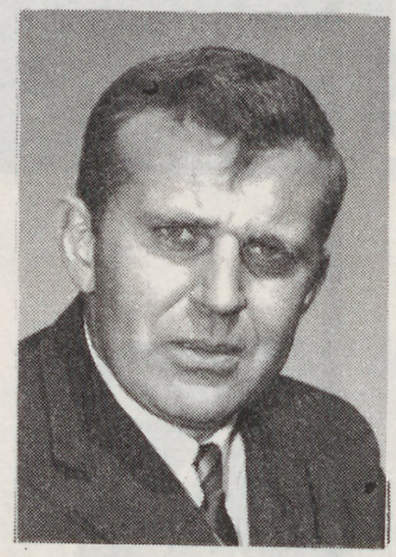

Bullard reported to the Pirate ship as a graduate assistant in 1962 and was appointed end coach in 1963 immediately after receiving his M.A. at ECC.

Prior to coming to East Carolina, he was coach at Camden Military Academy, Camden, South Carolina from 1958-1961.

He is married to the former Margie Virginia Miller of Salisbury, and they have two children, Harold, Jr. 7 and Jill Harris 3.

His chief pastime is vegetable gardening.

Henry Vansant, who has been freshman coach since joining the ECC staff in 1962, has moved up to the Varsity this year as offensive line coach.

During his five years as "Baby Buc" Coach, "The Saint" had an outstanding record and only last year his freshman team garnered an undefeated season with a sparkling 5-0 mark.

A native of Virginia, Henry was a star footballer at ECC and received his B.A. and M.A. degrees here in 1961. He served three years with the 82nd Airborne Division and coached one year at Hopewell, Virginia before coming to the Pirates' staff.

Henry is married to the former Ragnhilde MacDonald of Fayetteville, and they have two sons, Charles 7 and John 2.

Henry's chief pastime is studying football.

Henry B. Howard
Director of Public Relations
East Carolina University

East Carolina University, elevated from college to university status by the state legislature last summer, has entered a new and exciting phase of its history. This institution was created by the General Assembly in 1907. Its original name was East Carolina Teachers Training School. By 1921 the legislature saw fit to upgrade the institution and to change its name to East Carolina Teachers College. As times changed and demands placed on East Carolina became larger and broader, the legislature changed the name again in 1951, this time to East Carolina College.

