Scouting Report

Sports Information Director

Welcome to tonight's home opener in Ficklen Stadium as the East Carolina Pirates play host to the Mountaineers of West Virginia.

The Pirates enter tonight's encounter following a disappointing 38-10 loss at N.C. State last Saturday while WVU hits the road for the first time this season following a season-opening 47-14 rout of Northern Illinois.

For ECU, there is no time to dwell on the past and the emotionally draining opener with in-state rival NCSU before the largest crowd (58,650) ever to witness a football game in the state of North Carolina.

West Virginia entered the 1986 season as a team that had received a bid to play in a post-season bowl game in four of the past five seasons, including a 7-3-1 team of a year ago that was snubbed by the bowl selectors.

"We have to pick ourselves up off the mat and get back to work," ECU head coach Art Baker said last Saturday night in a steamy locker room in Carter-Finley Stadium. "With the quality opponents that we face every Saturday, we have to stay on as even an emotional keel as we possibly can.

"West Virginia is loaded with potential again this season. They have big, strong men along the front and excellent skill players. We did a lot of good things in the State game, but we definitely have to work hard on the bad things we did."

Baker and his coaching staff had to be pleased with the overall play of freshman quarterback Charlie Libretto, who started for the Pirates in his first collegiate game as an 18-year-old.

Libretto completed 14-of-26 passes for 169 yards, a completion rate of 54 percent. Both his number of completions and total yards were higher totals than in any 1985 ECU passing output.

"Charlie did all we could ask of a young man in this situation," Baker said. "He made his share of mistakes out there, but he also showed me that he can do the job — and that becomes my job to make him better."

The Pirates jumped to an early 10-0 lead over the Wolfpack behind excellent execution on both offense and defense, but N.C. State kept its composure and began capitalizing on ECU miscues to get back into the game.

The turning point came early in the third quarter. The Pirates received the second half kickoff holding on to a 10-6 lead and drove to the State 45-yard-line. A third down pass fell incomplete and the drive was stalled.

ECU's defense, however, held the Wolfpack on three downs and NCSU punted from deep in its own territory. Pirate returner Tony Smith received the punt and made a fine 20-yard return to the State 43 before fumbling.

"That turn of events really began our downslide," Baker would say afterward. "There's not a more sure-handed returner on our team than Tony Smith, but things like that are going to happen. I was disappointed in how we never recovered after those first two series of downs."

But now all attention focuses on West Virginia as Mountaineer head coach Don Nehlen enters tonight's game with history on his side. He has guided WVU to a 2-0 record in each of his first six seasons as head coach, and he needs a win tonight over the Pirates to continue that streak.

ECU, on the other hand, owns a fine 20-6 record in home openers since the 1960 season. The Pirates are also 17-6 in home openers since Ficklen Stadium was dedicated in 1963.

The Mountaineers struggled early before easily winning their opener vs. Northern Illinois last Saturday. NIU led 7-0 and 14-7 before West Virginia took the lead for good with two minutes remaining in the first half at 21-14. The Mountaineers also added a safety and a field goal in the final minute of the first half to begin the runaway and take a 26-14 lead into the locker room at intermission.

The Mountaineers relied heavily on the big play last Saturday as the time of possession chart will attest. WVU had the ball for only 21 minutes and 46 seconds, while the Huskies had possession for 38:14 in the game.

WVU scored on runs of 96 and 34 yards, and also had a 46-yard flanker pass. The Mountaineers were led in the rushing category by tailback John Holifield with 98 yards on 11 carries. Reserve tailback Undra Johnson added 70 yards on 12 carries, while back Pat Randolph had 88 yards on only three carries, including a 96-yard TD sprint.

The Pirates will need to improve on their running game from last week and hope to maintain the fine passing attack which was unveiled under Libretto. The 6-2, 195, Middleburg, FL native also had a selection of fine receivers in Jarrod Moody, last year's quarterback Ron Jones, freshman Walter Wilson and JUCO transfer Jackie Armstrong.

In an ironic turn, ECU was successful through the air last week while struggling on the ground after just the opposite problem all last season.

"We saw some fine talent in our offense, and I know that our defense is much better than they performed last week," Baker said. "We've just got a tough opponent to see if we've made our adjustments."

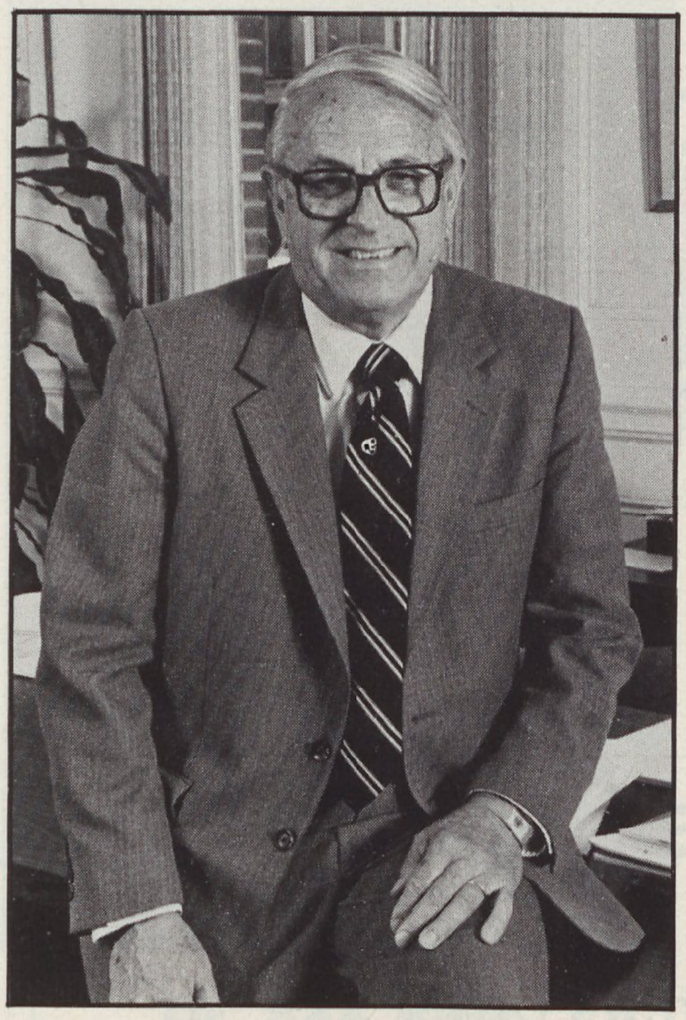
The Chancellor



Dr. John Howell

Dr. John M. Howell, who has been the chief administrative officer during East Carolina University's latest era of growth, begins his fifth year as University Chancellor.

Howell has been with East Carolina for 29 years as he first joined the University in 1957. He held various positions throughout his career at ECU before being appointed acting chancellor by University President William Friday in January of 1981.

Howell was officially elected to the position of chancellor on May 14, 1982, and installed July 1, 1982.

Howell first joined ECU as Associate Professor of political science in September of 1957. He was promoted to professor in 1961. He served as Chairperson of the new Department of Political Science from 1963 to 1966, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1966 to 1969, and Dean of the Graduate School from 1969 to 1973.

He was University Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs from 1973 to 1979.

Howell received his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees from the University of Alabama in 1948 and 1949. His Ph.D. in Political Science was awarded by Duke University in 1954.

He held teaching positions prior to those at ECU, including three years as assistant professor at Memphis State University (1954-57), one year as assistant professor at Sweet Briar College (1953-54) and the University of Idaho (1950-51).

During his years as a graduate student at Duke University, he also served for one year as a part-time instructor (1952-53).

At East Carolina, Howell designed the first undergraduate and graduate majors in Political Science and served as chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee of Doctoral Programs. That committee made the first study of readiness of ECU units to offer doctoral programs.

During his tenure as Dean, Provost and Vice-Chancellor, he supervised the undergraduate and graduate curriculum and was particularly involved in the initiation of an Area Studies minor in the College of Arts and Sciences, the Honors Program, the curriculum for the Special Admissions Students, the Coastal and Marine Sciences Program, the Master of Science in Administrative Services/ Master of Public Administration degrees, the Oversees Programs, and the Cooperative Education Program.

Howell is a member of the American Political Science Association, the International Studies Association, and the Southern Political Science Association.

In addition to university fellowships and assistantships during his graduate studies at Alabama and Duke, he has been the recipient of two post-doctoral fellowships for summer research at the Commonwealth Studies Center at Duke.

He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Pi Sigma Alpha and Phi Eta Sigma. He is co-author of one book, contributor to five books and collections of essays, and the author of many articles and papers on political science and higher education.

A native of Five Points, Alabama, Dr. Howell is married to the former Gladys E. David. They have two sons, David and Joseph, who live in Durham.

