

for North, the Democratic legislature of '93, and the Rep. Rep.
Legislature of '95, failed to consider the tax exemption, that it indicates that the sentiment of the people are with the private stock holders. If there is one sentiment more prominent with the people of North Carolina than another, it is that the burden of taxation shall be equally distributed, and that no species of property, save that devoted to religious and educational institutions shall knowingly escape taxation. This answer