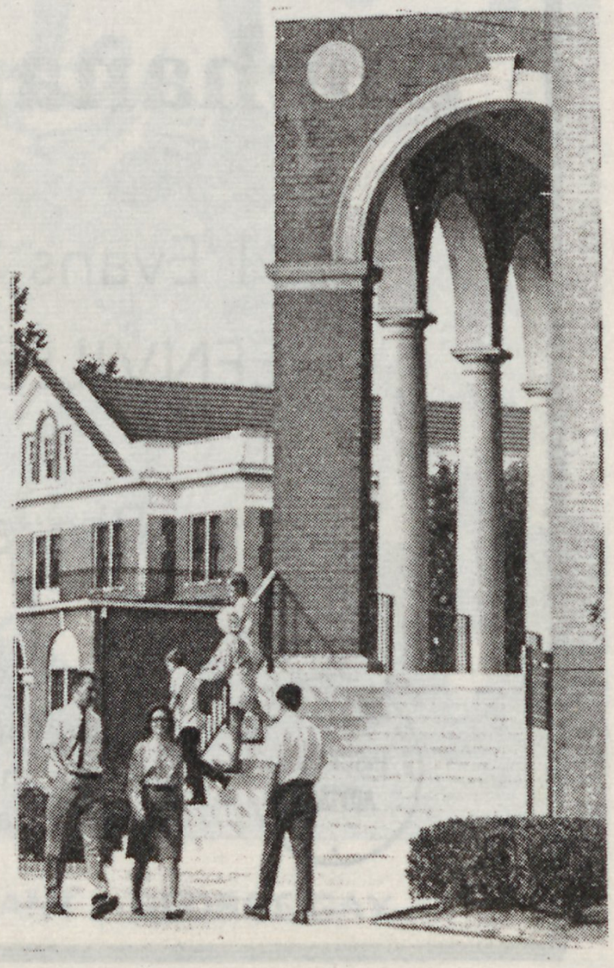

During the 1950's and early 1960's the institution sought in earnest to carry out its motto: "To Serve" More and more Eastern North Carolina young people found that, with honest effort, a college education was within their reach. The result was larger and larger enrollments, and greater opportunities for service by the institution to its state and region.

In 1960 when Dr. Leo W. Jenkins took office as president the institution's growth and development took on a new vitality. There was new emphasis on building the very best academic quality possible. There was new encouragement of athletics, the arts, involvement with the people of the region. The people, and their representatives in the General Assembly, responded to this new surge forward. State appropriations reached new heights, enabling East Carolina to build and develop at an unprecedented pace. As early as May 1961, Governor Terry Sanford could describe East Carolina as "the fastest-growing institution of higher learning in North Carolina" as he addressed the graduating seniors here.

Then in November of 1965 President Jenkins set forth the proposal that East Carolina was ready to be advanced to university status. Much discussion, including a great deal of heated, often bitter, controversy, characterized the North Carolina higher education picture for the next 18 months. The issue was resolved last June 29 as the General Assembly enacted a bill which created, outside the four-branch Consolidated University of North Carolina, four regional universities: East Carolina, Western Carolina, Appalachian State and North Carolina A & T State.

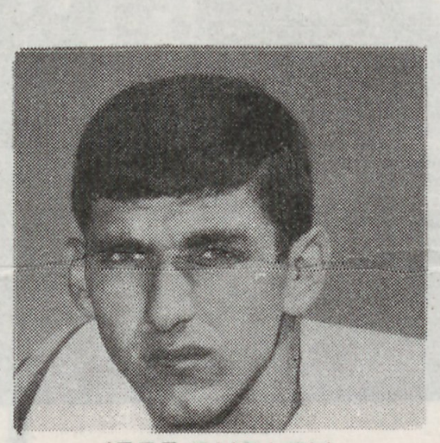

President Jenkins and State Senator Robert B. Morgan of Lillington, chairman of the East Carolina trustees, led the effort for university status. Both men, together with many, many of their colleagues and friends, worked long and hard on the project. And through it all they insisted that East Carolina's motto over the years, "To Serve," must remain of supreme importance. Now, after having won the battle and as East Carolina University has moved into its first year as a university, President Jenkins and Senator Morgan are as vocal as ever about East Carolina's ambitions of service to North Carolina, especially Eastern North Carolina, and mankind in general.

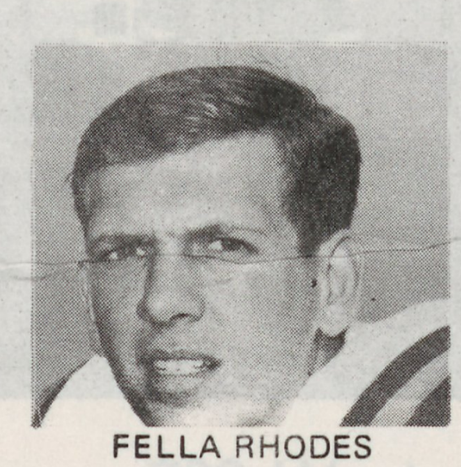

Senator Morgan, as he addressed the faculty here on September 5, said that he welcomes the new challenge of being a university. "From now on," he said, "we will be reckoned with as East Carolina University, the most dynamic institution of higher learning in North Carolina." He said he intends to give full support to the university's efforts to carry out three new missions authorized by the General Assembly: "to prepare now for full-fledged doctoral programs to be offered in the future; to extend our influence and usefulness to the people of North Carolina, and especially the people of Eastern North Carolina; and to increase our ability to carry out and enlarge our stated responsibilities."