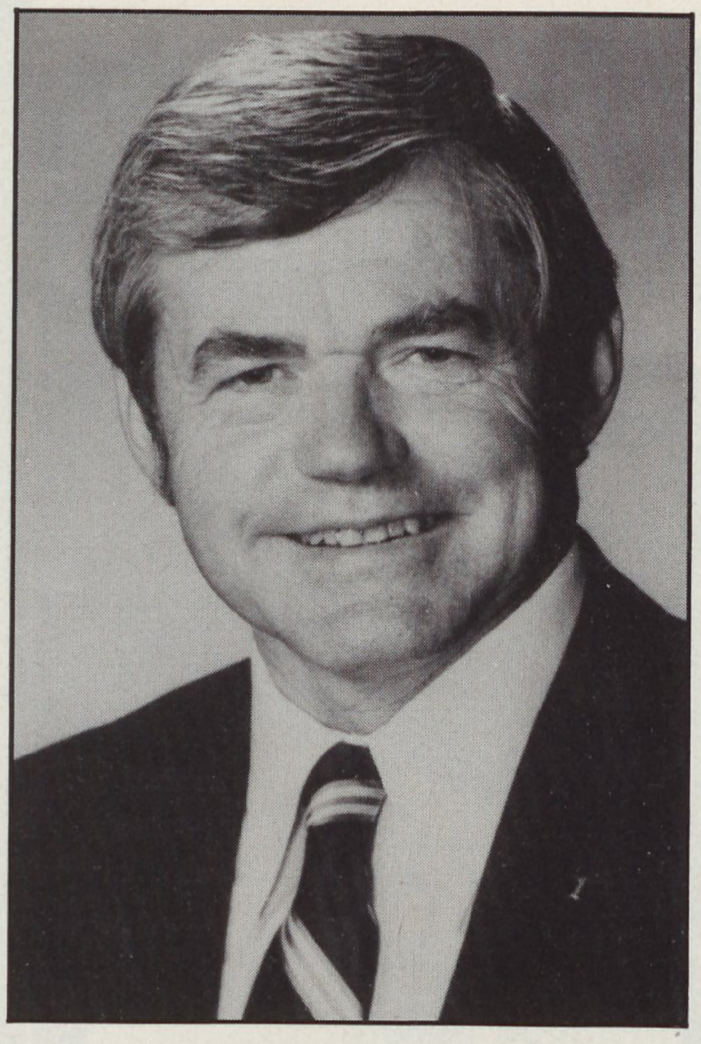
Director of Athletics



Dr. Ken Karr

Dr. Ken Karr has been a major driving force behind East Carolina's rise to national prominence in intercollegiate athletics.

Since being named July 11, 1980, as only the fourth athletic director to serve East Carolina since the inception of the position on the Greenville campus in 1947, Karr has guided the program toward greater exposure and success.

He has been instrumental in upgrading the Pirate football schedule to where there are now home and away series with powers such as Florida State, Miami (FL), Auburn, Penn State, Florida, Missouri, Virginia Tech, West Virginia, Pittsburgh, Illinois and Georgia.

While upgrading the ECU football schedule to where it is now generally recognized as one of the toughest in the country on a yearly basis, Karr has managed to upgrade the University athletic budgets to compete against such a powerful slate of opponents.

Karr played a major role in East Carolina's admission into the College Football Association in 1984, which is an elite group of NCAA Division 1A football powers.

The Seymour, Ill., native was instrumental in the Pirates' admission into the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC), which is now known as the Colonial Athletic Association.

Since ECU's inception into the Colonial, Karr has served as the league's treasurer since 1983 and has spearheaded efforts to bring the conference post-season baseball tournament to Greenville in 1985 and again in 1986 to Harrington Field.

Karr came to ECU from San Diego State, where he served as director of athletics from 1969-1979 and as chairman of the Department of Athletics in 1980.

During his tenure with the Aztec program, Karr guided San Diego State from the ranks of NCAA Division II into the high-powered world of Division I athletics.

Karr was also active on the national scene with the NCAA while at San Diego. He was elected in 1975 to serve on the prestigious NCAA post-season selection committee for its Division I basketball tournament.

His appointment to that committee was renewed for another three years to run through 1982 on the coveted committee which determines the schools to fill all slots in the tournament field.

Possibly Karr's greatest accomplishment at San Diego State came in 1978 when the Holiday Bowl, a post-season football game held in San Diego, became a reality. Karr played an instrumental role in getting the game officially sanctioned by the NCAA. He served on the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee of the Holiday Bowl in 1978 and 1979.

Karr served as assistant director of athletics at the University of Arizona from 1967-1969. For three seasons, beginning in 1964, he was an assistant football coach at Wake Forest and served at three high schools and two colleges from 1952-54 on football coaching staffs.

Karr holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from Illinois State University and a master's and doctoral degree in physical education and philosophy, respectively, from the University of Illinois.

Karr is married to the former Priscilla Cortez. He has two children.

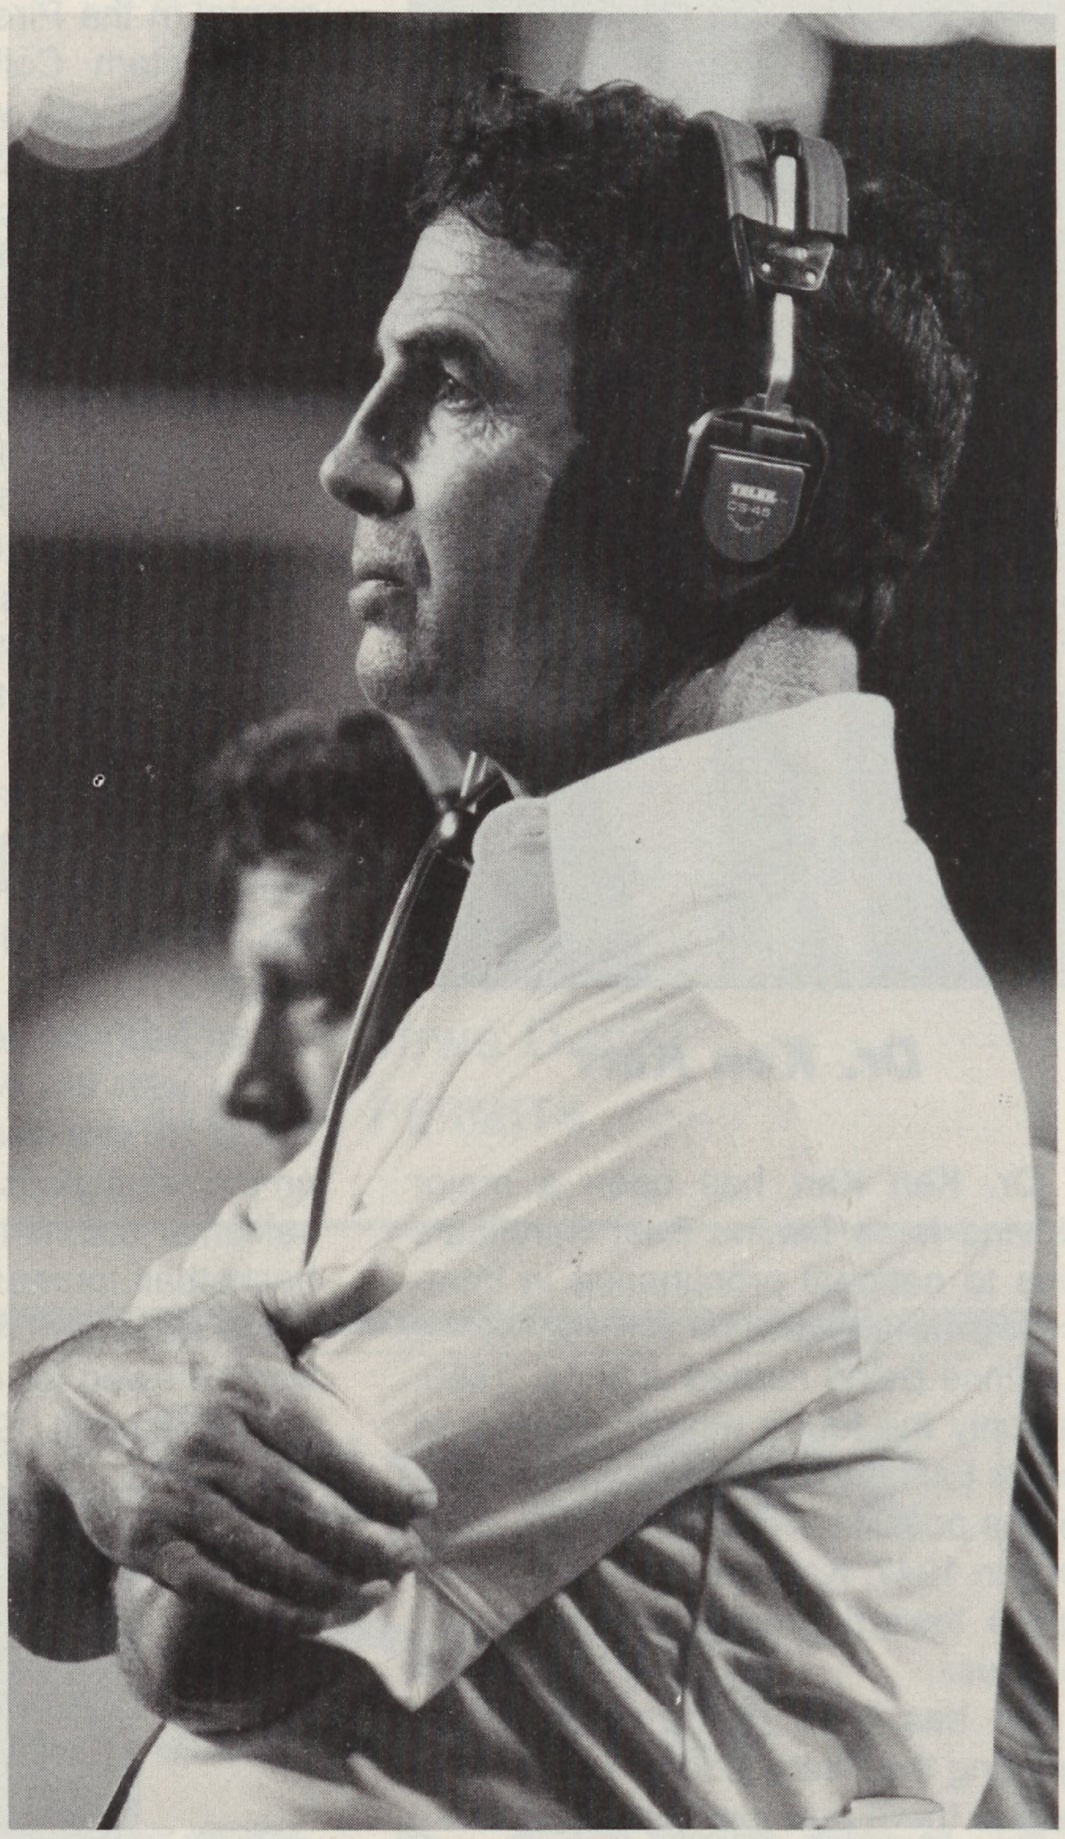
Head Coach

Art Baker



Art Baker, one of the most well-respected football coaches on the collegiate level, begins his second season as head coach of the East Carolina University program.

