

April 24. 6

Dear George:

Notwithstanding the order of the Court obtained for Annie Cotton - $200. You thought it was - please see what the exact amount was - she has exceeded her income $200 - and is clamoring for more with outstanding bills due for last year. Their income is now almost entirely cut off and I want to know how I am to protect myself. Can't I get an order to use a part of the principal to pay the necessary bills, such as board?

I have notified her & she says they refuse - and she is very angry

George