President Jenkins pledges that East Carolina "will be a modern university in every sense of the word. We have every intention of broadening our two-way street of communication with the people. And we intend to develop every phase of our program in keeping with the needs of the people. This university will continue in the years ahead as a focal point for the development of Eastern North Carolina. At the same time we will continue to reach out to serve all North Carolinians and society at large."

AL GLASS: Senior, 21, 195, 6-1, Hopewell, Va. [1 year letterman] – High School: Hopewell – He has been shifted from center linebacker where he lettered last fall; potentially the top zero man at Right Guard .. hard nosed.

HAROLD GLAETTLI: Senior, 22, 197, 6-1, Catlette, Va. [1 year letterman] – High School: Cedar-Lee – Did not play last year but is back this fall at his middle linebacking job; expecting to make it tough for the ball carriers down the middle from the start of the first whistle. All-Southern and possible pro-prospect and as tough as they come, a savage tackler, agile and aggressive.

VAN HESTER: Junior, 20, 192, 5-11, Burlington, N.C. – High School: Williams High – Could develop into the No. 2 snapper this year with hard work on blocking; will gain some experience as season progresses.

JAMIE LOUIS: Sophomore, 19, 5-10, Blacksburg, Va. – High School: Blacksburg High School – Played tackle for the freshmen last year but was switched to center during spring drills. Quick and aggressive and could see some duty at this spot as a reserve at least by mid-season.

JIMMY SHUFFLER: Senior, 22, 181, 6-0, New Bern, N.C. – High School: New Bern Senior High – Jim Played behind Captain Johnny Crew last year. He took over his chores like a veteran during spring drills ... steady and dependable.

WILLIAM TUCKER: Soph., 19, 193, 6-4, Albemarle, N.C. – High School: Albemarle Senior High – Starting offensive center of the undefeated '66 frosh team ... a tough and highly aggressive football player. He is predicted to work his way up to the top of the depth chart soon.

PAUL WEATHERSBEE: Soph., 19, 179, 6-0, Norwood, N.C. – High School: South Stanley – Could see first string duty right from the start since he showed up well during the spring drills and Purple-Gold game, hard nosed and hits like a pro; classified by his coaches as a hard-nosed football player.

GUARDS

BERNIE BRAAK: Soph., 20, 213, 6-1, Castle Hayne, N.C. – High School: New Hanover, Wilmington, N.C.– Good hitter ... strong lad with good potential to become a fine football player but needs additional work.

BEN GRIEB: Junior, 21, 195, 6-0, Alexandria, Va. [1 year letterman] – High School: Fort Hunt – Earned his wings at offensive left guard last year and is tough enough to keep this spot as a starter this fall. He has great ability as a blocker, and with it a real scrapper.

PAUL HUTCHINS: Senior, 21, 219, 5-10, Gibsonia, Penn. [1 year letterman] – High School: Richland – A fine defensive man who is pretty well assured of the starting LG spot. This guard who is powerful and steady should play in every game this fall.

STUART LANEY: Soph., 18, 196, 6-1, Wilmington, N.C. – High School: New Hanover – Has fine potential and should see action as a frequent reserve this fall. Quick and aggressive.

WAYNE LINEBERRY: Junior 20, 222, 6-3, Wadesboro N.C. [1 year letterman] – High School: Wadesboro High – Lettered as linebacker last year but really found himself at defensive right guard during spring drills. fast, big, and tough. Things point to a great year for Wayne. He's already a pro-prospect.

RICHARD MARRONCELLI: Soph., 219, 6-11, Rillton, Pa. – Big, burley lineman with lots of promise. Could get in a lot of reserve action if he works hard to develop his charge.