Baker, who was associate head coach and offensive coordinator at ECU in 1983 and assistant head coach at Florida State in 1984, was hired as the Pirates' 15th head football coach on Dec. 14, 1984.

Baker's first season as head coach saw the Pirates post a 2-9 record against some of the country's toughest competition. Baker's team faced four bowl participants in 1985 (Penn State, Miami-Florida, Auburn and LSU) and three teams that occupied spots in the final 1985 Top 20 polls.

Baker, with 26 years of intercollegiate football experience, owns a career record of 59-57-5 in 11 years of head coaching experience. Stops included Southern Conference entries Furman (1973-77) and The Citadel (1978-82) prior to ECU. The 1985 season was only Baker's fifth losing effort in those 11 years.

The Sumter, SC, native is considered one of college football's top offensive minds. He spent 1984 directing Florida State's high-powered offense as he was responsible for play calling and tutoring FSU's quarterbacks. He also was directly responsible for revitalizing the Seminole running game as FSU averaged 274.6 yards a game on the ground, the fifth best average in the nation and the highest in Florida State history.

The 1986 season will see Baker tutor ECU's quarterbacks, just as he did as Associate Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator during ECU's successful 1983 season. "I learned a lot more about the passing game (while at Florida State) and I hope that it will be a part of our offense here," Baker said. "But I'm an option coach and I will continue to be one."

It was the option under Baker in 1983 that helped lead ECU to one of its finest seasons ever. The Pirates' "Freeze Option" offense, with Baker calling the plays, ranked 16th in the nation in rushing offense (239.4 yards per game).

Before coming to ECU Baker coached The Citadel in Charleston, SC, for five seasons, compiling a 30-24-1 mark for a .555 winning percentage, second best in the school's history. At Furman, where Baker was head coach from 1973-77, he guided the Paladins to a 26-24-5 record and shared Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors during the 1973 season. That season also saw Baker named Churchman's Coach of the Year.

The 1953 graduate of Presbyterian College (Clinton, SC) began his coaching career in the South Carolina high school ranks as he was head coach at Eastern McColl (two years), Newberry (two years) and North Columbia's Eau Claire (six years), compiling an impressive 62-37-8 record.

In 1965 Baker went to Clemson to become the head freshman coach. That season saw Clemson's freshmen post a 4-0-1 record and from 1966 through 1969 Baker coached the varsity offensive backfield. In 1970 he moved to Texas Tech of the Southwest Conference as offensive backfield coach, where he remained until becoming head coach at Furman in 1973. The Red Raiders made Sun Bowl appearances twice (1970 and 1972) during Baker's three seasons at the Lubbock, TX, school.

SPORTS HALL OF FAME

The East Carolina Sports Hall of Fame was initiated in 1974 as an organization to honor those individuals who have, by their direct participation in East Carolina University intercollegiate athletics, brough outstanding recognition to themselves and to the University.

The first honorees were inducted during Homecoming festivities at halftime of the East Carolina—The Citadel game in 1974. Ten members were selected for the first year. No more than four members may be selected for any one year in the future.

To be selected, a committee of five persons must vote with 80% of those giving their approval. Those five shall be the official selection committee.

To be eligible for selection, a person must not have been connected with the University in the capacity to which the nominee is being elected for a minimum of five academic years.

1974 INDUCTEES

Ken Beatty: First coach at East Carolina Teachers' College from 1932-34.

Dr. N.M. Jorgensen: First Athletic Director at East Carolina from 1947-63.

Lacy T. West: All-American baseball and basketball player from 1959-63.

William M. Shelton: Three letterman for all four years at East Carolina from 1936-1940.

Robert R. Sawyer: All-American swimmer at East Carolina from 1955-59.

Alden Glen Bass: All-American football and baseball player at East Carolina from 1958-61.

Robert F. Hodges: All-America football and basketball player at East Carolina from 1950-1954.

Claude Keith King, Sr.: All-Conference football and basketball player at East Carolina from 1951-1955.

Sonny Russell: All-State basketball player at East Carolina from 1949-1953.

Bill Cline: All-America football player at East Carolina from 1962-1965.

1975 INDUCTEES

Dave Alexander: Outstanding football player at East Carolina from 1963-65. All Southern Conference and Little All-America selection in 1955.

Maurice Everett: Outstanding tennis player at East Carolina from 1955-58. Came to ECU on a basketball scholarship, but became the North State Conference Singles Tennis champion for three straight years (1955-1958).

Bill Holland: Outstanding baseball and football player at East Carolina from 1935-1938.

Ken Midyette: All-America diver at East Carolina from 1957-1957. NAIA diving champion in 1958 and 1959.

1976 INDUCTEE

Clarence Stasavich: Outstanding coach at ECU from 1962-69 in football. Athletic Director from 1963 until his death in 1975.

1977 INDUCTEES

Kevin Moran: Winner of Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1967, one of only two Pirates to have ever done so. Co-captain of the 1967 team under Clarence Stasavich that finished 8-2-0.

Earl Smith: Three-sport athlete and two-sport coach at East Carolina with a career that totaled nearly 40 years. His 1963 baseball team was third nationally in the NAIA. Later took four teams to the NCAA regionals. Never had a losing basketball seeason and only one losing baseball season.

Roger Thrift: Set several football records as a quarterback in 1949 that stood for years. Has been a distinguished coach and athletic administrator in college and high school since leaving East Carolina.

John W. (Jack) Young, Jr.: Played on the first winning East Carolina football team in 1940. Also played on the only unbeaten and untied team in history in 1941. Came to East Carolina as a non-scholarship tackle.

1978 INDUCTEES

Jim Johnson: A football, basketball and baseball star for the Pirates, he was captain for each team twice. He was athletics director following the war, coached three sports, and helped establish the East Carolina Educational Foundation.

Jim Mallory: Coached the Pirate baseball from 1954 through 1962, winning numerous championships including the 1961 NAIA crown. His teams won 161 games and lost only 60. He became the Dean of Men in 1959 and is now the Associate Dean of Students.

Tom Michel: A four-year fullback under Jack Boone and Clarence Stasavich, averaged 5.7 yards per carry in college and became the first Pirate back to play in the NFL, serving with four clubs from 1964-68. He led the 1963 team in rushing, scoring and total offense and helped the team to a 27-6 win over Northeastern in the 1963 Eastern Bowl in Allentown, Pa., earning outstanding back honors.

Richard Narron: An All-America catcher, played on East Carolina's first two Southern Conference championship baseball teams, helping the Pirates to a 17-10 record in 1966 and a 23-6 mark in 1967, when he was captain and made all-America. He signed with the New York Mets in 1967 and played there until moving to the Baltimore Orioles for the 1970 season.

1979 INDUCTEES

Dr. Ray Martinez: The swimming coach at ECU for 14 years, winning the NAIA National Championship in 1957 and 1959. His 1962 team was NCAA College Division runner-up. A Master Coach and winner of the Kiputh Award for national leadership in aquatics, Martinez had 45 men earn all-America honors, 15 NAIA and 4 NCAA College Division national champions.

Les Ridenhour: A four-letter winner in three different sports: football, basketball, and baseball. He served as captain on three teams. In baseball, he holds a .366 lifetime batting average and a .411 mark in 1938.

Ike Riddick: A three-year starter for East Carolina basketball in the old North State Conference. Had a 24.6 scoring average as a senior while serving as team captain. Was named most valuable player in a major, three-day post-season all-star invitational tournament in Portsmouth, VA.

Carlton Barnes: The most valuable player in baseball in 1965 while serving as team captain. Was named all-state three times. Played in the Cincinnati Reds organization from 1965-68. A magna cum laude graduate.

1980 INDUCTEES

Carlester Crumpler: Outstanding football player, considered the finest running back ever at East Carolina. Still holds school records in eight categories. Honorable mention AP All-America in 1972 and 1973 and voted Southern Conference Athlete of the Year in 1972. Also all-state two years and selected to play in the Blue-Gray classic in 1973.

Danny Kepley: A third team AP All-America linebacker in 1974, he was given the nickname "Captain Crunch" for his fine defensive play while at East Carolina. He received numerous honors including national defensive player of the week in 1973, all-Southern Conference three years and all-state two years. Since leaving East Carolina in 1974 he has starred with Edmonton Eskimo's Football Club in Canada.

Cecil Heath: A two-sport star at East Carolina from 1951-55. Participating in both basketball and baseball, he won seven letters. Played second base and was a four-year starter in baseball accumulating a career average of .320. In basketball he was a three-year starter at guard, leading East Carolina to its finest seasons ever. Named all-state in both sports in 1954-55.

1981 INDUCTEES

Jack Boone: Head baseball coach in 1948-52; head football coach 1952-61; fifth winningest coach in ECU football history; coached Pirates into first bowl games ever, Lions Bowl in 1952 and Elks Bowl in 1953; coach of the year in North State Conference in 1953 with 8-2 finish, eighth best team record in school history; major influence in getting ECU into Southern Conference; credited with developing the power "I" formation.

James Speight: Running back in split "T" formation under Jack Boone; one of only three Pirate players to have jersey retired (#29); ran for 2,700 career yards, third on the all-time ECU rushing list; scored four TDs and a two-point conversion in 1959 game vs. Norfolk Navy for 26 points, a school record that still stands; the four touchdowns equal that of two other Pirate players; voted outstanding player in 1957 and 1959.

Robert Kingrey: Won national diving championship in 1960 in one-meter and three-meter diving (NAIA) in first year with ECU; named all-America in 1960, 1961 and 1962 in both one and three-meters; set freshman record for three-meter diving with 11 dives of 420 points, still the school record; ranks second for three-meter diving, six dives; ranks third in three-meters, 11 dives; ranks fourth in one-meter, six dives; ranks 11th in one-meter, 11 dives.

