

April 1

6

W. M. Lawrence Esq.

Superintendent

Oxford N.H.

My Dear Sir:

I see no objection to the paragraph, under the head of "Information," referred to in yours of the 30th ult. or to change you suggest in the body of your letter. The people would like to know that their appropriation would be perpetual, but there must be "limitations" or in their opinion the world would go to wreck.