KEVIN MORAN: Senior, 20, 240, 6-0, Manchester, N.H. [2 year letterman] – High School: Bishop Bradley – All Southern, All State, Honorable Mention AP-AA 1966, who played mainly defense last year but was shifted to offense for this fall's campaign. He is one of the finest blockers on the team, and won the outstanding freshman trophy his first year; a Pro-prospect and AA Candidate this year.

GUARDS CONTINUED

MIKE MURRAY: Soph., 19, 185, 5-11, Reading, Pa. – High School: Muttlenberg Township High – Mike came out during spring drills and proved to have exceptional ability. He is tough and aggressive and could play a lot after seasoning.

DON TYSON: Soph., 20, 227, 6-0, Fayetteville, N.C. – High School: Massey Hill – He is extremely quick and agile for a big man and capable of starting and playing either way. Being top football talent, he should easily earn his letter this fall. He might do some of the kicking.

JEFF WAYNE: Junior, 158, 6-3, Charlotte, N.C. – Tall, rangy, with plenty of desire. Could play as a reserve if the Pirates get to winning.

TACKLES

PHIL BILODEAU: Soph., 18, 190, 6-1, Manchester, N.H. – High School: Bishop Bradley – A fighter who made the All State freshman team last year and should develop as the season rolls along.

DAVID HAMILTON: Junior, 20, 198, 5-11, Orlando, Florida – High School: Edgewater – Though hampered by injuries last year and did not get a real chance to develop, he came on strong during spring drills and should be in high gear by game time. A fine talented lineman.

BILL PRINCE: Senior, 21, 208, 5-10, Exmore, Virginia [3 year letterman] – High School: Northampton – Prince is a strong offensive LT who started last year on the third squad but by mid season was playing with the first unit. He is a good team man who works hard at his football chores.

JOHN SCHWARZ: Senior, 20, 196, 6-0, Asheboro, N.C. [2 year letterman] – High School: Asheboro Senior High – Started at offensive right guard for past two years. . . a first rate blocker and tough competitor. This great team man will definitely be in the thick of the Pirate wars this fall.

WORTH SPRINGS: Junior, 20, 191, 5-10, Charlotte, N.C. – High School: West Mecklenburg – A fine blocker and very aggressive. He could start at the offensive LT spot. He has made outstanding progress during spring drills; and though he was not eligible last year, his status is OK for this fall.

RONALD VINCENT: Junior, 20, 178, 5-10, Greenville, N.C. – High School: J. H. Rose – Played as a reserve last year, made fine progress and showed marked improvement during spring drills.

GEORGE WHEELER: Soph., 19, 223, 6-0, Buena Vista, Virginia – High School: Parry McCluer – Big, strong, tough! As the season progresses he could develop into an outstanding defensive tackle. Played well as a freshman.

DANNY WILMER: Soph., 20, 195, 6-3, Buena Vista, Virginia – High School: Parry McCluer – He had an outstanding freshman year at defensive end; switched during spring drills to a defensive tackle. Real hitter! More than likely will be a first stringer.

ENDS

JIMMY ADKINS: Junior, 21, 178, 6-1, Kinston, N.C. [1 year letterman] – High School: Grainger High – Because of fine speed and agility, he can get the long or short throw. ROGER BOST: Sophomore, 19, 193, 6-1, Statesville, N.C. – High School: Statesville Senior High – Bost, voted outstanding freshman player last year by his team mates, should see a lot of action at defensive RE. He is a hard worker and an excellent student who is quick and tough.

CHARLES SWANNER: Soph., 19, 190, 6-2, Edenton, N.C. – High School: John A. Holmes – Swanner played well during spring game. He is inexperienced but shows a lot of promise. He must improve blocking.

JOE TESTO: Senior 21, 182, 5-9, Winston Salem, N.C. [2 year letterman] – High School: R.J. Reynolds – He was shifted to defensive RE during spring drills and looks as if he has the lid nailed here. JOHN THOMAS WILLIAMS: Soph., 19, 175, 6-2, Rocky Mount, N.C. – High School: Rocky Mount Senior High – Williams is a hard worker who hits well. He played rover for the freshmen last year, but was switched to defensive RE this spring.