Sheilah Cotten: First female to be inducted; first 1,000-point scorer in Lady Pirates basketball history; 1,270 career points; primary force in ECU's trip to the national AIAW tournament in 1972-73, when the team finished 18-2 and won the school's only state AIAW title; her 442 points in 1974-75 ranks fifth on the single season scoring list; holds school record for most points in a single game with 39 and most field goals attempted with 33.

1982 INDUCTEES

Louis John Hallow: First all-America ever in football in 1955. Center and linebacker, named all-North State Conference three consecutive seasons. All-State two seasons. Lanche Blocking Trophy winner twice, three times outstanding defensive award and MVP as senior. Drafted by the LA Rams. Currently a Greenville businessman and avid Pirate supporter.

James Martin Gregory: Co-player of the year in the Southern Conference as senior, only time an ECU basketball player won the award. First team all-Southern Conference and team MVP in 1971. Still ranks fifth on all-time scoring with 1,193 career points and is tied for school record for highest career rebounding average with 11.1 per game.

Carl Leigh Summerell: Two-time honorable mention, All-America. Southern Conference athlete of the year in 1973-74, only time an ECU player won that honor. Football player of the year in 1973 and tabbed as starting quarterback in Blue-Gray Classic. MVP in 1970, 1972 and 1973 and all-State the latter two years. Still holds three school records and ranks high in several other categories.

John Walter Welborn: Head wrestling coach, 1967-77, with a 94-14-3 record (87%). Won Southern Conference titles 1971-76, only time any school has ever won the title five consecutive years. Three-times coach of the year in the league. In ten years, lost but one in-state match and never lost to rival North Carolina. Also coached golf team to two conference titles. Currently an assistant athletic director at ECU.

1983 INDUCTEES

Howard Porter: Head basketball coach 1947-59. Coached most games and mosts wins in school history (183-101). His 1953-54 team best in school history with 23-2 record and trip to national championship in NAIA. Never had a losing season.

J.C. Thomas: Basketball player 1952-56 with team's combined record of 75-18. Played on three conference championship teams and two that made national championship tournaments. Four-year starter, captains and all-conference. Called by Howard Porter the finest overall player in ECU history.

Bill Hill: Wrestler, 1971-74. Fifth in NCAA's in 1974 and named all-America; only wrestler ever at ECU named all-America. Had 122-15-1 record with four Southern Conference titles and four North Carolina Collegiate championships.

Dick Cherry: Football, 1952-56. One of the finest quarterbacks ever. Three times all-conference, while all-state and honorable mention all-America in 1953. Set school record of four TD passes in a single game and 16 TD passes in single season, both in 1953. At time of induction, both records still stood.

1984 INDUCTEE

Lawrence "Cotton" Clayton: Basketball and baseball 1959-61. During his two years of athletic participation, Clayton was named All-America in both baseball and basketball as well as all-North State Conference and all-district. Perhaps baseball was his top sport. He led the 1961 Pirate team to the NAIA national championship as the team's leading hitter playing both the outfield and third base. Following graduation he played in the Baltimore organization for seven years.

CHEERLEADING AT ECU

The East Carolina University Cheerleading Program is an exciting part of the university atmosphere and a guaranteed way to be involved with the athletics of the university and community. The demands and responsibilities are numerous and the rewards are endless.

The program is made up of two squads, which consists of both male and female members. The Purple Squad serves as the Varsity Squad with the team selected in the Spring of each school year from students currently enrolled at East Carolina. Tryouts are open to the public and become more exciting every year.

A freshman or transfer student is eligible for the Gold Squad. This Squad serves as an alternate to the Purple Squad in case of illness, injury or dismissal from the team. The Gold Squad cheers at home football games, women's basketball games, and any other events deemed necessary by the Cheerleading Coach. The Purple Squad cheers at home and away football games and men's basketball games.

The requirements for tryouts vary every year due to the growth and changing needs of the squad. The Purple Squad requirements are to cheer, dance, show gymnastics ability, partner stunts and individual routine. The Gold Squad is expected to demonstrate the same abilities as the Purple Squad with the exception of partner stunts (although partner stunts will be required once a member of the squad). Specific requirements are announced at the beginning of each tryout practice session.

Although there are no scholarships available for the Cheerleader Program, the advantages, rewards, and opportunities speak for themselves and make the efforts worthwhile.

Marching Pirates

EAST CAROLINA PIRATES

The East Carolina University Marching Band has quickly gained a reputation as a crowd pleaser at halftime ceremonies during the football season.

The Marching Pirates, with over 250 members for the 1986 season, are considered to be among the top marching band organizations in the South with over one-fourth of its members attending ECU's School of Music.

While halftime ceremonies were once reserved for trips to the concession stands, now many Pirate faithful remain in their seats to view the patented and stunning performances.

"Our aim is to entertain the crowd and I think that we've been very successful at that," says the band's director, Tom Goolsby. "We are very fortunate at East Carolina to have such an appreciative crowd during the games and that makes us want to perform that much better."

The band spends countless hours on the field practicing for the shows which culminate into a remarkable Saturday performance which East Carolina football fans have come to expect. Goolsby has evenly mixed the band's music, adding everything from today's popular hits to classical pieces.

The band works up different routines each week around the central show, which includes such numbers this season as "Jupiter," from Gustav Holst's "The Planet," "Carnival," "Marianne," "Ice Cakes," and "Tiger of San Pedro."

Along with the large number of band members, the Pirate Color Guard, Flag, Pom Pon and Rifle teams, and featured twirlers will fill the field with pageantry.

The 1986 staff includes: Director Tom Goolsby, Assistant Director John Erdegan, Color Guard Instructor Tracy Hedrick and Jody Patterson, Percussion Instructor Chris Moore, Drum Majors Glen Buck, Wallace Bradsher, and Todd Brewer, and Golden Girls Choreographers Betsy Middleton and Lynne Ross.

ANOTHER RECORD CROWD

Last Saturday night's crowd in Carter-Finley Stadium in Raleigh of 58,650 was the largest crowd ever to see a football game in the state of North Carolina. That marked the second consecutive year that the ECU-N.C. State game has drawn a record crowd. The 1985 crowd of 58,300 was the state's previous high. It also marked the third time since 1983 that the Pirate-Wolfpack game has been seen by a record crowd. In fact, seven of the top 10 crowds in Carter-Finley history have been made from the matchups between the two in-state rivals.

ECU IN HOME OPENERS

The Pirates own a 20-6 record in home openers since the 1960 season and are 17-6 since Ficklen Stadium was dedicated in 1963. The Pirates' first win in Ficklen Stadium was a 20-10 defeat over Wake Forest on Sept. 21, 1963.

ECU's only losses in home openers are as follows:

1966: 21-14 to Northeast Louisiana
1969: 24-6 to Louisiana Tech
1970: 10-0 to East Tennessee State
1971: 45-0 to Toledo
1980: 27-21 to Southwestern Louisiana
1984: 17-0 to Temple

ECU has won 12 of its last 14 home openers, including a 27-16 win over Southwest Texas State in 1985.

ECU / WEST VIRGINIA SERIES

The Pirates and Mountaineers have met on the football field four times in the series history with WVU owning a 4-0 lead in the meetings. The first game of the series was played in Greenville in 1970 when Mountaineer first-year coach Bobby Bowden's team handed the Pirates a 28-14 loss. WVU won the following year (1971) in Morgantown by a 44-21 margin. The series was resumed for two consecutive seasons in Morgantown in 1981 and 1982 as WVU won by scores of 20-3 and 30-3, respectively. Current WVU head coach Don Nehlen guided his teams to the final two wins of the series.

Future schedules call for the Pirates to return to Mountaineer Field next season for an Oct. 3 game, and WVU will travel to Greenville in 1988 for an Oct. 8 meeting.

LIBRETTO DEBUTS AS PIRATES' QB

Charlie Libretto directed the Pirate offense last Saturday night in his first collegiate game and made an immediate impact on the Pirates' offensive fortunes. The 6-2, 195, native of Middleburg, FL completed 14-of-26 passes for 169 yards vs. the Wolfpack after being named the starting QB by head coach Art Baker just five days earlier. Libretto's numbers in terms of completions (14) and yards (169) were higher than any passing total by the Pirates last season in a single game. He also had a fine receiving corps which was unveiled with true freshman Walter Wilson, JUCO transfer Jackie Armstrong, last year's starting quarterback-turned flanker Ron Jones, and returnees Jarrod Moody and Tony Smith.

NEHLEN AND 2-0 STARTS

West Virginia head coach Don Nehlen has guided his teams to 2-0 season starts in all six seasons since he took over as Mountaineer coach in 1980. He owns a fine 49-22-1 record into his seventh season at the helm, including trips to four consecutive post-season bowls from 1981-1984. The Mountaineers played in the Peach Bowl in '81, defeating Florida 26-6. The following year they lost to Florida State 31-12 in the Gator Bowl. A 20-16 win over Kentucky followed in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl, while the 1984 squad defeated TCU 31-14 in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

McKINNEY OFF AND RUNNING AGAIN

Sophomore Reggie McKinney started the 1986 season as a kickoff returner much like he finished his freshman campaign a year ago. The 5-10, 185, Mt. Olive native ranked fourth in the nation last season as a kick returner with a 25.5 average per return.

McKinney took N.C. State's first kickoff last Saturday and returned it 58 yards before being brought down by the last man between McKinney and the endzone. He also had a 20-yard return later in the game to bring his 1986 return average to 39.0 yards per return.

NO HOMECOMINGS THIS SATURDAY

East Carolina has no native West Virginians on its 1986 roster, while the Mountaineers also do not have any players who hail from the state of North Carolina.

NEXT WEEK

West Virginia returns home next weekend to host the University of Maryland in a 1:00 pm encounter, while ECU travels to Jordan-Hare Stadium to face the Auburn Tigers in a 1:30 (CST) matchup.

