

Original

March 24 3

Genl. J. B. McNeill.

Fayetteville N.C.

My Dear Sir:

Replying to your personal letter of the 23rd inst. will say that your former communication containing Gen. Glenn's letter was duly received and after careful examination I came to the conclusion, in as much as there were two Divisions, located at Seafort town, without arms, that the best interests of the service re-