BOB WITHROW: Junior, 20, 177, 6-2, Dayton, Ohio [1 year letterman] – High School: Fairmont West – Good hands. He has a good cut into all patterns and very effective in taking care of the quickies and short yardage stuff. Will be in the thick of battle this fall. 1966 Stats.: CGT 18, YDS 272, TD 0.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

MIKE BOAZ: Soph., 19, 159, 5-9, Fairmont, N.C. – High School: Fairmont High – A really talented defensive man who covers the secondary well, a real fighter who will be counted on heavily to do first duty HB assignments. BILL COTHREN: Junior, 20, 5-11, Statesville, N.C. [1 year letterman] – High School: Statesville Senior High – Cothren earned his letter last year as a rover back and should play a lot this year at the same spot. He has some experience as a blocking back and could add depth

DWIGHT FLANAGAN: Soph., 19, 167, 5-10, Edenton, N.C. – High School: John A. Holmes – Could be the man to fill Bob Ellis' shoes at Safety ... real speedster who is capable of playing both ways. DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

DR. N. M. JORGENSEN
DIRECTOR DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Dr. Jorgensen, who served as Athletic Director for 16 years, was highly instrumental in building a strong foundation for the intercollegiate athletic program at East Carolina. He resigned this post, July 1, 1963, to devote full time to the College's expanding program of Physical Education. The college experienced the development of an intercollegiate program of top calibre during his tenure of office.

A native of Rigby, Idaho, Dr. Jorgensen attended Utah State and received his M.A. from the University of Oregon. He earned his Ph D. at the University of Iowa. He is married to the former Martha Green of Iowa, and they have seven children: Larry, Lynn, Layne, Mark, Karen, Janice, and Eva.

PIRATES SHIP NEEDS YOU

IN MEMORIUM

ROBERT KEITHLEY FARIS JR.

Class of 1968

OCTOBER 17, 1945

AUGUST 22, 1967

Dear God, help me to be a sport in this little game of life. I don't ask for any easy place in the lineup. Place me anywhere you need me. I ask only for the stuff to give you one hundred per cent of what I've got. If all the hard knocks seem to come my way, I thank you for the compliment. Help me to remember that You won't ever let anything come my way that You and I can't handle together. And help me to understand that the game is full of knocks and trouble, and make me thankful for them. Help me to get so that the harder they come the better I Like it. And, oh, God, help me always to play on the square, no matter what the other people do, help me to come clean. If I am pushed, shoved, and beaten, help me to smile and ask for more. Finally, oh, God, if life seems to uppercut me with both hands, and I am laid on the shelf in sickness or old age or something, help me to take that too as part of the game. Help me not to whimper or squeal that life is a frame-up, or that I had a raw deal. When in falling dusk I get the final bell I ask for no lying, complimentary headstones. I'd like to know only this: That You feel that I've been a good, game guy.

Amen.

Tom R. Quinn – W-165, L-85

COACH'S OUTLOOK

Quinn, "We're still attempting to fill in key positions with untested souls, but this could turn out to be the most surprising and exciting team that ever donned the 'Jolly Roger'."

The immediate task is to find replacements for Dan Pasquariello and Gerald Smith, starting center and forward respectively. There is also the possibility that Fred Campbell will not see regular action at guard as his rehabilitation from knee surgery has been behind schedule. These losses appear particularly distressing as there are no tested reserves available to replace them. We must rely on players who for the most part have received their experience in junior college or as freshmen.

With the addition of rising sophomores Tom Miller and Jim Modlin, the inclusion of junior college transfers, Earl Thompson and Don Andrae, and the return to eligible status of Charles Alford, it could be an improved year.