CT&T Scholarship

A full $3,500 athletic scholarship is awarded at each home East Carolina football game by Carolina Telephone and Telegraph for outstanding achievements in academics and contribution by an ECU team member to the Pirate football program.

The award has been given since 1984, but this season marks the first time that CT&T and its president, Wayne Peterson, have contributed the full scholarship amount for each home game, and it is a donation that ECU officials greatly appreciate.

"As the Pirate Club strives to expand its funding base in order to fully fund athletic scholarships and meet future goals for growth, a gesture like this one by Wayne Peterson and CT&T stands out as an illustration of corporate commitment to excellence with regard to our program," said Dave Hart, ECU's associate director of athletics and executive director of the Pirate Club.

Previous winners include:

R.W. Moore Scholarship

The "King of the Gridiron" scholarship is presented each home football game to the outstanding East Carolina University football player for that particular game as voted on by the media in attendance.

Mr. R.W. Moore of Raleigh, president of R.W. Moore Equipment Company, initiated the scholarship in 1977. This season marks the tenth consecutive year for the presentations.

The scholarship carries a $1,000 value and is presented in the name of the winning player to the ECU Educational Foundation (Pirate Club). The money is then contributed to the general athletic scholarship fund.

East Carolina University extends its appreciation to Mr. Moore for this outstanding service to the University and the athletic department.

What some stores call trim,

Kroger calls too much fat.

That's why Alex would never sell you the cut of beef on the left. Too much fat.

And that's just not good enough for Kroger customers.

Now take a look at the cut on the right. It's trimmed to ¼" — like all Kroger Grain Fed boneless beef — and that means 10-30% less fat.*

And beef trimmed that well is the only beef that's good enough for Alex.

Kroger's new ¼" trim. The measurable difference in beef today.

*Based on test of 14 different cuts of beef

Pirate Sports Network

EAST CAROLINA PIRATES

The Pirate Sports Network is the official radio outlet for East Carolina University football. All activities of the Pirate Sports Network are coordinated, produced and directed through the office of Frank Giardina, Director of Electronic Media/Promotions at ECU.

Pirate football 1986 will be aired throughout North Carolina, Tidewater Virginia and parts of South Carolina on the 25-plus lineup of radio stations that comprise the Network.

Giardina begins his first season as the play-by-play voice of Pirate athletics. A two-time recipient of the West Virginia Sportscaster of the Year award, Giardina comes to ECU after serving as Director of Promotions and Broadcasting at Marshall University in Huntington, WV, for the past two years.

Giardina, the voice of the Thundering Herd since 1978, has been involved in athletic broadcasting for the past 12 years. He was the sports anchor for WSAZ-TV in Huntington from 1981-84 and was play-by-play announcer for four seasons with the Charleston (WV) Charlies, an AAA Houston Astros affiliate. Giardina was also involved in the broadcast of selected Cincinnati Reds baseball telecasts on the Reds Network in 1982.

Rob Wilson, ECU's assistant sports information director, will join Giardina as the color analyst on the Network. His background includes color commentary on the Network during the 1985-86 basketball season and play-by-play during the 1986 spring game.

In addition, Wilson has served on the Seminole Sports Network of Florida State University and provides a weekly report on ECU football to Southeastern Sports Productions, a syndicated radio program covering seven southeastern states. Wilson's Pirate Pre-View Show airs each Thursday and Friday night prior to each football game on Pirate Sports Network affiliate WRQR-FM.

Giardina and Wilson replace last year's network team of Ken Smith and Dave Hart. Hart, who is ECU's associate director of athletics for external relations and executive director of the Pirate Club, had to step down from his three-year network duties when he assumed the added responsibility of the Pirate Club, while Smith resigned to accept a position in Raleigh.

The Pirate Sports Network is a wholly owned and operated facility of the East Carolina University athletic department. The primary feed outlet for the Network is WDLX-FM, a 100,000 watt station in Washington, NC, located at 93.3 on the dial. WDLX-FM is entering its sixth season as the originating station for Pirate athletics.

Anheuser-Busch returns for their tenth consecutive year as the primary regional sponsor of Pirate football.

Airtime for the Pirate Sports Network during the 1986 football season will be 30 minutes before scheduled kickoff.

A Commitment to Excellence.

The commitment to excellence began in 1880.

Henry Wellcome, a founder of Burroughs Wellcome Co., promised his scientists: "If you have an idea, I'll give you the freedom to develop it."

The freedom to develop ideas.

That's a cornerstone of Burroughs Wellcome's philosophy. It's one of the many reasons for our success in the development and manufacturing of medicines which help millions of people.

We have 1,500 people in Greenville who share this commitment to excellence and quality production. It's also a commitment to the community in which Burroughs Wellcome employees live and work.

People who care. Quality products that make a difference. These are the hallmarks of Burroughs Wellcome's past and the foundation of our future.

Burroughs Wellcome—
Excellence by and for people.

West Virginia Head Coach Don Nehlen

Don Nehlen enters his seventh season as head football coach at West Virginia where he has developed the Mountaineer program into one of college football's finest.

The 50-year-old Canton, Ohio, native has taken a program firmly entrenched in the darkest depths of mediocrity and placed it on the collegiate football map as a major college power.

It's not as though West Virginia didn't experience success on the gridiron before Nehlen's arrival in December, 1979. After all, the Mountaineers had appeared in their share of bowl games and have had a number of players earn All-America honors before going on to stellar careers in professional football.

However, no coach or team in the illustrious history of the sport at the University has been able to accomplish, with any degree of consistency, what Nehlen and his staff have managed.

Prior to Nehlen's arrival, West Virginia had never appeared in a bowl game for two consecutive seasons. Under Nehlen, the Mountaineers have made four holiday appearances in the past five years.

Entering the 1986 campaign, Nehlen owns a 48-22-1 (.683) record at WVU. He trails Art Lewis, a legendary coach from Mountaineer history, by just 10 wins in his bid to become the school's all-time leader in victories by a head football coach. Coach Nehlen has achieved his record over only six seasons in Morgantown. Lewis took 10 years to accumulate his 58 wins.

When Nehlen took over at West Virginia, the Mountaineers had just finished their fourth consecutive losing season, with records of 5-6, 5-6, 2-9 and 5-6.

He immediately caught the attention of the rabid West Virginia fans with an opening mark of 6-6, but not even the most die-hard Mountaineer fan expected what was to follow over the next five years — a 42-16-1 (.720) record, a berth in the Gator Bowl and victories in the Peach, Hall of Fame and Bluebonnet Bowls. Mountaineer teams under his direction have appeared on network television 18 times and, around the state of West Virginia, interest in his team is at a fever pitch.

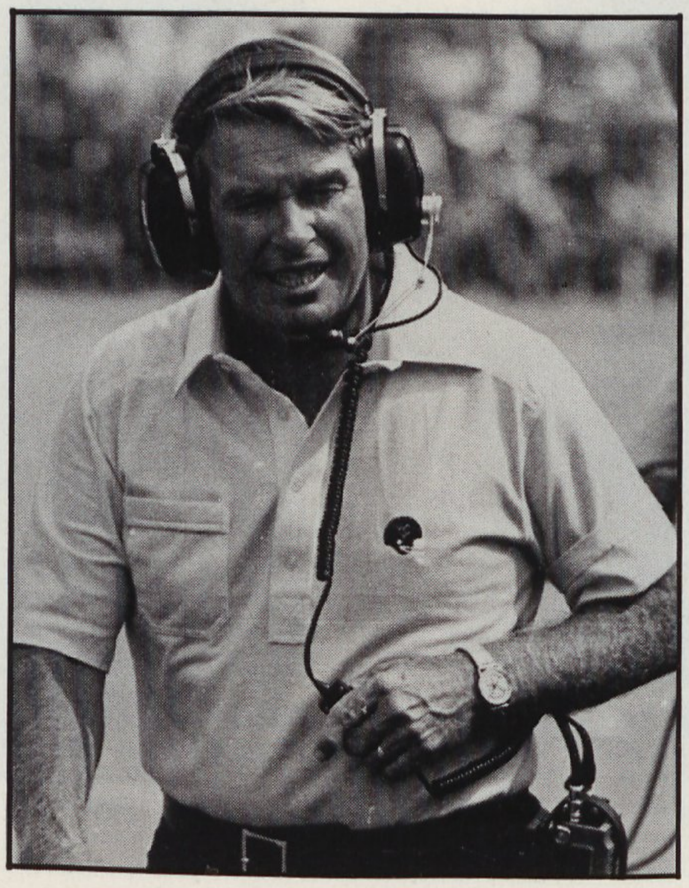
His overall record in 15 years as a head football coach, including nine years at Bowling Green, is an ultra-impressive 101-57-5 (.685) and he is ranked among the top 15 active head coaches in winning percentage.

At West Virginia he has been responsible for some of the school's all-time great triumphs — victories over major college powers such as Oklahoma, Florida, Pitt, Maryland, Penn State and Boston College.

As a matter of fact, 1984 Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie had an 0-4 record against the Mountaineers. Pitt has been unable to score a victory over West Virginia since 1982.

It's no wonder Nehlen has become so successful at West Virginia. He comes from a solid football program, both as a player and as a coach.

A 1955 graduate of Bowling Green, Nehlen was a standout quarterback for the famed Doyt Perry, he began his climb to the top of the coaching elite as an assistant coach at Mansfield (Ohio) High School in 1958. Following the 1959 season, he accepted his first head coaching assignment at Canton South High School.



Following four outstanding seasons as head coach at Canton South, Nehlen entered the collegiate ranks for the first time as an assistant to Chuck Studley at the University of Cincinnati.

The next season, Nehlen was named head coach at Ohio Class AAA power Canton McKinley High School. He guided the top ranking in Ohio's big school class.

