

and even fight on in only tends to convince the people that it ~~cannot~~ be doing good, or it would not be about.

If the educated men who own and run the mills, break the people and the new engine operators then they will have the same trouble possibly in a quarter degree. The Bureau does not pretend to be in the interest of the owner but the help and has already done a great work in making the people understand that the State has not only the right but it is
