

3

you may designate, and 4th. And, last it will give myself and Mrs. Cook the opportunity, we have long desired of entertaining you and introducing you to an appreciative people-hood. Whitford also spoke of your wish to have the statue placed in a more public place than the Mansion. Your wish shall be a law in that respect after you have looked the situation over.

Since writing the above I am in receipt of your favor of the 27th. ult. and in reply