Nehlen's success on the high school and college levels took him back to Bowling Green as a defensive coordinator under Bob Gibson. While there, he built the Falcon defense into one of the finest in the school's long and rich tradition. From 1965-68, Nehlen's defensive unit surrendered an average of just 12.9 points per game in 28 contests and recorded six shutouts as the Falcons posted an impressive 19-9 mark.

In 1968, Nehlen was named head coach at his alma mater and proceeded to post a 53-35-4 (.593) ledger during nine seasons. Not only did Nehlen's Falcon teams post winning records in the tough Mid-American Conference, but they also pulled off major upsets over national powers such as Syracuse, Purdue and Brigham Young — victories which earned Nehlen the tag of "Master of the Upset."

Following the 1976 season, Nehlen joined the staff of the legendary Bo Schembechler at the University of Michigan as quarterback coach and recruiting coordinator. While in Ann Arbor, Nehlen coached in two Rose Bowls and a Gator Bowl.

Nehlen earned a bachelor's degree from Bowling Green in 1955 and a master's degree from Kent State in 1965. Both degrees were in education. He is married to the former Merry Ann Chopson. The couple have two children Danny, (26) and Vicki Hostetler (24).

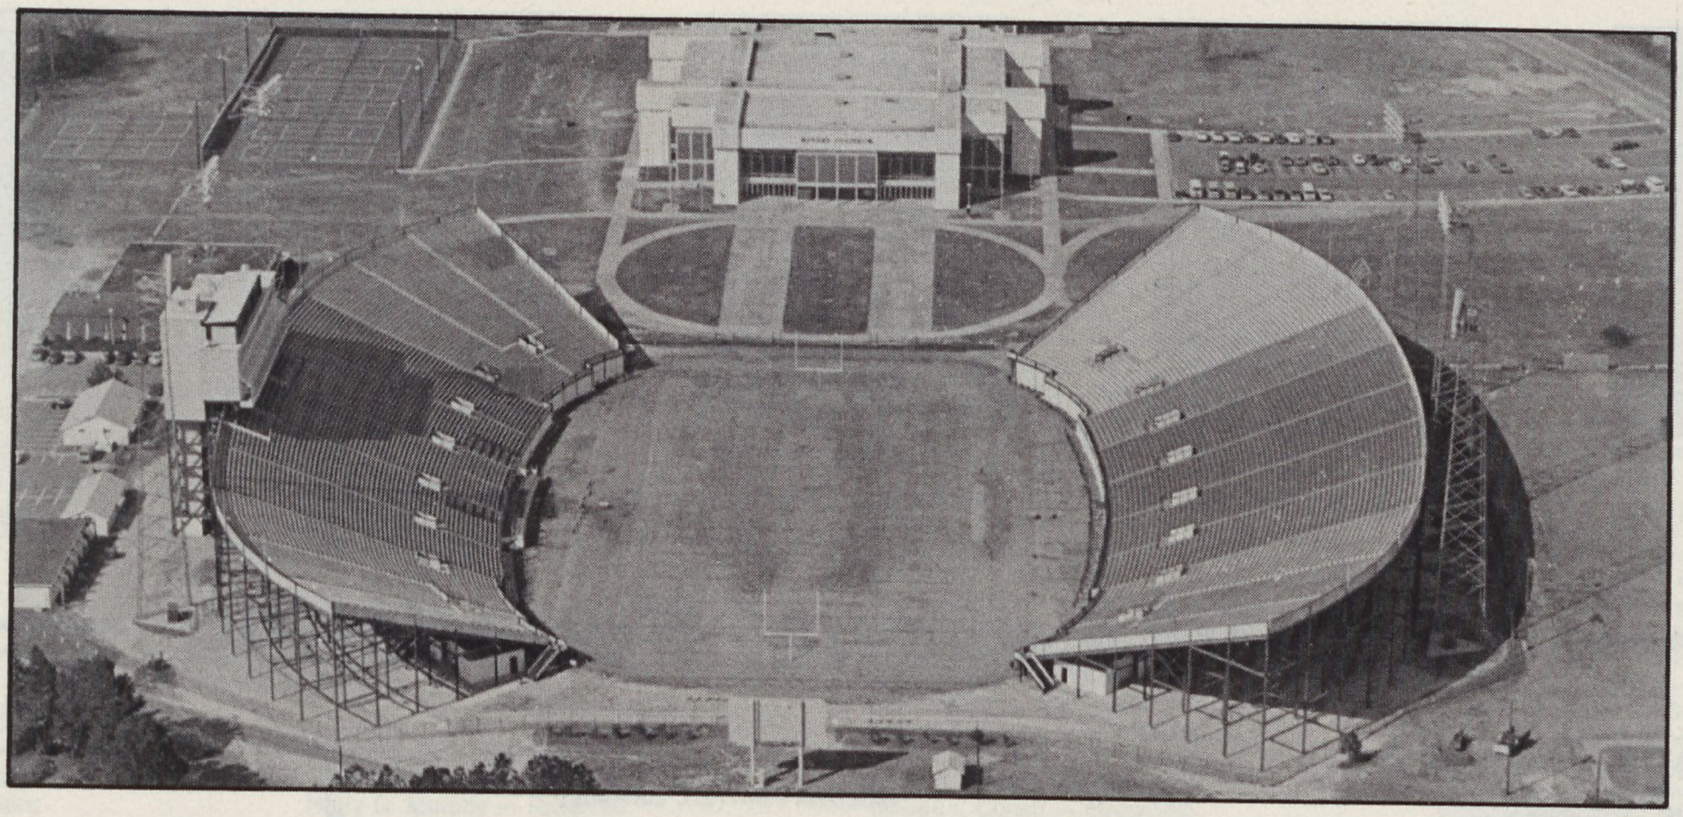
LEADERSHIP EXCELLENCE STARTS HERE

Ficklen Stadium

EAST CAROLINA PIRATES



The James Skinner Ficklen Memorial Stadium was dedicated on September 21, 1963, with East Carolina defeating Wake Forest 20-10.

The dedication game was the culmination of a dream come true for the then East Carolina College and all of eastern North Carolina. The original plan was announced on Oct. 7, 1961, by Dr. Leo Jenkins, Chancellor of the College, at a meeting of the Society of Buccaneers.

Within a year, $283,387 had been raised, although the goal had been only $200,000. With the funds in hand, Ficklen Stadium was built.

The original stadium consisted of the permanent stands on the south side, a small press box and the old lighting system that was removed after the 1974 season. Total cost was $300,000.

The north side permanent seating was constructed in 1968, increasing the stadium seating capacity to 20,000.

The stadium was named for the late James Skinner Ficklen, a Greenville resident, who distinguished himself as one of America's leading tobacconists. At the time of his death in 1955, Ficklen was President and Chairman of the Board of the E.B. Ficklen Tobacco Company of Greenville. He was a close friend of the College and established a financial aid foundation, the Ficklen Foundation, to aid students of the College.

The first major change in Ficklen Stadium was the lighting systems, a change that occurred just before the 1975 season opened. The old inner stadium lights on six poles were removed and replaced with six towers outside the stadium. The system is a combination of metallic and incandescent lights. There are 288 fixtures of 1500 watts each on six 162-foot towers. Cost of the system was $450,000. Engineers say ECU has the best lighted stadium in the southeast.

A radical change greeted fans as the 1978 season opened. An expansion on all four corners boosted Ficklen's seating capacity from 20,000 to 35,000, the third largest stadium in North Carolina. This expansion was made possible with 2½ million dollars through a drive in the spring of 1977.

In addition to more seats, an ultramodern press box with three levels and an elevator for access was built. The much needed press box is one of the finest in the country with space for 92 writers and an entire floor for electronic media. Also, a modern scoreboard with a lightbank message center was placed on the east end of Ficklen.

During the summer of 1983, a complete renovation took place on the playing surface. A new drainage system, a new base of gravel and sand, new treated topsoil and a new grass was installed. The new grass, Tifton 419 Hybrid Bermuda was sprigged at the rate of 600 bushels per acre.

The 1985 season saw all-time and single-game attendance records fall in Ficklen Stadium as the Pirates drew a school-record 153,182 fans and saw the stadium's first sell-out at 35,000 — 35,047 versus the University of South Carolina on Oct. 26, 1985.

Pirate Sports Medicine

Sports Medicine: Assistant—Karen Baker, Director—Rod Compton, Orthopedics—Dr. Ed Bartlett, Team Physician—Dr. James McCallum, Assistant—Greg Beres.

The East Carolina University sports medicine program and curriculum, reputed to be one of the finest in the Southeast, affords every Pirate athlete the best available care and treatment of injuries.

Headed by ECU's sports medicine director Rod Compton, who is a Certified Athletic Trainer and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), and the American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine, the East Carolina sports medicine program offers the best possible prevention, immediate treatment, and rehabilitation of injuries.

Compton, who earned degrees from Ohio University and Bowling Green State and served as Editor-in-Chief of the NATA Journal for six-and-one-half years, is also the director of the ECU Sports Medicine Conference which is held annually in April on the East Carolina campus.

Compton (entering his 17th season) is assisted by team physician Dr. James McCallum, Greg Beres, Certified Athletic Trainer, and Karen Baker, Certified Athletic Trainer, as designated by the NATA. All serve on the staff of the Sports Medicine Conference.

They are assisted by more than a dozen fine community-based professionals who lend valuable time to the program and 30 to 35 undergraduate students majoring in East Carolina University's sports medicine program.

East Carolina's Sports Medicine Center, located directly behind Ficklen Stadium, is a modern and functional training facility. Contained within its air-conditioned and adequate space are equipment for rehabilitation and immediate treatment, and equipment for preventative development of the body such as isokinetics (Orthoron and Fitron), and isotonics (free-style weights). A closer look finds rehabilitative equipment, whirlpools, taping tables, treatment tables, and other modalities such as ultra-sound for the necessary consistent treatment and care for Pirate athletes.

