

population there has already greatly improved by the use of the ordinary driven wells, compelling the convict^{drunk} only this. They are not permitted under any circumstances to drink from either spring or ditch.

A flowing well with a very strong spout, is reported to have been secured at Hope mills, in Cumberland Co. Judge Belock and I are going there to see it as soon as the is at leisure. Three or four successful borings