

Nov 18

Dear Day.

I am just in receipt of yours of the 14th. in relation to extra sessions. I have not seen the article in Work Post to which you refer, but presume that appearing in NY this morning is a summary of it. Sec 20 art 2 of the Constitution sets that matter at rest. No law or precedent for it. The birth of the new legislature was on the day of election. How I wish it was otherwise.

Truly Yours