The "Sports Paramedics," as Compton refers to his staff, are in attendance at every athletic event that involves East Carolina University athletes. Radio communication from practice field to the center is a must and a sports medicine vehicle provides instant transportation for injured athletes to the center. Prevention, treatment, and rehabilitation are the three main objectives of the Sports Medicine Division and when an injury does occur, Compton and his staff provide on-the-spot treatment to make certain the injury does not become more serious.

The Sports Medicine Curriculum, a part of the Health and Physical Education Department at East Carolina, is the only undergraduate athletic training program approved by the NATA in eastern North Carolina and one of only two in the state.

Dedication, sincere sensitivity, and individual attention are the basic motivators which distinguish East Carolina University's "Sports Paramedics" from any others. People helping people in a first-class setting. That's East Carolina Sports Medicine!

"People Helping People in a first class setting"

EAST CAROLINA PIRATES

Seventy-nine years of growth and advancement mark the history of East Carolina University. Since the institution began as a teachers school in 1907, East Carolina has grown along with the town of Greenville and the region.

Following its motto, SERVIRE: To Serve, East Carolina has become one of the South's most rapidly developing institutions of higher learning.

Its development has occurred in giant steps in the heart of a region described 25 years ago as a "sleeping giant," just then being stirred to awaken. Then during the last two decades especially, East Carolina experienced spectacular growth, mushrooming from a relatively small liberal arts college into a major university, the third largest in the state, with more than 14,000 students enrolled today.

East Carolina was given university status by an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina in 1967 and with it a mandate to raise and expand its programs and services. Four years later it became a constituent campus of the consolidated University of North Carolina system.

Today, East Carolina has 18 academic departments in its College of Arts and Sciences, nine professional schools including North Carolina's newest school of medicine, the General College, the Graduate School and the Division of Continuing Education.

East Carolina's professional schools are: Allied Health and Social Professions, Art, Business, Education, Home Economics, Medicine, Music, Nursing and Technology.

Undergraduate degrees are offered in 105 bachelor's degree programs along with 107 minor program concentrations. The Graduate School offers 73 master's degree program areas, six sixth-year programs and five programs granting doctoral degrees.

The doctoral programs, in basic medical sciences, were approved by the Board of Governors in the fall of 1979. This authorization represents a special milestone in the progress of the University, placing it among the six private and public institutions in North Carolina to offer Ph.D. level graduate students.

The School of Medicine offers four-year professional MD degrees.

Although its growth in size and new programs has been phenomenal, East Carolina University places emphasis upon academic excellence, upon quality rather than quantity.

East Carolina's physical growth is, in itself, a continuing wonder.

The original campus site — on which the first six buildings were constructed in 1908 — has expanded to a 411-acre campus with 64 buildings. The campus physical plant is valued at nearly $400 million and is constantly being improved and beautified.

A large, modern medical school campus is being constructed on a site several miles west of the main campus in Greenville.

The athletic complex includes a newly-enlarged football stadium, expanding from 20,000 to more than 35,000 seats in 1978. Its press box and lighting are regarded as the finest facilities in the South.

Located in a mild, sunny climate of the Carolinas' coastal plain, East Carolina attracts the bulk of its student body from the 50 or so counties in the eastern tier of North Carolina and southeast Virginia, and from along the eastern seaboard as far north as New York and New England.

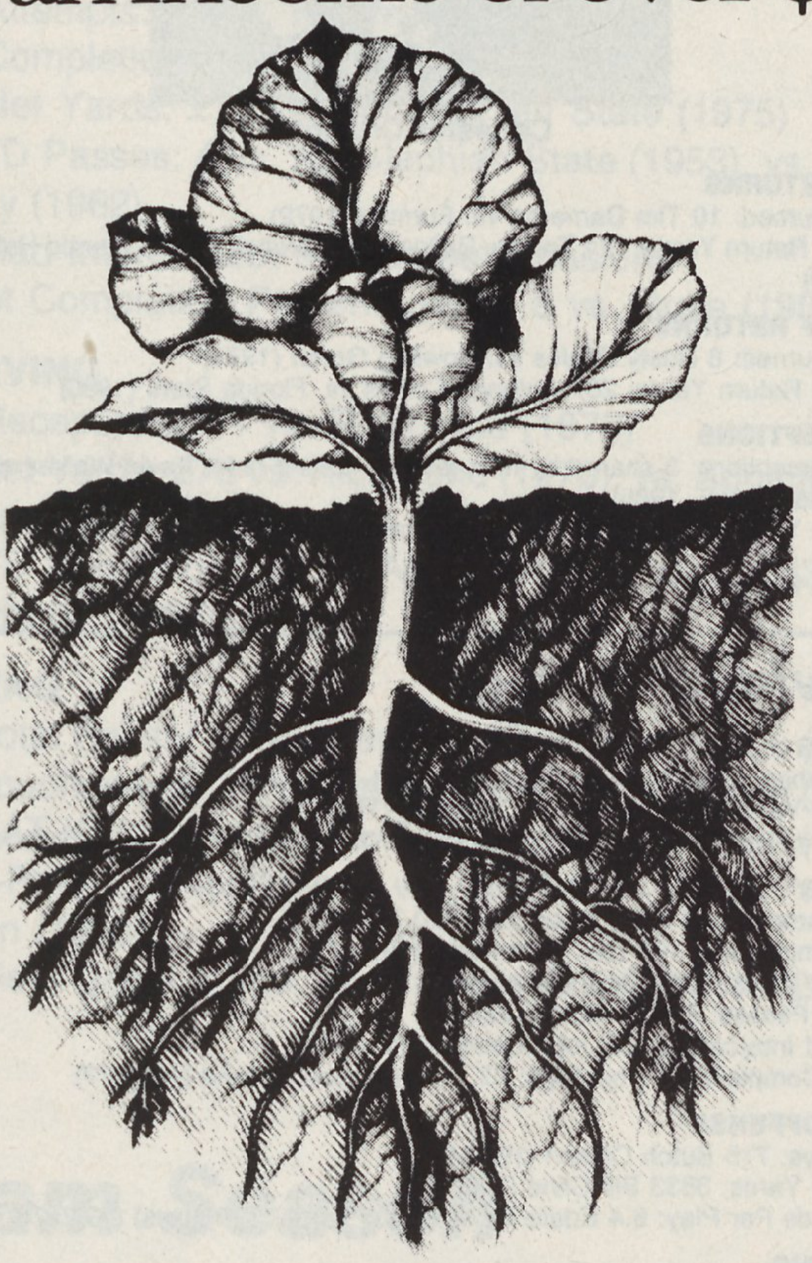
A great many of the more than 36,000 living alumni who have come to East Carolina from other states have chosen to stay in eastern North Carolina to live and work, and have become successful, prosperous and happy citizens of this growing region. There are many other alumni who were attracted to the school and its educational opportunities while serving in the armed forces at such nearby bases as the Camp Lejeune and Cherry Point Marine bases, Seymour-Johnson Air Force Base, or at Fort Bragg, N.C.

East Carolina's faculty of 750 highly-trained professors and academicians engages in research activity supported by some $5 million in annual funding. Remarkable growth of faculty research activity has been noted in recent years. The libraries contain collections of more than 500,000 bound volumes, 8,516 serial subscriptions, 600,000 units of microfilm, 5,201 phonodisc/tape recordings, 320 manuscripts collections comprised of 500,000 items and the latest in library-loan systems. The Computer Center also has the latest in modern computer capability to serve the campus.

In all, East Carolina is fulfilling its potential as a university which is increasingly prominent as a center for educational opportunity and service.

The Humble Beginnings Of A $2.1 Billion Crop.

Tobacco provides American farmers with an income of over $2.1 billion a year. It's one of the United States' most valuable money crops.



As a major supplier of U.S. leaf to world markets, A.C. Monk is a vital link between the people who grow the tobacco and the people who buy it.

And we've always tried to work in the best overall interests of both.

But we're especially proud of our working relationship with U.S. growers.

The people who work the tobacco crops, from seedlings all the way to market.

They're the people who keep the tobacco industry going. And we never forget it. MONK

Basketball 86-87

EAST CAROLINA PIRATES

A blend of returning seniors and a host of newcomers will be counted on as the 1986-87 East Carolina basketball team sets its sights on an upper-division finish in the Colonial Athletic Association.

The Pirates continued to improve last season under the direction of head coach Charlie Harrison as they finished in a regular season tie for fourth place in the Colonial with a 12-16 overall record (6-8 in league play).

Harrison returns six seniors to add the all-important ingredient of leadership for the '86-87 squad, but the fifth-year coach will need strong help from his bumper crop of newcomers and underclassmen to place the Pirates in the thick of the conference race.

"A great deal is dependent upon how our veterans worked and improved during this past off-season," Harrison says. "We're counting on the newcomers to contribute, but it's our veterans who can put us over the top."

The veteran corps is led by senior forward Marchell Henry (6-5, 215, Virginia Beach, VA), who led the Pirates in scoring during his first season a year ago and was named second-team all-Colonial.

Henry averaged 15.6 points and 5.5 rebounds as he emerged as ECU's top offensive weapon after transferring from St. Andrews (NC) College. He scored in double figures in 21 games, including a season-high 28 points vs. American.

Seniors Leon Bass (6-10, 227, Florence, SC) and Keith Sledge (6-3, 190, Roanoke Rapids, NC) also need to improve on their 1985-86 statistics. Bass, who has been a starter throughout most of his four-year career, has yet to emerge as the force in the middle for the Pirates.

Bass has gained almost 60 pounds from his freshman season when he arrived as a 6-10, 170-pound prospect to his present weight of 227, and Harrison feels that the added weight and hard work to improve his game could mean a fine senior campaign for the big man.

"Leon has gained almost 20 pounds in the past year, and he's also playing a great deal this summer," Harrison says. "He was forced to play too many minutes last season and his productivity went down near the end of the season."

Sledge, who started at the forward position despite being only 6-3, is an excellent outside shooter with good leaping ability. He could see more action at the big guard position this year if some of the newcomers produce at the forward slot.