"We will have an overall depth problem, especially in the corners, but our back court spots will be deeper. With Alford, we will have a definite pivot threat where it was practically nil against taller foes last year. We will also be in a better position to play pressure defenses and stimulate the running game that our fans and players love so well. So it appears that Alford is the "Key" – without him in the lineup, we must again rely on speed and finesse and would encounter difficulty again in retrieving second shots and fastbreak rebounds. In either instance, we will be in better condition than anyone we play, and will press and platoon in an effort to outhustle the opposition.

"Our December schedule finds us playing at home on occasion, so we should avoid the dismal road initiation we received last season. Again, we're playing a murderous major schedule, but the increased number of home appearances and the overall enthusiasm of moving into the new Minges Coliseum will be to our definite advantage.

"I've been very much impressed with the leadership of Captains Vince Colbert and Jim Cox. I predict that they will continue to do a good job of providing mature, constructive leadership for our young and upcoming program. The overall team spirit and enthusiasm are higher than ever."

EAST CAROLINA FOOTBALL NETWORK

JIM WOODS

The new man behind the mike of "The East Carolina Football Network" is Jim Woods, who joined the staff of Greenville's WNCT TV and radio as sports director this spring.

Jim comes to the Pirates Den from WGAI Radio, Elizabeth City, N.C., where he served as station manager for seven years.

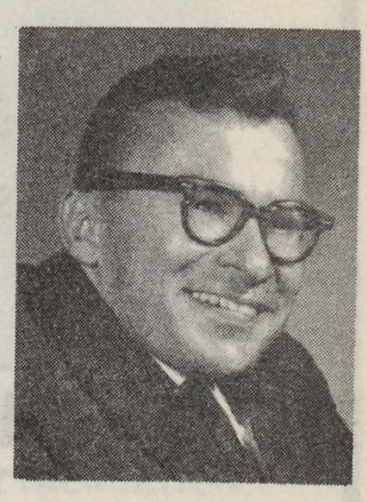

During the past ten years, he has broadcast the play by play for many sporting events including football, baseball, basketball, boxing, and stock car racing.

He received the Associated Press Award for the outstanding "Tarheel Sportscaster" for non metropolitan stations during 1957 and 1966.

Jim is married to the former Barbara Sullivan of Greenville, and they have three sons: Jim, Gary, and Danny.

Boyce Williams of WNCT Radio will do the color for the Buc broadcasts again this fall, marking his third year at this assignment.

Boyce, who is considered "Old home folks" on the Pirate ship, does a most colorful job describing the half time shows and the side line personalties.

A look of bold innovation and the feel of competitive excitement set Chevrolet sport models apart from the pack for '68.

Revolutionary styling.
Looking like a dream car come to life, the '68 Corvette Sting Ray is an astonishingly beautiful new sports car. It's nearly seven inches longer and two inches lower. Startling new features include Hide-A-Way windshield wipers concealed beneath a power-operated cowl panel, rear deck spoiler, high-backed bucket seats and push-type door opening buttons.

Great performers, too.
Quieter and smoother riding this year, Chevelle and Camaro, "The Hugger," offer new sports car-type performance—better handling, big engines. Camaro SS has a bulging striped hood that covers your choice of either a 350- or 396-cubic-inch V8. Chevelle SS 396 for '68 has completely new styling, a wider tread, shorter wheelbase, and a twin-domed hood.

More engine efficiency.
Standard on many models with automatic transmission is an ingenious carburetor heater that gives you increased efficiency in cold weather. Standard, also, is a new GM exhaust emission control.

New ventilation system.
Astro Ventilation, a brand-new system of bringing in outside air, comes on Corvette, Camaro and the Caprice Coupe, and is available on many other models.

Proved safety features.
All Chevrolet safety features are continued and you get many new ones such as energy-absorbing front seat backs and side marker lights for '68. Be smart. Be sure. Buy now at your Chevrolet dealer's.