Other seniors returning for their fourth year are William Grady (6-2, 185, Paterson, NJ) and Derrick Battle (6-6, 190. Whitakers, NC).

The Pirates will have a completely new backcourt this season as starters Curt Vanderhorst (12.4 ppg) and Scott Hardy (4.8 ppg) graduated. The leading candidates for starting honors are sophomore transfer Howard Brown at the point guard slot and Sledge or Grady at the number two guard.

Brown (6-4, 195, Raleigh, NC) played last season at Sheraton (WY) Junior College and posted excellent statistics. He averaged 21 points, 11.5 rebounds and 7.5 assists in leading Sheraton to a 23-8 record. The Millbrook High School product could be a major factor as an outside force for the Pirates.

"Howard is a big guard who's very versatile," Harrison says. "I feel he can come right into our program and play the point for us. But he can also play the off guard and small forward position because he's such a great athlete."

Another candidate to see playing time at the point is sophomore Jeff Kelly (5-9, 160, South Orange, NJ). Returning sophomore John Williams (6-3, 175, Atlantic City, NJ) will see action at the two position, while freshman recruit Reed Lose (6-3, 190, Camp Hill, PA) is a fine shooter with good size for the off guard slot.

One forward position is set with Henry returning, but the battle is on between returning sophomore Manuel Jones (6-2, 205, Washington, DC) and newcomers Blue Edwards (6-4, 190, Walstonburg, NC), a JUCO transfer from Louisburg (NC), and freshman Tracy King (6-6, 210, Hampton, VA).

Edwards was a second team junior college All-American selection last season, averaging 22.3 ppg and six rebounds, while King played his senior season of prep school at Oak Hill (VA) Academy, which was ranked seventh nationally among high school teams last season by the USA Today.

"We definitely have some highly-skilled newcomers added to our roster this season, and we'll look to play a different brand of basketball," Harrison says. "We should be a little more up-tempo in our play with a quick and big backcourt.

"The team needs to stay healthy, because we have a lineup of scorers and more flexibility down the line. Our goals have been set to finish in the upper division of the league and to make a serious bid for post-season play."

The Pirates will play a tough non-conference slate of opponents, with dates against Duke, South Carolina, Penn State, VCU, Northeastern, and the prestigious Indiana Classic.

"It's a real good schedule for us," says the ECU coach, "and hopefully it will make us a better basketball team when we enter the league play."

ECU "Big Wheels"

The road becomes a second home for those connected with collegiate athletics. Indeed, being on the road and traveling thousands of miles each year is a major part of the job.

Almost every facet of the job — recruiting, scouting competition, making public appearances, etc. — are activities that keep athletic personnel on the move.

The "wheels" that keep East Carolina's athletic program rolling are a group known as Courtesy Car Dealers, and they play a vital role in allowing the Pirate staff to meet their demands.

Far more than just a fringe benefit, these cars given by the East Carolina Courtesy Car Dealers are necessities for a growing and successful athletic program.

The entire East Carolina staff wishes to thank each dealer providing a car to this fleet of courtesy cars. Each doing so is noted on these two pages.

Thanks Courtesy Car Dealers! You keep the wheels of East Carolina athletics rolling.

ECU Licensing Program

EAST CAROLINA PIRATES

Seventy-nine years of growth and advancement mark the history of East Carolina University. Following its motto, SERVIRE: TO SERVE, East Carolina has become one of the South's most rapidly developing institutions of higher learning and a major force in college athletics with loyal, active alumni worldwide. This same tradition has brought with it the responsibility to see that its proud heritage is appropriately represented.

The demand by University students, alumni, and friends for products depicting a University trademark, logo, or symbol has reached new heights. The number of manufacturers who wish to provide these products also has grown. East Carolina has created a licensing program to ensure that the public properly identify and associate University logos on products bearing the institution's marks.

The ECU licensing program is designed to protect the use of the University's name and insignias. To accomplish this, the University has established formal licensing procedures that also will enable the institution to share in the benefits derived from the commercial use of both its name and symbols.

The licensing program also is designed to establish a cooperative relationship with licensees to assist in the further development of a market for "officially licensed products of East Carolina University." In this way the consumer may be attracted to products that support the University. The licensing program promotes a relationship by which both the University and its licensees will benefit.

The following commonly asked questions and answers provide a brief explanation of the licensing program:

What qualifies as a Trademark, Logo, and Symbol? A trademark is any mark, word, letters or symbol associated with its owner that can be distinguished from its competitors.

Why have a Licensing Program? In announcing the formation of the licensing program Dr. Ken Karr, Director of Athletics of the University, said "We felt it was necessary for the protection and enhancement of the University's image to standardize a single logo and establish a formal process for approval of the varied products marketed with East Carolina University symbols."

What happens to any income received? East Carolina University views this program as an alternative source of funding for the University.

Do other universities have Licensing Programs? Before starting its program, East Carolina University did extensive research and found that over fifty major institutions were operating successful licensing programs. Some of these are: UCLA, USC, Texas, Ohio State, Georgia, Florida, N.C. State, LSU, Michigan, and UNC-Chapel Hill.

What are examples of East Carolina Trademarks? East Carolina University trademarks may be any artwork or logographic work relating to the presentation of the following: East Carolina University, East Carolina, ECU, Pirates, the "Strutting Pirate," The Athletic Seal, the official University Seal and any other design, symbol, art, seal, word, or groups of words that have come to be associated with the University.

What kind of products may be licensed? Any product will be considered by the University, however, no product will be licensed by ECU until it has been approved by the University's Licensing Program Advisory Committee.

What happens if a trademark is used without a license? It is in the best interest of the University to legally protect its marks and the image of the institution through this program.

Veteran Line to Anchor Young ECU Backfield

By Stuart Gantt, ECU Sports Information

Effort, hustle and the ability to outhit the opponent are the three keys to success for offensive linemen, according to East Carolina offensive line coach John Zernhelt.

With these three things in mind, the 1986 ECU veteran offensive front is headed in the direction of success. A senior group from tackle to tackle, they own the experience and leadership characteristics every offensive line must.

Seven seniors lead the group known in ECU football circles as the "HOGS." Standing for "Honor our great strength," the "HOGS" portray a special togetherness shared by no other group.

"Our line is five people working together," said starting left tackle Robert Alexander. "We have good communication and unity."

Joining Alexander on the line are guards Rich Autry and Greg Thomas, center Ken Bourgeois, and tackle Curtis Struyk. Completing the senior front are reserves Paul Hoggard and Shawn Brady.

Anchoring the line this season will be Thomas and Bourgeois. Originally a walk-on, the 6-1, 265, Thomas has travelled with the Pirates the past four seasons. After seeing limited action during 1983's banner season, the Goldsboro native saw considerable playing time in 1984 after switching from center to his now familiar spot at right guard. Eight starts last season coupled with an outstanding spring season set the table for what should be an outstanding senior campaign for Thomas.

A 6-0, 260, native of New Orleans, LA, Bourgeois started every game at center for the Pirates last season after transferring from Mississippi Gulf Coast College where he earned junior college All-America honors. Labeled by coach Zernhelt as an overachiever who can always be counted on, Bourgeois displayed both mental and physical toughness last season.

At left guard for the Pirates is fifth-year player Autry. A converted tight end, the 6-4, 270, Covington, GA product is expected to have a big year if he remains injury free. Autry played in two games in 1983 before injuring his knee and started four games in 1984. Because of a shoulder injury, Autry missed the entire 1985 season. His return this season bolsters the line.

Alongside Autry occupying the left tackle spot is the 6-3, 270, Alexander. A consistent performer, the Ashland, PA native saw extensive playing time last season starting three games. Another fifth-year man, Alexander lends excellent intelligence and experience to the line.

Ken Bourgeois

Converted from fullback to defensive tackle to offensive tackle, Struyk joins Thomas on the right side. An outstanding athlete, the 6-4, 280, Guilford College transfer started the first five games in 1985 before going down with a knee injury. If his consistency continues to improve, Struyk will be an outstanding lineman in 1986.

Another fifth-year man, Paul Hoggard from Windsor returns as a back-up at the guard position. Hoggard has seen a great deal of playing time over the past three seasons but because of chronic knee problems he has been forced into limited duty.

"He has the biggest heart in the world and sets an example by just being on the field," said Zernhelt about Hoggard.

Completing the senior crew is Danville, PA native Shawn Brady. The 6-2, 265, tackle will provide quality depth for the Pirates in 1986. Brady saw limited playing time in 1984 but sat out last season.

What is one common bond held by these seven individuals? Prowess in the weight room.

In today's sophisticated game where maximum strength is imperative, the "HOGS" pay the price. All seven seniors bench press over or close to 400 pounds while the average bench press of the five starters is 417. Five of the seven earned Super Buc awards, the highest honor bestowed upon Pirate weightlifters for their accomplishments this spring.

In charge of this senior dominated group is veteran coach Zernhelt. In his fifth season, Zernhelt is one of three coaches retained from Ed Emory's staff. An intensive competitor, he expects no less than 110% effort from his players.

"Determination and your ability to want to play and succeed," is how the 1977 Maryland graduate summed up the philosophy of his offensive linemen.

"Coach Zernhelt will bring out the best in anybody. He'll play whoever does the best job," said Thomas.

What does Head Coach Art Baker think about his offensive line coach?

"John is one of the top offensive line coaches in the country," Baker said. "He probably gets as much out of his players as anybody I've ever been associated with."

With the preseason hoopla behind them, the offensive linemen know all that remains is for the job to be done.

"Playing in 1983 I saw what it takes to win," Thomas said. "We know it's going to take a lot of hard work, and we're willing to do it.

"We have to keep the attitude of knowing that every time we get the ball we're going to score. It's up to us to get the ball into the endzone."

Because of effort, hustle and the ability to outhit the opponent, Pirate fans should see the ball in the endzone more in 1986.
